Band Variety Show Always A Bright Spot

If you were fortunate enough to witness the West High Band Variety Show last week you will perhaps agree that it was a mighty fine show and on a par with those presented in recent years.

Our hats are off to Claire Barnhard, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. White and all the others who gave so much time and effort in producing this fine show.

And a big hand for every person taking part in the show. It was a fine production.

The Dog (Anonymous)

I've never known a dog to wag
His tail in glee he did not feel,
Nor quit his old time friend to tag
At some more influential heel.
The yellowest cur I ever knew
Was to the boy who loved him true.

I've never known a dog to show
Half-way devotion to his friend;
To seek a kinder man to know,
Or richer; but unto the end
The humblest dog I ever knew
Was to the man that loved him true.

I've never known a dog to fake
Affection for a present gain,
A false display of love to make
Some little favor to attain.
I've never known a Prince or Spot
That seemed to be what he was not.

And I have known a dog to bear
Starvation's pangs from day to day,
With him who had been glad to share
His bread and meat along the way.
No dog, however mean or rude,
Is guilty of ingratitude.

A dog has been termed as "Man's Best Friend" but it seems that many folk in this area have forgotten that phrase and their faithful friend.

According to information released this week only a few of "Man's Best Friends" have been afforded the protection of anti-rabies immunization. Their faithful friends are being left wide open to the ravages of the dread-ful killer—RABIES. A little time and a small sum of money for the shots would protect YOUR FRIEND FROM DEATH BY RABIES.

Local Civic Groups Block Grant Of Liquor License

Protests of local church and school officials against the transfer of a D5 liquor permit by Albert Hawraney, from an E. Rich-st grill to a location at 2824 W. Broad-st, bore fruit this past week with announcement by the Liquor Control Board of refusal to permit the transfer.

The application of Hawraney, Columbus restaurant proprietor, to transfer the permit was refused and rejected by the liquor department in a ruling handed down Friday, Mar. 30.

Francis K. Cole, chief of the Liquor Department Permit Division, Friday, issued the following order:

"This matter having been carefully considered upon the application, report of investigation, report of hearing and allied documents, the subject application is refused and rejected for the reasons hereinafter set forth:

The Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church, West Broad Street Elementary School, West Junior and Senior High School, and St. John Evangelical Church object to the issuance of the permit applied for.

Accordingly a hearing was held under the provisions of Ohio General Code Section 6064-16. Upon objection to the jurisdiction of the department to determine said hearing on the ground that the institutions objecting were more than 500 feet from the proposed location, the department finds that the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church is within five hundred feet of the proposed location and the department has jurisdiction to consider the objections of said institution and to hold the hearing upon the request thereof.

The department considers the objections of the Westgate Evangelical Brethren Church well founded and sustains the same.

The department finds that the other institutions named are not within five hundred feet of the proposed location and that the department does not have consideration to consider such objections under the provisions of Ohio General Code Section 6064-16.

Accordingly, transfer of application No. 3273 is hereby refused and rejected."

Other objectors to the transfer of the liquor permit were "atilda L. Stuart, principal . . . ground Street Elementary School; Rev. C. T. Langholz of St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church and Irvin F. Young, principal of West Junior and Senior High School. Rev. Harold Dutt is pastor of the Westgate EUB Church whose objection to the permit was sustained.

Nine Are Fined As Officials Step Up Enforcement Action

Action on a city and county-wide basis in the drive against rabies went into high-gear Saturday; nine West Side residents were arraigned in court on rabies quarantine violation charges, Mayor James A. Rhodes ordered city health officials to invoke "rigid enforcement" of the quarantine, and six health inspectors were assigned to enforce the quarantine "crack-down."

Nine West Siders were hailed into the court of Justice of the Peace William S. Brown on charges of violation of the current rabies quarantine. Fines totaling $90.00 and costs of $72.00 were levied against the defendants.

The arrests of the violators were made as Dr. Ollie M. Goodloe, city health chief, admitted that the grimly serious rabies epidemic here is increasing. He said that the dog quarantine has been ineffective and that large numbers of dogs are running "as free as ever."

The health chief ordered six inspectors to full-time duty tracking down owners of dogs at large. Owners will be prosecuted under the quarantine regulation providing for fines up to $100 and 90 days in jail. Dr. Goodloe and Mayor Rhodes agreed that the only way to enforce the quarantine is by striking at dog owners, since there are not enough officials to track down the estimated 30,000 animals in Columbus.

Fuel was added to sentiment for an "all-out campaign" when Dr. Joseph Drayer, deputy city health commissioner, revealed that only about one-twelfth of the city's dog owners have had their pets given the anti-rabies shots since compulsory immunization was ordered Feb. 23. More than 20,000 dogs remain to be immunized before the deadline of May 1.

The latest rabid dog caught by the Humane Society's enforcement officer was located Thursday at its home at 870 Clarendon-av. The dog is known to have ranged from Brown-rd throughout the Rainbow addition. It reportedly bit at least 11 persons. Examination by health officials revealed that it was actively rabid. The dog had been missing from its home for five days before it was caught.

The nine dog owners brought into Justice of the Peace Brown's court Saturday entered the court irked at their arraignment and the prospects of fines. Many of the quarantine violators were Brown's neighbors. However, the group's emotions were changed when they learned that the rabid dog caught on Clarendon-av had spent last Wednesday in their neighborhood, possibly mingling with their pets.

Severe admonition by Brown and Humane Society enforcement officer Cecil G. Crosby and Crosby's explanation of the mounting danger caused by the increase in rabies in the area brought forth remarks like, "This neighborhood is gonna be rough for dogs after today."

Those found guilty of violation of the quarantine and fined Saturday were:

F. R. Watson, 1035 Hart-rd, $10 fine and $8.20 costs; Frank Adams, 1235 Brown-rd, $10 fine and $8.05 costs; Lester Beaver, 1875 Little-av, $10 fine and $7.90 costs; Carroll Knox, 1895 Hopkins-av, $10 fine and $7.90 costs; Edward Hall, 1883 Little-av, $10 fine and $7.90 costs; Richard Sibley, 1694 Hopkins-av, $10 fine and $7.90 costs; Robert Fisher, 1231 Hart-rd, $10 fine and $8.20 costs; Chester Schug, 1855 Hopkins-av, $10 fine and $7.90 costs, and George Gregory, 1491 Little-av, $10 fine and $8.05 costs.

PARKING PLAN IS APPROVED BY CITY TRAFFIC COMMISSION

The Traffic and Transportation Commission of Columbus last Thursday afternoon in a meeting at Central Police Headquarters with representatives of the Hilltop Business Association gave a nod of approval to recommendations of the local business group for one hour parking on the Hilltop.

The HBA had recommended to the commission a plan for one hour parking on W. Broad-st on both sides of the thoroughfare from Highland-av to Roys-av and from Westmoor to Sylvan-av. The ban for parking more than one hour in this area would be in force from 7 a. m. until 6 p. m. daily.

On Sullivant-av one hour parking would be invoked from Central-av on the north side to Guilford-av, from Eureka-av to Burgess-av and from Harris-av to Powell-av. On the south side from Harris-av to Hague-av.

The parking plan as approved would be based upon a lenient enforcement and in cases of flagrant violators the members of the association would notify the police department for remedial action to be taken.

Next move on the part of the Traffic Commission is to present its recommendations to Columbus City Council for adoption into form of a city ordinance in order for the plan to become law.

Civic Clubs OK Bond Issue

Two West Side organizations, the Hilltop Community Council and the Hilltop Business Association, gave their endorsements last Friday to the four-point "Plan for Progress" to be voted on Apr. 10.

Approval of the two West Side groups for better schools, new expressways and an enlarged airport followed closely on the similar endorsements announced by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and the Columbus Federation of Labor.

Notices of the latest endorsements received by Chairman Paul E. Gingher of the Metropolitan Committee came from Jack Morris, secretary of the Hilltop Business Association, and Jerry G. Spears, Jr., president of the Hilltop Community Council.

Keystone Class Sponsors Dinner

A round-up attendance was held Wednesday night at Hillcrest Baptist Church for the Church Family Fellowship Night program held under the auspices of the Keystone Class.

A covered dish fellowship dinner preceded the program in which the Keystoners provided the beverages and unique decorations of seasonal tables for spring, summer, fall and winter. Those in attendance at the dinner were seated at tables appropriate with their birthdays.

Business -- Not Just "For Men Only" As Hilltopper Hazel Bercaw Proves

Hazel Bercaw

Men who are "old timers" on the Hilltop, have been featured in the thumbnail sketch series, but many business women have been on the Hilltop as long, or longer than they.

A leading example of Hilltop women in business is Hazel Bercaw, 2690 W. Broad-st, owner of the Hazel Bercaw Beauty and Gift Shop, 2842 W. Broad-st. She opened her shop 28 years ago and has been at the present W. Broad-st address for the past eight years.

Her shop is in a sense a three generation one, since both her mother, Mrs. Clara Belle Mullin, and her daughter, Mrs. Lucille Parkinson, assist her in its operation.

Mrs. Bercaw limits her hobbies to one: her gift shop. She declares, "My vocation is in the beauty shop and my avocation, the gift shop."

She is acting again this year as makeup chairman for the Hilltop Minstrel Show. She is the chairman of the booster prizes committee of the Hilltop Business Association, a member of the Eastern Stars, Pythian Sisters, Hairdressers' Guild of Ohio and First Church of Christ Scientist.

Equestrian, Dramatics Allied Clubs Offer Group Interests

EQUESTRIAN CLUB

The name West and the symbol of Cowboys is not completely fictional for there is an active Equestrian Club at West High School. The members ride in many of the community parades such as the Homecoming, the Annual Mum Show, and the Christmas Parade. Several of the members have appeared in parades in Dayton and Cincinnati.

Earl Reed is the adviser of the club, which helps keep alive an interest in horses.

DRAMATICS

Junior High Dramatics, a course which may be chosen as an elective through the eighth and ninth grades, is concluded in a production by the ninth graders in the fall.

Other activities of the department consist of plays for P.T.A. meetings, assemblies, and for special occasions.

THE DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club of West High School was organized in 1944 by a group of seniors who were interested in dramatics. Its chief purpose is to further interest in dramatics, and to extend knowledge of the stage and the fine arts, and to provide pleasure.

Anyone who is a junior or senior student in dramatics may become a member of this club. The dues are 25 cents a semester, and the meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month at 8 a. m. There are, also, occasional night meetings where special programs of entertainment are planned and presented.

Theater parties, plays in assembly, sixth period skits, and full scale productions are only a few of the many activities and projects of the Dramatics Club.

ALLIED YOUTH CLUB

Allied Youth is a movement in alcohol education.

The education program consists of visits to court rooms, speeches by well-informed citizens, movies on alcohol, visits to traffic courts, divorce courts, and police courts.

The Allied Youth "good times" are designed to provide a fellowship that is at all times wholesome, entertaining, and alcohol-free.

All students enrolled in West High are eligible to join the club, sponsored by Mr. Lehman.

Meetings of this club are held bimonthly in the morning before school at 8

West High Industrial Arts Students Display Marked Talents

By virtue of good workmanship among boys in the industrial arts department at West High School, choice products made by the boys were placed on exhibit in the West Junior High School office last week.

Many West High boys had entries also in the state-wide industrial arts competition at a convention held at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel last week.

Special pieces of furniture made by the boys loom large in the local school exhibit.

Take, for example, the corner cupboard made by Jim Ell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ell, 673 S. Richardson-av. Jim has been hard at work making the cabinet during his industrial art class periods spanning a period of five months. It shows the marks of professional workmanship.

Jim invested $22.00 in material, solid walnut wood, glass and hardware, and the finish and design will compare favorably with the best of corner cupboards. He has also made a book case and stands of various kinds.

A semester's work brought to completion a desk, made by Lewis Proper, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Proper, 155 S. Southampton-av. With but a few dollars appropriated to the project Lewis made both a useful and beautiful piece of furniture.

Scores of others, whose handmade articles are creating attention, are included in the exhibit.

A man tried to train a fish to live out of water. The first day he kept the fish out of the bowl for one hour. The second day, for two hours. The third, for three hours, and so on until it would live in the air for a day at a time.

One day the man was walking over a bridge, while the fish, which had become fond of its master, followed close behind. But, oh, the pity of it, the fish slipped, fell off the bridge into the river, and was drowned.

The liberal commission plan for Hilltop Record solicitations is open to all church groups interested in raising money for their organizations. Any interested groups should contact Mr. Cunningham, Record circulation manager.

Because of the whisky shortage in Scotland, Glasgow citizens are reportedly imbibing metal polish carbonated with coal gas. Sounds like a quick way for cigaret smokers to get "lit."

Bond Issue Represents Tax Saving

By voting for improved schools, an expanded airport, and a modern expressway system on April 10, Columbus can have all three major improvements at an increase of only four-fifths of a mill over present tax rates.

This is the statement made by County Auditor Fred C. Dunn, in a letter to Paul R. Gingher, chairman of the Metropolitan Committee of Franklin County.

This means, Auditor Dunn said, that "on a property listed for taxation at $4000, the .83 of one mill would not exceed $3.32 per year on the property owner's tax bill"—less than a penny a day for all three improvements for the average home-owner.

Mr. Gingher points out that while the total cost of the improvements exceeds $57,000,000, the local cost will be only a little more han $23,000,000. The federal government will pay 80 per cent of the cost of expressways and 50 per cent on the airport.

"This big contribution of federal funds for the expressways and airport, amounting to more than $34,000,000, means a tremendous savings for local property owners, for all of that money comes from sources other than real estate taxes," Gingher said.

"Accepting the federal aid now means that Columbus will be getting back that much of the taxes which have already been collected and taken out of our community. If we do not accept, this money, already allocated, will go elsewhere."

"We have examined the bond issue proposal which will be submitted to Columbus voters April 10, totaling $11,500,000 for Columbus City Schools, $3,388,100 for Columbus Airport, $5,850,000 for city expressways, and $2,500,000 for the county expressways.

"If these bonds are issued over a five year period at interest rates not exceeding 2%, the maximum cost in any year will not exceed 2.41 mills.

"Taking into consideration the retirement of older bonds as they mature, the average increase in the Columbus tax rate over the five year period of 1953-1957 inclusive will not exceed .83 of one mill.

"On a property listed for taxation at $4000, the .83 of one mill would not exceed $3.32 per year on the property owner's tax bill."

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

As reported last week, the so-called aluminum shortage appears to be more a matter of manipulation than necessitated by facts.

• • •

A special Congressional committee headed by Rep. Celler (D., N.Y.) has come out against Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer's pet plan to finance a half billion dollar new plant for Alcoa's Canadian affiliate, Alcan, with American taxes.

C. W. Harder

• • •

The plan was found to be as lightweight as aluminum.

• • •

Alcan agreed to sell the U. S. a billion pounds of metal from the proposed new plant. It would take 3 to 5 years to build the plant. In the meantime, it is presumed, Alcan would continue to sell to Russia's satellites from present production.

• • •

Obviously, Sawyer's plan would have put Alcoa, and Alcan, already in control of more than 50% of aluminum, on the road back to the more than 85% control they jointly enjoyed prior to 1941.

• • •

Rep. Celler's committee, in condemning the plan, calls for encouragement of immediate productive expansion by independent American producers. Whether Congressional desires will again be thwarted by high level bureaucracy remains to be seen.

• • •

All impartial facts seem to indicate domestic production can well exceed demand if free competitive enterprise in the industry is allowed.

• • •

Alcoa boomer, testified before the committee that he had been asked to submit plans to produce another 152,000 tons, then received a "go ahead" for only 106,000 tons.

• • •

This was one of the reasons why the committee asked Jess Larson, head of the General Services Administration, why the U. S. aluminum expansion program approved by the government has so far been limited to creating an additional production of only 446,000 tons.

• • •

His reply was that present requirements given him do not indicate need for any additional production. Larson said his personal opinion is that more production is needed, but officially he can't do anything about it.

• • •

This, in itself, is an odd commentary. Larson, as head of the GSA, is responsible for maintaining stockpiles, but presumably lacks authority to go with this responsibility.

• • •

This position of sitting on a picket fence is not new to Larson. After Korea, when GSA announced plan to sell huge government industrial alcohol plant to Schenley, Larson told protesting Congressmen sale would be stopped, issued a letter to this effect. But despite this action, sale went ahead. To this day everybody in Washington, including presumably Larson, wonders "How?"

• • •

The House Small Business Committee, headed by Rep. Wright Patman (D., Texas) announces it is splitting into 5 task forces to seek out nation's small businesses, get firsthand facts.

• • •

This is a move that leaders of organized small business have sought. The findings, presented in the able, aggressive manner of Rep. Patman and his Congressional colleagues may result in fireworks.

READER COMMENT

Letters To The Editor

This newspaper invites letters from its readers on subjects of timely interest. All letters, however, must be not more than 400 words in length and all must be signed by the writer. The writer's name will be omitted if requested.

Dear Editor!

The saying, "Seeing is believing", has more truth than fiction in it. Beautiful word pictures can be painted by fluent speakers, but mental images can not be as impressive as seeing the object described.

We listen to religious services over the radio, or to a news broadcaster, or to an athletic contest and we form a mental picture of them, but when we see them visualized on the television, how different they are from the mental picture.

Jesus used what is known in teaching as the objective method which leads from the known to the related, unknown. He spoke often in parables, using some familiar object, as the fig tree or mustard seed, to teach a spiritual lesson.

The television has been used in a most effective way by the crime investigating committee to bring to light the extent of corrupt practices in high places as well as crime and racketeering by gangsters in low places. No other medium could have done this with such dramatic effect as the television.

Televising crime and corruption has alerted people in all activities of life. Not only has it alerted politicians and law enforcing officers to a fuller sense of their duty, but it has filled the minds of the public with righteous indignation. It has aroused an incensed people to their responsibility and duty to exercise their right of franchise in a way that will best serve the community, state and nation, partisan politics notwithstanding.

Naturally it is to be expected to find corrupt politicians and gangsters, opposing the use of the television in investigations, but it is surprising to learn of people of high moral standing objecting because it might ruin the reputation of some innocent person. Shall we refuse to use the courts of justice because once in a great while mistakes are made and innocent people are imprisoned?

We have heard the objection that crime exposure through the television will have an ill-effect on children. We wonder why these people didn't raise an objection to the radio? For years we have heard "bang, bang, bang. I got him" expressions from boy and girl youngsters clad in cowboy suits. We want to commend Mr. Hartley for the fine editorial in the issue of the 29th. May more of such follow.

BATTER UP!
By Lora Lu Liste

During the first week of April, the Hilliards High School girls' gym class plans to begin softball. Later Miss Swartz will teach them to play tennis.

The past week the gym class has had a vacation from gym since the stage has been in use for the Senior Class Play.

Mrs. Anna Lavergne, Church Point, Louisiana, says she has a word of advice for those folks who seem always blue, mad at the world, or think cloudy skies are always hanging over their heads. Mrs. Lavergne says most folks when they act that way must not be feeling well . . . 'cause a poor disposition is a sure sign of trouble. Mrs. Lavergne says, just taking herself as an example . . . now that she is taking HADACOL there isn't a person in the world who can make her mad for HADACOL seemed to be what she needed. Yes HADACOL may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mrs. Lavergne's own statement: "You don't know how wonderful it feels to be in such good condition— after two years of feeling run-down. I had a very poor appetite—in fact, food didn't agree with me at all. I had a hard time sleeping nights . . . sometimes I would stay awake until 1 or 2 in the morning and then the next day I would feel tired and groggy all day long. You have no idea how terrible I felt. Now all this is gone . . . yes, now that I have been taking HADACOL, I feel wonderful. I get lots of good, sound sleep, have a fine appetite and just lots of energy. I can eat any kind of food now and it doesn't bother me a bit. I just can't begin to thank HADACOL."

Don't Put Off Taking HADACOL . . . do, as thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron are doing. The HADACOL formula is very effective for stomach distress, insomnia due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, and a general run-down condition if they are due to such deficiencies. Make up your mind to give HADACOL a chance to help you as it has helped others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or economy size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your money will be refunded.

City High Baseball League Opens Season Next Tuesday

By Dave Miller

City League baseball will start next Tuesday with three games topping the list.

West will play host to North, Central visits South and Linden is at East. Aquinas will draw the bye and will open against West in its opener Friday.

Aquinas

The Terriers' new coach, Father McKenna, will have one of the highest number of returning lettermen back from last season in the entire loop.

The new mentor will be greeted by some seven veterans from last year's squad. He will have practically an experienced infield, the diamond crew holding first-baseman Paul Bean; second-sacker Lou Casparro; shortstop Dick Burkley; and third-baseman Herman Wihl.

Russ Reckling and Ben Nye are again available for catching duties, with Reckling, a first stringer all last season, back again for next season.

Bob Felice and Bob Mangan, also a pitcher, are the only veterans among outfielders. The pitching corps are also lean except for Jim O'Donald and "Lefty" Reiser.

Central

Coach Dave Parks, despite weather conditions, is hoping to have one of the best Pirate seasons in many moons, with nine lettermen returning.

Catchers returning include last year's regular, Ray Blake, and Roger Reynolds. Howard Cassady leads the infield candidates, returning for his third straight year of shortstopping.

Ralph Bollinger returns at first base; Eddie Valentino at second, and Joe Humphrey at the hot corner.

However, outfielders are at a premium, with only Dick Dent returning for action. The little slugger slammed two homers off Phil Young at Central last season.

Vernon Feen and Frank Wiseman are back for pitching chores, and another curve-baller, "Sonny" Scott, if he can stay eligible.

East

Jackie Moore, in his second year of diamond coaching, is seeking outfielders for his 1951 diamond crew.

However, his biggest trouble is trying to make the East sports followers switch their thoughts from state basketball laurels back to spring sports.

In the infield, Coach Moore has Dick Linson, all-state tournament guard, at first base; Billy Kreamer at second; and Ike Clegg at third base.

Bob Rice will be available among veterans returning for the back-stopping post while utility men from last year receiving letters included Dave Dolezal and Joe Riley.

McKinley

The two-year defending champions, according to Coach Hal Martin, and his prospects are ready and waiting to repeat. However, like the rest of the city coaches, Martin finds outfielders hard to get.

Of his five returning lettermen, none are outfielders, the team having lost last year's top trio of sluggers as well as speedsters, Dick Birkhead (team's top hitter), Bill Schwab and Chuck Weber, through graduation.

The quintet returning this year does include, however, two veteran moundsmen in Bob Vannett and Schoonie Troutman. The remaining three are first baseman Paul Burns, third-sacker Gary Barber, and shortstop Joe Ciminello, without a doubt the team's most valuable player last season as it rolled to the city championship for the second consecutive season with a loop mark of 11-1.

North

Six lettermen form the nucleus for this year's Polar Bear nine which again will be coached by Mike Hagley, probably assisted by Tom Watson of other OSU students in physical education.

Three pitchers and a duo of catchers are among this number in addition to a second sacker, Gene Wilson, only a junior. The twirlers include Dave Masters, Bob Eckelberry and Bob Gardell; with Jack Timmons and Bob Green as receivers.

However, from there the North coaching staff is in the dark as to who will form the remainder of the lineup, although Crestview and Indianola, their two junior highs, had successful seasons in '50.

South

"We'll have one good pitcher, you can be sure of that," were the words of likeable Dale Helmick, South High's baseball mentor, who takes the diamond sport on the Ann St. lot seriously.

The pitcher in reference is 11-B George Treneff, who as a sophomore last season won seven and lost only four games, in addition to hurling the league's only no-hit performance—against Central, 8-1.

However, you rather doubt Helmick's story when you look at his list of returnees from '50—numbering seven in total. However, he states that many teams in the 12-game City League have gone through to championships on arm of one good pitcher—especially if he averages 11 strikeouts per game as did Treneff last season.

Also back in the fold at South are infielders Dick Wagner, Dick Robeson, Bob Allen and Bob Hewitt; outfielders Bob Nolan, George Wirtz and Bob Strawser, and catcher Ray Deraurex.

West

Again we go to another school which takes its baseball seriously in a group headed by Coach George Williams, where six lettermen return for '51 action.

Of those six, three were starters when West closed its season on May 31 last season. Second-baseman Russ Friend, outfielder Ron McElwee and infielder-outfielder Morris Dobbs, competing in his third season in a West baseball suit, hitting .285 as a sophomore, and .410 last year.

The other three, Pitchers Bill South and Ted Fladt, and Catcher Ron Farley, are expected to see plenty of service this season in addition to Kenny Garber, Jim Smith, Bill Haire, Dick Hutchison, Al Shade, Dwight Reynolds, Don Mers and Bob Thornton, as well as others yet to prove themselves.

West Golfers Open Season Next Monday

West's golf team, coached by Harold Washburn, will open its season at Beacon Light Monday evening.

However, at the present Washburn hasn't decided on his first team. Guido DePaul and Bob Shivers seem sure to make it, both lettermen from last season, but the rest "is up to a senior, Arlowe Bryant and Jim McCarty, in addition to John Morison, Karl Cline and Gary Underwood."

The coach also decided against a "B" team because of the lack of interest this year. Only seven reported, so, at present, prospects for a "B" team seem unlikely.

Grain Dealers Hold Annual Spring Meeting

At the annual spring meeting of the Central Ohio Grain Dealers last Friday at the Plain City Grange Hall, Carl Pitstick of the Waynesville Farmers' Exchange spoke on new credit regulations adopted in the three county area in the Waynesville district. Following the speech and discussion, President John Russell of the Russell Grain Co., Hilliards, appointed Kenneth Bristly of the Grove City Farmers Exchange to a special committee.

Pfc. Davis L. Kelly, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver R. Kelly, 210 S. Central-av, has completed his Marine boot training and has been given the marksman medal for his work on the rifle range. He enlisted Jan. 16. Before that he was an employe of the Industrial Ceramic Products Co.

The Hilltop Mixed Doubles Tournament started Saturday, Mar. 31. The top ten in this tourney will be published next week. Johnny Murnane put together games of 207-214-215 for a 636 series for Grotto Gem. Keat Builders connected for 831 and Grotto Gem tallied 2817. Bill Kirby hit for 230 in a 611 series Tuesday night. His team, Ross Hansel Real Estate, hit for 902-2536.

Herb Awe and Loren Hazelton paced Hirsch & Hirsch Insurance to four highs Thursday night. The former had 221 and the latter a 582 series. The team posted 895-2580. Jim Matheny hit 216 and Dick Wheeler racked up 563. Ohio State Construction Company built a 918 and Seiller's Department Store sold a 2569. Howard Fox and Jim Bishop had 205's as the former totaled 558.

Frances Patridge competed for 203 in a fine 557 total. She paced Corner Cafe to a neat 853 in a 2391 total. Edna Staley had 190 and Marian Ferguson totaled 492 on Wednesday night. Kirwins Cafe had 790-2216. Ferguson again was high as she had 170-486 Tuesday night.

Robert J. Hart, 47 West Park-av, was sworn into the navy last week and assigned to the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Jim Ackers

Jim Ackers, well-known Hilltop athlete, now a professional baseball player, reported last week to the Big Spring "Bronco" of Big Springs, Tex., to begin spring training with that team as an outfielder.

The good-looking outfielder, who performed last season for Newport, Tenn., made the trip to Texas by car, driving from Columbus to San Antonio. When asked why he traveled that route rather than head straight for west Texas, Ackers said that he had never been to San Antonio before and wanted to see as much of the state as possible on his trip.

Jim is now 20 years of age and thought to be reasonably draft exempt by virtue of two hitches in the army. Here on the Hilltop he has three rooters for his success in the Lone Star State. Those three are his mother, Mrs. Harold C. Davis, 72 S. Eureka-av, and two brothers, still at West High, Frank in 11A and Robert, a 7A student.

W. Broad Landmark Removed

Harold D. Cramer, 570 Wiltshire-rd, president of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, and Jack Morris, 52 S. Eureka-av, secretary of the Hilltop Business Association, are pictured above as they looked at the remains of the dead dog on W. Broad-st across from the entrance to the Columbus State School. The dog lay near the curbing of W. Broad-st from Feb. 26 until 8:30 a. m. Tuesday. Attention was focused on the dog last week, after The Hilltop Record ran a picture of it. Under orders from the mayor's office, William C. Anderson, superintendent of the Columbus department of street cleaning, was shown the dog Friday noon by the editor of the Record. Immediate disposal was assured. The dog was removed Tuesday morning.

Camp Chase Post News

By John Martindale

Easter time is the time for eggs, the time for eggs is—Whoa up—that's a wrong start but anyhow after Easter comes the Legion and the Camp Chase Birthday. Some people seem to get ashamed of birthdays but the Legion and ole Camp Chase Post should never get that way.

On Apr. 26 in the evening we are going up to the Riviera Club and celebrate the birthday of Camp Chase Post. If you have ever attended a Post birthday party you will agree that it is something to attend and you will be sure to plan on it. If you have never been lucky enough to attend one in the past then just take our word for it and tell your lovely lady to get out her glad rags because on that night her big handsome man is taking her out for dinner. P.S.—You can also tell her she can wear her evening gown if—and if she don't want to she don't have to because there will be a lot of gals there who—well, some will and some won't. The point is, be sure to be there. Remember too that you may strike it rich that night. Come and see.

You know there are committees and then there are committees. It does you good to hear of one where they really work hard and do things don't it? I heard the recommendations of a County or District Committee on Buckeye Boys' State that sure indicate that there is a good thinking committee trying to do a good job. You and I know what a swell job they have been doing in teaching Americanism and good government to these fine boys each year. Did you ever think about how many high schools there are that have never yet had even one boy get to go to Buckeye Boys' State? This committee has been thinking about it and they are going to do their best to make it possible, not for more boys to go because they can't easily control that, but for more communities to be represented there.

That is really American.

Rome Business Group Plans Two Speakers For Tuesday Meeting

Raben Draper, Hilltop attorney, is scheduled as one of the principal speakers at the Apr. 10 meeting of the Rome Business Association to be held at the Lutheran Church of that community, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

Draper's address to the association will be on the "Incorporation of Rome."

Another speaker also scheduled for the evening program is H. S. Corn of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., who will speak on the subject, "Commercial Lighting".

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

Did you know . . .

That HERMAN SCHULZE will probably be sent to Hollywood upon public demand? Yes, he was quite a sensation at the Hilltop Lions Club party. Didn't even recognize him when he appeared as a chorus girl. You were a great ACTRESS, HERMAN.

That these Hi Ridge storms are trying to get the better of us? MORRIS BOWEN's tree was partly torn and broken last week; the HARLAN BROWN'S milk bottles were blown over and one broken; garbage can lids were reported blown off and later found in another neighbor's territory; rain found its way into the FRANK SHEA home and they all had to go to bed with umbrellas. These cloudbursts are surprising; they take us off our feet.

That ANDY FREEMAN took MARY, his wife, out to dinner three times in one week? We're wondering if she deserves it for working so hard cooking all the meals so regularly—or whether ANDY thinks he himself deserves three GOOD meals "out." A thousand pardons, Mary. We're joking.

That JIM CURTIN has taken to his fiddle again? He and his dog entertain the children after school, and he loves it.

That MABEL FREEMAN is papering all her closets with moth proof lining? She'll never see a moth, now. That's the best seller out. She's killing two birds with one stone, as it were.

That ANN McWILLIAMS had a fright when she was alone the other night. She gave her husband no peace the next day, and made him inspect their chimney where she had heard the noise. McWilliams found an owl caught on a brick and almost dead—the owl, I mean.

That HENRY HIGHFILL just came back from his vacation? Yes, he went to New York. Don't you hate to go back to work after all your leisure time? Wish I had some spare time in which to enjoy myself.

That whenever I write this column my wife asks me what I'm doing? So I tell her I'm just putting my own thoughts on paper, since I can't tell her what I'm thinking. She thinks I'm "off." But if she only knew how much I really write about her. Oh, I'd be a goner!

OSU ASSEMBLY

Richard Tobias, a graduate of Ohio State University, visited Hilliards High School recently and talked about his trip to Europe. He showed pictures of various interesting scenes in Europe. Interesting things he mentioned were about food, clothing and buildings.

Mr. Norman Christopher, 2544 Cumberland, Houston, Texas, works for the Water Contract Division of the City of Houston, and he says the housetops aren't high enough nor the days long enough for him to praise HADACOL. He says since he has been taking HADACOL he feels mighty good. For Hadacol seemed to be what he needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you're looking for if your condition is caused by lack of Vitamins B., E., Niacin and Iron.

Mr. Christopher says: "After I got out of the Army I was underweight, nervous, couldn't sleep and had a terrible time getting food to agree with me. When I would wake up in the morning I would always be sick at my stomach—I could never eat breakfast. —imagine having to wait until noon before eating the first meal of the day. Even then just a few mouthfuls of food would fill me up. At night I couldn't sleep—I would just roll and toss all night. I felt miserable. Nothing seemed to help me until I started taking HADACOL. After the third bottle of HADACOL I could tell a difference in my eating and sleeping habits. Now after a year's time of taking HADACOL I have gained almost 20 pounds. I sleep well—and the most wonderful thing—I can enjoy 3 full meals a day. There is no way I can describe the tremendous improvement in my appetite. I have started my wife taking HADACOL and she, too, is feeling wonderful. If there is anybody who doubts my word about what I have said about HADACOL they should have seen me before I started taking HADACOL. I sincerely recommend HADACOL to all my friends and urge them to take HADACOL."

All Ages Can Be Helped

HADACOL is simply remarkable, the way it has helped folks of all ages—yes, thousands of men, women and children who have deficiencies of Vitamins B., B. Niacin and Iron. HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation—promising blessed relief for stomach distress, nervousness if caused by an upset stomach, vague aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, when they are due to such deficiencies.

Remember, HADACOL is not a quick-acting product that only attacks the symptoms of the miseries, but actually relieves the real cause of pains and aches due to such deficiencies. Yes, and continued use of HADACOL helps prevent the miseries from coming back.

Start Taking HADACOL Now

Don't go through life putting up with a stomach that is easily upset, that causes you gas pains, heartburn, sour risings after meals; a stomach that will not digest food properly; yes, if due to lack of Vitamins B., B., Niacin and Iron, you can overcome the deficiencies which are causing these miseries by taking HADACOL which contains those precious Vitamins.

Start taking HADACOL right away, and if you do not get the results you expect your money will be immediately refunded. HADACOL costs only $1.25 for a trial-size bottle. Large family or economy size, $3.50.

ZEPHYR

Why worry about what the weather may do to floors, rugs, draperies and furnishings when windows and doors are left open? Zephyr Awnings give dependable protection. Rain or shine, Zephyrs are there, permanently, to keep weather out when windows are open and to bar the sun's direct rays, which rot curtains and fade draperies and rugs. And yet Zephyrs admit light and ventilation as wanted.

FHA Terms

Zephyrs alone have this patented ventilating feature, which permits the entire roof of your awning to breathe. Zephyr is not just an awning with a few side vents of questionable value where trapped air might be released. In Zephyr, the entire top of your awning breathes and permits free circulation of air.

VOTE FOR THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE
Let's Study the Facts
Fast-growing Columbus has sprouted houses by the hundreds in its wide open spaces to the west, but it hasn't sprouted nearly enough school rooms to match.
The school rooms will be forthcoming if the new school bond issue is approved.
Establishment of the big General Motors Tarrytedt plant and the normal tendencies of a city to spread outward have stepped up residential building on the West Side to a rapid, continuing rate.
Existing school buildings are crowded and no longer centrally located to serve residential areas.
To meet school needs, the bond issue will mean for the Far West and Southwest areas:
A new school in Westgate, located on board-owned land near Westgate Park.
A new school on W. Mound-st to replace portable buildings on the present site.
A new school in the Sullivant Gardens section on land yet to be purchased.
It will also mean additions and remodeling for other schools in the area and completion of other such projects, partially carried out with funds from the 1948 bond issue.
The 1950 building survey, upon which most of the current planning is based, recommends "permanent, expansible" buildings for both the W. Mound and Westgate areas, each to have 18 classrooms, kindergarten and special facilities.
Closer to downtown Columbus and south of Mound-st, the proposed "Sullivant Gardens" building would be a slightly larger structure, also expansible and located in the vicinity of the federal housing project west of Harmon-av.
In that same area the board of education has already purchased three dwelling units in the Greenlawn Veterans Housing Project which are to be converted into an elementary school.
A complete project was completed last fall at Highland Avenue School and further work, such as modernization of toilet facilities, is planned there if the bond issue is approved.
Dana and West Broad Schools, redecorated and improved during the summer, would also gain further improvements, and Chicago, Avondale and Bellows Schools are slated for extensive remodeling.
Relatively new and in good condition, John Burroughs School, relieved of overloading by construction of the two new buildings, will need only minor improvements.
If The Bond Issue Isn't Approved children will be educated in crowded classes, with continued use of unimproved old buildings, church basements, and hodge-podge of portables and makeshift arrangements.
Education of the children, the nation's first line of defense, can't be put off until a "more favorable time."

THE FLASH OF A WING

If you should walk through April grass
And see a bluebird's flash of wing
Like an ethereal message pass
And feel a pulsing urge to sing,
Know then, O mortal, it was I
Who flashed the message of the wing:
The urge that made your spirit cry
With joyfulness—for I am Spring.

Three years ago (March 25) a marvelous thing happened to me. I became a grandmother! When it is written like that it doesn't seem like much but ask any grandmother what it means to her. She'll try to tell you but she won't be able to be very coherent about it, particularly if it's for the first time. I know — I asked a few grandmothers of one grandchild. One said "I can't explain it, but it makes you feel like life has started all over again . . sort of like spring"; another said "I can't explain it, but it seems that once more you have something in common with the whole world; you have something to talk about again." My own Linda Jean graciously rules her parents, grandparents, great-grandparents and assorted aunts and uncles, though she is only 26 pounds of sweetness . . move over, grandmas, for I can't explain it either!

Route 40, destination Cambridge—The winter was hard on highways too. There are actually vacant houses along Route 40. Have always wanted to drive around through the State Serum Institute grounds near Reynoldsburg, for some reason. Jacksontown is where the hills begin. The white church on the hill at Amsterdam has always intrigued me. Have you ever noticed how hills that look so high in the distance lie down when you get to them? There's a moral there some place; suppose many writers have written about it though I don't recall having read anything about it. About all you see of Gratiot, Hopewell and Mt. Sterling are pointing arrows and a few chimneys. Dignified old Headly Inn, watching with amused tolerance the giggling brook across the highway. I never can remember whether the Y Bridge in Zanesville is the only one in the world or only in the United States. Tempting arrays of pottery vases and dishes are seen in and near Zanesville. Pop always speeds by them, one hand on his wallet. The railroad tunnel near Cambridge looks like I imagine tunnels look in Switzerland. At a crowded restaurant in Cambridge, a lady sat at our table. We discovered we had a lot in common for our granddaughters were born on the same day. We compared photographs of our granddaughters (which we just happened to have with us) and each of us politely told the other how pretty her granddaughter is. And each of us had our own private opinion as to whose was prettier!

FRANKLIN COUNTY OHIO

Columbus, Ohio

March 22, 1951

Mr. Paul R. Gingher, Chairman
Metropolitan Committee of Franklin County
8 E. Long Street
Columbus, Ohio

Dear Mr. Gingher:

We have examined the bond issue proposals which will be submitted to Columbus voters April 10, totaling $11,900,000 for Columbus City Schools, $3,388,100 for Columbus Airport, $5,850,000 for City expressways, and $2,500,000 for the County expressways.

If these bonds are issued over a five year period at interest rates not exceeding 2% the maximum cost in any year will not exceed 2.41 mills.

Taking into consideration the retirement of older bonds as they mature, the average increase in the Columbus tax rate over the five year period of 1953-1957 inclusive will not exceed .83 of one mill.

On a property listed for taxation at $4000, the .83 of one mill would not exceed $3.32 per year on the property owner's tax bill.

The above tax rates are based upon the assumption that no further levies or bond issues will be approved by the voters during the five year period.

Yours truly,

Fred E. Dunn
Franklin County Auditor

Property Owners' Bargain

Because of the emergency the airport and expressways are defense projects and the federal government will pay 80c of each dollar on expressways, 50c of each dollar on airport!

Healthy City!

Columbus gained more than 68,000 population between 1940 and 1950—like adding the cities of Newark and Lancaster—and still is growing! Columbus needs the schools, expressways and airport expansion which will be on the ballots April 10.

Gift to Real Estate

The federal expenditure of nearly $25 million will benefit all real estate in the community—but is not taxed against real estate!

Grandmother Keeps Busy. Feels Good; Took Hadacol

When She Heard How HADACOL Was Helping People Suffering From Deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin And Iron

Keeping up with two small grandchildren as well as doing your housework can keep one woman mighty busy. And Mrs. B. R. Battle, 807 Archer, Houston, Texas, does just that. There was a time when Mrs. Battle didn't feel up to all this though. She was bothered with stomach disturbances and vague aches and pains. Then she heard the news about how Hadacol was helping relieve conditions caused by deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is her statement:

"I had been troubled with indigestion and aches and pains. I heard about HADACOL and began taking it. After the fifth bottle I began to feel better. I could eat better and rest better and the pains and aches were less. I have now taken 12 bottles and can truthfully say that HADACOL has helped me a lot."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin, but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A "Doubtful Thomas"

After reading Mrs. Battle's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula may help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Battle, it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia, when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of combined vim you need—the kind you should have and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL must help build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest druggist? If you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron This great HADACOL is inexpensive too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size only $1.25. Large family or economy size $3.50.

Bible Comment:

Holidays Were Holy Days in Ancient Times

We recently celebrated Easter, the holiest of our holidays and the most spiritually satisfying.

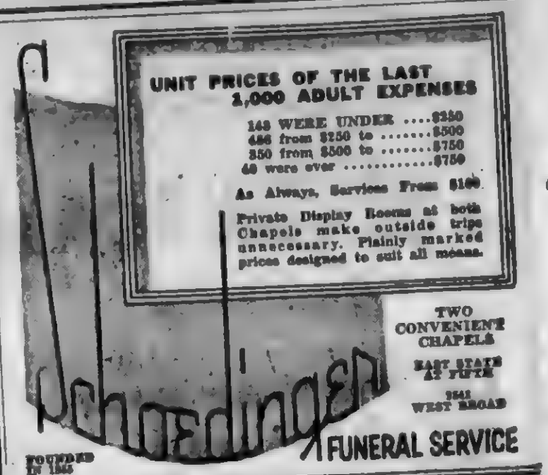
Most of our holidays are celebrated with more noise than meditation and place more stress on activity than relaxation. Living at a fast mechanized tempo, we seem to have also speeded up the hours of our holidays with motor trips, picnic races and festive beach parties.

How unlike the serene and solemn holidays of biblical times.

Notable among the Jewish feasts was the Feast of the Passover, celebrating the passing over of Jewish homes when destruction fell upon Egyptian families. Associated with it was the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Others were the Feast of Pentecost, celebrating the completion of the corn harvest.

While the mood governing the ancient feasts was primarily one of devout dedication to God and the Commandments, some of the holidays were occasions of great festivity. The Feast of Tabernacles, for instance, lasted seven days and the people lived in booths made out of "boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook."

Such a holiday would be out of the question today for most of us no longer live close to nature. Then again, the ancient Feast of Tabernacles celebrated the fruit, wine and oil that had been gathered in. Today we tend to take crops and harvests for granted.



It is in many ways unfortunate that we no longer place such emphasis upon the coming and passing of seasons and upon the fruits of tillage for the observance of these things was spiritually stimulating.

First Services Are Scheduled At New Warren Ave. Church

Rev. Lon R. Woodrum

To Rev. Lon R. Woodrum, poet-evangelist of Portland, Ore., has been accorded the privilege of being the first pastor to conduct services in the new Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene at 650 S. Warren-av, Rev. Harris B. Anthony, pastor of the local church, announced today.

Evangelistic services beginning Apr. 11 and continuing through Apr. 22 will be the first services to be held, according to Anthony. The service will be conducted in the basement of the new Hilltop edifice as will the Sunday services from then on instead of at the temporary quarters at West Broad Street School.

Rev. Woodrum is a writer of outstanding ability, contributing regularly to several religious publications. Many of his poems are well-known, having been read before various educational and service groups and also over national radio networks. Two collections of his poems have been published under the titles "I Will Sing My Song" and "Stars Over The Storm." His war poems, "Awakening" and "Christmas 1941", after having been read to the House of Representatives in December, 1941, appeared in the Congressional Record.

Rev. Woodrum is regarded as one of the Church of the Nazarene's most successful evangelists. He has traveled 500,000 miles in his work of evangelism.

Adventist School Pupils Solicit Mission Funds

A goal of $400 for home and foreign missions to be raised during April was set by the 40 pupils attending the Eastwood Seventh-Day Adventist church grade school located at Union and Ryan-ave.

Tuesday was Mission Appeal Field Day in which all the pupils from the first to the ninth grade, accompanied by their teachers, Fern Lode and Mrs. Robert O'Connell, and several of the parents visited homes on the Hilltop soliciting free will offerings to aid in the medical, educational and welfare work conducted by the denomination in 228 of the 232 officially listed countries of the world.

Seventh-Day Adventists maintain 581 major institutions, including hospitals, schools and publishing houses. More than 3,900 Seventh-Day Adventist mission schools are also in operation.

Tinkering

It's warm down in the cellar these January nights. The two of them spend lots of time down there . . .

Of course, you hear only the sounds of sawing and hammering, or the starting whir of a little electric motor they built themselves last summer.

Makes you curious, doesn't it?

Yet when you call down stairs, they won't tell you what they're making. That's to be their surprise. Instead, you hear this . . .

"Well, Mom", says your son, "Dad and I are just tinkering around".

Many a father has given inspiration to his sons simply by passing on to them a knowledge of practical affairs that has given America some of its greatest inventions and discoveries.

Wise fathers know that something else must be added, however—the element of faith. Our greatest scientists and inventors have been religious men, with an unshaken faith in their God and themselves.

Faith should come to a child early, provided by the Sunday School and later, the church. For the wise father knows that knowledge cannot precede faith any faster than faith can precede knowledge.

The two must grow together—in the life of your son. . .

. . . the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner.
JOHN 5:19

The Gate Post

By Pat Martindale

In the spring most boys' fancies turn to thoughts of marbles.

So the thoughts of the Glenwood Recreation Center are turning to spring activities. As a matter of fact a marble tourney is being planned for May and nibblers are advised to get the old knuckle warmed up and ready for the start.

• • •

The City Recreation Department will sponsor a series of square dances, the first of which is to start on April 6 at Sunshine Center. At 7 p. m. instructions will be given to those wishing to learn and the dance will start at 8 p. m. Tom Morton and the Buckeye Rhythm Boys will furnish the music.

Special instruction will also be given on Thursday evening at Glenwood. Teen-agers and adults are invited to take advantage of these instructions and dances.

Interest in the new volleyball league is growing in the boys and girls groups but lagging in the adults division it was reported this week.

The climax of the volleyball leagues in April will be the city center tourney to be held at Glenwood to determine the city champion in each division.

Representatives for the Glenwood City Center ping pong tournament are Jim Darby, Carlyn Holman, Delores Holman, Richy Holman and Kenny Hennes.

This tourney is scheduled to take place at Schiller Park.

Louisiana Mother Says Housework is Much Easier

Mrs. Leo Picard, Church Point, Louisiana, is mighty proud of her two daughters, Wilma Jean, 5 years old, and Juanita Marie, 4. She says it's a full-time job just keeping track of them. It wasn't too long ago when it was all Mrs. Picard could do to just barely get her work done. Now all that is changed . . . now that she has been taking HADACOL for Hadacol seemed to be what Mrs. Picard needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to a lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now maks it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be a "Doubting Thomas"

After reading about Mrs. Picard's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Picard it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On a Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size only $1.25. Large family or economy size, $3.50.

Columbus Needs The USO Again

Day by day military activity around Columbus is becoming more and more prominent as hundreds of service men are being sent into this area.

This is creating the need of the establishment of proper recreation facilities for these many service men.

During the last war the USO of Columbus did a fine job in this field. Today there is an urgent need for the establishment of the USO in this city.

People of Columbus can be instrumental in the establishment of this program again if they will express their wishes to Mr. Leonard Stern at 17 S. High St., asking his support. Drop him a line today.

THE HILLTOP RECORD

Vol. XXXIV, No. 51 — The Hilltop, Columbus, O., Thursday, April 5, 1951 — Hilltop Minstrel Supplement

Presenting— THE 1951 HILLTOP MINSTREL SHOW

END MAN Jovial "Chubby" Distelhorst makes his debut April 12 and 13 as one of those mirth provoking end men of minstrelsy. Although "Chubby" has appeared in previous Hilltop Minstrel Shows in other years this is his first venfure as one of those characters of blackface who so well held the adulation and praise of theater goers in bygone days. The curtain raises on the Twenty Second Hilltop Minstrel Show at 8 p. m. next Thursday, and "Chubby" will be there to greet the audience with that old familiar, "I'se sure glad to see ya, Mr. Bones—"

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Introducing the End Men—William Coon, Marvin Southworth, Joe Goodwin and Chubby Distelhorst
"They Can't Make a Lady Out of Me"—Barbara Shade.

Music for the show is by Bob Motzer's orchestra.

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 348 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gilliam Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tressemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

HOUSEHOLD MYSTERY

My son, as an athlete, can make me so proud.
In baseball and track he excels without doubt.
In foot-ball he draws a big cheer from the crowd;
Then why is he tired when the trash must go out?

A widower who was about to be married for the third time, and whose bride-to-be had also been at the altar before wrote at the bottom of the wedding invitations: "Don't fail to come. This is no amateur performance."

Her eyes were black as jet,
That charming girl I know.
I kissed her, then her husband came;
Now mine are jet black, too.

Koontz Directs Production

Lee Koontz

Lee Koontz, for the sixth time in the past seven years, will direct the Hilltop Minstrel Show production. As a director, Koontz brings over 24 years experience in show business to his job. He directed the show for the first time in 1944.

Lee has appeared in nearly every minstrel show. He has been a singer, dancer, comedian and comic musician. He was a member of the cast of the first Minstrel Show in 1930, when he appeared in a dance routine and skit with Bob Paul.

While working in vaudeville, he traveled throughout the United States, Canada, Bermuda, Mexico, Germany, Czechoslovakia, France and England.

Reviewing his trips, Lee said, "I've been stranded in only the best of places."

Koontz has appeared with such "names" as Les Brown, Roy Rodgers, The Sons of The Pioneers, the Three Stooges, Dennis James, Tom Howard and George Shelton.

He returned to the minstrel shows in 1942 and has had a part in every show produced since that time.

Lee began working in show business while he was in high school. He said, "I used to take off every summer vacation with some troupe. Had a lot of fun. Then when I graduated from school, I went into the business full time."

"In fact," he added, "this is the first real job I've had, outside of show business." The "this" he referred to is his job at The Hilltop Record working as a stereotyper.

Operating under his stage name of "Jackie Lee", he has built a reputation locally, appearing professionally at night clubs and before other groups.

Lee is married and has two children, Gary C. and Dixie Lee. Following in their parent's foot-steps, Gary and Dixie Lee both have interests in entertainment. Gary, a tenth grader, is working in the stage crew for the West High School's "Band Variety Show" and Dixie Lee, 5, is taking dancing lessons.

The Koontz family lives at 175 S. Sylvan-av.

"We've got to get rid of this extraneous noise," snorted the professor. He then walked calmly out of the room.

The young city couple had purchased a lot of land in the picturesque Ozarks and engaged a local carpenter to build their cottage. Later when they called to see how he was doing, the hillbilly carpenter met them and angrily exclaimed: "Them blueprints was done by a crazy man. Why, if I was to build the house the way it is laid out, you'd have two bath rooms!"

Bobby came to school with a bag of candy and passed the candy proudly around to his school chums. He even treated his teacher.

"What is the occasion for all this?" the teacher asked kindly. "Is it your birthday?"

"No," he said, "I became a brother last night."

"Back To The Showboat Days" Is To Be The General Theme For The Twenty-Second Annual Hilltop Minstrel Production

Estimate More Than 3000 To See Revival Of Early Minstrel Days

Before the tryouts for the Hilltop Minstrel Show, Director Lee Koontz said, "Looks like a good show." After the tryouts and a few rehearsals, he said, "I won't say that this is the biggest, greatest, most stupendous, colossal, tremendous and terrific show the Hilltop's ever seen, but I will say that it will definitely be the best. Tops is the word for it!"

The auditorium of West High School will rock with laughter and roll with mirth when the curtain rises next Thursday and Friday on the show, built around the central theme of "Back to the Showboat Days."

Playing to the two-night crowd that Koontz estimates will run about 3,000, the cast of 60 will perform on the decks of the old ship in the type of show that died with the riverboat.

Interlocutor Noble Allen will play the role of the captain of the showboat. He'll run the show on the old boat and pilot the cast past the shoals in production.

Two musical groups will appear this year, Bob Motzer's Orchestra and the Hilltop Male Chorus. Motzer's orchestra will accompany the singing and dancing of the stars, as well as participating in several special solo numbers.

The Hilltop Male Chorus, a group that has been somewhat inactive for the last couple of years, has been reorganized for the production. Their addition to the show's cast promises to be a pleasant one for the audience, for the chorus is composed of old-timers at vocal work and they love their work.

The four end men supplying the main comedy elements for the show have been polishing routines for weeks, perfecting their jokes for the occasion. Three of them, Joe Goodwin, Bill Coon, and Marvin Southworth, are veteran end men, while this will be a "first" for "Chubby" Distelhorst. All four have appeared in previous shows.

The variety acts have been chosen in a number of auditions from the scores of talented applicants. From these auditioneers, Director Koontz has put together a well-balanced program that should make the 22nd Hilltop Minstrel Show the "tops of the Hilltop."

Tommy Smith, 501 Catherine-st, and Judy Mawbray, 211 Deckenbach-rd, are minstrel veterans. Their performance in last year's show, while they were both five years old, was acclaimed as a show stopper. With two and one-half years stage experiences on WTVN and WBNS-TV and before local organizations, the two are a polished song and dance team.

Another stellar attraction of the show will be the Duke of Paducah (jr.), whose "shoes are killing" him. The Duke, in tight shoes and suit, is a cousin, 4/5 removed, from the nationally known "Barn Dance" performer. His routine, "stolen" from the "Barn Dance" star, will be filled with the philosophy that makes life tick.

Harold Green will answer a riddle tougher than that of the eternal Sphinx when he sings "The Thing" in his specialty act. With his accomplices he will reveal what "The Thing" is.

Planning Work Centers About HBA President

John Nippert

All activities of producing the annual Hilltop Minstrel Show all center about the one individual who currently holds the executive and administrative position as president of the Hilltop Business Association. This year the business group is headed by John Nippert, official of the Nippert Electric Products Co., 1758 W. Mound-st.

The task of taking care of the many and myriad details of organization naturally fall to the leader of such an organization and Nippert for years has been recognized as an industrial leader who gets things done. His proven success as an executive fits him well for the post he now holds.

As president of the HBA, Nippert will make the address of welcome to the minstrel show audiences expected to throng the 22nd showing of the community event at West High Auditorium April 12 and 13.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back to The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell, "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gilliam Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularity the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils. 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young explained.

Trick of the Month

A farmer read where a circus had gone broke, and would sell off their animals. He went to the auction to buy a work animal. But he arrived late and all the animals were sold but a couple of zebras. So he bid and got one of them.

Arriving late that day at his farm he put the zebra into a stall next to a jack. Promptly at nightfall, the jack kicked the partition down and got into the same stall with the zebra.

Said the zebra: "What do you want in here?" Said the jack: "I'm curious, Babe, how the dickens you get those pajamas off?"

FAST WORKER

Jim: "Yep, the engagement is off—she won't marry me."

Joe: Why's that? Didn't you tell her about your rich uncle?"

Jim: "I sure did. Now she's my aunt."

A young man discreetly inquired of his blind date, "Do you shrink from kissing?"

"I'd be nothing but skin and bones if I did," was the answer.

Paper Drive Is Planned For April 22 By HBA

Typical of the manner in which the Hilltop Business Association is aware of the needs of the community is their motto to "make the Hilltop the best decorated and brightest spot in Columbus next "Christmas". As a means of accomplishing that project they have set up plans for a mammoth scrap paper drive throughout the Hilltop area for Sunday, Apr. 22.

Chairman of the committee in charge of the drive is Clarence Story who this week urged that all Hilltoppers save scrap paper, old newspapers magazines and boxes for this drive.

The revenues derived from the sale of the scrap paper will provide the funds to add to the Christmas decorations on a larger scale and provide the Hilltop with a real decorative scheme for the Yuletide, that will be second to none in the city.

The drive scheduled for Apr. 22 will take place after church services are ended in order that the effort be made on a community wide basis. Teams of men in trucks will patrol Hilltop streets and collect the scrap paper placed at the curbs in front of homes. Should bad weather interfere, the committee has asked that the bundles be placed on porches where they can be seen by the men in the trucks.

Chairman Story has asked that newspapers and magazines be kept in separate bundles for the drive. The reason for this is that the magazine paper will bring a higher scrap price and the local business men want to make every penny count for these Christmas decorations.

WORTH A CHANCE

The church service was proceeding successfully when an attractive young widow who was seated in the balcony, became so excited that she leaned out too far and fell over the railing. Her dress caught in the chandelier and she was suspended in mid-air.

The minister noticed her undignified position and thundered to his congregation. "Any person who turns to look will be stricken stone blind." The man at the end of the first row turned to his his companion. "I'm going to risk one eye, Ed."

NEW INVENTION

Wife: "Oh, Charley, I finally bought a hat you'll simply love! It's shaped like an inverted red toadstool, with perpendicular carrots around the edge. It sits at a cute angle on the front of my head, and has a veil—

Husband: "I thought you said I'd love it?"

Wife: "You will. The veil automatically falls over my face when we meet anybody we know."

NOT QUITE THROUGH

Mistress: "Have you finished polishing the brass?"

New Maid: "All except your rings and bracelets, ma'am."

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell, "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gilliam Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busemberg, Paul V. Croeler, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Trassmer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

SHOWN ABOVE is a portion of the famed Hilltop Male Chorus which in past years set an enviable record as one of the outstanding vocal organizations in the state. Teacher: Can you tell me what is it that Brazil produces more of than any other country.

Boy: Brazilions.

Bill: I believe a man should give his wife plenty of rope.

Bob: That's what I did with mine, and she skipped.

She: I've just found a man I can trust.

He: Gee, where did you find him?

She: In Dun and Bradstreet's.

He: What distinguishes men from animals?

She: Men have money.

They cure Scotch people from stuttering by making them talk over long distance telephone.

Diner: Waiter, this soup isn't half bad.

Waiter: No, sir.

Diner: No, it's all bad.

Mr. Jones: I'll show you who's running this house.

Mrs. Jones: You can't. It's her day out.

Some girls don't profit by education. While others pick up husbands at college.

Sandy: I'd like to have my arm amputated.

Surgeon: Why? Is it infected?

Sandy: No; I'm getting absentminded. Last night I picked up a check at a dinner for eight people.

Pianis: What key you playing in?

Pianist: Skeleton key?

Violinist: Fits anything.

Joe: Whadye mean, A. W. O. L. Milk?

Interlocutor

Noble L. Allen

Acting as interlocutor for the 22nd annual Hilltop Minstrel Show, Noble L. Allen will act as captain of the showboat on which the Minstrels are presented.

Guiding the destinies of both the show and the showboat, Allen will keep both moving at a fast pace in keeping with the tempo of the "old time" minstrels. According to Lee Koontz, director of the production, the action will be patterned after the types that brought fame to Al G. Fields.

With a cast of 60 in the production, Allen will guide them through both performances, Thursday and Friday, Apr. 12 and 13, in the West High School Auditorium. His four end men are Joe Goodwin, Bill Coon, Marvin Southworth and "Chubby" Distelhorst.

Allen lives at 2456 W. Broad-st and is funeral director of the Noble L. Allen Funeral Home.

She: Why don't you work your way through college?

He: My father has always taught me never to interfere with his affairs.

He: Is that a Jersey cow?

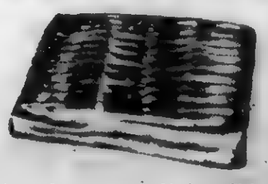
She: I didn't see its license.

He: Does this wind bother you?

She: No, talk as much as you please.

He: Why did your pop say I reminded him of a telescope?

She: Because you're so easy to see through and you magnify everything so.



"What's the hardest train in the world to catch?"

"The twelve fifty, for it's ten to one you won't catch it."

She sees the dirt accumulate
And struggles to combat it
But sometimes it's an awful task

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gillilen Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. E. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1960 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

Built-Ins Can Solve Your Storage Space Problems

If home space were sold by the bag, most of us would rush right down and purchase a couple of dollars' worth every payday.

Unfortunately, extra floor area is not come by so easily. If high rentals or building costs are preventing your acquiring it in the usual fashion—by moving to a larger apartment or adding a spare room onto your home—then you must resort to planning to attain those precious inches.

One solution, if your husband is a handyman or your carpenter reasonable in his prices, is built-in furniture. You can utilize one wall for all the shelf and bureau space you need, leaving the rest of the room uncluttered. An additional advantage is planned storage. You can make every inch count by planning beforehand just what you wish to store in each spot.

For each room, it's usually a good idea to include drawer space, open shelves and enclosed shelves. The framework of this built-in furniture should be constructed of sturdy wood. For cabinet doors and drawer fronts, plywood is a good choice.

If you are not yet permanently settled, you may prefer having these wall pieces made up into separate, easy-to-move units. Make certain, however, that they match in height and width in order to give a feeling of unity when they're lined up together.

Built-in rows of drawers, cabinets and bookcases give this master-bedroom plenty of extra storage space and a handy counter along the windows. The same type of built-in is ideal for youngsters, too. The built-in and valance above it are made of birch plywood.

New Allure for Rice Pudding

Rice pudding is a plain, "glamourless" sounding name to give to such a good dessert. There's hidden allure in it that you'd never dream of before you taste it. That's why every homemaker that can make good rice pudding keeps the recipe on her list of family favorites.

This special rice pudding has much to offer—it's combined with tasty apples and to top it off, a delicate butterscotch meringue.

APPLE RICE PUDDING WITH BUTTERSCOTCH MERINGUE

1 cup uncooked, white rice
6 medium apples, thinly sliced
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups milk
2 egg yolks
2 egg whites, beaten
4 tablespoons brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

Wash rice and cook in saucepan with 1 quart boiling water and 1 teaspoon salt for 10 minutes; drain. Place half the apple slices in a buttered 2-quart casserole. Blend together salt, sugar, and cinnamon and sprinkle ⅓ of mixture over apples; add ⅓ of the rice and remainder of the apples and sprinkle with second ⅓ of sugar mixture; top with remaining rice and sugar mixture. Pour in milk which has been blended with beaten egg yolks. Cover and bake in a slow oven, 300° F., for about 2 hours, stirring occasionally, adding extra milk, as needed. Uncover and cook 30 minutes longer to brown. To make meringue: Beat egg whites until they peak; add brown sugar, a tablespoon at a time, beating between each addition and continue beating until very stiff. Fold in vanilla. Spread on the pudding and return to oven for 20 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool. Serve with ice cream or a jug of cream. Serves 6 to 8.

She: This pea soup is full of sugar.

He: They probably made it out of sweetpeas.

He (teaching her to drive): The brake is something you put on in a hurry.

She: Oh, I see. A sort of house coat.

Mother: Don't mumble your prayers, John, I can't hear a word you say.

John: I wasn't speakin' to you, mother.

Customer: Last week I bought a tire cover from you and now I want my money back.

Clerk: Why?

Customer: I put it on one of my tires and hadn't driven ten miles before the blame thing wore out.

A fat man has one advantage over his thin brethren—he knows exactly where his cigar ashes are going to fall.

Son (pointing to the minister): Who's that, mother?

Mother: That's the man who married me, dear.

Son: Then if that's the man who married you, what's pa doin' at our house?

Joe: When two bodies come together, is heat generated?

Jim: No sir. I hit a guy yesterday and he knocked me cold.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Joison, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 18 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gillilan Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils. 11A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young explained.

Out of the clothes that cover me
Tight as the skin is on the grape,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable shape.

In the fell clutch of bone and steel
I have not whined or cried aloud;
Whatever else I may conceal,
I show my thoughts unshamed and proud.

The forms of other actorines
I put away into the shade;
All of them flossy near-blondiness
Find and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how straight the tape,
How cold the weather is, or warm—
I am the mistress of my shape—
I am the captain of my form.

Just send me G I pants that fit!

DINNER BY CANDLELIGHT

This shimmering, dancing,
Soft glow is entrancing.
It heightens your manifold charms;
With rapture I note
How it plays on your throat,
On your smooth marble shoulders
And arms.

It shows to perfection
Your creamy complexion—
My heart's very nearly wildly beating,
Yet, although I admire,
I've a lowly desire—

I wish I could see what I'm Eating!

And quite agreed
That for a nut
It's quite a jolt
Bereft
Without a bolt.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3182 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gilliam Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

Hilltop Minstrel Performance Founded Tradition In 1930

The Hilltop Minstrel Show, a tradition in Columbus, celebrates its twenty-second birthday with its performance Thursday and Friday, April 12 and 13, in the West High School Auditorium.

The first Hilltop Minstrel Show, which made its debut in 1930, was sponsored by the Hilltop Business Association, as has each production since that date. The show then, as it will be this year, was performed at West High School.

In the first production in 1930, Harry Freeman directed the show that became the first in a long line of entertainment successes. The end men were Gene Painter, Paul Hubbard, Dick Becker and C. Carlton Hartley. L. B. Saunders acted as chairman of the show committee, a post he has held a number of times in the ensuing 22 years.

The first show became an immediate success and the productions became an annual event.

In 1931, an act that had audiences rolling in the aisles was a sextet of business men in South Sea Island grass skirts. Herb Deems had an important part in the show and C. Carlton Hartley acted as director.

The show attracted 2300 paying customers in 1932 at its two performances under the chairmanship of S. P. Edwards. Floyd Green made his debut as interlocutor in this show. End men were Paul Hubbard, Dick Becker, Don Smith and Raymond Hill.

The old minstrel theme was used again in 1933, but a new feature was introduced to the show; The Hilltop Male Chorus gave a 20-minute concert. The chorus had just won top honors in the Jackson Eisteddfod, the chief competitive musical event in the area.

Tom Lewis directed the show in 1934, which was built around a patriotic pageant set in colonial times. The Last Day of School skit, a show headliner, capped the performances.

Lewis returned as director for the 1935 show, built around the theme of an imaginary trip along the Road to Mandalay. Ray G. Hauntz emceed the travelers journey.

In 1936, calico dresses and blue overalls threatened to replace the traditional blackface and high hat of the minstrel men; the show was built on a rural scene. Harry Barton directed the show and Dr. J. H. Czatt was general chairman.

For this year's performances, C. Carlton Hartley will act as chairman and Lee Koonts will direct the minstrels, whose fame has spread throughout Central Ohio.

Hilltop Minstrel Recognized As Tradition In Community Life

The Hilltop Minstrel show now approaching its twenty-second showing on April 12 and 13 has become a tradition in this community and well known throughout central Ohio as a community venture that has met with phenomenal success with each ensuing year. Since 1930, when the show made its initial performance, the event has become known as a "must" on the calendar of Hilltop community life.

Many of the performers who were a part of that first offering of the Hilltop Minstrels in 1930 still contribute their talents toward insuring the success of the show which is staged annually in the West High School auditorium.

In 1930 Harry Freeman directed the show that was to be the first of many entertainment successes. End men were George Painter, Paul Hubbard, Dick Becker and C. Carlton Hartley. L. E. Saunders was chairman of the show committee, a post he has capably filled a number of times in the past 22 years.

After the initial success of the venture there was little doubt in the mind of anyone concerning the advisability of keeping the show as an annual affair. In 1931, C. Carlton Hartley was the director of the show which featured a sea-going liner. High spot of this performance was an act performed by a sextet of business men garbed in the South Sea Island garb of grass skirts. As the six would-be hula girls swayed in traditional manner of the tropic isles, the audience roared its approval and the Hilltop Minstrel Show was here to stay as a permanent fixture.

The show in 1932 drew a throng of 2300 through the portals of West High Auditorium for the two performances. S. P. Edwards was the chairman, and former Mayor Floyd Green made his debut as interlocutor for the show. End men were: Paul Hubbard, Dick Becker, Don Smith and Raymond Hill.

The ever popular minstrel theme was again in evidence for the 1933 edition of the show but something new was added to the show. The Hilltop Male Chorus took part in the show, giving a 20-minute concert. The chorus at that time was just fresh from its triumph of winning top honors in the Jackson Eidsteddfod, the most competitive musical event in central Ohio.

The choral singing this year will again be handled by that same Male Chorus which has been reorganized to especially participate in this year's show. In last year's performance the West High School Chorus made its initial appearance in a minstrel show and capably handled the chore.

Tow Lewis directed the 1934 show, which was set to a patriotic theme built around a colonial setting. A skit entitled, "The Last Day of School" was the headline attraction that commanded the attention and praise of the audiences which viewed the production.

Ray G. Hauntz, emceed the imaginary journey along the "Road to Mandalay" in the 1935 production of the Minstrel which was again directed by Tom Lewis.

Calico dresses and blue overalls threatened to replace the black face and top hat of the minstrel men in 1936 when the show was built about a rural theme. It was this year that the show received an early showing for the first time being staged on Feb. 27-28 of that year. Harry Barton was director and Dr. J. H. Czatt chairmaned the event.

"Yes, I'll give you a job. Sweep out the store."

GET IT OVER WITH

A large car skidded to the curb in front of the Capitol in Washington and a well dressed tourist couple hurriedly got out. After quickly surveying the surrounding scene, the man said: "All right, dear, you look at the outside and I'll take the inside. We should be through in half an hour."

Abe: Joe is very narrow-minded, isn't he?

Mike: He is so narrow-minded he would cut his hand if he rubbed his forehead.

THE NEW CHAMP

"Mrs. Jones was outspoken at our club meeting today!"

"I can't believe it. Who outspoke her?"

Song of the middle aged man:
Every day the locks retreat a little farther from my crown
And when I tie my shoes my feet are just a little farther down!

Prof: "A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer."

Student: "No wonder so many of us flunk in our exams!"

Joe: That teacher took unfair advantage of me. Yesterday I raised my hand—

Howard: Yes.

—Joe: —and he called on me.

She: Is Bill superstitious?

He: No—he'll drink anything.

The stone age was when a man axed a woman to marry him.

Jim: Why don't you go home?

Will: My wife's mad at me and locked me out.

Jim: What is she mad about?

Will: Because I don't come home.

Song and Dance Specialist

Patricia Stauffer, 18, 644 Wiltshire-rd, song and dance specialist in the Hilltop Minstrel Show, is pictured above. Her numbers will be "I Ain't Got Nobody" and "Tea For Two". Vivacious Pat is a freshman pre-medical student at Ohio State University and was a finalist in the Ted Mack show here.

The game warden was having a lot of trouble with local residents who thought the game laws were drawn up for the benefit of tourists only. The worst of the lot was one old tobacco chewing character who lived far out in the hills in a broken down old shack. He shot deer out of season for his larder and delighted in raising heck with the game laws in general. Try as he would, the warden had never been able to obtain a conviction against the old boy.

One evening he accosted the old man beside a little creek near his cabin.

"Been fishing, Tom," he said glancing at the rod in the old character's hand.

"Yep," said Tom. "Got one of them license things, too."

"Let's see your catch," the warden demanded.

Old Tom dumped a dozen fish out of a paper bag. They had been cleaned and the heads cut off and it was obvious if they had been stretched between two tractors none of the fish would have reached six inches in length.

"Ah ha!" cried the warden. "Got you this time you old reprobate. Those fish are all under the legal size of eight inches!"

"Wal now, warden," he said in an injured tone. "Don't know as how I'd say that. These here fish had awful big long heads."

She: Why does Betty get all the men? She hasn't a decent thing to wear!

He: I guess that's the reason.

From the World Telegram: "The 200 ducks are the progeny of the seven commissioners placed on the lake several years ago as a gesture toward conservation."

Joe: Hear about his wife hitting him with a flatiron?

Bill: Hurt him?

Joe: Not a bit.

Bill: That's fine.

Joe: He was killed instantly.

Pupil: I learned to play the piano when I was six.

Teacher: Yes? And at what age did you forget?

Have you ever suspected your wife of leading a double life?"

Continually—her own and mine!

"Did you pass your exams?"

"Well, it was like this—you see—".

"Shake! Neither did I."

Prof.: Can you tell me anything about the great chemists of the 17th Century

Student: "They are all dead, sir."

From the Philadelphia Inquirer: ". . . . give the youngster a cmfwypvbgkj."

Golfer: "Pardon, but would you mind if I played through? I've just heard that my wife has been taken seriously ill"

Hank: "They tell me when I'm in the saddle I'm part of the horse."

Yank: "Yes, but did they tell you what part?"

When a bunch of girls get together, the Lord pity the first one who leaves.

There are too many men who think that early to bed means 2 a. m.

A woman's promise to be on time carries a lot of wait.

Matrimony is one state that permits a woman to work 18 hours a day.

"Mother," cried Mary, as she rushed into the house, "Henry wants the Listerine. He's just caught the cutest little black and white animal, but he thinks it's got halitosis."

Mary: My whole family follows the sea. My brother is an officer on a ship.

Louise: Really? What is his capacity?

Mary: "About four or five quarts."

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To Those Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m. according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gillilan Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Naism, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tressemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils. 12A's have first opportunity provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chances and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young contended.

A GOOD IDEA

A very successful man was being interviewed by a reporter from a large newspaper.

"Tell me," said the reporter, "how did you ever find the time to read and improve yourself in the early days of your business?"

The successful man expanded his chest proudly.

"I kept an open book on my desk," he explained, "and I read it during telephone calls —while holding the wire when someone on the other end said, 'Just a moment, please'."

BRITTLE BABE

A young man about town approaching a cigar counter behind which stood a cute young thing:

"Do you keep stationery?"

"Yes, up to a certain point —then I just go all to pieces!

AT THE PEARLY GATES

When the motorist who crashed into a telephone pole and brought down the wires recovered consciousness, his hands were clutching the wire. "Thank Heaven," he exclaimed fervently, "It's a harp."

Arranger

Curtis Roberts

Now back again in the same job he has held for four consecutive years is genial Curtis Roberts who is chairman in charge of arrangements and scenery for the show.

In the years that have passed since the first Hilltop Minstrel made its debut on the local scene, Curt has also served in other capacities in promotion and production of the event. He has sold tickets, handled advertising for the production and danced in the HBA chorus in other shows.

Roberts is the operator of Yost Florists, 303 Belvidere-av.

NOT TO BE TRUSTED

A bank president, extremely sensitive about his baldness, wore a hat at all times.

One day while the porter was sweeping up he said to him jokingly, "Why is it that after working here all these years, you don't have an account with us?"

"Because boss," the porter answered, "you always look like you are going somewhere."

COVER THE FIELD

Salesman: "Here's a dandy card—to the sweetest, dearest and only girl I ever loved. I think that fits your needs."

College boy (enthusiastically): "That hits the spot. Give me a couple dozen."

They had searched in vain for a hotel room. "Well, Mother," he said, "I guess we'll have to sleep in one of those night clubs, even if they do charge $5 for covers.

Girl: And what makes you thing that tonight is a night for wild oats

Boy: My eyes told me so.

Boy: "Since I met you, I can't eat, I can't sleep, and I can't smoke."

Girl (shyly): "Why?"

Boy: "I'm broke."

Writer: Why do they call newspaper and magazine writing copy?

Editor: Well, that is just what it is.

End Man

Marvin Southworth

In the realm of blackface comedy on a minstrel show there is always sure to be a story about chickens and other sundry poultry. Marvin Southworth as an end man in this year's edition of the Hilltop Minstrel Show should then be well qualified as an expert in that field of joking for Marvin is of that Southworth family that operates the Southworth Poultry Market at 1510 Sullivant Ave.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when an old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell, "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 348 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieher, K. Lurene Gilliian Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busemberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Troesmer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils. 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

Hilltop Minstrel Opened "Stardom's Door" On Stage For Susie Johnson

The step from minstrel show black-face to a musical in a Scotch setting is a long one, but Susan Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, 2422½ W. Broad-st, did it.

Susie began her stage career in the Hilltop Minstrel Show and now is a member of the cast of Brigadoon.

She had her first minstrel role at the age of five, when she danced in the chorus line of the annual show. She continued working with the shows each year as a dancing and singing star, until she left Columbus in 1947.

In 1947 she sang with the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra. She left the orchestra and went to New York City to audition for the Radio City Music Hall ensemble. Susie was successful and sang with the group until she had the opportunity to audition for the Brigadoon cast.

She was signed as an understudy to the comic lead. The girl who held the role became sick, so Susie got her big break and moved into the role of Meg.

While Susan was in high school, she took part in all musical productions. She graduated from West High in 1945. From the time of her graduation until 1947, she appeared on a 7 a. m. program over WBNS.

Ticket Seller

C. H. Campbell

C. H. Campbell,, 91 S. Westmoor-av, heads the committee in charge of ticket sales for this year's production of the Hilltop Minstrels. Campbell, widely known throughout the Hilltop area has always been active in service club work in the community and this year is no exception to the rule.

He avers,, that since he is no longer completely tied down with business that he and his committee of "ticket pushers" will enable the current edition of the Hilltop Minstrel show to write into the records a true statement of, "the largest crowds ever in attendance."

Here is a college yell that dates back to 1904 when little Bethany College was a power in Kansas. It goes:

"Rockar! Stockar!
Thor Och Hans Bockar!
Kor Igenom! Kor Igenom!
Tjo! Tjo! Tjo! Betania!"

Translated, it boils down to "Hit that Line."

P.S. It's in Swedish.

Student: "What questions will you ask in our final examinations?"

Teacher: "Your books are just full of hints."

Costumer

Clarence Story

Clarence Story, of Story Dry Cleaners, 2420 W. Broad-st, is the man selected as chairman in charge of costumes for the twenty-second annual showing of the Hilltop Minstrels.

In this job, Story is well acquainted inasmuch as in his regular business he is familiar with all types of clothing and apparel. The task as costumer is a tedious one in which apparel for each of the many performances must be accounted for and on hand at all times. Story acting behind the scenes of the production is one of those individuals "who make the show go on." He is one of those unseen producers who keeps track of wardrobe and other accessories.

Thomas D. Rice Hailed As First Minstrel Man

Thomas Dartmouth Rice is not on any of the minstrel committees, but he is largely responsible for the Hilltop Minstrel shows.

Rice is known as the father of American Minstrelsy. He lived from 1808 to 1861 and became famous for a song and dance he did in "The Rifle," a short skit by Solon Robinson. Rice is also responsible for the use of the term "Jim Crow."

In "The Rifle," known as the first Negro minstrel, Rice did a song and peculiar limping dance that he had learned from an old Negro in Louisville, Ky., in 1828.

In his blackface costume Rice would do his dance as he sang the words:

"First on de heel tap, den on de toe,
Ebery time I turn about I jump Jim Crow.
Wheel about and turn and do jis so,
And ebery time I wheel about, I jump Jim Crow."

Chairman

C. C. Hartley

Probably the one person on the Hilltop who has been more closely allied with the Hilltop's annual Minstrel Show than anyone else is this year's chairman, C. C. Hartley. With but a break of approximately four years at different intervals when he was a member of the U.S. Navy or kept from participation by his business interests, he has had a role of some nature with the now widely heralded show.

Hartley appeared in the first show as an end man in 1930 and in 1931 assumed the post of director. He has served as director for 12 years, this year marks the second time he has acted in the capacity of chairman of the show, having been chairman of the event when he was president of the HBA.

Chairman Hartley still finds the time to participate in many civic functions in addition to a myriad of duties with his firm of Hartley Printing and Publishing Co.

Wolf "Gad, you must feel sheepish at a family reunion."

Then there was the joke about the traveling salesman who married the farmer's daughter because he was in love with her.

Little Girl: "Where did you get it?"
Little Boy: "Doctor Grant brought it."

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m. according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 15 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gilliam Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

Wars Come and Wars Go, But Hilltop Minstrels Go On

The war years were mighty bumpy and pleasure was hard to find, but the Hilltop Minstrel Shows kept the community laughing and entertained from Pearl Harbor to V-J Day.

The war did succeed in changing the usual tone of the shows, but war or no war, the shows went on.

In 1942, the show was produced in March, only a few short months after the Pearl Harbor attack. C. C. Hartley directed the show and the then Columbus Mayor Floyd Green was interlocutor. Chorus pianist F. L. Buckingham introduced a wartime element with his original composition Fight For America.

Mayor Green and Hartley headed the show again in 1943. The production was built around a patriotic theme with many of the newly introduced fighting songs featured. The dual dance team of Bernice and Earl Goodchild became a solo act when Earl was inducted and sent to Camp Robison, Ark. The mood for the show was set by Joan McKinney's recitation of the American Creed.

Lee Koontz directed the minstrels in 1944 aided by L. E. Saunders and H. G. Deems. The interlocutor was Dr R. J. Miller and Joe Briggs was the general chairman.

Director Koontz set the theme of the 1944 show when he said. "We're going to give them the works this year and for a little while give people a chance to relax from thinking of war work and war troubles."

At the time, a large number of Hilltopper were in uniform and many were at the war fronts. The home fronters were engaged in an all-out effort for maximum war production, people were working long hours and extra shifts ahd friends and relatives were in constant danger of becoming another unit on the casualty record. Hilltoppers welcomed a chance to relax.

In 1945, the minstrel show was given in April, a few months before the Japanese surrender. Lee Koontz again directed the production and again was assisted by Deems and Saunders. The show was patterned after the production of Al G. Fields. The chorus ended the program with This Is My Country.

Columbus Needs The USO Again

Day by day military activity around Columbus is becoming more and more prominent as hundreds of service men are being sent into this area.

This is creating the need of the establishment of proper recreation facilities for these many service men.

During the last war the USO of Columbus did a fine job in this field. Today there is an urgent need for the establishment of the USO in this city.

People of Columbus can be instrumental in the establishment of this program again if they will express their wishes to Mr. Leonard Stern at 17 S. High St., asking his support. Drop him a line today.

To Reveal "The Thing"

Harold Greene

If you're "sick and tired" of the song, if your kids pester the daylights out of you about what "it" is, if your mother-in-law refuses to give you any peace until you solve the riddle . . . better go to the Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Harold Greene and his accomplices will remove all doubts from your mind, rid you of those ingrating worries, Thursday and Friday, when they reveal the true identity of "THE THING."

No one, not even Dirctor Lee Koontz, can explain how "THE THING" got on board the showboat on which the minstrel's staging will be made. No one has seen the "bloomin'" THING, since it came on board . . . but everyone's sure that it's there.

One brave man, one man alone, has offered to unmask the unspeakable THING before the Minstrel audience, Harold Greene. If his efforts are successful (and who can doubt, but that they will be) the Hilltop, Columbus, Ohio, and the nation as a whole will undoubtedly crown Greene as a hero, for revealing "THE THING" for what it is.

What is it? Who knows? We don't, not yet, that is.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell, "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Former Hilltop Girl Receives Means Award

Mrs. Harriet Steece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Worthington, 248 N. Ogden, will be presented with the Means Award at the "capping" ceremonies of Ohio State University's School of Nursing at the King Avenue Methodist Church, at 2 p. m. Sunday, Apr. 15.

Dr. John W. Means, professor of surgery at Ohio State's College of Medicine, will present the award to the bride of one month. The award was established in memory of Dr. Means' father, Dr. William J. Means, former dean of the College of Medicine. It is granted annually to the student nurse who excels in surgical nursing.

Mrs. Steece, a senior at the university, will graduate in March, 1952.

Alumni Aid Development Fund for OSU

Margaret Armour

Alumni of Ohio State University living in the Hilltop area will be contacted this month concerning their contributions to the 1951 Franklin County Campaign of the Ohio State University Development Fund. Thomas J. Murnane, 2930 Palmetto-st, general chairman for Franklin County announced an opening date of April 16 for the campaign.

Serving as chairman for the Hilltop area is Margaret G. Armour who lives at 90 S. Ogden-av. Henry L. Wagner, 1818 Coventry-rd, is the local area agent. The fund's national goal for 1951 has been set at $300,000 of which Franklin County quota is $30,000.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gillilan Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busenberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Trescher, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

To Reveal "The Thing"

Harold Greene

If you're "sick and tired" of the song, if your kids pester the daylights out of you about what "it" is, if your mother-in-law refuses to give you any peace until you solve the riddle . . . better go to the Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Harold Greene and his accomplices will remove all doubts from your mind, rid you of those ingrating worries, Thursday and Friday, when they reveal the true identity of "THE THING."

No one, not even Dirctor Lee Koontz, can explain how "THE THING" got on board the showboat on which the minstrel's staging will be made. No one has seen the "bloomin'" THING, since it came on board . . . but everyone's sure that it's there.

One brave man, one man alone, has offered to unmask the unspeakable THING before the Minstrel audience, Harold Greene. If his efforts are successful (and who can doubt, but that they will be) the Hilltop, Columbus, Ohio, and the nation as a whole will undoubtedly crown Greene as a hero, for revealing "THE THING" for what it is.

What is it? Who knows? We don't, not yet, that is.

Joe: I saw a man eating shark at the aquarium.

Bill: That's nothing; I saw a man eating salmon in the park.

One way to get wise is to ask foolish questions.

Mr. Pelican: Come closer, dear, I can't be chasing you all night in this water and I feel romantic.

Mrs. Pelican: I'm expecting Mr. Crane over tonight, but I'll put you on my wading list.

Smith: I sent my wife to the mountains for the holidays?

Smithers: What holidays? Smith: Mine.

Customer: Honestly, is that hair grower any good

Drug Clerk: My dear sir, do you see this brush I am using? Until some of this hair grower was spilled on it last week it was a ping pong paddle.

Bill: Let's pitch pennies.

Angel Boy: What, gamble with real money

Bill: No, just with pennies.

A true friend is a man who knows you're no good and knows enough to forget it.

Judge: Ten dollars fine.

Violator: Can you change a twenty?

Judge: No, but I can change the fine.

Twenty dollars, please.

Music Teacher: For what purpose is a bridge on a violin?

Student: I suppose it's to get the music across.

He: What do they call the last five hairs on a dog's tail?

He: Dog hair.

HE WON'T BE MISSED

Eddie, the hardware store clerk had made a name for himself as the most inefficient and discourteous salesman ever. The atmosphere, when he was absent one day, was like the tranquil beauty of summer weather after a thunderstorm. One regular customer remarked on the difference.

"Eddie ain't just away for the day," said the proprietor, "he don't work here any more."

"Do you have anyone in mind for the vacancy" the customer asked.

"Nope," said the proprietor cheerfully, "Eddie didn't leave no vacancy.

"Oh darling, I've missed you! . . . And she raised her revolver and tried again.

Thundered he forth dramatically:

Blackface Comedian

Bad Man Bill

Ordinarily you wouldn't know this character as he appears in this year's 22nd Annual Hilltop Minstrel Show, but behind the layers of grease paint of an end man and makeup can be found the countenance of Bill Coon.

This year will mark the sixth time that Bill has appeared in the Hilltop Minstrel Shows and though he is particularly adept in black face he is also known as a horse fancier and rider.

Married and the father of two boys, Bill has made the Hilltop his home for 26 years. For the past several years he has been associated with The Hilltop Record as an advertising salesman.

A NARROW ESCAPE

A lawyer in our city noted for his toughness had to undergo a course of treatment for an ailment. Outraged by the doctor's bill, he bellowed, "Great Scott, Doc! All that for one week's treatment?

My grandfather notes the world's worn cogs,
And says we're going to the dogs;
His grand dad in his house of logs
Swore things were going to the dogs;
His dad amid the Flemish bogs
Vowed things were going to the dogs;
The cave man, in his queer skin togs,
Said things were going to the dogs;
But this is what I wish to state—
The dogs have had an awful wait.

An annual custom will again be observed this year when the last of the grease paint has been erased and the final curtain rung down on the 22nd Annual Hilltop Minstrel Show. The cast and the committees of the production celebrate with a party.

This year special research projects in several fields will again be assisted by fund money. Among these are Cancer and Heart Disease research, the Cryogenic Laboratory and the Research in Vision Institute. Additional money will also be put into scholarships.

Nearly $2,627,870 has been raised in the 12 years of the fund's existence.

Margaret G. Armour will be assisted by the following workers for the Hilltop area: Helen Aitken Apel, Bernice Nieder Bieber, K. Lurene Gilliam Bowser, Eliza Rodgers Busemberg, Paul V. Crosier, Betty Staats Finke, Virgil L. Furry, Dorothy Clark Hartley, John B. Israel, Millicent Jackson, Lucille Kirchner, E. James Langhurst, Emma Hastinge Line, Richard D. Mindigo, Alice R. Murnane, June-Lee Brown Nairn, and Mary Miller Spratley.

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools; may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by insurance through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal L. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $6 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils. 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

All over the region, on trees, fences and walls were target bull's-eyes with holes in the dead center, as evidence of his uncanny skill. "You certainly are a sharpshooter," the reporter said. "How do you do it?"

"Easy as pie," answered the dim-witted rifleman. "I just shoot first and then draw the circle."

FUNERALS

We buried the mouse that was caught in a trap,
And Caroline cried, for she said
He was furry and soft, and he wanted to play,
And she hated to think he was dead.

We buried the mouse and we had a parade,
The striped agate footstone was mine.
We put a cracked teapot for flowers at his head,
And Jane made a wreath. It was fine.

We buried the mouse about eight or ten times,
Parthenia and Melia and Jane
And Caroline cried. So we dug him all up
And buried him over again.

Columbus Needs The USO Again

Day by day military activity around Columbus is becoming more and more prominent as hundreds of service men are being sent into this area.

This is creating the need of the establishment of proper recreation facilities for these many service men.

During the last war the USO of Columbus did a fine job in this field. Today there is an urgent need for the establishment of the USO in this city.

People of Columbus can be instrumental in the establishment of this program again if they will express their wishes to Mr. Leonard Stern at 17 S. High St., asking his support. Drop him a line today.

Tickets Are "Still Available" For The Hilltop Minstrel Show

Next Thursday night at 8 p. m. in West High School auditorium the curtain will rise on the Twenty-Second Annual Hilltop Minstrel Show and in all likelihood there will be some disappointed folk in the community who will not be able to see it. The reason will be "no tickets available."

Advance sales of tickets for the annual Hilltop Business Association production have been reported as good up to this date and sales have also been reported as steady at the HBA offices, 3183 W. Broad-st.

C. H. Campbell, ticket chairman for the show, said today that the seating capacity of West High School auditorium is 1481 total seats. Of this capacity 1,051 seats are to be reserved for each night of the performance. Only 430 general admission tickets will be available each night of the Minstrel Show.

Although advance mail reservations of tickets for the show have been closed, Campbell points out that reserved seats for the balcony and the main floor are still available at Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st. Reserved seats are being sold at 75 cents each. General admission seats at 50 cents each are also available for the side and second balcony.

With the show this year patterned after the old time minstrel show, for which Hilltop folk have been clamoring for several seasons, the indications are that unless tickets are secured early, they may not be available at the last minute.

End Man

Joe Goodwin

Another of the characters to give the interlocutor of this year's Hilltop Minstrel Show a "hard time" is Joe Goodwin, proprietor of Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av. In his role as end man for the show Goodwin is teamed with Chubby Distelhorst, Bill Coon and Marvin Southworth as one of the jokesters who between acts keeps the audience in that laughing mood.

I think that I shall never see

A sister I don't care for much,
And I can take or leave a brother.

And, Ma, in honor of your day—
We'll all come home for dinner.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Slated for a two night stand the theme of this year's show revolves about "Back To The Showboat Days" when the old-time minstrel show was in that "golden era" of Jolson, Lasses and Honey, Al G. Fields and others. Interlocutor for the show is Noble L. Allen in the role of captain of the showboat.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell, "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

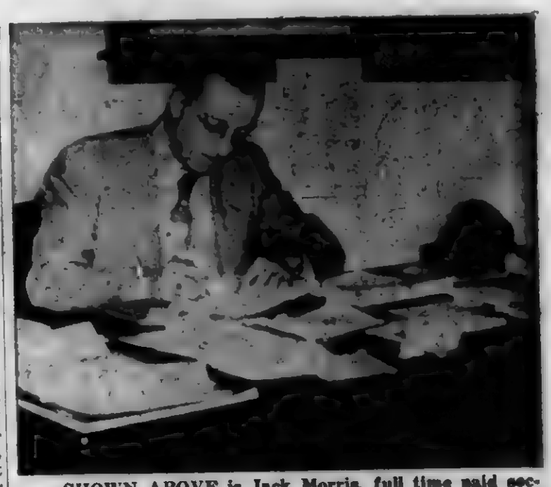
Hilltop Business Association Has Contributed Twenty-Five Years Of Service To The Community

For the past twenty-five years the Hilltop Business Association, Inc., has compiled an enviable record of public service that but few organizations anywhere can match. As sponsors of the Hilltop Minstrel Show for the past twenty-one years the membership of the organization now looks forward to the accomplishment of this community event for the twenty-second straight year.

Few Hilltoppers remember back over that span of twenty-five years when the Business Association had its first inception in the fall of 1925. And but few Hilltoppers even today realize how this progressive organization keeps its committees in touch with city, and state programs and officials; how it represents this section of Columbus by intelligently requesting and suggesting civic betterments for the Hilltop. Many of the small everyday problems are taken for granted by the public, but it has been the HBA that has tackled them, large and small.

It was in the year of 1924 that the Hilltop community received its so-called "white electric street lights." A parade and celebration were in order to mark the occasion and this was sponsored by several Hilltop business men who served barrels of cider and hundreds of doughnuts to the many who attended.

The success of this community get-together and far-sightedness of several business men as to the eventual worth of an organization for the common good prompted about 20 business men to band together and form the business organization known as Hilltop Improvement Club. This name was soon changed to the Hilltop Business Men's Association, which name has since been changed to the Hilltop Business Association, due to the fact that there are business ladies as well as men in the organization.



The first officers elected in 1925 were Carl M. Marsch, president; C. O. Miller, secretary; Fred Sulzberger, treasurer.

Some of the business men forming a nucleus of this association were A. Rogers, Seiler's, George Painter, Dr. T. S. Fox, George Matson, Fred Raether, Roy Hastings, Dr. L. Turner, Wyatt Millikin, J. D. Budd, Dr. Wolfe, Cliff Cohn. Some of these members are now deceased, but the pleasant memory of their work lingers on.

At present the association is composed of approximately 200 business men and women of the Hilltop who are representative of a complete cross section of business establishments in the community. Officers of the organization are: John E. Nippert, president; Alva Nafzger, first vice-president; Sarabelle Henderson, second vice-president; Robert Kneisley, treasurer and trustees, C. H. Campbell, Dr. E. E. McNamee and Jerry Watson.

The organization has grown not only in membership but also in its activities. They sponsor the well known Hilltop Minstrels, Football Appreciation Banquets for West High football teams. They help and cooperate with other civic organizations in furthering the progress and needs of the Hilltop community, not only in a business way but also culturally, morally and scholastically.

The business men feel that a well educated community is a progressive one, and a truly democratic one, working together for the common good, providing good and pleasant neighborliness, promoting continued church attendance and fostering clean, ethical competition among business men, backbone of national economy.

SHOWN ABOVE is Jack Morris, full time paid secretary of the Hilltop Business Association at his desk in the new offices of the HBA at 3183 W. Broad-st. Morris has now been with the association for nearly a year and acts as correlator of the many activities of the organization. In addition to his duties as secretary Morris also conducts the sales tax and drivers license agency for the HBA. Minstrel time too is a busy season for the secretary.

June: I hear Mary and her father are carrying on a bakery business.

Lorraine: Her father runs the business and Mary does the carrying on.

Day by day military activity around Columbus is becoming more and more prominent as hundreds of service men are being sent into this area.

This is creating the need of the establishment of proper recreation facilities for these many service men.

During the last war the USO of Columbus did a fine job in this field. Today there is an urgent need for the establishment of the USO in this city.

People of Columbus can be instrumental in the establishment of this program again if they will express their wishes to Mr. Leonard Stern at 17 E. High St., asking his support. Drop him a line today.

Hilltop Major Relaxes Here After 120 Missions In Jets

After 120 combat missions in Korea, Maj. Clyde E. Good says that he just wants to "take things easy for awhile," but on the other hand, if an order comes through allowing air force planes to cross the Yalu River, "I'll go back willingly . . . right now!" he declared.

Maj. Good, 32, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Good, 334 S. Hoyt-av, entered combat last June 29, after the North Koreans invaded South Korea. He was one of the jet pilots described as "soldiers by day." He was usually able to eat breakfast with his wife at home in Japan, fly his mission, and be back home in time for supper.

After flying his 120 missions in an F-80 Shooting Star and acting as deputy commanding and executive officer of the Ninth Squadron of the 49th Fighter Group, Maj. Good has but one complaint. "You can't do a thing once they get across that Yalu River. They wait across that line and you can't even as much as throw a rock at them."

A favorite trick of pilots (often theorized as Chinese) flying for the North Koreans and the Communists has been to fly across the Chinese border until the American ships in the area are running low on fuel, and then race across in numbers and attempt to engage the U.S. ships in combat until they run out of fuel.

Speaking on the questioned number of casualties inflicted on the Communists by the Air Force, Maj. Good cited an instance when about 2,000 Red troops were known to be on the side of a hill. Twenty F-80's went in on them with napalm bombs, rockets and .50 caliber machine guns. The Air Force claimed 135 deaths inflicted by the saturation; ground forces later counted over 1100 dead on the hill, caused by the one raid.

Maj. Good entered the Air Force in 1941 and was sent to the Pacific Theater. In 1945 he was assigned to Japan. He remained with the occupation forces until he returned to this country in 1947. He was sent to China in 1948. After he spent two months in Shanghai, he was reassigned to Japan.

He and his wife, Betsy, who was in Japan with him on both of his tours of duty there, are visiting with his parents Mrs. Good managed a post exchange in Japan.

Maj. Good is being assigned to duty as staff operations officer of the tactical air command at Langley Field, Va.

Hayes To Speak At All-Sports Banquet

Wayne "Woody" Hayes newly named coach at Ohio State University has been secured as the principal speaker at the annual West High All-Sports Banquet which is to be held at the Southern Hotel on Monday, May 28, according to announcement this week.

Earlier published reports that the banquet date had been set for May 23 were discounted as incorrect by members of the local committee in charge of the affair.

On Wednesday evening representatives of the six local civic organizations sponsoring the affair met at the offices of the Hilltop Business Association to discuss further plans for the annual event. No further information, however, was forthcoming as to definite plans of the group.

Six Hilltop civic organizations are co-sponsors of the annual athlete recognition dinner. They are, The Hilltop Business Association, Hilltop Kiwanis Club, Camp Chase American Legion Post, Hilltop Lions Club, West High School Boosters and the West High Athletic Association.

General chairman of the event is A. W. Dailey of the Hilltop Lions Club.

Classified Ads Deadline To Be Closed Earlier

In order to better serve the needs of classified advertisers and to meet the demands of high speed production, new deadlines for classified advertising copy have been set up and become effective for the next issue of The Hilltop Record.

Under the revised deadline schedules the final deadline for all classified contract advertisers is to be Tuesday, at 12 o'clock noon preceding date of issue. This means that all advertisements which are to be carried under specific classifications must be in by noon on Tuesdays.

Classified advertising received after 12 noon on Tuesdays and until 3:30 p. m. Tuesdays will be carried under a general heading of "Too Late To Classify." After 3:30 p. m. on Tuesday no classified advertising for Thursday's edition will be accepted.

Proof that Record Classified advertising really pays is evidenced by the heavy number of requests to place ads after the deadlines have closed. We've tried to accommodate late advertisers, but in doing so we have increased production costs to such extent that it has become prohibitive from the standpoint of good business.

To be sure your advertisement gets into those selling columns of the RECORD, phone or bring your advertisement to The Hilltop Record office before noon on Tuesday and no later than 3:30 p. m. in order to get into the "Too Late To Classify" column.

Instead of sawing the refrigerator into two halves, the parents have decided to sell the prize and give the children the money. Both eight-year-old Richard and the seven-year-old Debbie are students of the Keith School of Dance, 15 N. Westmoor-av.

What Is Your Opinion?

Record Begins Poll On Current Questions

Beginning with this issue of The Hilltop Record, a new feature will be carried in this newspaper—a feature that should be of interest to every person on the Hilltop who is aware of issues that confront the American way of life today.

This new feature, which will be carried on the editorial pages of the Record after today, is in the form of a poll among our readers to determine just what Mr. and Mrs. America of the Hilltop think of topics that are of importance to all.

The questions which are to be propounded in this poll will chiefly concern various issues which are currently before our congressional leaders in Washington. The first of these questions is offered today. Study the questions which have been proposed, then express your views on the subject by balloting and send the clipped ballot to The Hilltop Record office at 2465 W. Broad-st. A tabulation will be carried in the following issue showing how Hilltoppers feel about the political and economic subjects of the day.

What is your opinion on,

House Joint Resolution 12, a bill requesting that the president tell the people through Congress just what our foreign policy is.

Typical comments in regard to the above stated issue are:

FOR: This bill is in line with the policy that ours is a government of the people, who have a right to know what our foreign policy is—if we have one. Any secret, zigzag course followed by the administration will leave our country weak and alone. The only way to get this information is for Congress to be kept fully and currently informed. Then if the people find our foreign policy a failure, they can turn it over to Congress. This will strengthen our nation and restore public confidence.

AGAINST: This bill is unconstitutional and dangerous. The Congress makes the president responsible for foreign policy. This bill makes foreign policy a plaything of party politics. Congressional interference would delay decisions and endanger our nation in this fast-moving world. This bill is misleading because the president has kept Congress informed through house and senate foreign relations committees. It is an effort by some in Congress to duck responsibility for their own past actions.

Send in your ballot today and then next week look on Page 4 of The Hilltop Record and find out how your opinion agrees with your Hilltop neighbors on the questions of the day.

Annual Hilltop Minstrel To Open Tonight At West

It's curtain time tonight at West High School auditorium when months of planning, rehearsals and plain hard work bear fruit for the men of the Hilltop Business Association. At 8 p. m. the curtain will go up on the production of the twenty-second annual Hilltop Minstrel Show.

Although ticket sales to the 22nd showing of the Hilltop Minstrel have been reported as "fairly good", there are still plenty of good reserved seats available, according to Ticket Chairman C. H. Campbell.

"It's not too late to get a reserved seat," said Campbell. "They are still available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 2183 W. Broad-st and will be until 5 p. m. today and all day Friday until 5 p. m. for the Friday performance."

Tickets will also be available at the box office at West High School both nights at 7 p. m., according to Campbell.

Show Director Lee Koontz predicts that the production which will grace the stage at West High School tonight and tomorrow will be one of the best shows yet produced in the 22 years the Hilltop Business Association has sponsored the community event. He said that the program for the show will follow this pattern:

Brown Twp. Eyes New Levy

Following the lead of the city dwellers, the Brown District school board studied the possibility of bringing a levy increase to the township voters next November to provide for salary raises for teachers to match the standard set in Columbus.

E. R. Beck, assistant county superintendent of schools, compared the two salary scales at the regular board meeting. He pointed out that the starting salary in Columbus was $2400 a year against $1980 in Brown School District.

Study Driver Education Classes For West High Fall Curriculum

West High School, along with other Columbus schools, may have driver education classes next fall.

Supt. N. G. Fawcett told school board members that a limited driver education program now being considered would involve the use of three training cars for six city high schools to train approximately 96 pupils at each school year.

He said there is considerable public demand for driver education. He pointed out that it has been successfully introduced in other Ohio high schools and is a definite means of increased traffic safety for young drivers.

Fawcett asked the board, particularly the curriculum committee headed by Carl Tresemer, to study the suggested program before final action is taken. Cars for driver education are furnished by dealers through the American Automobile Association and the Columbus Auto Club. Principal cost of the program to the board would be for certified instructions to teach the classes.

The Hilltop school, according to Principal I. F. Young, may follow this procedure, if drivers' education is instituted.

This class will be limited to two classes of 24 pupils each.

Pupils taking it at West must have a study period before or after the class work, for behind the wheel time.

Instruction will consist of both classroom work and actual driving, Mr. Young said.

The probable fee will be $4 per pupil and one-half credit will be offered for one semester's work.

The parents' consent will be required on AAA standard release form.

Finally, it will be offered to 11th and 12th grade pupils. 12A's have first opportunity, provided their schedule will permit. 12B's will get next chance and then 11A's and 11B's, Mr. Young concluded.

Local Junior Achievement Company Contracts To Supply All Street Signs At Harrisburg

Two 17-year-old aggressive West High Seniors, top officials in a division of Junior Achievement Incorporated, The Swafer Metal Co., recently negotiated a deal that any successful business man would have been happy to "close."

President of the company, Howard Merriman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Merriman, 44 S. Sylvan-av, and sales manager, Dick Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Briggs, 34 Algonquin-av, sold a neat contract to the neighboring town of Harrisburg, on the 3C Highway.

The Junior Achievement executives, upon launching their business enterprise last fall envisioned a whole town using their products.

So, they selected a commodity that was universally needed and set about to manufacture reflectorized house and street signs.

A member of the Harrisburg council, employed by the sponsor of the J. A. Co. (Buckeye Steel Castings) saw the product and impressed with it contacted the officers of the Swafer Metal Co. asking them to consider supplying Harrisburg with street signs.

The signs, according to specifications, were to be white with red scotch-lite letters and a hand wrought twister steel bracket.

In a conference with Harrisburg city officials, the details as to street names and the quantity of signs were discussed and a contract was drawn.

A practical business man, Horace A. Moses, chairman of the Strathmore Paper Company, is the originator of the idea on which "Junior Achievement" is based. He, together with the late Theodore N. Vail, former president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the late Senator Murray A. Crane of Massachusetts, conceived the plan in 1919. This resulted in the incorporation of Junior Achievement, Inc., on Nov. 29, 1929.

The first Junior Achievement company was organized in Springfield, Mass. In 1929 some companies were started in the New York metropolitan area. In 1942 national headquarters were set up in New York City, and a national expansion program was launched on Jan. 1, 1943.

With the cooperation of school authorities, students in the junior and senior years of high school are informed on the Junior Achievement program and are invited to join and form a JA company. Anywhere from 10 to 25 students meet, decide on a product or service they can sell, and select a name for their company. They sell stock at 50 cents a share to finance their companies and get into production. From the money they make on sales they pay themselves wages. They also elect their own board of directors. Officers appoint their own production and sales managers, stockholders and learn the relationship of each job and function.

Junior Achievement arranges for competent supervision and guidance by adult supervisors who are experts in production, business and sales. Junior Achievement provides a laboratory experience and training in which the student learns, through actual participation, bookkeeping, accounting, sales, advertising, market research, production, planning company financing and management.

You Can Help Prevent Crime

The Columbus Police Department stands ready at all times to protect you, your family and your property. Without the cooperation of every law abiding citizen of the community, the effectiveness of the Police Department is made more difficult. Columbus has an enviable record in criminal apprehensions and the recovery of stolen property. With the cooperation of everyone in this community that record can be improved still more.

You too, can aid in the fight to decrease the number of crimes and offenses by the observance of a few simple rules.

Call Police Headquarters whenever you observe any suspicious person, unusual occurrences or happenings, telephone the police immediately by dialing MAin 2231 or by dialing the operator and asking for Police Headquarters.

When connected, advise the police operator that you have a complaint. She will then connect you with the dispatcher who has charge of all police cruisers. State your case completely and quickly by giving the location where police are needed, a brief account of what occurred, decription of persons involved, license number and description, including color and make, if an automobile is involved, and give the direction of escape, if known.

Don't take it for granted that the police have been called or that an occurrence or shred of information is too insignificant. The Columbus Police Department would rather investigate a hundred reports than have a single offense occur which could have possibly been prevented. Minor incidences ofttimes lead to the apprehension of a criminal.

Your cooperation with the police department can prevent crime.

It's All in the Point of View

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Charles Sawyer, Commerce Secretary, talking too frequently, and in circles, embarrasses his colleagues on the Mall.

• • •

They say, referring to his carnival park, "The Cincinnati Coney Island Kid can't tell the difference between giving the people a fast whirl for a dime on a Gayway Concession, and giving the people a fast whirl for billions."

C. W. Harder

• • •

There is a fervent wish he would quit his pre-occupation with the monopoly sideshow.

• • •

Opposition party attacks on a cabinet officer are common. But Sawyer is being repudiated most energetically by his own party.

• • •

His latest idea. Newspapers, he tells Ohio newspapermen, should refrain from printing some news for "national security". As he has nothing to do with military strategy, attending newsmen quickly dubbed it a plea for "Sawyer security". He said, "It (censorship) would I am sure, make the task of the public official much easier."

• • •

But Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath, who operates out in the open told newsmen there are no plans for an implied, disguised, direct or indirect censorship.

• • •

Undoubtedly, censorship would suit Sawyer. Just recently this column reported how a House Judiciary Committee, headed by N. Y. Democrat Rep. E Celler, condemned a Sawyer plan to use a half billion American dollars to finance a new aluminum plant for Alcoa's Canadian affiliate.

Called to testify Sawyer "double-talked" through a half hour. One observer said, "He squirmed and ducked so much there kept running through my mind the popular melody, 'Cincinnati Dancing Pig'."

• • •

Senate Small Business Committe has opened public hearings to investigate the strange ousting of Earl Glenn, a Commerce Dept. career man, as head of rubber allocation. He was replaced by Leland Spencer, vice president of a subsidiary of the rubber monopoly.

• • •

There was an attempt to have the hearings in secret. Before that, Sawyer contacted Sen. John Sparkman, head of the committee, attempted to forestall the hearing, terming the Glenn ouster a matter of administration net policy. But Sen. Sparkman, hailing from Alabama believes in bringing out truth in the open.

• • •

Many bureaucrats now desire to keep non-defense information from the public. ECA quits announcing who sells the billions of merchandise the Marshall Plan is giving away.

• • •

Big Business, getting the lion's share of the business, objected. Besides, Marshall Plan officials are being embarrassed by publication of their actions.

• • •

An example. Sometime ago this column reported government is buying French industrial alcohol at $1.25 per gallon for defense needs. The big U. S. distillers refused to sell except at a price range of from 90c to $1.25 per gallon.

• • •

But ECA Bulletin No. 3000 reports Marshall Plan has bought $130,000 of alcohol from American distillers and given it to France. Next week other reasons for the bureaucrat's desire for an Iron Curtain along the Potomac will be regulated.

STARLING'S METAL SHOP

By Dick Davis

With other schools the metal shop of Starling has a display at the Columbus Hardware Store, 35 E Gay-st. Some of the things taken there are trowel, pancake turner, spring punches, hammer, T-handle tap wrench, parallel clamps, bar clamps, wood lathe centers and some gears. These were made by 8B, 9B and 9A classes. These classes are conducted by W. B. Walsh, who has taught metal at Starling for 20 years.

Dear Friends:

We are a small group trying to build a church.

Four years ago I was given up to die by several local doctors, suffering coronary rupture of the heart vessel, enlarged heart, hardening of the heart arteries.

God spoke to my husband to have prayer meetings in our home every Thursday night.

We minded God and had our meetings—then, with the help of God's people, a tent was purchased and put up next door to our home.

God so wonderfully blessed and I lay on my porch and listened to the good old-fashioned meetings. Then it started to turn cold weather. I thought oh! how I'd miss those meetings, hearing the word of God, seeing God's people blessed.

Then God spoke to me and said, "Build a Church," and gave me a vision of a church and a crowd going in.

This is our aim and heart's desire—to accomplish what God has put on our hearts.

Since this time God has healed my heart condition, raised me up and God's house has been started.

The lot was donated to the church by one of our friends. Dale Block Co. donated 200 blocks to start construction, as well as many offerings that have helped.

Anyone who is interested in this work and would care to give of their services, or donate any material or help, it would be greatly appreciated.

We are an organized church now and have our credentials.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Thelma Rathburn

TAX STAMP CONTEST

By Dixie Wood

In homeroom 11 a contest is being held to determine who can bring in the most tax stamps, the boys or girls. This contest started last semester when the pupils were TB's. The boys have won three times out of five months, and the girls twice out of 2 months.

In this contest the losers make cookies for the winners. The professional cookie makers so far include Gail Arnette, Judith Finley, Joan Kelly, Phyllis Ogilvie, Betty Reese, Shirley Rodgers, Suzanne Shell, Robert Hartman, Richard McClain, Larry Miller, Richard Summons and Ray Williams.

The total amount of stamps turned in since the contest started is $1,489.24. Last semester the pupils in this room turned in $732.21; this semester so far they have given $757.03. Room 11's goal is $2000.

The people in Starling wish to thank all of the friends of Starling who are contributing their sales tax stamps to the school.

Some men think they are famous when they are only attracting attention.

SUNSHINE

Too Much CAN BE HARMFUL!

Sunshine activates a certain chemical substance in the body to form Vitamin "D", that powerful and essential agent for the development of calcium and phosphorous in the body. Bones, teeth and general resistive powers profit by Vitamin "D" . . . therefore, you will have greater resistive powers in winter, if you store up sunshine in the summer.

However, too much sunshine can be harmful. A blistered back is just as painful from the sun as from the fire. Sun-stroke is a dangerous and debilitating experience. Women can dry out their skins and sunburn their hair so badly, it will require months to revitalize them.

Accustom yourself gradually to the sun's rays—a little each day. Acquire your sun-tan by degrees. Protect your table and head. The sunshine will do you just as much good, and the Vitamin "D" storage will be just as complete, if the tan is acquired on limbs and body.

As one prominent Doctor told his patient, "You don't have to cook your brains, in order to get a sun-tan."

RED CROSS COURSE

By Anna Barr

Do you know how to care for a sick person at home, especially when there is not much equipment available, The making of paper waste bags, how to wash hands properly before caring for some one, don an apron correctly, or turn a patient in bed—these are all useful and interesting things learned this week by the students in Home Ec. III class in their Red Cross Home Nursing Course.

SPORTSLANTS

By Dave Miller

The Magley Field turf is beginning to feel that annual spring beating it takes when the calendar turns its pages over to spring.

The baseball diamond gets its nightly workout now that the ole weatherman has finally released his green light. And, of course the track team gives the oval quite a shaking up, especially when it not only holds some 40 senior high runners but some 25 more from junior high.

As far as sports is concerned, and the calendar for that matter, spring is here.

• • •

If one should drop over near West around practice time it's like seeing a three-ring circus, with all the athletes out on the spacious athletic field, conditioning themselves for another season of spring sports.

Included in the circus is baseball coach George Williams. Since his leg injury last March, and his return to school two weeks ago, the likeable baseball and basketball mentor at West is taking no chances.

His star first baseman, Mo Dobbs, brought him a wastepaper basket out on the field the other day, following a near accident with the horsehide the day previous. The coach merely sits back, coaches the baseballers, with that one foot in the bucket.

Something, funny? Brother, that is it.

• • •

Speaking of baseball, Coach Williams made a cut of the squad recently from 33 down to 27, and will again diminish the present number to 22 or 20.

However one pitcher expected to see plenty of service for the Cowboys this year, Jim Smith, is having scholastic troubles and may be ineligible for this season of play.

• • •

Our mistake: It was reported a few weeks back that Jim Lang did not receive a versity letter as a trackman last year. He did, and we apologize humbly. However, Jim won't be around for duty this year, suffering from a leg injury incurred in basketball.

• • •

The West baseballers had a six-inning intra-squad game last Friday, with the first-stringers winning, 5-0. Ted Fladt hurled hitless ball for the winners.

• • •

Two wrestlers represented West in the Central YMCA Wrestling Tournament staged last Saturday afternoon in the Central "Y" gym.

Cliff Everett, a senior, and Jim Morgan, a freshman were the lone representatives from Powell-av. Cliff took a third place, experiencing three meets, as Morgan, drawing a toughie in his initial match was defeated.

• • •

Why are Canton McKinley, Hamilton, Barberton, etc. always the powerhouse in high school football? That question, to many folks, seemingly can never be answered, but here's one answer we discovered during state tournament time:

Canton has 828 boys enrolled in school; Hamilton, 450, and Barberton, 410. East has only 325, which is normal for all the surrounding high schools.

This figure, along with the fact that junior high football is permitted in those areas, readily answers the question asked so frequently by local followers.

Phil Young, a West graduate of June, 1950, signed a baseball contract with the Detroit Tigers of the American League several weeks ago and left last week to train with Williamsport, Pa.

Young, the City League's leading basketball scorer during the 1949-50 season; West's most valuable basketball player; All-City three years in baseball and two in basketball, established quite a record at West and goes down in its annals and one of its all-time greats.

• • •

Baseball practice has started nightly for Junior High diamond Coach O. D. (Red) Lehman, who seems reasonably optimistic about prospects for the 1951 season.

And the junior high mentor has reasons for being such. He has only three returning varsity lettermen. "But those returnees are all back in valuable spots," states Lehman.

He has Jimmy Vincent at shortstop; Jimmy Hughes behind the plate; and Jim Kimball on the mound or in the outfield. And those three Jims could well pace West Junior to their second straight junior high championship.

The Broncs will open their season Tuesday, Apr. 24, hosting to Mound Jr. Following will be Starling, Crestview, Everett, Indianola, and Roosevelt.

• • •

Another West graduate, Dick Hoover, will be pitching in the American Association this season, being one of the promising moundsmen for Milwaukee's Brewers.

Dick will probably be realizing a life-long ambition when he opposes the Red Birds in Red Bird Stadium this season. Dick's 16-5 record with Atlanta of the Southern Association last summer earned him the triple A classification this year.

• • •

West will engage in a holiday basketball carnival at Hamilton, O., next winter over the Christmas holidays.

The date is unavailable, but Upper Arlington, Hamilton, Lockland Wayne, and West are the competing schools.

West Bowlers Are In Runnerup Spot

The West High bowling team is tied for second place in the teachers' league at Riverview Recreation.

The West High bowlers are Adolph Kittel, C. W. Michel, O. D. Lehman, and Joseph Zupancic of Everett Junior High.

Spring Sports Return To Spotlight

Lower right trackmen: Kenny Hallam, Rennie Coup, Gene Harrison, and Jerry Witherspoon.

Phil Young, West Grad Of '50, Enters Pro Ball

Phil Young, a West graduate of June, 1950, left 10 days ago to report to a Detroit Tiger farm club, following his signing of a contract with the Motor City.

Phil, an all-around athlete while here at West, played three years of varsity baseball and two of first five basketball. They were the only sports Phil participated in.

Young, in his three-year stint in baseball, overall won 30 games while losing only 12. In junior high, while winning four of five loop games, he struck out 64 to set a new record.

The 6-3 athlete was voted the cage team's most valuable player in the 1949-50 season in addition to being the league's leading scorer and co-captain of the West five. He also made unanimous honors for the all-city cage squad.

Casting Club Moves Sunday To Westgate

Anticipating better weather conditions, the Columbus Casting Club this Sunday afternoon will move their activities outdoors, according to an announcement this week by Charles Harter, 2733 Sutton-av, president of the organization.

Harter said that indoor practice sessions have been held at West High School for the past six weeks and that beginning Sunday the members will meet on the lawn at Westgate Park to practice with standard indoor targets.

As soon as water is filled into Westgate Park Lake, members of the organization will be afforded the use of a new casting platform which has recently been constructed by the city in an improvement project.

Students Prepare For Recognition Day

Students in the industrial arts classes are working very hard in preparation for Recognition Day, to be held at West High School Tuesday evening, April 24.

Recognition Day differs from the regular open house in that student works from the entire year will go on display. This gives the students and teachers an opportunity to acquaint the public with what they are doing.

Each class has appointed student juries to select works which in their estimation are worthy of fine arts, home arts, and science recognition. These will be judged by outsiders in accordance to good, excellent, and superior qualities.

Recognition Day was inaugurated to include everyone, students, teachers, and parents alike.

It is hoped that Recogaition Day will become an annual event in West High's social program.

Woman Gets First Haircut, Permanent Wave In 81 Yrs.

BEFORE . . . Jessie Chilcote, 130 Powhatan-av, sits patiently while Arthur L. Mahler, owner-operator of the Westmoor Beauty Shop, 3093 W. Broad-st, brushes out her hair. The picture was taken shortly before Mahler gave Miss Chilcote the first haircut of her 81 years. Her hair measured over three feet in length.

AFTER . . . Minus 81 years' growth of hair, Miss Chilcote, who has held the same job with a Columbus firm since 1913, relaxes. Her haircut was not her only first, since it was also her first trip to the beauty shop. Asked how it felt to lose so much hair after wearing it so long, she answered, "It feels fine." Miss Chilcote works six days a week and has missed only a few days work in her lifetime.

When a girl giggles at everything you say it's a sign someone once told her she had a keen sense of humor.

Product of Hilltop Manufacturing Firm Has Vital Role in Both War and Peace-Time Scheme of Life

Wesleyan Service Guild of Westgate Methodist Church will meet for a pot-luck dinner Monday, Apr. 16, 6:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. James Huntley, 3095 Parkside-rd. Mrs. Roy Krouse will serve as assistant hostess.

Operations on a large and small scale are pictured above. Both commutators are manufactured by Nippert Products for the same bomber. One is about three-eighths of an inch in height while the other is approximately four. Comparison of the smaller commutator with the pack of safety matches makes obvious the skill necessary to manufacture it.

The story of the commutator reaches from vacuum cleaner to bomber, from movie projector to 10-ton trucks.

Commutators for jet fighters, bombers, trucks, electric drills, presses, electric mixers, automobiles and nearly everything that has a motor and a generator are being built by the Nippert Electric Products Co. Their products are standard equipment on fighting machines in Korea.

The dictionary describes a commutator as "any contrivance for reversing the direction of the current in an electric circuit," or "An assembly of individually insulated segments connected with the armature of a dynamo or generator and serving to collect and transmit the induced current."

The definition doesn't explain, however, that the commutator has literally saved hundreds and perhaps thousands of American lives in combat by allowing the replacement of hydraulic lines used in fighter and bomber ships in early WWII with simple fine wires connecting electric motors and controls. In the planes whose controls were operated by hydraulic lines, a single bullet or shrapnel burst could knock out almost all of the pilot's controls with one blow. Using commutators and electric motors, twin and even triplet circuits can be routed through all parts of the ship, insuring control in spite of almost any damage sustained. The use of such electrical systems has also resulted in having many vital pounds normally lost in hundreds of feet of hydraulic tubing and hydraulic fluids.

The Nippert Electric Products Co. went into the manufacturing of commutators and electrical equipment for automobiles in 1936 in a plant on E. Broad-st. As the business grew, the demand for space also grew, so much so that the company had to construct a new plant. In 1946 the company moved into its home at 1750 W. Mound-st.

The modern brick plant on W. Mound-st. an outgrowth of the business founded by Paul Nippert in 1936, contains masses of delicate and accurate machinery for the exacting production of commutators. Most of the manufacturing equipment was designed and built by the company itself. The machines have been so successful that many other businesses manufacturing commutators have purchased equipment from the local company.

The production of the commutators begins with the drawing of huge rolls of copper through a shaping machine that forms the the strand of copper wire into almost a "v". The copper wire is then cut into specific lengths and ground mica sheets are fitted between the segments and cut once more to the length of the finished product.

The segments are machined down to the proper diameter, sandblasted to smooth the entire surface; baked in an oven at temperatures up to 550 degrees Fahrenheit for periods ranging to 15 hours; riveted into a solid unit by a hydraulic press capable of applying a 32-ton pressure; slotted, and inspected under currents as high as 2500 volts.

As a finished product, the commutator is then shipped to the factory where your new vacuum cleaner, automobile, or perhaps the plane your son will fly is being built. A commutator is as important to the machine as your heart is to you; it is essential.

SOIL ANALYSIS ELIMINATES ALL GUESSWORK
And provides a complete program for lawn and garden care during the growing season.
HERE'S THE BEST WAY TO GET SOIL READY FOR AN ANALYSIS—
Use a hand trowel to get a sample of soil as deep as the trowel, approximately 4 inches square. Place it in a wide-mouth Mason jar, coffee can or wrap in wax paper. If samples of several 'spots' are taken be sure to mark the location on the container. Bring the samples to Seely's for a soil analysis that will tell you exactly which soil builder to use.

Fair and warm or cold and blustery, do it this week!
A SOIL ANALYSIS NOW CAN SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY LATER. Call or stop for any additional information.

WAVE Enlistments Are Speeded Up

Columbus Navy Recruiting Office has been designated as a main station for the procurement of women for the regular navy. Starting Apr. 10, physical examinations are being given by medical officers assigned to the navy recruiting station in the New Post Office. Previously all women were sent to Cincinnati or Pittsburgh for their physical examinations.

Mary K. Whitmer, yeoman first class, WAVE recruiter from the Hilltop, stated that this new arrangement will greatly speed up enlistments by eliminating the extra travel time previously required.

WAVE enlistments have been stepped up in the past few weeks, cutting the waiting period to a minimum.

Unmarried high school graduates between the ages of 20 and 25 inclusive, who are interested in learning about enlistment requirements, should contact Miss Whitmer at the New Post Office Building, or telephone MA. 5323.

Mrs. Anna Lavergne, Church Point, Louisiana, says she has a word of advice for those folks who seem always blue, mad at the world, or think cloudy skies are always hanging over their heads. Mrs. Lavergne says most folks when they act that way must not be feeling well . . . 'cause a poor disposition is a sure sign of trouble. Mrs. Lavergne says, just taking herself as an example . . . now that she is taking HADACOL there isn't a person in the world who can make her mad for HADACOL seemed to be what she needed. Yes HADACOL may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mrs. Lavergne's own statement: "You don't know how wonderful it feels to be in such good condition— after two years of feeling run-down. I had a very poor appetite—in fact, food didn't agree with me at all. I had a hard time sleeping nights . . . sometimes I would stay awake until 1 or 2 in the morning and then the next day I would feel tired and groggy all day long. You have no idea how terrible I felt. Now all this is gone . . . yes, now that I have been taking HADACOL, I feel wonderful. I get lots of good, sound sleep, have a fine appetite and just lots of energy. I can eat any kind of food now and it doesn't bother me a bit. I just can't begin to thank HADACOL."

Don't Put Off Taking HADACOL . . . do as thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron are doing. The HADACOL formula is very effective for stomach distress, insomnia due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, and a general run-down condition if they are due to such deficiencies. Make up your mind to give HADACOL a chance to help you as it has helped others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or economy size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your money will be refunded.

Scout Troop Earns Funds For Summer Camp

BOY SCOUTS OF TROOP 49 at Wilson School in the Brown-rd area have made up their minds that they're going to Camp Lazarus this summer on July 15. To make sure they get to go they are out in force these days doing something about earning their own funds to enable the troop to attend the summer camp.

This past week they started a canvass of their neighborhood soliciting subscriptions to The Hilltop Record from which they receive a generous commission that will swell the total of their camping fund and insure all the boys an opportunity to attend camp.

Patricia Cozad Mar. 25th Bride Of Private George W. Tyler

Mrs. George W. Tyler

Burgess Avenue E.U.B. Church was the setting on Easter Sunday, Mar. 25, for the ceremony uniting Miss Patricia Cozad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Cozad, 546 S. Richardson-av, and Pvt. George W. Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Tyler, Galloway.

A program of pre-nuptial music was presented by Miss Marion Embleton, vocalist, and Mrs. Richard Grant, organist. Rev. C. F. Lutz, assisted by Rev. Irvin Lane, officiated at the afternoon ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of snapdragons, lilies, greenery and seven-branch candelabras.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a net and seed pearl trimmed neckline. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands. The gown buttoned down the back and from the fitted bodice fell a circular skirt extending into a wide chapel train. The veil of imported French illusion was held in place with a pearl tiara. Her bouquet was an orchid surrounded by stephanotis mounted on a white Bible, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Eleanor Cozad, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an orchid lace and net gown with a satin sash and buttons over a hoop skirt. She wore matching mitts and bonnet. Her bouquet was an orchid mounted on a white Bible which was a gift of the bride. The bridesmaids, Misses Eileen Davis and Jean Fichtelman, were similarly gowned in meadow green. They too carried orchids on white Bibles, a gift of the bride.

Mr. Ray Tyler, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and seating the guests were Mr. Jack Hann, nephew of the bridegroom, Mr. John Giles, brother of the bridegroom, Mr. John Griffin and Mr. Edward Cherryholmes.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Thomas. Hostesses were Miss Mary Robbins, aunt of the bride, Miss Ann Tyler, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Dorothy Hann, niece of the bridegroom, Miss Peggy Lee, Miss Rita Leibensperger, Mrs. Margaret Baughman, Mrs. Nancy McNichols and Mrs. Georgia Leibensperger.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue crepe trimmed in white. She wore an orchid hat and her corsage was an orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore an aqua dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a navy blue suit with blue and white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Pvt. Tyler left Apr. 6 for Camp Stoneman, Cal., where he will be stationed with the U. S. Army for a short time. The new Mrs. Tyler is completing her nurse's training at Ohio State University, where she will graduate in December.

Like a Skyrocket!

Higher and higher goes the cost of living, and where it stops, nobody knows! Chances are you couldn't say just where your last paycheck went—but it's all gone, except what you saved. That's why it's such a good idea to put a little away each payday at First Federal. Then, although costs skyrocket, you'll still have something left to call your own — money which you'll have when you need it most.

Hesperian Lunch Will Feature Modeling of New Fashions

Pictured above are four of the Hesperian Club members who will model at the club's luncheon, Apr. 17, at Hoge Memorial Church. Mrs. Karl Ausenheimer is in charge of the style show which is to feature, left to right: a navy linen suntop dress with an overjacket of navy lace worn with a white straw hat and complementing accessories by Mrs. Norman Edberg; a dark green and black sheer print with bolero jacket worn with a dash of pearls and black accessories by Mrs. Jack Galloway (Her hat is of matching green straw with a white brim); a black lace print of Champagne colored crepe, worn by Mrs. Curtis Wilcox, who chooses a cream colored straw hat and pearls to set off the dress; and a pongee silk suit in navy blue hood-lining brilliant buttons down the bodice, with which Mrs. Edward Hakola wears a red straw hat and matching flower. (The ensembles in the above photo were made available through the courtesy of Seiller's Dept. Store.)

Apr. 17 is the date selected by the Hesperian Club for the luncheon to be held at Hoge Memorial Church. The 1 p. m. luncheon will be served by the Rachel Circle of the church, Mrs. George Busenburg, chairman. Hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Mielke, chairman, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. D. L. Morgan and Mrs. H. E. Green.

The Hesperian (meaning "western star") Club was originally organized on the West Side in 1915 to assist with flood relief. As the need for such work became unnecessary the group became more and more a literary club with philanthropic works to its credit. A portion of a motto of the earlier club was "to make our valley more beautiful . . . ." The club, which has expanded through relatives and friends of the charter group, now has members over a considerable part of Columbus and in surrounding areas. The majority of the present members are Hilltoppers.

Recently re-elected officers of the club are Mrs. Charles Dozer, president; Mrs. Roger Strauss, first vice-president; Mrs. Joseph Linville, second vice-president; Mrs. Norman Edberg, secretary; Mrs. Orville Ryerson, assistant secretary; Mrs. M. E. Sensenbrenner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack P. Merriman, treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Merryman and Mrs. L. E. Saunders, publicity; Nonnie Smith and Mrs. R. E. Livingston, directors.

"To cultivate a taste for literature, art, science and those things that help to make the world a better place in which to live and by so doing promote the spirit of good will . . . ."

Grandmother Keeps Busy. Feels Good; Took Hadacol

When She Heard How HADACOL Was Helping People Suffering From Deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin And Iron

Keeping up with two small grandchildren as well as doing your housework can keep one woman mighty busy. And Mrs. B. R. Battle, 807 Archer, Houston, Texas, does just that. There was a time when Mrs. Battle didn't feel up to all this though. She was bothered with stomach disturbances and vague aches and pains. Then she heard the news about how Hadacol was helping relieve conditions caused by deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is her statement:

"I had been troubled with indigestion and aches and pains. I heard about HADACOL and began taking it. After the fifth bottle I began to feel better. I could eat better and rest better and the pains and aches were less. I have now taken 12 bottles and can truthfully say that HADACOL has helped me a lot."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin, but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come to Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A 'Doubting Thomas'

After reading Mrs. Battle's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula may help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Battle, it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia, when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to, course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest druggists? If you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or economy size $3.50.

Two-for One WANT-AD SPREE
During National WANT AD WEEK
Issue of April 19

YOU PAY — Only the regular rate for one money-producing WANT-AD. This mighty midget goes into thousands of homes on the Hilltop and surrounding areas.

YOU GET — Another ad exactly the same size FREE. In this second ad you can advertise another item that you no longer need, but which you can easily turn into cash in a hurry with the mighty midget . . . the WANT AD.

WHY — Is the most natural question in the world, and the answer is Want Ad Depts. of newspapers all over the U. S. are celebrating their birthday and we (The Hilltop Record and West Side News) want the public to know more about the mighty pulling power of the small WANT AD. We want you to know how easy it is to use this part of your newspaper. So we are going on a 2 for 1 spree. Just so you will know more about the low cost money-producing WANT ADS.

EXAMPLE — Let's suppose you have an unfurnished apartment for rent and that it takes 15 words to describe it. This 15-word or 3-line ad costs you only 66c. And that you also have a household item such as a range, refrigerator, dining room or living room suites, rugs, glider, and numerous other articles, for sale that require 15 words or 3 lines to describe them too. During National Want Ad Week you can get both of these ads for only 66c. The ad for the apartment would appear under FOR RENT column and any item for sale would appear under MISC. FOR SALE column.

RESULTS — Are most always good as the following examples will tell you. Mrs. Renner, 2021 W. Broad St. advertised a piano and had at least 40 calls, Mr. Muckenbauer, 842 S. Huron Ave., advertised extension ladders and had about 40 calls. Mrs. Kent, 618 Nashoba Ave., advertised a studio couch and received 30 calls. Mrs. Bass, 86 Hayden Ave., advertised a baby bed and said she could have sold a dozen more. It is no wonder the results are good because the Want Ads are "The People's Market Place." The place where YOU, the public, tell each other your wants.

Just phone RA. 1125 or RA. 1126 for your free ad, and some one will be glad to help you arrange it.

Why worry about what the weather may do to floors, rugs, draperies and furnishings when windows and doors are left open? Zephyr Awnings give dependable protection. Rain or shine, Zephyrs are there, permanently, to keep weather out when windows are open and to bar the sun's direct rays, which rot curtains and fade draperies and rugs. And yet Zephyrs admit light and ventilation as wanted.

FHA Terms

Zephyrs alone have this patented ventilating feature, which permits the entire roof of your awning to breathe. Zephyr is not just an awning with a few side vents of questionable value where trapped air might be released. In Zephyr, the entire top of your awning breathes and permits free circulation of air.

Your car owner's manual points out that condensation, in winter, rapidly contaminates motor oil by forming "cold sludge". The only way to fight "cold sludge" is to drain out the oil oftener in winter.

A 78th birthday anniversary was celebrated in honor of Asa Burchfield, 1043 Geneva-av, by his family Sunday, April 8, at George Bruchfield's place of business, 953 Sullivant. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stout, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas, all of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Due to a change in plans the mass meeting of parents in South Franklin Township school district will be held Monday evening, Apr. 16, at 7:45. A new PTA will be organized by Mrs. Russell Moore, Central district supervisor of Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Members of the Sunshine Class of Briggsdale Methodist Church and several friends attended the Kitty Fidwers television show last Thursday evening.

Carrie McKinley, 2014 Harrisburg-pk, injured in an auto accident in December, remains in Mt. Carmel Hospital with both limbs in knee casts.

A gigolo is a man who earns his keep by heart labor.

MOVIE FILM

Last week a movie "One God" was shown to English classes. It showed the different ways in which the Jewish, Catholic and Protestant worship and brought out the fact that, though they all have different ways of worshiping, they all worship one God. It also showed the main sections in each church, the different ways of baptizing, the partaking of Holy Communion, and the difference in the hymns sung by each church.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

I can't tell you whether a man works harder than a woman — a subject that has been debated over and over, but we do know now that:

MAE SCHAFER can't tear herself away from the basement since she bought herself a new washer. She put in everything except, of course, her GOOD dishes.

FRANK SHEA has certainly learned all the "trades" since he's been president of the PTA at St. Als. Everything from driving the school bus to helping in the cafeteria (or am I thinking of his wife?). Who knows but that he'll be teaching tap lessons. — you know

"Dancing his way
Thru the PTA."

THELMA CAMPBELL is home from the hospital after a serious operation. She is recuperating fast. Nothing can get her down, or keep her from that smile of hers.

It seemed like BILL PRINDLE was washing and shining up his new car right after he got it. Did every one see his "duzey Pontiac"? It's the snappiest car among us Hi Ridgers.

Tom McPherson was one of the neighbors who rolled his lawn and fertilized it this week. He says he sowed enough grass seed to feed all the birds, and still have enough left for his lawn, too.

PAT CORLEY is persistent. He says his office—I mean his boss—is trying to hold onto him a little while longer. But PAT is going to retire right here and now before he gets too old to enjoy it. That's right PAT. You only live once.

DAN HOLMES burnt the threads of his suit and made a hole with a cigarette as it slipped from his fingers. He took it to a tailor to be re-woven. They fixed it up, and now you can't see where there was any damage. However, DAN is still scratching his head wondering if it had been cheaper to to buy a new pair of trousers.

This reminds me that my wife burned her fingers on the oven rack today and she can't wash dishes. They're piled up since this morning. So I have to call it quits now on paper, and begin my chores in the kitchen.

Local Woman's Doll Collection Is Representative Of Nearly Every Country and Nation In World

By Mrs. James Whalen

"This is Jane Walpole McDonald, a 140-year-old Staffordshire," said Mrs. Robert Richards as she patted Jane's china head. "She is named after our paternal grandmother, who was a school teacher, too," continued Mrs. Richards. The sedate "Mrs. McDonald" is one of the many interesting and colorful dolls in Mrs. Richards' collection acquired during her world travels.

"My sister and I started collecting dolls during our first visit to Europe in 1936", explained Mrs. Richards. "We wanted to purchase something very interesting and yet representative of the countries through which we traveled and so we thought about dolls. Our first dolls were from Hungary, and we named them, Michel and Valeria. Through the combined efforts of my sisters and brother, I now have 135 dolls from all over the world . . . a junior U.N. Assembly, one might say."

"My favorite doll is a papier mache from Roumania. She is an exact replica of a charming young lady I saw walking hand-in-hand with her best beau in the park. The most unusual dolls in my collection are these Druse and Beoduin dolls from Syria because of their surprisingly realistic anatomy; i.e., the ladies have curves where ladies are supposed to have curves. The delicate and accurate tattooing as well as the be-jeweled noses and the dowry-plaited hair make these dolls quite spectacular. These Igrot dolls are representative of a Philippine mountain tribe who occasionally come out of the hills and make raids on unsuspecting travelers and native Filipinos. These Hoffbrau twins are mechanical dolls from Munich. One plays the violin and uses two movements while the other one drinks beer. They come from the Hoffbrau Gartenlokal, a famous beer garden."

"Another of my favorite dolls is this Scoteh laddie purchased in Edinburgh and dressed in our family clan plaid, the McDonald plaid. This little nun's dress was made from a nun's old habit for me by the members of the Visitation Convent of Washington, D. C., formerly of France. As you can see, she has a crucifix, and rosary and is a replica of a member of that order. For sentimental reasons I am very fond of this little Girl Scout doll made for me by the members of the Girl Scout Troop at Mt. Sterling. She is wearing the orchid kerchief of their troop."

"There are many dolls in the collection which are made from materials characteristic of the section from which they come. There is a dried apple head doll from the State of Washington, a Florida Seminole doll made from a cabbage palm, a corn husk doll from the Smoky Mountains, and a doll made from the bark of a California redwood tree. Daniel Boone, here, is made entirely of leather. I am always on the lookout for the unusual in dolls. I hope some day to have a wax doll and also some from India.

"Folks who are interested in starting doll collections as a hobby and are unable to travel extensively, can purchase authentic imports from the department stores in large cities. Always there is a marking indicating the country on the back of the doll's head or midsection," explained Mrs. Richards.

Attractive Mrs. Richards has a varied and busy life, and is the wife of Robert Richards, Columbus attorney, who is also a member of the West Jefferson School Board and Library Board. Before her marriage she was on the permanent teaching staff at the Ohio State School for the Deaf. At present she is a substitute teacher for the seventh grade students there.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards have many congenial hobbies, such as refinishing heirloom furniture and hand-blocking and painting their draperies for their charming rustic home at Darbycrest. "I think it is nice to share hobbies together and nice to have an individual hobby," said Mrs. Richards. "Bob's are photography, taxidermy, and gun collecting. Here is a flying squirrel he stuffed on Sunday. My hobbies are African violets which I have just started, and doll collecting, of course," concluded Mrs. Richards.

Mrs. Richards will bring her colorful doll collection to the Home PTA meeting on Apr. 19, at 8 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The Women's Society of World Services for Burgess Avenue EUB Church will meet Thursday, Apr. 12, 7:45 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Kuder, 666 Wilson-rd. There will be a film, "Seeds of Destiny" and Mrs. Caroline Moore will have the devotions.

Louisiana Mother Says Housework is Much Easier

Mrs. Leo Picard, Church Point, Louisiana, is mighty proud of her two daughters. Wilma Jean, 5 years old, and Juanita Marie, 4. She says it's a full-time job just keeping track of them. It wasn't too long ago when it was all Mrs. Picard could do to just barely get her work done. Now all that is changed . . . now that she has been taking HADACOL, for Hadacol seemed to be what Mrs. Picard needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to a lack of Vitamins B$_1$, B$_2$, Niacin and Iron.

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now maks it possibis to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B$_1$, B$_2$, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B$_1$, B$_2$, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be a "Doubting Thomas"

After reading about Mrs. Picard's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B$_1$, B$_2$, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Picard it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B$_1$, B$_2$, Niacin and Iron.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On a Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B$_1$, B$_2$, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size only $1.25. Large family or economy size, $2.50.

Rev. Chas. E. Hill Pioneered As Mental Hospital Chaplain

Rev. Charles E. Hill

The spirit of the Columbus State School is "if we can't make them well, at least we can make their life bearable."

Exemplifying the love implicit in the spirit is the school's first chaplain,, the first chaplain in any state mental hospital, Rev. Charles E. Hill, who retired from duty Apr. 1.

Rev. Hill was ordained and joined the Ohio Methodist Conference in 1900. From 1927 until 1933 he was pastor of the Gift- Street Methodist Church. During that period, he was one of four men, representing all faiths, who alternated preaching the sermon in the hospital chapel each Sunday.

His once-a-month services at the hospital brought him into close contact with the patients. As they learned to know him, they learned to love him. Many of his hospital congregation began to write him letters, explaining their difficulties and requesting personal interviews.

These letters led the small gray-haired man, now 75 years-of-age, to set aside his Sunday afternoons, so that he might meet the patients and speak with them in privacy. His counselling along religious lines seemed to give relief and hope to many, and the air of almost complete selflessness and complete sympathy he exuded, brought the patients to him again and again. A personal bridge of understanding began to develop between patient and pastor.

Rev. Hill's contact with the school was broken, though, when he was transferred from his church on Gift-st to one out of Columbus. His interests, however, in the patients did not waver because of the separation. He wrote to many and kept in touch with the hospital's officials.

Then fate intervened, Rev. Hill had to retire from his pastorate due to ill health. He returned to Columbus in 1943, to reside at 112 S. Ogden-av. As his strength began to return, so did his intense interest in work at the hospital return.

He applied for the position of chaplain at the state school, only to find that no such post had ever been created. So, in order to obtain the freedom of the buildings and keys necessary to enter all parts of the grounds, Rev. Hill took a job with the hospital as a social worker. Then in 1944, he accepted his present post as chaplain.

By 1947, his reputation had spread throughout the mental hospitals and he was requested to write a synopsis of his experiences for "On The Record," a publication of the Ohio State Mental Hygiene Service. With the publication of the article, interest in chaplains for the state mental hospitals began to develop, until now, all but one of the state institutions have chaplains of their own.

One of the first changes visible after his appointment as chaplain was a switch from a paid quartet for a choir, hired from the "outside" to a 30-voice choir composed of patients. It is a vested choir, and its members march in the processional with dignity and reverence.

Speaking of the Sunday services, Rev. Hill said, "I often use the scripture of the Church School lesson and refer to the fact that we are using the same scriptures being used by friends at home. That helps our people feel that they are not cut off entirely from the outside world."

The hospital's choir is often referred to as the "graduating class", since some member of the choir goes home to a new life almost every week. Their release is conditional, however, as are the releases of all patients. When a patient is first released, he goes out on a trial visit under the care of a friend or a relative. He must return each quarter for a recheck and at the end of a year appear before the entire hospital board for an examination. If he has led a normal life and his record is good, the patient is frequently allowed full freedom.

Rev. Hill has used such therapy devices as the choir, activity in chapel ceremonies, personal contact and counselling to aid the patients. He states, "The problem usually is to either make the patient feel that someone other than himself is interested in him and to give him a belief in something outside of himself, or to make him face and understand himself."

Such practices are of obvious value in a mental hospital and are especially so when used in conjunction with treatments given in medical therapy, according to hospital officials. In support of this, almost one-half of all patients who have entered the hospital in the past two and one-half years are on the "outside" again, either on "trial visit" or with discharges.

Rev. Hill reluctantly gave up his work and joined many of his congregation on the "outside", when he retired Apr. 1.

Westgate Methodist Church Starts Campaign To Enlarge Its Choir

Choral organizations of the Hilltop area were faced with a new challenge this week as announcement was made of plans to expand Westgate Methodist Church choir to a complement of 60 or more voices to become the largest singing group in the community.

Myron Mustaine, director of the local church organization this week expressed the desire to increase the size of the church choir and to particularly implement the present group with more mature high-school-age voices in order that full measure of musical and tonal quality be attained by the group.

Mustaine expressed his desire that male voices predominate in the proposed 60 voice group, pointing out that for full tonal expression of some of the more classical numbers which the present group now has in its agenda, require that particular tonal quality to bring about full musical appreciation.

Contemplated at present time by Mustaine, is the offering of a competitive scholarship to Ohio State University for a high school youth based upon participation in the Choir's activities and the quality of voice. In order to be eligible for the scholarship the recipient must be a member of the choir. Any youth of high school age is eligible to compete for the scholarship Mustaine said.

Practice for the Westgate Church choir is held every Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. Mustaine urged that those who would like to participate in the choir activities come to the church at that time, pointing out that youth were especially desired in the proposed enlargement of the choral organization.

UMT Is Subject At Highland Avenue Friends Church

On Sunday evening, Apr. 15, at Highland Avenue Friends Church, Mrs. Clyde Matheny of First Baptist Church, Columbus, will speak at 7:30 p. m. on the subject of the Universal Military Training situation. Mrs. Matheny is spending much of her time in Washington D.C., representing the Baptist Church, and working in conjunction with the American Friends Service Committee, on this important legislation.

The public is invited to this service, and it promises to yield first-hand, and up-to-the-minute information on the subject which so vitally affects everyone.

Bible Comment:

Renaissance in Religion Would Combat Immorality

WHAT happens when God is forgotten and people neglect their soul's welfare? The answer is in the Old Testament.

Centuries ago the citizenry of Israel wallowed in prosperity and forgot the God that had guided them through the wilderness. It was not long before the nation dedicated to the glory of [illegible] went down in ruin.

This nation is in many ways a modern-day Israel. We are wallowing in prosperity. That morality has been subsequently forsaken is evidenced by the sordid examples of crime and corruption on federal, state and municipal levels bared by the Kefauver Committee's recent hearings.

Trusted public officials have been revealed as the companions—in some instances as accomplices—of ruthless racketeers. And mortifying to the lax and tainted values of our modern-day youth has been the college basketball bribe scandal.

Everywhere pollution seems to raise its ugly head. But how can we overcome the evil so rife among us?

The answer lies in religion. Not until we turn to good old-fashioned religion can we replace evil with old-fashioned honesty. Formal worship, however, is not enough. God's will must become the theme of our life. Lip service must give way to heartfelt adoration and an unwavering will to serve.

Where men join hands and hearts in the light of God there can be no room for shadows of evil; and there can be no fulfillment of the warning that the ill-fated Israel of long ago chose to ignore.

Jesus made this plain in word and deed many centuries [illegible]

THE LESSON OF THE Pines

Tonight, the snow will be falling in America.

It may come with a rush of wild winds that have whistled down from the North to rip at the trees on the timberline. And tonight, some of these trees will fall, wrench out by the roots to crash upon the hills.

. . . Yet the pines will be standing in the morning.

In our own town, snow may blanket roof-tops and streets, and load the boughs of our trees with tons of soft whiteness. Some of the trees will break and buckle under the load.

. . . Yet the pines will be standing in the morning.

Yes—a simple lesson—the lesson of the pines.

They can bear up under a heavy load or the whip of the storm. Why? Because they are pliant and give under stress. And because they do, their boughs are as white banners of triumph in the morning.

Our religion can help us write this lesson into our own lives. It can teach us that misfortune—no matter how severe—or disaster—no matter how heavy—can be weathered and beaten,—if we keep our faith. For with faith comes the courage that enables us to give, and yet not break, under the weight of misfortune.

Through our church, we know that life's storms will pass . . .

Through our church, we too shall know the triumph of the morning.

. . . as the years is, so is his strength.
Deuteronomy 33:25

Cornelia Skinner To Appear At Arlington High

Cornelia Otis Skinner

"I have always tried to keep the monologues as professional as possible; to make them theater, not platform appearances," states Cornelia Otis Skinner, who, sponsored by Quill and Scroll Society and journalism class, will present selections of her monologues at the Upper Arlington High School auditorium Tuesday, Apr. 24, at 8:30 p. m.

This is the third program of this kind that has been presented by Quill and Scroll at Arlington High School. The other two were Carl Sandburg and Alfred Noyes.

Tickets are available at Heaton's Music Store or by calling Upper Arlington High School at KI. 3610.

Two Elected To Office In OSU Fraternity

Two Hilltop youths, students at Ohio State University, have been elected officers of Alpha Sigma Phi, national social fraternity. William Woodruff, 720 S. Eureka-av, was elected recording secretary and Richard Hazelton, 644 Chestershire-rd, was elected marshal.

Local Library To Observe Open House

The Columbus Public Library and its eight branches will hold open house Friday and Saturday, April 13 and 14. For this occasion, Hilltop Branch Library, 3956 W. Broad-st, will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. both days, as will be the main library.

Under the auspices of the Highland Garden Club, the Hilltop Branch Library has been fortunate to be able to place on exhibit for these two days, some of the rare cacti plants owned by Dr. Henry C. Shetrone, 3038 Crescent-dr. Dr. Shetrone has also kindly consented to exhibit some of the sea shells from his valuable collection.

Also on display will be a number of rare African Violet plants loaned by Mrs. W. H. Palmer, 161 S. Brinker-av, and Mrs. Charles C. Munro, 329 S. Harris. Mrs. Myron Seifert, president of the Highland Garden Club, thinks there will be other flower exhibits available at the time.

The water color paintings by Prof. Ralph Fanning, OSU, being exhibited at the Hilltop Branch during April are in themselves well worth a trip to the Branch.

The staff of the Hilltop Branch Library will be happy to welcome all visitors and patrons during open house, and suggests it will be worth while to also visit the main library, 96 S. Grant-av, in order to become acquainted with the facilities of the entire system.

Record concerts and narrative recordings are scheduled regularly at the main library as are film showings. Call Ra. 4922 or Fl. 1787 for hours of these showings. Both records and films may be borrowed from the main library.

Special exhibits will include "Where Your Tax Dollar Goes," the process used in acquisitioning books, reference aids, circulation aids, fine art contributions and the Bookmobile from the extension department.

An exhibit of garden equipment sponsored by Columbus merchants will be featured in the second floor corridor of the main library building. Book lists, book marks and pamphlets on the services of the library will be available to visitors. This is a splendid opportunity to come acquainted with one of the valuable educational institutions on the Hilltop.

H. D. Van Arsdale

Harold D. Van Arsdale, 54, 885 S. Hague-av, died Apr. 10 in his home. He is survived by his brother, Leo Van Arsdale, of the residence. Arrangements are in charge of the Schoedinger Funeral Home, 2542 W. Broad-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Squire Lee, 308 Powhatan-av, had as their guests Sunday, Apr. 8, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Spinkler, Chillicothe.

"Contains Hand-Soothing LANOLIN"

Mr. Norman Christopher, 2344 Cumberland, Houston, Texas, works for the Water Contract Division of the City of Houston, and he says the housetops aren't high enough nor the days long enough for him to praise HADACOL. He says since he has been taking HADACOL he feels mighty good. For Hadacol seemed to be what he needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you're looking for if your condition is caused by lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Mr. Christopher says: "After I got out of the Army I was underweight, nervous, couldn't sleep and had a terrible time getting food to agree with me. When I would wake up in the morning I would always be sick at my stomach—I could never eat breakfast—imagine having to wait until noon before eating the first meal of the day. Even then just a few mouthfuls of food would fill me up. At night I couldn't sleep—I would just roll and toss all night. I felt miserable. Nothing seemed to help me until I started taking HADACOL. After the third bottle of HADACOL I could tell a difference in my eating and sleeping habits. Now after a year's time of taking HADACOL I have gained almost 20 pounds. I sleep well—and the most wonderful thing—I can enjoy 3 full meals a day. There is no way I can describe the tremendous improvement in my appetite. I have started my wife taking HADACOL and she, too, is feeling wonderful. If there is anybody who doubts my word about what I have said about HADACOL, they should have seen me before I started taking HADACOL. I sincerely recommend HADACOL to all my friends and urge them to take HADACOL."

All Ages Can Be Helped

HADACOL is simply remarkable, the way it has helped folks of all ages—yes, thousands of men, women and children who have deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation—promising blessed relief for stomach distress, nervousness if caused by an upset stomach, vague aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, when they are due to such deficiencies.

Remember, HADACOL is not a quick-acting product that only attacks the symptoms of the miseries, but actually relieves the real cause of pains and aches due to such deficiencies. Yes, and continued use of HADACOL helps prevent the miseries from coming back.

Start Taking HADACOL Now

Don't go through life putting up with a stomach that is easily upset, that causes you gas pains, heartburn, sour risings after meals; a stomach that will not digest food properly; yes, if due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, you can overcome the deficiencies which are causing these miseries by taking HADACOL which contains those precious Vitamins.

Start taking HADACOL right away, and if you do not get the results you expect your money will be immediately refunded. HADACOL costs only $1.25 for a trial-size bottle. Large family or economy size, $3.50.

Marine In Korea Hopes the 38th Not Be Crossed

Robin Schmidt

William "Doc" Campbell, former art instructor at West High School this past week received a letter from one of his former students, Robin A. Schmidt, a graduate of 1949 at West and now a marine in Korea. The former Hilltop youth in his letter expressed the hope that the 38th parallel would not be crossed by UN forces again, and that more youth from here would not be sent to Korea.

Schmidt, now 21 years of age, is the son of Mrs. Mabel Schmidt, 39 Whitethorne-av. In the organized reserves of the Marine Corps, he left last Labor Day for active duty.

His letter to Campbell reads:

Korea

Dear Doc:

I am very sorry that I have not written to you before this, but have been on the front lines, now, for 30 days and I really am done out.

I was so glad to get your letter and card. I really love to hear from you. You have been a swell friend of mine.

The war seems to be going well for us. I hope and pray that we will not cross the 38th.

I guess the Hilltop is about cleaned out of young guys. It's a shame that they will have to leave . . . but Doc, it does you some good in a war. I can truthfully say that it has made a man out of me. I've even see things that I would never have believed unless I saw them. I've seen men die and get wounded. It does something to you that cannot be undone!

I hate to see my friends see that . . . but what I mean is, I would like to see them see some service in the States . . . no action . . . it's the worst. You learn how to make a life of your own. You don't have to watch someone else.

Today, I took a shower, shaved and changed my clothes. It sure felt good. I'm about to eat my first hot chow that I've eaten for some time. You see, we eat "E" rations when we are on the "push."

Well, my good friend, Doc, I hope to hear from you soon. I hear Bob (Henery) is married. I wish I could have been there to see the wedding.

Your pal,
Robin (A. Schmidt).

Menu For 1 Day At State School Could Feed Family Several Years

By "Pat" Martindale

With today's high prices housewives should be thankful that they do not have to feed or prepare food for a family as large as that of the Columbus State School.

With more than 2239 students and 398 employees, one day's menu would feed an ordinary size family several years.

This is one day's menu: For breakfast, 259 loaves of bread are toasted, 32 glasses of jelly eaten, 15 gallons of orange juice is consumed, seven cases (360 to a case) of eggs are served, 190 pounds of rolled oats are cooked, 70 pounds of coffee and 135 gallons of milk used, 60 pounds of butter and 76 pounds of sugar are consumed.

No sooner is breakfast over than dinner is started. For the noon meal there is: 1500 pounds of chicken, 32 bushels of potatoes, 180 gallons of green beans, 450 pounds of cottage cheese, 80 pounds of butter, 135 gallons of milk, 259 loaves of bread and 360 quarts of ice cream for dessert.

The last meal of the day goes like this: 500 pounds of wieners, 450 pounds lima beans, 180 gallons spinach, 32 bushels apples, 135 gallons milk, 60 pounds butter and 259 loaves bread.

The number of dishes washed in one day is uncountable. But all in all everything is done in a big way at the school.

Some of the students in the women's cottage hem 75 dozen sheets and pillow cases (900) in a week. In the mammoth sewing room, students make gowns, slips and dresses day after day and still can not keep up with the need.

It's truly evident that these students are well fed and clothed.

The spic and span dormitories with their row upon row of white beds, the spacious dwelling rooms, dining rooms and kitchens speak for themselves.

In the printing shop, too, production is in progress at all times. Students set type and operate the printing press. All forms, cards, notices, charts, etc., used by the school are cut, printed and bound.

Many of the male students are taught this line of work in order to prepare them for a future, if and when they are capable of leaving the school.

The remarkable fact is that with so many things constantly going on no one seems to be rushed. Everywhere students are adept at their work and at all times quietness and serenity is evident.

The Semper Fidelis Class of Hilltop Lutheran Church will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday in the church lounge. Mrs. C. M. Barbee will lead the devotions. Hostesses will be Mrs. Leonard Echols and Mrs. Walter Tilton.

The Married Couples Class of Hilltop Lutheran Church will sponsor a fish fry at 5:30 p. m. Friday in the basement of the church. The dinner is open to the public.

Hilltop Y Membership Roundup Time Again

Announcement has been made that the annual Hilltop YMCA membership enrollment will be held on Sunday, May 6.

Each year more and more Hilltoppers are taking stock in this youth program which is gaining momentum. Each year more and more youngsters of the community are participating in the various programs that are conducted through local churches, schools, playgrounds and parks as well as the Y headquarters office and meeting [redacted].

In the past year the Y has acquired title to the two large lots at the southwest corner of S. Harris and Broad-sts, and sometime when building conditions have been relaxed the local board will proceed with plans for a fine building on this corner.

If we wait until time to start a building to lay plans for the financial ground work it will be a much harder task then if some work is done in this direction each year.

The support of the entire community is solicited in this enrollment round-up. Determine now that you want to be a part this fine movement.

One of the first to come to the front in support of the annual campaign is Jack Sherick, who has announced that full net proceeds from his annual dance revue to be held in June at West High auditorium will be given to the Y building fund.

Let's have more of this type of fine support.

HBA Turns Old Paper Into Christmas Decorations

Your old newspapers and magazines can make the Hilltop a "sight to behold" this coming Christmas, if you'll just go down into the basement, stack your papers and magazines in separate piles, bundle and tie them tightly and place them on the curbing in front of your home or business, Sunday.

Yes, your papers can make the Hilltop beautiful this Christmas, because the proceeds from the paper drive, sponsored by the Hilltop Business Association, will be used to purchase more and better holiday street decorations.

Workers for the drive will cover the Hilltop in six crews. Two crews will pick up paper south of Sullivant-av, two will gather that north of W. Broad-st and two groups will cover the area between Sullivant-av and W. Broad-st. Hague-av is designated as the north-south line between the east and west crews in each section.

The workers for the drive are being recruited from West Junior and Senior High School, Hilltop YMCA groups, the HBA and the Hilltop Kiwanis Club. The workers will collect throughout their district with the aid of two or three light trucks and one heavy truck, which will then deliver the paper to the central collection point.

The project will be based on West High School's playground. Anyone wishing to deliver their scrap paper to West High School and to the group may drop it off in the playground behind the school building, any time between noon Sunday and 4 p. m.

The collection time is set so as not to interfere with Sunday School or church.

The HBA committee in charge of the paper drive consists of E. O. Melvin, W. E. Jones, W. O. Hane, Fred Raether, Robert Trott, Joseph Birnbirch, Jack Boyer and its chairman, Clarence Story.

Those interested in aiding the committee and the HBA in its drive may offer their services to any member of the committee.

In case bad weather makes the drive impossible, it will be postponed one week.

Chairman Is Named For Bean Dinner

Robert Kneisley

Robert Kneisley, manager of the Hilltop Branch of the Ohio National Bank, located at W. Broad-st and Oakley-av, this week was appointed to the chairmanship of the annual Hilltop Bean Dinner by John Nippert, president of the Hilltop Business Association.

The annual Bean Dinner event is usually held during the month of July at Westgate Park. Date for this year has not as yet been determined and will be announced later by Kneisley when he has made all appointments of the committee which will aid him in promotion of the annual community affair.

Hilltop Relays To Be Held Tuesday, May 8

The fifth annual Hilltop Relays will be held under the lights at Magly Field, Tuesday, May 8.

Central has dominated the relays thus far, having won every year, and will be a top favorite to repeat again this season.

The event will be under the direction of West High track coach, Rufe Glass.

Injunction Granted In Mound Street "Turnabout" Suit

An injunction was granted in the Binns-blvd bus "turnaround" suit, Tuesday.

Common Pleas Judge Myron B. Gessaman granted an injunction against the use of the turning area at Binns-blvd and W. Mound-st in a taxpayer's suit filed last December by Charles S. Blackmore, 689 Binns-blvd. Blackmore charged that the fumes and noise from the buses constituted a nuisance.

Buses will make a loop off Mound-st in order to return east.

Man Severely Hurt in Auto Mishap Here

Paul Pelphrey, 26, of Paintsville, Ky., suffered possible head injuries, a broken right leg and forehead lacerations when he was struck by a car as he walked on the highway in the 3600 block of W. Broad-st, Friday night.

Sheriff's Deputies Roosevelt Goode and Everett Sanders said the driver of the car was Herman E. Beirnthold, 28, 478 S. Sixth-st. Pelphrey was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital by the New Rome emergency squadmen where his condition is listed as "poor".

West Grads of '21 To Hold Reunion

Members of the West High School class of 1921 will hold their thirtieth anniversary dinner at 6:30 p. m. Apr. 28, in the Fort Hayes Hotel, Sheldon Briggs, chairman, announced yesterday.

Reservations may be made through Mrs. Doris (Barnes) Fledderjohann, 194 Midland-av, and Mrs. Lucille (Tipton) West, 159 N. Huron-av.

Time Again — for 'Y' Enrollment

It's membership enrollment time for the Hilltop YMCA. And time for the drive has been set for Sunday, May 6. And speaking of time, the Hilltop Business Association wants the community to know they are behind the "Y" all the time—and have presented them with this large clock, shown above, while J. Ray Andersen, 592 Wiltshire-rd, a member of the "Y" board, accepts the timepiece from Jack Morris, 52 S. Eureka-av, secretary of the HBA.

New Shopping Center Construction Gets Approval Of National Board

Approval for the construction of a multi-million dollar shopping center, to be located on the southwest corner of the intersection of Central-av and Mound-st, was granted last week by the National Production Authority.

Construction will begin immediately on the shopping center, known as "Central Point." It will be built by Don M. Casto and Don E. Casto, Jr., developers of the "Town and Country" shopping center on E. Broad-st.

The four-building unit, spread out on a 17 acre plot, is bounded on the north by Mound-st, on the east by Harrisburg-pk, and on the south by Humphrey's [redacted], and on the west by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad right-of-way. The total plot, bounded by Mound-st and Central-av, across Mound-st from the shopping center will be utilized for parking.

Plans for the center now include two grocery super markets, a large department store, a furniture store, a variety store, two shoe stores, a super drug store, a hardware store, a cleaner's, an auto accessories store and many others. Contracts for locations have been signed by Alber's, Moore's of Ohio, [redacted] Shoemakers, Miller-Jones Shoe Co., Bettler Hardware and Gray's Drug Store.

The buildings will be so located on the plot that drivers can cruise throughout the center, on both sides of the buildings, which will have display and show windows in both front and back, and choose the shop at which they wish to stop. Parking space will be available for about 2000 cars, in and around the shopping center.

The first building to go up will front on Mound-st. Plans call for the inclusion of nine stores in its 36,000 square feet of floor space. It is scheduled for completion by fall.

The remainder of the buildings in "Central Point" will be completed within the next 18-24 months. Most of the vital materials needed in their construction are being held in storage so that their availability is assured. Plans are scheduled for construction in stages as the remaining building units to conform with employment and material demands of [redacted] production.

Sales Tax Stamps Engender Civil War In Ranks of Local Kiwanians

A battle royal is raging right here on the Hilltop—and the outcome of it won't be known until Christmas. It is a battle over sales tax stamps.

It all started when someone made the statement that the 100 members of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club could collect $100,000 worth of sales tax stamps this year.

Erm Groves, chairman of the sales tax committee, perked up his ears, and picked two team captains who divided up the membership of the club. Heading the two teams are Jack Sensenbrenner and Carlton Hartley.

Right from the start the rivalry has been intense and the mere mention of sales tax stamps in front of either team captain may result in a battle.

Each member of the club has been asked to procure $1000 worth of tax stamps during the year. As of this week the Sensenbrenner team has eight members of the $1000 Club and the Hartley team has nine.

At each weekly meeting of the club the tension of battle grows, each team wondering what the other will report or what shenanigans will be performed.

IF the club reaches the $100,000 goal each club member who has turned in $1000 or more in stamps will eat TURKEY at the Christmas meeting. Those who fail to reach the $1000 mark will eat BEANS.

So, if you are accosted by a Kiwanian seeking sales tax stamps, give him a helping hand. The funds raised from this drive will assist the youth program of the club here on the Hilltop.

Too Late — To Classify

A change in classified advertising deadlines as announced in last week's edition of The Hilltop Record caught many would be advertisers short this week. Even though the deadline for contract classified advertisers was announced as 12 noon on Tuesdays, many calls came to the Record office after the deadline closed. As a result classifications could not be made of their advertisements and they will be found today under the heading of "Too Late to Classify."

All adds received after 12 noon on Tuesdays will be carried under this classification in the future with no advertising being accepted after the final deadline of 3:30 p. m. on Tuesday.

$5,000 Damages Awarded In Dog Bite Suit

A nine-year-old Alkire-rd girl was awarded a $5,000 judgment in Common Pleas Court last week for a dog bite suffered Apr. 19, 1947.

Shirley Ann Coplan, 2963 Alkire-rd, was awarded the sum by a Common Pleas jury last week. The verdict was delivered against Grant M. and Ruby Wamack, formerly of 970 Sullivant-av, now living in Baltimore, O. They were accused of negligence in permitting a chow dog to run at large.

Minstrel Show Repeated

A repeat performance of the sixth annual Women's Minstrel Show, sponsored by the Achbar Grotto and the Drum and Bugle Corps, will be given at the Masonic Temple, 34 N. Fourth-st, at 8:30 p. m., Apr. 28.

Parking Ordinance Passed; To Become Law In 30 Days

Within the next 30 days there will be some changes made in the W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av traffic situation.

This was assured Monday evening when Columbus City Council adopted an ordinance which had been offered by the Better Business Committee of the Hilltop Business Association which will limit parking to a one hour period on both thoroughfares in certain congested areas.

The ordinance was passed in council session despite objections which were voiced by the safety department of the city.

The limited parking ban will go into effect as soon as the signs are erected, according to city and business association officials. Erection of proper signs will take that amount of time it was pointed out.

Areas affected by the new city ordinance are:

Limited parking on both sides of W. Broad-st from Highland-av to Roys-av and from Westmoor to Sylvan-avs to not over one hour between 7 a. m. and 6 p. m. excepting Sundays and holidays.

Limited parking on the north side of Sullivant-av from Central to Guilford-ava, from Eureka to Burgess-avs, and from Harris to Powell-avs from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. for not more than one hour excepting on Sundays and holidays.

While most of the business firms on the affected thoroughfares hailed the passage of the ordinance as a measure which will prove an aid to their business, others took a more pessimistic view and pointed out that the measure will only serve to add to the congestion already prevalent on narrow side streets. Some residential objections were also voiced on the grounds that off street parking in front of their homes will prove to be a source of irritation and inconvenience.

A lenient enforcement of the new ruling is forseen by backers of the plan, pointing out that flagrant violators of the parking edict will be those hard hit.

Westgate Park Improvements Get NPA Okay

With approval given by the National Production Authority this week the Hilltop area was assured of a new shelterhouse at Westgate Park this year, according to Ray Dietz, chief of the Parks and Forestry Department of the City of Columbus.

Dietz said this week, that with materials being assured work on the new $48,000 structure, at a site yet to be determined at Westgate Park would begin in the very near future.

Another rumor emanating from Columbus City Hall also intimated that a new additional million gallon water tank would also be installed at Westgate Park in the near future in order to insure constant water pressure for the area.

All-Sports Banquet Plans Completed

Woody Hayes

Final plans were drawn last Wednesday for the second annual West High School All-Sports banquet by members of the committee representing six local civic organizations who are sponsoring this year's affair.

Cooperating in staging of the banquet this year are the Hilltop Lions Club, Hilltop Kiwanis, West High Athletic Association, West High Boosters, Hilltop Business Association and Camp Chase Post of the American Legion.

"Woody" Hayes, new coach of Ohio State University, is scheduled as the principal speaker for the banquet which will honor more than 180 West High [redacted] athletes of all sports. Rev. Joseph Shellhaas has been named by the committee as the master of ceremonies and will preside over the event scheduled for May 28 at the Southern Hotel.

Tickets to the All-Sports Banquet are now on sale and available at the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st, West High School or from any member of the committee. Price of the tickets is $2.50 per person.

Headed by A. W. Dailey of the Hilltop Lions Club as chairman of the event the balance of the committee is composed of: C. F. Bateman, treasurer; Leroy S. Weigand, arrangements; Fred Holaday, C. J. McDonald, William Ferguson, tickets; Joseph M. Briggs, Mack Pemberton, publicity; Alva Nafzger, Charles S. Preston, Rufe Glass, program and decorations.

Spring Frolic Set For Friday at Hoge

The spring frolic dance, sponsored by the Westminster Fellowship, will be held at the Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church from 8 to 11 p. m. Friday, Apr. 20, in the church's gymnasium. Carl Hartley's orchestra will furnish the music.

New Liquor Store To Open In Hilltop Area

A new state liquor store will open on the Hilltop on or about May 1, according to [redacted] released earlier this week by State Liquor Director William C. Bryant. The new store will be located at 3097 W. Broad-st.

According to information released from the Stores Division of the Ohio Liquor Department, the present state operated store located at 2360 W. Broad-st will be closed soon after May 1 with its operation being moved to the new site.

Coincident with the announcement of opening of the new store was the assertion that the new store will serve the area of a private agency now operated by Mina Jean Williams at 3105 W. Broad-st. State liquor department attaches said that the private agency will be closed when the new store is opened in conformance with a recent ruling by the Supreme Court of Ohio upholding the department's right to cancel agency contracts.

The Williams agency, according to the Liquor Control Department is in violation of an amendment of the Liquor Control Act that specifies that no private agency shall be established in a city of 10,000 or more population or within three miles of a state liquor store.

Hilltop Community Council Plans Clean-up Day at New Camp Site

Saturday, Apr. 21, has been set aside as Camp Clime Clean-up Day by the Hilltop Community Council.

A plea is being issued for volunteer help from all civic minded persons to donate a few hours of their time on that date to join in the campaign in order to prepare the site for use. Other donations in the way of lumber, old doors, building materials, etc., will also be welcomed.

The 22 acre plot was leased last month from E. O. Clime, 4031 Clime-rd, for the purpose of a camping area and outing site for Hilltop youth groups. Located on Demorest-rd, facing Maple Shade swimming pool, the site will be officially named Camp Clime in honor of Mr. Clime.

A set of rules and regulations has been approved and will soon be released by the Community Council.

The Hilltop Business Association approved the project last month by presenting a check to cover the first year lease.

Jack Morris, secretary of the HBA, is in charge of the clean-up and donation project and interested persons are asked to contact him at the Hilltop Business Office, 3183 W. Broad-st.

Among the many letters received by the HCC this month were approvals from the Columbus and Franklin County Girl Scout Council for Hilltop Girl Scouts to use the site.

Arrangements for use of the camp can be made by contacting Jack Morris or Mrs. H. C. Booth, 319 S. Roys-av, a few days in advance.

No charges are to be made for its use.

Girl Preacher To Take Over Church Pulpit

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Dean will attend a convention of the Oriental Missionary Society over this week-end at Mansfield, Ohio. In the absence of Rev. Dean who is pastor of the Hilltop Community Church, Rev. Miss Shirley Bussey, a member of the congregation and pianist of the Church will fill the pulpit.

While Miss Bussey is only sixteen years old, she is a very capable speaker, according to Rev. Dean who feels rather fortunate in having such a one in his congregation present for him in his absence. He invites the public to hear Miss Bussey Sunday at 10:45 and 7:30.

"Mabel is going around telling lies about me."

"Don't worry now, dear. Wait till she starts telling the truth."

HCC Resolution Approves Course In Leadership

Hilltop Community Council last Wednesday approved a resolution to co-sponsor a leadership training course with the Columbus Recreation Department.

Although complete arrangements have not been announced, Dorothy Jones, City Recreation Department representative, said that the course will offer arts and craft, games, leadership and first aid. She added that the course should prove especially helpful to teachers, youth organization leaders, parties aids, volunteer workers in various fields and housewives.

In order to accommodate all HiHtoppers who wish to participate in the course classes will be held at the Glenwood Recreation Center. The date and schedule of the course will be announced later. No fees will be charged.

Three West High Girls Attain Perfect Scholastic Records While In High School

Three West High School girls, who will graduate in June have the answer to a $64 question, "How can I make all A's in my work during high school years?"

The trio has established perfect scholastic records in their studies at the local high school, where they have also had time to participate in a wide variety of extra-curricular activities.

"Getting my home-work each day and regularity of attendance" was the response of the 17-year-old JANET WILLIAMS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Williams, 128 Guernsey-av.

Not all book-worm the four-point senior has several part time jobs, including baby-sitting, clerk at Seiller's the Hilltop's large department store. An omnivorous reader, the personable Janet is also adept at dancing, and writing correspondence.

She is treasurer of the Senior Class, was signally honored last summer when she was named to "Girls' State." She also holds membership in the National Honor Society, "L" Society, Photoplay Club and Y-Teens.

Wittenberg College is her destination, upon completion of her high school work, with a major in psychology. She has a brother, David, in the ninth grade at West Junior

"Do your home-work each day and keep readable notes—pay attention in class," is PATRICIA ANN WHALEN'S recipe for making all "A's". She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Whalen, 233 S Terrace-av.

Most interesting job outside school job for Pat is caring for, and teaching a cerebral palsied child.

With an aptitude and understanding of physical frailties, Pat contemplates taking part in physical therapy at Ohio State, upon high school graduation.

Student in several different schools in Michigan, New York and Ohio, her points of view are enlarged from her mony contacts.

Cocker Spaniel "Mittens" is her boon companion. Also enjoys reading, sports and correspondence. She wants to be a globe-trotter seeing the world, its interesting people and places.

She has a brother, John, who is an 11th grade student at West Senior.

Newcomer ALICE WILSON, 292 N. Eureka-av, editor-in-chief of the school yearbook, attributes her ability to make all A's by "diligently doing my homework and listening to every word in class."

Her recipe for making all good grades is not restricted to scholarship. She also has a collection of special cooking recipes, which she has tested, and eaten.

The petite Alice has designs upon becoming a novelist. She plans to major in journalism at college.

A Hero Comes Home

Robert Conner of the U. S. Marines was buried at Oklahoma City the other day. Although barely 17 years old he had seen two years of service, and died nobly in Korea. There was a great crowd of people at his funeral, banks of flowers, a guard of honor.

There was music. "Rock of Ages, cleft for me; let me hide myself in thee."

The chaplain spoke. "God is our refuge and our strength, a very present help in trouble."

Then the chaplain talked about Robert. He likened the fallen soldier to another youth who, dying at the end of an act of great bravery, said, "But for this hour, for this cause, was I born."

Then the procession threaded its way through the streets of a busy city, where too few are concerned over the price American youth is called upon to pay because of the plight into which the nation has been steered by inept leaders.

Then six young men in powder blue carried the body to its last resting place. A color guard of Air Force men came smartly to present arms in salute to the dead. Another soldier raised a bugle to his lips. "The day is done . . . gone the sun."

Earlier the chaplain had said: "We are grateful for these boys who lay down their lives to stand between our homes and a ruthless enemy."

"Robert Conner died a hero, but much too soon," wrote a reporter.

The Shot Heard Round the World

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Look for more startling revelations out of Washington. Some big scandals, prosecutions, are bound to come.

* * *

Possibility of cease fire in Korea, no war with Russia for a long time, threws scare in certain Washington circles who planned on confusion of all-out war effort to cloak actions.

* * *

C. W. Harder

Charles Wilson tells Senate Small Business Committee that without war, defense production for next two years will only take $50,000,000,000 out of present $300,000,000,000 production, or less than 17%.

* * *

Indicating the confusion, Wilson, in a burst of candor, told the committee "Big business admittedly will take care of itself." The former head of General Electric then said that he believes small business would have to develop salesmanship to a superior skill to share in defense work. This, of course, is in contradiction to both the spirit and language of the Defense Production Act.

* * *

The facts are that even if every small business could maintain a Washington sales office equal in size and ability to a major corporation, the job would be rough. After all, the most skillful poker player cannot win when a cold deck is dealt.

* * *

Facts are that defense responsibilities are so confused, major leaks are possible. The decision of the military to abandon free and competitive bidding in favor of purchase by negotiation is an example of how scandals are made. The infamous Garsson case, and that of ex-General Meyer were scandals bred by such closed door tactics.

* * *

The other day on the Congressional floor, Rep. T. B. Morion of Kentucky brought up one matter that may have repercussions, from data supplied by William D. Menefee, a small Louisville paint manufacturer.

* * *

The Navy's Aviation Supply Office, on behalf of Army engineers asked four big paint companies to quote on 6,457,000 gallons of paint, packed in quarts, half gallons and gallons. This is believed to be the largest order ever sought at any time by government. The big four paint companies said they could not handle it.

* * *

So the Navy then asked 20 other big paint makers to quote. Menefee's company, who had bid on previous orders, asked for the opportunity, was told bids were closed.

* * *

Yet there is nothing in the record to show that the call for bids was ever advertised or published. Nor has there been any explanation of why so much paint is needed in 120 days. The order will upset the entire paint raw material market. It is probable that spread over a longer period, the effect on the economy would be minimized.

What Is Your Opinion?

Poll On Current Questions

One of the most controversial questions of current times is now raging throughout the breadth of the nation and this week the readers of this newspaper are invited to express their opinions.

The question: Should President Truman have fired General Douglas MacArthur from his post as supreme commander in Korea and Japan?

Bitter denouement has been made of the president's action in summarily dismissing MacArthur and throughout America today spirited and oft times violent arguments have been precipitated whenever the subject has been brought up.

Typical comments in regard to the issue are:

FOR: Many leaders in political business and everyday life agree with Truman's action in relieving MacArthur on the basis that as a soldier he had acted contrary to orders from the commander-in-chief. Others contend that MacArthur in his zeal for publicity had spoken too many times without proper evaluation of the consequences. Scorted, too, is the theory that the dismissal of MacArthur will quiet the uproar from European allies and hasten the agreements toward a peaceful conclusion of the Korean strife. Claims are asserted that MacArthur's outspoken assertions and offers to enact a peace with military commanders of the Chinese Reds were matters that should have emanated from the state department in Washington rather than from a field commander.

AGAINST: Those in opposition to the White House action of last week assert that the move was engineered by Dean Acheson in an attempt to seek appeasement from the Communist powers. Asserted too was the fact that MacArthur by his long association with problems of the Orient is far better qualified to understand the problems and better equipped to meet them. Political issues were seen as the reason for Truman's dismissal of MacArthur with the assertion that Truman fears MacArthur's strength. Others expressed opinion that "Reckless Harry" had again acted without competent advice and had permitted his personal animosity to sway better judgement. Many arguments insisted that Truman is following the road to appeasement of Chinese Communists. Others say the move was made to cover up the shortcomings of his administration and that the firing of MacArthur was a by-play to assert his authority.

Regardless of the issues that have been broadcast throughout the nation, the fact remains that MacArthur has been stripped of his military power and that even devoid of them he remains a powerful figure on the American scene.

How do you feel about the action of the president? Fill out the ballot form below and compare your vote with that of your neighbors in next week's issue of this newspaper. If you would rather express further opinion, address a letter of not more than 300 words to the editor of this newspaper and indicate whether or not you would care for your name to be used under the letter when it is printed.

Dear Carlton:

Thought I would drop you a line to tell you how much we enjoy getting the Hilltop Record which comes regularly every Saturday. Every time I read about the Hilltop Minstrels I always get a longing to be able to take part in one again.

How is the Hilltop YMCA doing? I am enclosing a column about our recent annual meeting which I thought might interest you. It is taken from the Garden Oaks Citizen which is one of Glenn McCarthy's neighborhood papers.

We are getting along fine and still like it here very much. Elizabeth is playing the organ now at the First Evangelical Reformed Church. It is one of the larger Houston churches. You know she played the organ for years at St. John Lutheran on the Hilltop. She sure enjoys her work and especially the fine organ. They have a real carrillon in their tower and also Welsh bells which is played from another keyboard. And our daughter, Diana, who will be 12 in July, will do her first ballet "solo" at the Music Hall in May. So the whole family keeps busy but we all like it very much.

The native Texans have adopted the practice of calling me "Tex" so I guess I make a good member of the chamber of Commerce.

I hope this finds you well, and it is nice to know that you are taking such active leadership in our great organization.

RAY HILL,
Houston, Tex.

Dear Sir:

"The deeper the world sinks in sin and iniquity, the more should the sanctity of the home be emphasized. Marriage makes the home. Marriage is the oldest of divine institutions. The home was established before the sabbath. So the welfare of the home comes first, for what the home is that will society be.

Since the origin of the home and family relations is found in the Bible, it is befitting that we refer to a few passages of scripture and note the teaching of God's word.

The home was established in Eden in the time of man's innocence. The first union was the ideal and type of the true marriage relations. See the following: Gen. 1:27-28; Gen. 2:24; Prov. 12:4; 19:14; Math. 19:4-5; Mark 10-9; Eph. 5:31; Col. 3:13.

If all homes were governed by these passages, the world would not be so deeply steeped in corruption and licentiousness. Homes make the community what it is, communities form the states, and states the nation. All citizens whether public or private come from homes.

The relation of parents and children is important to society for the children of today become the citizens of tomorrow.

The family exists for the sake of ends beyond itself, for the production of human character, and for the preparation and equipment of human personality for life. So it is the imperative duty of parents to train their children. Prov. 22:1. It is also their duty and responsibility to teach them the word of God. Eph. 6:4.

The aim of home training, then, is the surrender of will to the will of God and to live in harmony with it. To do this parents must exercise authority over their children. I Tim 3:4. Tragic mistakes are made through softness and negligence on the one hand and harshness and unreasonableness on the other. Col. 3:21. The child who is not taught restraint is unfit for life. I Sam. 3:13.

The duty of children to parents is summed up in loving obedience. Eph. 6:1-3. Disobedience to parents leads to law breaking and criminality.

The fulfillment of the duty of parents and children to each other makes for harmony and happiness in the home. This is the consummation of God's plan for the home and the solution of evils of society.

J. A. Downey.

Gentlemen:

I am taking this means to try to express to your our appreciation for the outstanding support and cooperation we received from your newspaper during the campaign to pass the school bond issue.

Once again the Columbus schools are in a position to try to catch up with the housing problem, providing the international situation is such that building materials can be obtained.

We are deeply grateful to you for your keen interest in our schools and for your continued efforts to help us interpret our program and our needs to the people of Columbus.

West Jr. High Diamond Squad To Open Season On Tuesday

By Dave Miller

Three lettermen dominate West Junior's baseball team for the 1951 season, which will get under way next Tuesday afternoon on the West diamond opposing Mound.

"Our infield is pretty well set," stated Coach O. D. (Red) Lehman, the junior high mentor. "Our pitching and catching has experience, but our outfield is our main worry in addition to hitting. We have only three or four good hitters right at the present, and only one outfielder sure of starting at this time."

Returning to the fold at West Junior from last season's undefeated squad are the "James' brothers," as Coach Lehman explains. They are Pitcher Jim Kimball, Catcher Jim Hughes, and Shortstop Jim Vincent.

Those positions are well set, both getting vital experience at those key posts last season. However, of the remaining six poses, only about half of them are set.

In addition, the junior baseballers have been working under the same handicap most of the other schools have encountered — the weather. The team has been outside only two nights at Westgate Park for workouts. Therefore, Lehman has made no cuts, and most of the present prospects are ninth graders, the lower grades reporting only on invitation.

Behind Kimball for mound duty, West Junior is banking on Jack Davis, Bob Bowman, and "Fritz" Howell. However, Lehman stated that Kimball will do all the league chucking while the others will merely hurl non-loop except in emergencies.

Jimmy Hughes, pretty well set behind the plate, is backed up by John Thompson and Ron Wilcox. However, Lehman, is high on a seventh grader, Jimmy Edwards, who according to the coach, will take over first string backstopping chores next season and the following year if his present pace continues.

In the infield, which Lehman thinks will form into a fairly good defensive unit, Jimmy Vincent will be the field captain, playing his third straight year at shortstop. He was such a cinch at the post that no one else tried out for the position.

Joe Hutchison, brother to last year's infielder-outfielder, Dick, seems to have first base down pat, where Bill Spratley could take over if needed.

Larry Nafzger, a brother to West Senior's all-city catcher of last year, has second base and Dave Krebs is batting Dave Randall, an eighth-grader, for the hot corner.

In the outfield, which is presently a big question mark, and will probably remain so until opening game, only one boy seems to have his job sewed up. He is 8-B Bill Spratley, a big six-footer who should do well in center-field.

However, the remaining two spots are between Jim Pruden, Jim Cobb, Bill Holsclaw, Jack Cannon, Dave Bates, and Dick Kearney, in addition to many others who could prove themselves before the end of the season.

Coach Lehman is high in praises of Kearney, who is a cousin to West's star first-sacker, Morris Dobbs.

Mr. Norman Christopher, 2344 Cumberland, Houston, Texas, works for the Water Contract Division of the City of Houston, and he says the housetops aren't high enough nor the days long enough for him to praise HADACOL. He says since he has been taking HADACOL he feels mighty good. For Hadacol seemed to be what he needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you're looking for if your condition is caused by lack of Vitamins B, B, Niacin and Iron.

Mr. Christopher says: "After I got out of the Army I was underweight, nervous, couldn't sleep and had a terrible time getting food to agree with me. When I would wake up in the morning I would always be sick at my stomach—I could never eat breakfast—imagine having to wait until noon before eating the first meal of the day. Even then just a few mouthfuls of food would fill me up. At night I couldn't sleep—I would just roll and toss all night. I felt miserable. Nothing seemed to help me until I started taking HADACOL. After the third bottle of HADACOL I could tell a difference in my eating and sleeping habits. Now after a year's time of taking HADACOL I have gained almost 30 pounds. I sleep well—and the most wonderful thing—I can enjoy 3 full meals a day. There is no way I can describe the tremendous improvement in my appetite. I have started my wife taking HADACOL and she, too, is feeling wonderful. If there is anybody who doubts my word about what I have said about HADACOL, they should have seen me before I started taking HADACOL. I sincerely recommend HADACOL to all my friends and urge them to take HADACOL."

All Ages Can Be Helped

HADACOL is simply remarkable, the way it has helped folks of all ages—yes, thousands of men, women and children who have deficiencies of Vitamins B, B, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation—promising blessed relief for stomach distress, nervousness if caused by an upset stomach, vague aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, when they are due to such deficiencies.

Remember, HADACOL is not a quick-acting product that only attacks the symptoms of the miseries, but actually relieves the real cause of pains and aches due to such deficiencies. Yes, and mentioned use of HADACOL helps prevent the miseries from coming back.

Start Taking HADACOL Now

Don't go through life putting up with a stomach that is easily upset, that causes you gas pains, heartburn, sour risings after meals; a stomach that will not digest food properly; yes, if due to lack of Vitamins B, B, Niacin and Iron, you can overcome the deficiencies which are causing those miseries by taking HADACOL which contains those precious Vitamins.

SPORT SLANTS

By Dave Miller

Now that the weatherman has again made liars out of us during the past week when rain fell every day during that five-day stint, postponing all of West's scheduled five athletic contests with two exceptions.

The two baseball contests, West hosting to North Tuesday and visiting Aquinas Friday were both postponed. The track meet at Arlington was held Wednesday, but the cinden match at East Friday was cancelled. The golf match was held Monday on schedule.

Despite the efforts of Mr. Weatherman some of West's contests went through on schedule. However, every game was played under a handicap.

• • •

Doug Goodsell, the highly-regarded athlete from Upper Arlington, was still in the hair of opposing teams following last Wednesday's triangular meet at Arlington with South and West.

His Arlington team was termed the victor, coming up with 63¼; South was runner-up with 52⅓, and West trailed with 31.

Arlington won eight events, four of them involving Goodsell, who individually collected 20 points. He was in the 180 low hurdles; 880 relay, broad jump, and mile relay.

West's only first was grabbed by sophomore Paul Anderson, taking the 880 yard dash. In addition, Ronnie Coup had a second in the mile run; Ray Harper, thirds in 120 high hurdles and 180 low hurdles.

Ted Johnson grabbed runner-up to South's standout, Jack Keller, in the 120 high hurdles; Gene Harrison, a third in the 220 dash; Larry Morgan, third in the discus; and Kenny Hallam second in the pole vault, and third in the broad jump.

• • •

The golf team, under Coach Harold Washburn, dropped two matches last Monday afternoon to Worthington and Hilliards in Greater Columbus High Golf League matches staged on the Ualversity Gray course.

The West linksmen lost to Worthington, 11½ to 4½, and to Hilliards, 12 to 4.

Guido DePaul had all of West's points, shooting an 89. Bob Shivers had a 93, Jim McCarty, 108, and "Kid" Bryant, 121.

Coach Washburn, entering in the coaches' match, was defeated by Ray Heischman of Worthington, who is a brother to the West coach, Fred, assistant football and basketball mentor.

• • •

Two West athletes were recently honored as officers of the 1951-52 West High student council. Ronnie Grant, an 11-B, a participant in football and track, was elected president as Bill Haire won honors as vice-president. Bill plays football, basketball, and baseball, but presently is being bothered by a knee injury.

Grant succeeds Dick Briggs, a present trackster after setting a West record in football during the fall. Dick raced 103 yards for a touchdown against Aquinas for a Magly Field record.

• • •

Plans are presently being made for the second West High All-Sports banquet to be held again at the Southern Hotel on Monday, May 28.

Ohio State's new football mentor, Woody Hayes, will be the speaker of the occasion. Six Hilltop civic organizations are sponsoring the banquet, which again will honor all West High athletes.

• • •

Chuck Leibensperger, West's quarterback during the past season, is city-wide president of Hi-Y organization.

• • •

Jack Downing, Hilltop YMCA secretary, who did such a splendid job in handling the Hilltop Y Basketball Leagues this past winter, is presently looking forward to softball and baseball for interested Hilltop youths this summer.

He is hoping to have baseball for the junior leagues to acquaint the youngsters more with the game, and softball for the intermediates. Plans, however, presently are only tentative.

Marion Harding usually one of the top ranking high school grid elevens in the Central Ohio District, recently started the spring football drills, despite rain and cold winds.

Coach "Pete" Howison, an Ohio Northern grad, was greeted by 35 members from last year's squad, 15 of which were lettermen. Standouts returning include Jack Bull, Chris Brady, Jim Russell, and Tom McLain.

• • •

Speaking of football, West will have back some six lettermen when they start their season next year.

They include Ronnie Grant, Chuck Hunter, Eddie Gleiba, Jerry Johnson, Phoeney Chapman and Jerry Trabue.

One schedule addition is definite—Hamilton Public.

• • •

Eighteen boys turned out for the junior high track team at West a few weeks ago to help defend the junior high championship won last year by West and Champion.

This week-end will be the highlight one for the members of the West Senior track squad as Coach Rufe Glass takes his cindermen to Huntington, W. Va., for the annual Huntington Relays.

• • •

Coach George Williams at West rates the 1950-51 City Basketball League "probably one of the strongest we've had for some time."

"When your champion (East) takes the district, regional and state championships; your runner-up (Central) goes to the district finals, and a team as good as Aquinas had this year couldn't even win a game, you've got a good league," states the cage and baseball coach at West.

He agrees that West should have won two games they lost—those two North games preferably, but he thinks they made up for it by advancing to the district semi-finals.

• • •

Warren Stephans, a West basketballer, is making pretty good lately as another Billy Eckstine. He recently appeared in the West Band Variety Show, and last Thursday was the guest performer in East's Variety Show—making quite a hit.

• • •

"Kid" Bryant, member of the local golf forces, takes his golfing seriously. He recently was caught practicing at 5 a. m. at Beacon Light Golf Course.

• • •

Ronnie James, fleet halfback of West's grid squad the past fall, and a graduate of January, is currently attending Capital University, and hopes to play football next fall.

Scout Troop Works For Camp Funds

Boy Scouts of Troop 49, who meet at the Wilson Road School, are conducting a subscription drive for The Hilltop Record in the Brown-rd area. The boys are led by Scoutmaster Jack Stamer. They are raising money to go to camp.

If your group or organization could use some extra money, why not contact Harold Cunningham at The Hilltop Record office, 2465 W. Broad-st, or phone RA. 1125 for further information?

Star West Athlete Becomes Disc Jockey

Jerry Trabue, West High School basketball star and high score title holder in the City League, will appear on Bill Cerley's "High School Huddle" on Station WBNS, Friday at 11:15 p. m.

Jerry, the first of the year's guest disc jockeys on the show, will spin his favorite records as well as be interviewed about his views on West's athletic prospects for the coming year.

Sports Participation Proves Boon To Columbus State School Pupils

By "Pat" Martindale

A banquet honoring the basketball team of the Columbus State School several weeks ago was significant of the many new developments and program expansions within the past year.

The initiation of the Varsity basketball team was one of the latest developments in recreation.

During the big snowfall last November, many of the employees of the State School, attendants, teachers and professional staff were stranded at home by the blizzard. Those who were able to come to work were drafted into a hastily organized program to provide recreation for the students. One group of teenage boys was given the opportunity to play basketball. The game was rough and the players unskilled, but the enthusiasm generated was genuine. Arrangements were made to have this group play regularly.

At present there are 13 members representing all but one of the male cottages at the school. Some of the boys were considered serious problems before admission to the school and failed to adjust well even after being admitted. However, all are imbued with a tremendous spirit and love for the game of basketball. Under the direction of Arnold A. Madow, clinical psychologist, and Frank Longo, recreation director, the team has gained finesse and increased confidence.

While the sport began as an intramural venture, it was early reorganized that the boys would require some way of measuring their achievement, and that the need could only be met through competition with other teams.

The boys were plainly frightened and nervous as they played their first competition game at the YMCA and although they were defeated managed to survive the evening.

It would have been easy for these boys to give up, for most had had little, if any, success in life and were probably expected to fail in their endeavors, but because they were acting as a very cohesive group rather than alone the boys surprised opponents. F. N. Reister, Glenwood Recreation Center director, offered to book games for the school with teams enrolled in regular leagues and to provide practice time. The results have been highly beneficial to the State School team.

Because of the proximity of Glenwood Recreation Center to the State School, large groups of students have had the opportunity to attend these games and cheer for their school team.

In evaluating the effect of this activity, "More poised," "better behaved", "less anxious" are some of the phrases used to describe the players by those who have come in contact with them.

The greatest worth in such programs lies in its giving each student the self-esteem which grows out of a truly successful experience.

Do you know the Legion? Are you proud of the American Legion? Do you know of the good that the American Legion has accomplished? May I suggest that there is a combination of two things that you can do to know the Legion. The first would be to work, to serve, as a Legion member and then as an officer, if such fell your lot.

The other would be, and this is not restricted to officers but any Legion member may avail himself of it, to enroll in and study the American Legion extension course. This course will not only help you to know the Legion, it will also make you proud of the Legion because you will learn much of the great good, and I do mean good, that the Legion has accomplished. One other thing, read "The Miracle at Carville" and you will be doubly proud of the American Legion.

At this time Camp Chase Post mourns the death of one of its early commanders, Jim Hurd. He was post commander in 1936 and the third of the past commanders of Camp Chase Post to answer the final roll call.

Jim served his post and his fellowmen and comrades even after losing a leg while serving his country in the Rainbow Division in World War I. To his wife and sons left behind, we realize how futile are mere words to express our deep and abiding sympathy in your loss. May you feel that he is at rest, and in endless peace. We honor his memory as one who offered his life in the service of his country. He has now enrolled in that great spirit army whose footfalls cause no sound. But in the memory of man, their souls go marching on, sustained by the pride of service, in time of national danger. Because of them, our lives are free; because of them, our nation lives; because of them, the world is blessed.

Are you planning to attend the birthday party of Camp Chase Post? It is scheduled for Thursday, Apr. 26, at Club Riviera. You owe it to yourself and to your little woman to try to attend this affair.

Genius is the gold in the ruins; talent is the miner who works and brings it out.—Lady Blessington.

Kiwanians To Hear Charles A. Jones

Charles A. Jones

Charles A. Jones, a member of the United Hospital Building Fund Committee, will address the Hilltop Kiwanis Club on "Columbus' Need For Greater Hospital Facilities," today. Jones, a former officer of the American Education Press and the Community Fund of Columbus, is now assisting in the campaign to raise $6,750,000 for seven local hospitals.

State School Riot Proves 'A Dud'

Downtown papers turned a teenage girls' squabble Sunday night at the Columbus State School into a full-blown riot. Dr. Roger M. Gove, superintendent of the school, said the disturbance, reportedly involving the 115 girls living in the cottage, was actually confined, however, to four girls in the recreation room.

Two policemen, who were on the grounds on a routine call were summoned to aid in quelling the fight. They in turn radioed a call to central police headquarters for the riot squad. Fifteen policemen then aided attendants in breaking up a "riot" that resulted in one broken window and one slightly scratched finger.

Dr. Gove said the girls were put to bed after they had been quieted.

Commuting Days Are Now Ended And Hilltop Population Grows By 3

Mrs. Otewalt

The jump from Springfield to the Hilltop is a long one, but is one that Mrs. Eunice Otewalt, 73 S. Ogden-av, liked. Mrs. Otewalt is the manager of The Harmony Shoppe at 2490 W. Broad-st.

The Harmony Shoppe was opened last May, but until the first of the year, Mrs. Otewalt commuted between Springfield and the Hilltop. Finally, about four months ago, she, her husband and their 15-year-old son, David, moved to the Ogden-av address and the Otewalts became official Hilltoppers.

Her gift shop features plants, gifts for all sizes and ages from baby to grandma. Mrs. Otewalt combines her charm with those of the "laughing people," the sprites in her front window, from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

As yet Mrs. Otewalt belongs to no local organizations. "Haven't had time, yet," she declares and her interest in hobbies has been suspended, too, in favor of her business and her son who is a student at West Junior High School.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

Hi neighbors! Here we are gabbing again 'about our neighbors. We were surprised and glad to hear so soon from the ALLHOUSES. They sent us a card from Denver, Col., where they are now making their home. They are former residents of Butler-av.

Now who in the world would come all the way from Galion for a party? You're right! The RABELS! The CORDRAYS didn't have to do much persuading when they learned the party was to be at the ELECTRIC WATTS' house.

Too bad these high heels aren't supported with gutter spikes. MRS. DAN DALE turned her ankle and broke it off. The heel, I mean. She sprained the ligament in her ankle, and now she vows she'll wear oxfords the rest of her life.

Did you see BILLIE MASON on "Early Worm" TV last week? Although the name might mislead you, BILLIE is a girl. She said hello" to Mrs. Freeman, her neighbor. You looked very good, BILLIE.

Guess who's taking driving lessons? PAULINE MAYER! She does not have a car, yet, but she claims that when she does get one or may, she's going to be able to drive it home.

Were you ever so engrossed on the bus that you went past your own street without knowing it? You probably have, I remember when I once did it myself. Well, CECELIA HOMEGARNER was engrossed in reading a book, and she went six blocks out of her way. So she just rode to the end of the line and came back.

She still can't understand how she sped out to Wrexham so fast. She said she had just looked out the window at Central a few seconds sooner.

A new fur piece is owned by MARG WILLIAMS. Her husband, although he bought it for her, tries to make everyone believe he shot the three foxes and that MARG sewed them together. The store where they got it wouldn't appreciate the interpretation.

HELEN McCANN'S phone rang three different times one night, and each time she answered it, no one was on the other end. So the fourth time she almost didn't answer it, but it rang so long, she gave it. She was glad she did because it was a long distance call from her mother in New York who is coming to be with her for the next three weeks.

Speaking of rings, my ears are ringing since wifey has been hollering at me to finish up my work here in the basement. That's where I write this, and she thinks I'm recovering her chair. So I'd better get the hammer and nails and get started.

See you next week, folks!

The 2A boys and girls in Room 102 presented a safety program entitled "Safety Club In Action, Friday, Apr. 6.

The program opened with the "Lord's Prayer" and the song, "God Bless America."

The safety play, "Safety Club In Action," was presented in three

David Purkey sang, "An Automobile Has Two Big Eyes," and the class sang, "When You Ride a Bicycle," and "The Boys of the Safety Patrol."

Between scenes the audience sang, "Aren't You Glad To See The Springtime" and an instrumental group composed of Dick Glass and Robert Cristee, trumpets; Darrell Horton, clarinet; and Nancy Dra[illegible]r, piano, played a number entitled "Violets."

A TRIP TO THE BANK

The sixth grade class of Room 202 in West Broad School visited the Huntington National Bank on Apr. 4. The visit was arranged through the father of one of the children. The children learned of the vast amount of careful bookkeeping necessary to keep the accounts of a large bank, of the need of a basic understanding of arithmetic to operate calculating machines, and of the precautions taken to avoid mistakes in accounts. A visit to the safety deposit vaults proved interesting to the students. The time lock and other protective devices proved the emphasis the bankers place on taking good care of possessions entrusted to them.

This trip was one of a series planned to acquaint the children with the work done by citizens in our community.

New Encyclopedia

We are thrilled to get a new set of Compton's Encyclopedia which the PTA has given us. They are of a beautiful red color and trimmed in blue and gold. They are set in a beautiful light wood book rack on wheels. The books are in alphabetical order from A to Z. They have beautiful colored pictures in them. We saw a filmstrip on how to use them.

Louisiana Mother Says Housework is Much Easier

Mrs. Lee Picard, Church Point, Louisiana, is mighty proud of her two daughters, Wilma Jean, 5 years old, and Juanita Marie, 4. She says it's a full-time job just keeping track of them. It wasn't too long ago when it was all Mrs. Picard could do to just barely get her work done. Now all that is changed . . . now that she has been taking HADACOL, for Hadacol seemed to be what Mrs. Picard needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be a "Doubting Thomas"

After reading about Mrs. Picard's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Picard it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On a Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when less is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest druggists if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. The great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size only [illegible] Large family or economy size [illegible].

Hilliards School Levy Fails

Norwich Township local school district, including Hilliards, turned down a teachers' "cost of living" wage adjustment levy, which included money to meet increased cost of school supplies, in last Tuesday's election. According to School Supt. M. D. Hartsook, the proposed 5-mill special tax levy went under because of the apathy of the voters in the area.

The levy required a 60 percent majority for passage and lost by 31 votes. The vote was 263 for the levy and 225 against it.

Hartsook pointed to the 1150 ballots cast in the 1949 election on the district's $295,000 bond issue and contrasted the figure with the "small turnout" of 491 voters in this election.

Community Theatre Plans Ballet For Children

Saturday, Apr. 21, at 10 a. m. the Community Junior Theatre will present "Ballet Miniatures". Six professional dancers under the direction of John Begg, perform in the traditional ballet especially created for children. The story of each ballet is narrated before the number starts to add to the children's understanding and enjoyment of the worthwhile program.

Included in the 60-minute program of four numbers will be a sparkling presentation of loved and familiar fairy tales in "Mother Goose Steps Out." A graceful adaptation of a Chinese fairy tale, "How the Moon Became Beautiful", is done in a charming stylized manner, and "The Three Bears", danced in rollicking style, will bring the performance to a gay and delightful finish.

Hilliards Sets Pace for Other Communities With Record Response To Bloodmobile Visit

According to Red Cross officials, Hilliards "showed 'em how", when the American Legion Memorial Post No. 614 at Hilliards sponsored a visit from the Red Cross Bloodmobile.

Entering the modernistic elementary school at Hilliards last Friday, a casual visitor probably would have supposed that the Legion was sponsoring a friendly "get-together," rather than a blood donation program. Friends tossed friendly banter at people across the aisle waiting to give their pint of blood, while farmers talked about the rain and cold weather and businessmen discussed taxes and how things were selling.

Mothers with young children came into the school and handed their youngsters over to husky Legion members, who were conducting an impromptu baby sitting service for donors.

The Legion Post had obtained 215 pledges to donate blood in this, the first of the three visits the bloodmobile will make to Hilliards this year. Signees have pledged their donations at all three visits.

In the 10-bed converted classroom, as the blood donation was taken, the casual, quiet conversation went on. Neighbor kidded neighbor as they both gave their blood so that another might live. In one pair of beds were Mr. and Mrs. Schaug, who were giving blood in a husband-wife team.

As soon as a pint of blood had been drawn the Hilliards folk relaxed a few minutes, then walked down the hall to a small lunchroom the Red Cross had furnished, and hot coffee, sandwiches and cookies. One of the first to donate blood and reach the coffee distributing room was Jack Headlee, commander of the Hilliards American Legion Post.

The Legion sponsored drive, led by Chairman Hank Pierce in a house-to-house canvass in Hilliards and Norwich and Brown Townships, resulted in one of the highest population ratio turnouts in the local area in a blood donation drive.

Grandmother Keeps Busy, Feels Good; Took Hadacol

When She Heard How HADACOL Was Helping People Suffering From Deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin And Iron

Keeping up with two small grandchildren as well as doing your housework can keep one woman mighty busy. And Mrs. B. R. Battle, 807 Archer, Houston, Texas, does just that. There was a time when Mrs. Battle didn't feel up to all this though. She was bothered with stomach disturbances and vague aches and pains. Then she heard the news about how Hadacol was helping relieve conditions caused by deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is her statement: "I had been troubled with indigestion and aches and pains. I heard about HADACOL and began taking it. After the fifth bottle I began to feel better. I could eat better and rest better and the pains and aches were less. I have now taken 12 bottles and can truthfully say that HADACOL has helped me a lot."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin, but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A "Doubting Thomas"

After reading Mrs. Battle's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula may help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Battle, it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia, when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL soon helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25! Large family or economy size $3.50.

Girl Scout News

Brownie troop 122 of John Burroughs School celebrated its second birthday with a party on Apr. 2. Mrs. Anna Ebright led the troop in singing, folk-dancing and games. Mrs. Esther Kuhn and Mrs. Arline Rumley served the girls ice cream, cake and Kool-Aid. Juanita Ebright was back to her first meeting in seven weeks after recovering from an operation. The troop has also recently made tray favors for two wards in Children's Hospital.

On Thursday the members of Brownie Troop 149, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frazier, went to Westgate Park for a wiener roast and supper. Songs and games completed the evening's fun.

Troop 178 girls made clever Easter presents for two Brownies who have been recent hospital patients. Nancy Reichelderfer of Troop 127 has been in a plaster cast extending from her chest to foot on one side, and to her knee on the other, since Dec. 18, when she broke her hip. She received an Easter box, styled like a bunny hutch, containing fifteen candy bunnies, one for each girl in Troop 178 and a large chocolate bunny representing the leader, Mrs. Howard McVay. Troop 127 gave Nancy an Easter basket and comic books. Juanita Ebright of Troop 192, who was recovering from an appendectomy at Easter received a similar box, with 15 candy chickens and a large marshmallow chicken in the nest. Mrs. McVay's girls also are planning to make May baskets for patients at Community Hospital, and are getting ready to "fly up" to Girl Scouts soon.

On Apr. 12 Brownies of Troop 180 "flew up" to become full-fledged Girl Scouts at a candlelight ceremony at the home of the leader, Mrs. Lewis McCracken. The following girls were invested: Audrey Hartgers, Susan Mielke, Sue Riley, Sharon Hoffman, Sharon Conrad, Linda Kerr, Martha Mann, Mary Ellen Murphy, Bonnalee Combs, Nancy Caldwell, Barbara VanDyke, Nancy McCracken and Jean Butterbaugh. A new troop committee member, Mrs. William Murphy, was welcomed at the party. Mrs. B. N. Smith, Mrs. Lester Yerian, and Mrs. William Willson are the other troop committee members. Mrs. John Butterbaugh is the assistant leader. After the investiture, ice cream molds were served, and individual and group pictures were taken of the new Girl Scouts, in complete uniform for the first time.

Next week you will hear the long-awaited news about the new West Side Day Camp site. The Day Camp committee announces that, due to the overflow of Brownies and Girl Scouts wanting to go to Day Camp this June it is important that the girls get their registrations in by May 1st, to their leaders.

Anyone interested in inspecting the new West Side Day Camp site Monday afternoon, April 23, may contact Mrs. Raymond Haughn, Day Camp Director about transportation and time. Mrs. Haughn's phone number is Ra.4386.

Day Camp training courses for leaders and assistants will be held May 15, 22 and 29, 9:30 a. m. Further announcements concerning this will be made at a later date.

Bible Comment:

Religious Teaching Is a Need in the American Home

IT has almost reached the point where a man who can remember sitting around the table with his brothers and sisters while father read the scriptures can immediately be tagged as a product of the horse and buggy age.

Family Bible discussions are fast becoming a thing of the past. And the home, once a place for peace and purpose, as well as pleasure, now stands dedicated to a 24-hour-a-day merry-go-round of media. The living room's walls have become a grandstand boxed for radio, a backdrop for television and a screen for home movies.

In many homes there is no recognition of religion at all.

How can godless parents hope to raise God-fearing, and, more importantly, God-loving, children? How can we who have placed so much emphasis upon being entertained with a minimum of ingenuity question the values of the younger generation.

These are serious questions that must be answered with truth and action.

One answer lies in diligently teaching our children the great truths and principles of religion as devout Jews were enjoined to do in the sixth chapter of Deuteronomy.

Parents must set an example by obeying the ancient commandment to think of God's will "when thou liest down and when thou raisest up." It was the constant acknowledgement of this impressive exhortation that enabled the Jewish people to survive centuries of suffering and persecution.

We cannot view the future of our country hopefully until family religious discussions are once again an established practice.

Nor can we have faith in the ability of our youth to distinguish right from wrong until we have introduced them to the Bible's exemplary parables, beauteous psalms, and books of historic truth.

Failure?

Be careful about this word "failure."

It's a very misused word. . . .

Can we, for example, call today's cancer research men "failures?" They haven't found a cause or cure for the disease. Of the hundreds working on it, only one or two may succeed. The remainder will be forgotten by history, even though they gave their lives to the search.

Would you call them failures?

Over four hundred years ago this month an Italian and an Englishman were born. One believed that the earth was round. The other was determined to translate a book. Christopher Columbus died a pauper; William Tyndale was executed at the stake. But one discovered America, and the other translated the Bible into English for the first time.

Failures?

You will find, in your church worship, that the church and its people do not judge a man by the number of times his name appears in the papers, or the money he makes. Your church judges men by what they are trying to do in line with a great truth which reads:

". . . when the One Great Scorer comes to write against your name he writes—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game. . . ."

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches. . . .—Pr. 22:1

Recognition Day To Be Held Tuesday, Apr. 24

The time and efforts put forth by the West High students of industrial, household and fine arts along with the science departments, will be rewarded for their year's work in a Recognition Day to be presented at West next Tuesday evening.

The public will be welcomed by the students, teachers, judges, and directors of the big event at 7:30 p. m., in a program which is hoped to be a yearly event.

The idea for the night grew from the neglect that the students of these various departments annually receive. Directors of the different courses consider their students as far advanced in their particular field as any other department which annually receives recognition for its work.

Another big factor is the parents will learn what their children are learning in school aside from the usual three "R's."

The night also hopes to bring together better relationships of the various school departments in both senior and junior high school at West. The students, as well as teachers involved, are working together to make the event a success.

Hilltop Scouts

The award, which does not take the place of the regular scout awards, is made on the authority of the bishop of the Catholic Diocese through the Columbus Diocesan scout committee, which includes 23 counties.

The Martindale brothers and Vargo are former graduates of St. Aloysius School, altar boys at St. Aloysius Church and current students at Aquinas High. Kenneth is one of two charter members remaining in Troop 250, and is a junior assistant scoutmaster. All three are Explorer Scouts.

Louis Mathers, 139 West Park-st, Grove City, a scout in the Southwest District Eagle Scout), will also receive the award. He is the first boy from Grove City to be accorded the honor.

Three other Columbus boys, William Bond, David Engle and David Daugherty, all St. Mary's High School students, will receive the award. Ten boys from the 22 various other counties are also to get the medal.

Ray Eyerman, 2970 Parkside-rd, and Robert Maxwell, 104 Highland-av, have been appointed scout representatives of the Southwest District in the Central Deanery and will assist other committeemen with arrangements for the affair.

Dr. H. C. Shetrone Cacti and Shell Collection Assembled From All Parts of the World

An extensive exhibition of books and paintings of desert plants and marine shells, supplemented by actual specimens, was displayed at the Hilltop Branch Library last Friday and Saturday by Dr. Henry G. Shetrone, 3038 Crescent-dr, director of the Ohio State University Museum.

The desert plants in the exhibition were mostly from South Africa and the South-West area of the United States. The greater part of his collection of over 500 specimens has been presented to the Botany Department at OSU.

His shell collection, "flowers of the sea," composed of more than 600 specimens, is mainly from the East Coast and the Gulf of Mexico, although they are representative of many varieties of marine life found throughout the world.

According to Dr. Shetrone, "sea shells have played an important part in human economies from the days of savage man to the present."

Many of them, like the oyster, the clam and the scallop are valued today as foods. They are a source of pearls and pearl shell, pearl buttons and shell for cameos, etc. They also have had and will have a profound effect on design, art and architecture," he declared.

Dr. Shetrone has received several offers from large museums for his magnificent collection.

Central Point

According to Don Casto, Sr., "Central Point" shopping center is designed "not only to serve the West Side of Columbus, or Columbus as a whole, rather it will serve Central Ohio. With the new expressways and highway systems planned for this area, shoppers from all surrounding counties will have free and easy access to its 'one stop' service."

Pointing out the advantages of the shopping center to both the residents of this area and local businessmen, Casto said, "The 'Point' should increase property values throughout the area, as it has in other places where we have constructed such shopping centers. In all instances, we have found that customers often come from areas 20 and 30 miles distant. The increase in the volume of business is spread in all parts of the entire shopping area."

Casto has two shopping centers under construction in Dayton and is adding another large section to the "Town and Country," "but," in spite of his other interests, he declared, 'the West Side will soon be able to boast of having the nation's finest center located in its midst!"

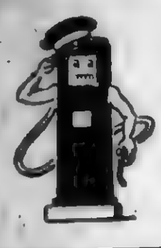
Work should start on W. Broad-st's new lighting system in June or July, according to Robert N. Tucker, superintendent of electricity. Plans call for the installation of new upright poles in the present cast iron bases and new light fixtures which will give controlled lighting on the streets with about two and one-half times more lighting efficiency than the fixtures now used.



Contracts have been let by the city for the project and delivery of the necessary materials for the change in lighting is awaited.

BASEBALL
By Eddie Yahn

Starling's baseball candidates have been put out of practice due to weather conditions, but they have seen movies about "Infield Play", "Circling the Bases", "Pitching Hints", "Batting Stars", and "Safe at Home".

Mrs. Anna Lavergne, Church Point, Louisiana, says she has a word of advice for those folks who seem always blue, mad at the world, or think cloudy skies are always hanging over their heads. Mrs. Lavergne says most folks when they act that way must not be feeling well . . . 'cause a poor disposition is a sure sign of trouble. Mrs. Lavergne says, just taking herself as an example . . . now that she is taking HADACOL there isn't a person in the world who can make her mad for HADACOL seemed to be what she needed. Yes HADACOL may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mrs. Lavergne's own statement: "You don't know how wonderful it feels to be in such good condition— after two years of feeling run-down. I had a very poor appetite—in fact, food didn't agree with me at all. I had a hard time sleeping nights . . . sometimes I would stay awake until 1 or 2 in the morning and then the next day I would feel tired and groggy all day long. You have no idea how terrible I felt. Now all this is gone . . . yes, now that I have been taking HADACOL, I feel wonderful. I get lots of good, sound sleep, have a fine appetite and just lots of energy. I can eat any kind of food now and it doesn't bother me a bit. I just can't begin to thank HADACOL."

Don't Put Off Taking HADACOL . . . do as thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron are doing. The HADACOL formula is very effective for stomach distress, insomnia due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, and a general run-down condition if they are due to such deficiencies. Make up your mind to give HADACOL a chance to help you as it has helped others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or economy size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your money will be refunded.

"Light A Light For Cancer" Drive To Be Staged Tuesday

Hilltoppers will participate in one of the shortest and most intense fund drives ever conducted in the Columbus area next Tuesday evening.

Everyone wishing to give any amount at all to the 1951 Cancer Crusade is asked to "light a light for cancer" no later than 7:30 on the evening of Apr. 24.

The gleaming lights will be signals to more than 4,000 volunteers to call and pick up the donations.

Nearly 2,000 sorority and fraternity people from Ohio State University, as well as students from public schools and workers from women's clubs, civic associations, labor groups and individuals, will make up the working force for the short drive.

In the Hilltop area the drive will be headed by Helen Schmeiser, 651 Nashoba-av, who has been designated chairman. Participating organizations, who will aid in the fund collection are the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and Hilltop Lions Club. Other volunteer groups will be captained by Frank Shea, 678 Belvidere-av, and Mrs. O. L. Milhoff, 643 Nashoba-av.

The Boy Scouts of America are using the drive as a test for their mobilization plans. Just before the workers begin their rounds the scouts will hang a reminder notice on every door knob in the community.

While the drive is being conducted, Television Station WBNS-TV will hold a three-hour-long television program, featuring variety acts and an auction of nearly $10,000 worth of donated merchandise. The merchandise being auctioned was donated by local business concerns and ranges from novelties to rare antiques and appliances.

Solicitors will turn their money over to zone captains who in turn will turn it in to armored trucks which will carry it to the central counting headquarters. Radio and television stations will carry the returns—election fashion.

Don't forget to "LIGHT A LIGHT FOR CANCER" NEXT TUESDAY.

Car License C-13 Now For Trade By O. H. Craft

O. H. Craft, real estate broker at 2661 W. Broad-st, has a problem on his hands . . . a car problem that is, with a license number C-13. Following an early morning auto accident of last Thursday in which his car even though parked, came off second best, Craft asserted that the license number was "a loser, number 13 is unlucky for me and I'll gladly trade anyone on the Hilltop for a 7 or an 11."

Craft's car was almost totally wrecked when struck Thursday by a car driven west on Broad-st by Gary D. Green, 22, of 137 E. Warren-st. Riding with Green in the car at the time of the mishap was Robert E. Autery, 21, 568 S. Ogden-av, son of Ralph M. Autery, owner of the car.

Green was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for hysteria and later charged with intoxication, reckless operation of a motor vehicle and injuries.

Autery was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for possible chest injuries.

Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Brighten-Up Fever Heralds Spring On The Hilltop

Paper Drive By HBA This Sunday Aids Clean-Up Fever On Hilltop

With the spring cleaning fever striking at the Hilltop's housewife populace these days the Hilltop Business Association is aiding and abetting their cause this week-end as they launch their mammoth paper drive.

Timed appropriately to co-incide with the period when house cleaning fever strikes the local housewife the HBA is expecting to garner a huge harvest of old newspapers, magazines and other scrap papers Sunday when their drive begins.

In addition to aiding local housewives in their desires to clean up the premises the Hilltop Business Association in holding its scrap paper drive is aiding another community cause by giving the entire proceeds of the drive toward purchase of more and better "Street Christmas Decorations" for the Hilltop.

The drive, scheduled for Sunday, Apr. 22, will take place after church services are ended in order that the effort be made on a complete community-wide basis. Teams of men in trucks will patrol Hilltop streets beginning at noon Sunday. They will collect the scrap paper placed at the curbs in front of homes.

Should inclement weather interfere, the committee in charge of the scrap paper collection asks that the bundles of old newspapers and magazines be placed on porches where they may be seen by men who are manning the trucks.

Clarence Story, chairman of the scrap paper drive, this week asked that newspapers and magazines be kept in separate bundles for the drive if at all possible. He point out that the reason for this request is that the old magazines will bring a higher revenue than the newsprint and will save much sorting time by the men in charge of the campaign.

Members of the Hilltop Business Association who are aiding the drive for old newspapers and magazines Sunday say, "Let's make the spring cleanup of old newspapers provide the Hilltop with more decorations and lights next winter at Christmas."

"Golden Age" In Home Decoration

This is a new "Golden Age" as far as home decoration is concerned.

Rarely if ever has public fancy been so overwhelmingly captured as it is right now by materials woven with a golden metallic thread for upholstery and other decorative purposes.

The metallic yarn woven into fabrics makes the cloth shimmer and sparkle as though dusted with that precious metal for which mankind is perpetually striving.

The gold glitters against a wide variety of new decorator colors, including mint, gold, raspberry, beige, rust, aquamarine and wood brown.

Your Spring Furs Are "Long Hair"

The long hair furs are back for spring in small pieces that have straighter and narrower silhouettes, fashion-emphasized with asymmetrical closings and cardigan necklines.

Furs related to the costume, in color as well as silhouette, are also new for spring. A perfect example of this is deep brown mink used as an ascot tie on a toasty brown, collarless-jacket suit or a white ermine collarlet as color contrast for a navy blue suit or coat.

Thick, blond lynx, the fox family, from the inky black pelts to the platinums, as well as otter in a variety of shades, including honey-beige and navy blue, are all to be found in this spring's fur selections.

Still in great fashion popularity are slim stoles and cape stoles, free-hanging stoles, pocketed stoles and stoles that tuck in beneath the belt. Also to be seen are a large number of scarfs that may contain as few as two skins or as many as 10 or 12 skins, worn in a cape-like effect.

Little Girls Become Pictures of Fashion

Who says that little girls aren't style conscious? Take a look around, this spring, and you'll find that the three-to-six-year-olds have blossomed forth as miniature fashion plates, just as sweet and pretty as can be.

Suits of rayon and wool-and-rayon mixtures, in the three-to-six size range are styled especially for a very young figure. All-around pleated skirts are favored for the plaids, while solid colored gabardines feature pertly flared gores.

Trim box jackets are far and away the fashion leaders in these "miniature" suits. The cutest are those with a tiny pocket designed to hold a lacy wisp of handkerchief.

A look at the accessory bar in the children's department of your favorite store will reveal a host of dainty blouses, hats, gloves and handbags with which to "top off" her new suit and make your little girl a happy picture of fashion from head to toe.

Designed For Happier Living At Home

For popular full length drapery panels, a modern printed motif on a heavy texture cotton drapery fabric. "Spellbound Tree" by Bay ret Fabrics.

Use scenic wallpaper to make rooms appear larger, suggests the Wallpaper Institute. This type of pattern is most effective with furniture of classic simplicity and blends well with pieces such as the stark teakwood table shown above.

Young Miss To Carry Sleek Bag

Handbags for Miss Sub Teen take on new shapes and colors for spring.

Sleek patent leather bags are gay with embroidered peasant figures. Classic cowhide shoulder bags come complete with snap-on tablecloth checked cotton slipcovers. And for the truly elegant Miss, there are bags of faille, crisply lined in taffeta.

TINY MIX-MATCHERS

Mix 'em and match 'em is the theme of many of the new spring fashions for small fry. In the picture are poncho-type waists, cardigan jackets and coveralls that may be switched about.

Proper Fit "Must" In Children's Socks

Proper fit is almost as important in children's socks as in shoes, it is pointed out by the makers of children's Trimfit socks.

If the socks are too small, they tend to cramp young, growing feet, while those too large will bunch up at the toes and often produce callouses.

Another important point to look for when buying juvenile hose is shrink-resistance, to insure against the socks becoming smaller than the marked size after washing.

Reinforcing in the toes and heels is a virtual "must" to give socks their full quota of wear. And what mother hasn't had the sad experience of buying socks that were not colorfast, the colors not only running off the offending socks, but blending with anything that had the misfortune to be in the same wash.

Just Like Real Buds Blooming For Spring

Spring fashion is blooming out all over with flower accents, so real looking they may have been plucked from the nearest garden.

Colors are delicate and shapes are varied from diminutive sprays to over-size single blossoms.

Natural looking pink and white camellias are ready to be added to the neckline of silky fabric black suits. And huge floppy flowers in self-fabrics are available for use at strategic points, such as the side-top of a strapless bodice or the side center-front of a bouffant skirt.

Housewives Of The Hilltop Begin Annual Chores of House Cleaning

Despite the dismal weather conditions of last week which were beset by snow, sleet, rains and windy gusts, Hilltop housewives this week have taken up the cudgel and started in on their spring house cleaning chores.

Husbands who normally arrive home for half days on Wednesday and youth who are usually prompt at returning homeward from school class rooms during this past week have suddenly become entangled in a press of additional business at the office, or, school studies suddenly have become very important.

Even the TV programs have suffered for the past week as housewives have pressed the entire family into service in the annual cleaning program that "just won't wait. It must be done now."

Walls are being cleaned, [illegible]ments are being riddled of their usual accumulation of materials such as old newspapers and magazines that have collected through the winter months. Woodwork is being cleaned and freshly painted, window blinds and draperies are coming down to be replaced by fresh brightened colors. The purr of the sweeper predominates throughout the household.

It's spring on the Hilltop! And the women folk of the community are in their power and their glory as they go about their chores brightening up, cleaning up and painting up in order to be ready for those really warm days, not too distant in the future when windows can be thrown wide open so that the musty closeness of winter can be abolished.

Local paint and furniture stores have noted an influx of business that is indicative of the Hilltop's annual spring housecleaning fever. Hardware stores say that lawn seed, gardening tools and other equipment for outdoors use have been sparked up.

Furniture and household appliance stores, too, have noted a perceptible increase as drapery and curtain materials have become more in demand. The old family radio and smaller TV sets are giving way to larger and modern designs.

Winter has had its last fling and the local housewife knows it. When the spring cleaning fever starts the Hilltop comes alive from winter's lethargy.

It's spring on the Hilltop again!

Keep Slim For Fashion

The narrow silhouette featured for new spring fashions calls for a slim, non-bulging figure. And foundation makers have answered this need with girdles, corsets and corselets designed to smooth and control your figure efficiently.

Foremost are the corselets and high waisted girdles constructed with special straight hip features for a long, unbroken figure line. In many instances boning is eliminated completely and elastic reinforcements or inner elastic bands are substituted.

Also popular for wear beneath new sheath dresses are four-section girdles with side panels of a rigid material or a one-way stretch satin elastic.

Juniors, too, who want to insure a smooth, well-controlled effect for their new fashion choices are being kept in mind with foundations that have reinforcements or panels at the side and adequately provide that wanted control.

Teens Don Lady Like Fashions For Spring

Young fashions for spring from St. Louis emphasize the lady-like and the costume look. Young people like fashions that adapt themselves easily to new roles. The dress, for instance, that goes to business when worn with its cover-up jacket, and that looks charming after five when the jacket comes off to bare the low neckline.

The bolero suit, a perennial young fashion for spring, appears in many fabrics, with the short bolero often buttoned from neck to waistline or purposely opened to reveal a contrasting blouse.

Frosted white at neckline and sleeves adds sharp and interesting accent to navy sheers, while the valentine charm of embroidery and lace marks these as easy-to-wear fashions.

New Cosmetic Kit Is Light, Compact

Cosmetics travel light and safe in a compact kit made of Vinylite plastic.

The kit contains two bottles and two jars, also of plastic, to allow easy transferral of both cream and liquid cosmetics and toiletries into them for traveling purposes.

KING MIDAS GIFT

Gold kid shoes to complement the striking fabrics which are flecked and striped in gold for both day and evening wear will be featured for spring.

LIKE MAGIC!

Ordinary baking soda added to regular shampoo water helps to loosen grease and oil in the hair and makes it easier to wash.

Rollaway Bed Looks Well In Play Room

A rollaway cot or two tucked in the closet will supply the makings for a comfortable, impromptu guest room in new smaller homes and apartments.

Newest rollaways have a center coil section for better support of the heaviest part of the body and are equipped with good inner-spring mattresses.

Many homemakers use their rollaways for a lounge in dens, recreation rooms or sun porches. Slipcovered and lined with pillows or bolsters, they provide comfortable seating space.

Teens Use Sleepwear All Around the Clock

There's a gay-dreams sleeping combination for a junior's every bedtime mood this season.

There are pajamas with real double-duty shirt tops that come with or without sleeves and have short bottoms in navy, bright red or green that can also lead a double life.

For one gal who likes her sleepwear bare and bold there's a bra and shorts ensemble. The bra is designed with a winged top containing a built-in bra so it can be used for sunning as well as sleeping.

Lingerie For Spring

Lingerie follows the narrow silhouette trend of outerwear. Above, a hand detailed slip with a Val lace bodice frame that forms a center medallion. By Yolanda.

Lingerie plays many roles this spring. This shorty gown can be worn as a bedjacket or as a blouse as well as for sleeptime. My Knee gown in rayon crepe by Dora Gottlieb.

Lamps and Shades Give Home a "Lift"

One of the easiest and most inexpensive ways to give your home a decorative lift for spring is through the selection of new lamp shades or lamps.

New are the dressmaker skirt shades of rayon taffeta which can be snapped off for laundering. If you are buying lamps for spring and summer use only, consider a light airy filigreed effect; also, planter lamps of all types are especially good for this season.

A particularly wise selection for new shades would be the parchment type which, because of its translucence, sheds an abundance of light and can be had in a stimulating array of colors. Another good choice would be the paper shades which are low priced and come in vibrant floral prints; many in this category imitate fabric beautifully, if you prefer this effect.

Remember, too, during spring cleaning time to remove all traces of dirt and soil from glass or china lamp bases with a damp cloth. A good dusting with a dry cloth will clean metal bases for they have been treated with a coat of protective lacquer.

Few Basic Rules For Years of Pleasure

Follow these simple and few basic rules for the selection of sterling silver flatware and gain a lifetime of happy satisfaction from the use of these precious table accessories.

First, go to a store you can trust and ask to see reputable and well-known brands.

Then compare details of the ornamentation of the different brands. Unless there is a refinement in detail, it cannot be regarded as quality silverware.

Remember to study the gracefulness and rhythm of each design. An inferior design can be detected easily by its lack of over-all beauty.

After you have selected your pattern, test the balance of a knife, fork and spoon. When the tip of a finger is placed under the shank of a spoon, for example, there should be perfect balance between the handle and bowl.

Be sure to compare the finish and workmanship of each individual piece. One of the main differences between quality and ordinary sterling is the skill and time put into the finishing touches of each piece.

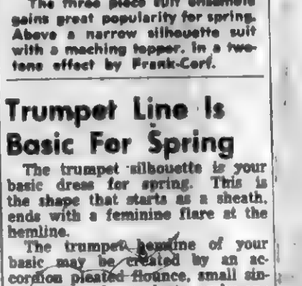
Slim Lines

The three piece suit ensemble gains great popularity for spring. Above a narrow silhouette suit with a maching topper, in a two-tone effect by Frank-Corf.

Trumpet Line Is Basic For Spring



The trumpet silhouette is your basic dress for spring. This is the shape that starts as a sheath, ends with a feminine flare at the hemline.

The trumpet hemline of your basic may be created by an accordion pleated flounce, small single back or front pleats, or by one or two tiers of matching fabric. A tie-on overskirt easily converts your straight sheath basic into a trumpet silhouette.

More becoming to many figures than the tapered sheath, the trumpet dress can be just as easily accessorized. Depending, of course, on the fabric and color you choose, it can be dressed up with jewelry, a scarf, or a stole for evenings out; worn with a minimum of accessories for an afternoon of shopping or bridge.

Home Comfort

Entertaining at home is gaining fast in popularity throughout the country. This tea cart or portable bar of mahogany with yew bandings and inlays is typical of the many hostess conveniences now being offered. By Chorak.

Skirts Grow Shorter On Spring Formals

The shorter length formal for spring is an accepted part of your gala occasion wardrobe.

It appears in many glamorous guises: exotic sheers such as organzas and chiffons over special net and crisp taffeta petticoats; all lace styles, some rhinestone trimmed and rustling taffetas in exciting grey and apricot colors.

Many of the new shorter length dance dresses have matching stoles and some even have fur trims adding to their elegance.

Every Sport Has A Tie To Go With It

Lightweight wool challis ties, patterned with clever sports symbols, team up wonderfully with odd jackets and are doubly pleasing because they shake out their wrinkles so quickly.

Another new look in neckwear is the bow tie made in narrow width with square ends.

Furniture Designed To Travel In Or Out

There's a growing trend to use "garden" furnishings not only outdoors and in dinettes and playrooms, but even for year around use in formal living rooms, bedrooms and hallways.

Wrought iron now appears in headboards for the bed, night tables, mirror frames and dual purpose low tables that become stools when cushioned.

Furniture made with canvas, sailcloth, heavy army duck or webbing materials comes in streamlined indoor designs that wear and wash well.

Even wicker, reed and rattan have been given contemporary treatment with new attention paid to assuring the serviceability of upholstery.

MAKE 'EM LARGER

To make a room look larger, paint the walls a light color. Be practical, too, and choose paint that is truly soap-and-water washable.

Fashions That Make Life Easier

Spring is dress-up time and hats play an important role in the well dressed appearance of every man. At left, one of the new lightweight felt hats in a new lighter spring shade. At right, a dented crown hat with snapped brim, decorated by twisted grosgrain and a satin band. Hat Research Foundation.

Sporty for spring . . . a colorful checked lightweight wool vest to give a lift to his favorite flannel suit. Wool Bureau.

A new lightweight all-worsted suit for business or dress-up in the man's fashion theme for spring. The "natural" lines give more comfort. The lighter colors give more "lift". Wool Bureau.

Among the many new fashion innovations for sports enthusiasts is a water-proof jacket that folds into a small packet for storage in golf bag pocket, auto dashboard or fishing fly case. All Vinylite plastic.

New color accents appear in men's fashions for spring, as on this lightweight rayon pullover with its three-toned chevron stripe across the chest and in the knitted waistband. Dannit.

Brunch Coat Has New Style Detail

Fashion isn't restricted to just those periods in the day when "dress up" is required. Women who know and appreciate good fashion are aware that as much good taste can lie in choosing a brunch coat as an evening dress.

A brunch coat is a versatile garment. It makes a handy, quick cover-up around the house. A smart, short coat can go out to garden, down to market or to the sea as a beach coat.

Back wraps and two-way coats that can be reversed front and back are newest popular designs for brunch coats. These are feminine styles with cap sleeves and come in plaid, plain cottons with ric-rac trim and wide-spaced florals.

The trumpet influence is beginning to be felt with flared and flounced hemlines showing up. These are styled with either square cut or yoke necklines and are made in cotton plisses, percale prints and solid color broadcloths.

Slender and simple is the silhouette for these fashion-minded brunch coats, and the woman at-home will find styles galore to choose from, styles in which she can look pretty and feel well dressed all day.

[illegible]

Lightweight belts of nylon are now popular with men to beat the heat of summer. They can be quickly washed and dried at home.

In Passin'

by ESTHER WEAKLEY

My life shall touch a dozen lives
Before this day is done;
Leave countless marks for good or ill
'Ere sets the evening sun.
So this the wish I always wish,
The prayer I ever pray:
Lord, may my life help other lives
It touches by the way.

Anonymous.

This poem was sent in by Miss Irene Parthemer, one of this city's best-loved shutins, and member of Courage, Inc. Irene's life has touched many lives and has made many of us who can get around, very ashamed. She is always cheerful and always helping "other lives," though she has been confined to her room for many years.

One of the sweetest things I've seen and heard on television was Dad's comment one day not long ago. It happened on the "Dad and Blanche" show on WTVN. The camera was on Blanche's hands while she was playing the piano. Dad said "Look at her hands. They have made a lot of biscuits and peeled a lot of potatoes; they have done a lot of things for me . . . they are kind hands." It was the way he said it!

Robin Schmidt's letter '.. Mr. Campbell which was printed in The Hilltop Record a week or two ago was most appealing. I've known Robin since he was this high and knew he was a man before his terrible experiences in Korea. It breaks any mother's heart to know that boys these days have to become men the hard way, the war way.

Excerpts from letter from William P. Bowser, New York: "It is fairly expensive even to starve in a Greenwich Village flat nowadays . . . If any production of 'The Member of the Wedding' gets to Columbus, I would urge you not to miss it. It is about the finest thing I have seen here . . . One of my greatest disappointments was the Judith Anderson production of 'Tower Beyond Tragedy.' It was a terribly cut and chopped version of the original poem. Guess we should stick with Shakespeare after all."

Another story about Baby Bare of 4503 Olentangy-blvd, who is one of my favorite "characters": Baby Bare—age 3—sucks her thumb when she goes to bed at night so Mama Bare fastened a thumb-guard on Baby's thumb to break her of the habit. Last week Mama Bare was wrapping a birthday gift for Rusty and Baby B. watched with great interest for a while, then went to her room. In a few minutes she came out with a small package which she said was for Rusty. She told Mama B. not to open it. Mama, thinking the package contained one of Baby's small toys, did not open it but sent it to Rusty as was. Now Baby B. is rid of something which was extremely obnoxious to her and Rusty has her birthday gift, which she says will always be one of her most prized possessions: the slightly-used thumb-guard.

From "The Funnybone," one of Louisville Courier-Journal's interesting columns:

You'll notice a man who smokes a pipe
Will seldom ever complain or gripe
And the reason's clear, beyond a doubt:
If he stops to talk his pipe goes out.

First Impression Usually Counts

Let your imagination run riot and you can create a veritable jewel box out of an otherwise "Plain Jane" entrance to your home.

In redoing the floors, the Wallpaper Institute suggests one of those popular wall papers which create a third dimensional effect. A green and white block design would be impressive, besides giving the effect of architectural spaciousness. The wall paper will wear like iron if it is covered with approximately six coats of clear shellac.

Taking the cue from the floor, an excellent choice for the walls would be a scenic wall paper picking up tones that will harmonize with the green and white design. Green and coral would do nicely.

If your hall is narrow in any respect, the scenic is definitely your answer for this type of treatment pushes back the walls and creates the sensation of increased roominess.

Some place about your home, you may be able to resurrect a suitable table even though it bears al the ear-marks of hard wear. Wall paper can again come to the rescue. Simply cover the top with a handsome marbleized paper with a washable finish, and you'll be amazed at the transformation that will occur.

With this basic plan outlined above as a springboard, you will want to add the little finishing touches that will create a "lived in" atmosphere. Maybe a smart lamp, fresh hardy greens or some treasured knick-knack will be the answer.

Whatever plan you pursue, you're in for a real treat not only when redecorating the hallway, but more especially when viewing the finished product.

RED NEWS

Bright red linings are a colorful addition to teens' spring coat, suit and topper fashions.

Pastel Hues Tops For Ties

Color and more color in bright, clear "jewel-tones" on soft pastel backgrounds is the clue to new spring neckwear, according to the Men's Tie Foundation.

Multi-tones in striking and unusual superimposed colors and designs echo the new freshness of spring as mistblue with navy and scarlet, teast with pottery or turkey red, pale julep mint green with shades of wood brown and the intermingling of chartreuse, yellows, cadet blue and wild plum in all-over water color effects.

Hand painted ties, once confined to the plush purse, but now priced to fit any size budget, will run rampant in color and design from the geometrics to Hawaiian sunsets.

Further evidence that spring ties will be bright and gay is the introduction of a new luminous silk, fluorescently treated, giving a shiny jewel-like sparkle to the fabric that glows in the dark.

Spring neckwear will be seen in rich new fabrics, jacquards, foulards, corded silks, reps, wovens, satins and crisp new rayons from American and foreign mills.

TARTAN FASHION

A new men's sportswear item is the tartan waistcoat. Most of these are made of handsome wool flannel in Scottish clan colorings with reds, blacks and yellows predominating. This kind of vest is ideal for wear with a tan or grey sport jacket and flannel slacks. Miniature check and tattersall vests are also included in the new offerings.

Science Magic Produces Home Floor Coverings

The wizardry of modern chemistry will be greatly responsible for many new floor coverings this year.

After years of experiment, all-rayons, rayon-and-cotton and rayon-and-wool mixture carpetings have come out of the test tube for spring, re-decorating in textures and a great variety of patterns and shades.

For home decorators with a special decor in mind, man-made fibre carpetings include patterns with distinctively handcrafted looks for Provincial rooms; modern, abstract and geometric designs for the modern home and an abundance of leaf, scroll and swirl motifs in the season's best colors, such as olive greens, tawny tones and browns for the traditional-minded rug buyer.

Many modern floor coverings are subjected to severe tests before they are put into the market, in order to make sure that wearability is up to standards set by their manufacturers.

COTTON GLITTERS

Cottons have a gay glitter this season.

Pert off-shoulder styles for gala evening events come all dressed up with rhinestones twinkling amid lavish applications of lace.

Smooth cotton blouses look sparklingly pretty with sprinklings of beads bordering their necklines.

Demure Predictions For Young Springtime

Spring blouses take to odd skirts or suits with equal ease. Right, a convertible necked classic shirtwaist with smart flap pocket accent. A softly tailored rayon crepe blouse at left with a double row of pearl buttons marching down the front. Both Ship'n Shore.

Pretty pumps of polished calf in classic navy accented with white are suggested by the National Shoe Institute for a teenager's spring suit, for separates under her orange fleece shortcoat.

That adorable new dress for her birthday — in keeping with the festivities could be this balloon frock all dressed up with French knots, eyelet embroidery and wee embroidered scallops framing the square neck. By Yolande.

SCENT YOUR TRESSES

Give an added touch of femininity to your new hair-do by spraying cologne or toilet water on your hair before setting. The scent will linger as your hair dries, forming an aura of fragrant loveliness about your head.

Tri-Colored Season For New Casuals

Teens, ever anxious to embrace gay new fashions, are given ample opportunity this season by casual-wear makers who cater to teen needs and sizes.

Red, white and navigator blue sing out as the featured color on most sportswear, whether it's a cotton skirt, blouse and stole ensemble or a shirt, slack and jacket set.

Yes, slacks are back and ready for team-up action with checked or plaid cotton shirts that are accented with giant white bibs and with the handsome new leather and suede jackets.

For square dancing and casual warm-weather dates, there are splashy print cotton and blouse ensembles. Following the way of fashions for spring '51, some of the skirts are slim as reeds, some are simple-to-don tie-on styles and others are full dirndl-types. The blouses may have a peasanty, off-shoulder look or trimly tailored and sleeveless with a Peter Pan collar.

Dyed-to-match outfits in new raspberry, mint, maize and gold hues appear in pure linens, shantungs and cottons. These may include a slim-line skirt, a sleeveless blouse-top and a three-quarter sleeve cardigan sweater.

SILK SHIRTS

Pure silk is now being featured for men's spring and summer sport shirts. It appears in brocade, shantung, crepe and foulard weaves.

Juniors love their separates and the above is typical of the dressier versions available for spring. A scalloped bib enlivens a Morlana inseparable of a Morlin washable fabric.

From tomboy to young lady, especially for spring. This brown and white checked worsted-type rayon suit styled like Big Sister's is one way to achieve the desired effect. Avisco fabric.

Now junior's clothes are tailored just like dad's. Here, for example, is a man-tailored suit, trench coat and cap combination, all of Cape Ann "Sea Cloth," Zelan treated for water repellency. Mighty-Mac suit-coat ensemble.

It's Easy To Blend Hose With Clothes

Selecting a complete hosiery wardrobe simultaneously with your new spring fashions is one way to be sure of dramatizing the warm, vibrant colors of your ensembles as well as insuring a maximum of flattery to your legs.

This season, hosiery colors are more carefully keyed than ever to newest fashion shades. So, whether your wardrobe is in the tan to deep brown or cornflower blue to navy range, stocking shades are available that complement your every ensemble from early afternoon tailored suits to late evening short-length formals.

For instance, you'll want to blend a natural leg tone with toasty orange daytime costumes. A soft beige taupe will combine with informal lighter blues and navies. Neutral powder tones will go best with glamorous pastel tinted organzas and dressy sheers. And navy shades offer striking accent to ankle-revealing evening frocks.

Every Sport Has A Tie To Go With It

Lightweight wool challis ties, patterned with clever sports symbols, team up wonderfully with odd jackets and are doubly pleasing because they shake out their wrinkles so quickly.

Another new look in neckwear is the bow tie made in narrow width with square ends.

New Mats Have Handmade Look

A new plastic table place mat has the look of handmade hemp types. It is embossed with a three-dimensional surface and is said to resist wrinkling and cracking.

The new mats come with matching coasters in a geometric leaf design. Both have been treated to resist flame and boiling water, staining, discoloring and tearing.

LINEN THE STAR

You'll wear linen this spring. You'll choose it in a dyed-to-match ensemble that may consist of a slim skirt and a sleeveless blouse. You may prefer it as a narrow-silhouette duster coat accented with a contrasting color velvet collar. Or you may like this fabulous fabric best when styled into your favorite dress-up frock of the season.

Every "Dog Day" Has Its Cooling Aid

Electrical appliances come in for a double share of thanks for keeping hot weather life in the kitchen cool and comfortable and at the same time providing really refreshing and tasty meals.

For example, every family needs at least one hot meal a day, a supply of frozen foods prepared in cooler weather or bought packaged at the corner grocery and stored in the food freezer or freezer compartment of the refrigerator will be readily available for in-a-jiffy meals.

Electrical cooking is another way to keep cooler. Plan one-pan meals that will use only one unit of your range. If you don't have an electric range, use smaller appliances such as the electric roaster, the sandwich grill and the waffle iron.

Have cooling-off parties with the refreshments prepared with the aid of a blender that does everything from ice crushing to liquefying fruits to make refreshing juices. Or use a plug-in beater to ready-up a chill whipped cream topping or home-made ice cream in minutes flat.

Then to keep your kitchen clear and cool, use that "old reliable," the electric fan. It will keep the air circulating and if you get it in portable form it can be moved around to summer-hot bedrooms and the living room, too.

It's New!

Number one fashion news in men's spring shoes is the slip-on that fits the foot by means of goring or elastic insets. Shown, brushed leather with smooth leather slip-on, side finger gores. Popular Price Shoe Manufacturers.

Tartan plaids of the Scottish clans, making their appearance in all types of accessories, now decorate this wallet of goatskin. By Hickok.

Jewelry Enhances Tall Tapered Look

Men will come tall and tapered this year, decree style-setting tailors, and the new narrow look for males is reflected in spring jewelry accents.

Pin collars, French cuffs, bar ties, demand smart yet simple accessories, and men's jewelry designers have rolled up their own cuffs and gone to work.

Newest thing they've come up with are clasps, designed especially for longer, narrower ties now in vogue.

The predominance of stripes, smaller figures and solid colors in ties have inspired simpler, shorter and slimmer clasp designs to set them off to best advantage.

Very new is a round pin that richly complements a plain tie, minutely pierces both tie and shirt to hold them in a firm grip.

For The Man About Town

Here's a new design for spring in a lightweight wool gabardine topcoat with more "natural" lines for greater comfort. Sporty tweed topcoats are also popular. The Wool Bureau.

For the fashion-wise masculine traveler, a three-piece matching set of steel luggage consisting of a two-suiter, one-suiter and small companion case. Suggested by the Luggage and Leather Manufacturers.

Luggage Shaped For Convenience

A wide selection of new leathers and specialized shapes styled especially for various uses add a newsworthy note to the usually conservative luggage for men this season.

Belting leather, harness leather, water buffalo and even elegant ostrich are all now being utilized in the design of men's luggage, along with, of course, cowhide, the perennially favored luggage leather.

Many of the convenience-angled shapes introduced this season offer simplified, wrinkle-proof packing and as a result men's luggage may now be considered as specialized as women's with a case for every occasion.

A small in number but large in usages matched luggage set that follows this new trend for specialized cases might include just three pieces: a two-suiter that holds two suits on hangers on one side of the case and accessories on the other; a one-suiter which carries one suit and accessories; and a companion case large enough to comfortably hold overnight clothes.

Colorful Spring Shoes For Sister

Big Sister's fashions have a decided influence on the shoes little sister wears this spring. For newest footwear designed for the five-to-12-year-old set incorporates many of the color and style ideas found in Big Sister's wardrobe.

Color comes first. All shades of brilliant red lead her footwear parade. Cherry red, fire engine red, candy red, play red and tangerine are but a few of the variations of this gay color featured for Little Sister.

Styling is airy and sleek as Big Sister's. Patent leather is "in" for party as well as every day wear, as are mesh and leather combinations and straps, cross-straps and multi-straps.

Sparkle of Jewelry Goes Everywhere

Costume jewelry this spring is as important a part of your costume as sleeves and a collar.

Tiny jewelled pins will accent the generous turn-back cuffs of your suit and coat sleeves. One giant pin, made up of your favorite just-like-real stones, will play up the many tab collars and trims on dresses, blouses and suits for spring.

A complete wardrobe of white beads and another of black jet, consisting of everything from drop earrings to a bib necklace, will serve to round out your black and white ensemble.

No Squint, No Spots Just Fun In the Sun

Sun fun minus the squint, plus definite fashion appeal is promised for ultra violet devotees this spring and summer.

Sun glass manufacturers have come up with several lens refinements and new frame designs.

A pair of glasses currently available allows the wearer to control brightness by rotating the lens with a small metal tab. Another plastic framed pair carves uniquely to fit the brow, has built-in visors for extra protection and fashion interest.

Extra wide frames with slotted temples for scarves turn up in many of the season's new models, with a variety of colors provided.

SPANISH ACCENT

Toreador Pants promise to be the talk of the teens. They are pedal pusher length trousers with a new fitted look that often laces tight just below the knee.

PROTECTION

To protect your make-up and hairdo, tie a large kerchief securely over your head and face to serve as protection while slipping dress-

Cottons Add Gaiety To Teens' Wardrobe

Cotton appears in a myriad of exciting ways, giving a fresh new tang to young spring fashions.

Sleeveless dresses, in waffle piques, ginghams and broadcloths, are featured alone or beneath pert little jackets with cut-away or butterfly lines. At other times they are accompanied by a duster coat, coordinated in fabric and color to the dress.

The sheath jumper, ever a favored teen style, has a softly gathered skirt and a slim bodice this

Crisp polished cotton gives dresses for date and play a slick, new air, as do the sheer, subtly checked ginghams. Both are dressed-up with lavish appliques of cotton lace and stitched and looped embroidery.

A Prettier You

The sleeveless blouse with a detachable cluster of leaves to create a new bow neckline look. Silk shantung. By Dorothy Kerby.

Two current fashions: a soft bun of hair at the nape of the neck and handsome, extravagant dinner rings. Peggy Sage nail polish.

Wider, Shaped Belts Circle Waists

Belts to complete spring's costume look and to emphasize the slim lines of newest fashions are wide and shaped to the figure this season.

Wide, contour or curved types are most popular, and can be seen in sleek black patent leather, in soft velvet with its own self-buckle and in colorful ribbon styles.

Nylon Trousseau For Servicemen's Brides

With the accent these days on travel, particularly for the young bride whose bridegroom is being whisked off for training to far places by Uncle Sam, a wardrobe that is a good traveler is a must.

Instead of the many nightgowns, slips, bras, girdles, hose and negligees she formerly required, today's bride can travel easily and adequately with one nylon garment of each, suggests David Lewis, nylon authority.

And she need make no sacrifice to style. Because, no matter what her preference she'll find it in nylon.

And, no matter where the young bride stops the night, she can dip her undies up and down in a washbasin, hang them up to dry on a towel rack and, by the time she's ready to dress, they're all set and ready to go, generally without ironing.

Spring Greetings Begin At Window

Spring cleaning starts many a housewife wishing for window glamor. And smart homemakers are achieving it nowadays with new window accessories that combine beauty and durability with a lap-of-luxury look, at far from luxury prices.

A wide range of drapery fabrics; a gamut of shades in washable materials; and some striking new window blind ideas now make it possible to enliven dull and dingy window settings with a decorator's touch.

Soot-battling city dwellers will rejoice over new fabric patterned and textured plastic drapes with sheer plastic curtains, that take kindly to soap and water. Equally attractive and tubbable are satin-finish cotton drapes that can be washed many times over without losing their brand-new luster.

For the really modern-minded there's an intriguing new drapery available. Made of closely-joined wood strips, it drapes like cloth, comes in many colors, and finishes off a contemporary room to perfection.

The plain old window-shade has come in for a considerable face-lifting. It can now be had in gay all-over prints on washable cloth and plastic; in perforated fabric that admits light and air while preserving privacy; and in closely-bound wood strip "cloth" that lends itself to hand decoration. Manufacturers of the perforated shade suggest it as an effective backdrop for lacy curtains.

An attractive window-covering for a child's room is a nursery-patterned luminescent shade that gives off a reassuring night time glow.

New twists to blinds, Venetian and otherwise, make them more attractive than ever as sole window treatments. At an extra large window, an unbroken expanse of Venetian blind can be effectively patterned by the use of contrasting second-color slats. These slats cross the lengthwise matching tapes at six-or-eight space intervals to form a pattern of rectangles that emphasizes window size yet strikingly relieves the monotony of a single unbroken area.

Bamboo blinds, for which decorators are finding more and more use, are now being fitted with spring rollers on which they can be rolled up and down as easily as conventional shades.

Interesting window settings can make a room doubly inviting, and homemakers with decorating problems will find some exciting and imaginative solutions in these window-decor innovations.

Fun To Show Off Gayest Hankies

This spring, show off your pretty handkerchiefs to best advantage.

Tie a hankie 'round your neck in a colorful choker effect or have it fliply flattering tied at your wrist.

Make charming use of the many pockets on all of your new spring fashions. Let a handkerchief dangle coyly from the pocket of your stole or place it strategically in your suit jacket pocket to peep out and offer handsome hip accent.

In Young Favor

Shades of the pony express! A pony-skin pattern shirt of broadcloth with cowboy touches that include western fringe along the yoke and contrast piping. Sturdi-boy shirt.

Teen-agers look very feminine in the boy cap. This one is of pique topped with a tasseled button of velvet and velvet visor brim. Vecumont.

A Dress To Go Places This Season

One dress for informal daytime wear. The same dress for gala evening events. It's as much fun as magic and it's the key fashion of spring '51.

It may be a dress with a tiny bolero or snug-fitting jacket that when removed reveals a gay print blouse top. Or it may be a dress with a suit outlook, in a formal fabric such as faille or pure silk with 'neath the jacket, a baretop bodice of lavish lace.

Or it may even be a cheerful cotton dress you'll wear with its jacket or bolero top for morning shopping and by doffing the jacket later in the day reveal a dress perfect for sunning or dancing.

It's just as simple as that with

Fabric Star Of Blouses For Spring

It's the fabric that tells the new fashion story on jewel and surplice necklined blouses for spring '51.

Lavish all-laces, lace-trims, pure silk prints and stripes, pastel sheers, pure linens, polished cottons, sheer nylons and cotton piques give variety and fashion interest to the blouses you team with skirts or wear with narrow-silhouetted suits.

Sleeveless styles and styles with the merest suggestion of a sleeve are foremost in the new fashion picture. They offer fun-to-accessorize jewel necklines and surplice necklines. Surplice necklines are often the dramatic accent mark of a wrap-around style that can be worn with suits or with skirts in early spring and to top shorts later in the season.

In a more casual mood are the cotton-knit T-shirts. This season, T-shirt designers have given a dressier outlook to these classics with novel collars and fashion-wise colors making them as smartly appropriate for business wear as they are for sun and sport separates.

New Knits Live Well In Town, Country

Knitted dresses are now available in a variety of styles and weaves that move them from the "sports alone" category right into the "go everywhere" grouping.

Now, trimly tailored knitted dresses go to business. More formal styles, sometimes accompanied by a glamorous stola, attend cocktail parties. And best of all, there are enough style variations for every occasion, to flatter every figure.

Gay Evening Dress-Ups

New pajamas are designed for 'round the clock wear. The set shown above can be worn for sleep or lounge. The gay plaid shirttail top can also be mix-matched with skirts, slacks and shorts. Harry Berger designed Tommies.

Spring 1951 Weddings Feature Informal Bride

The familiar refrain of Lohengrin's Wedding March is expected to be played at more speedily planned, informal-in-theme weddings this spring than since the hectic days of World War II.

With many young men being called to active duty and many others already in service fortunate enough to obtain furloughs, weddings assume a more casual mood.

Manufacturers, well aware of this trend, are cooperating with the informal Bride of Spring 1951 with wedding gowns, suits and dresses designed to live up to her dreams of being the most exquisite bride ever, as well as offering her a practical double-purpose use.

If she wants to retain all the traditional aspects of a formal wedding with a floor length gown she can choose, for example, an antique ivory satin gown with a color-matching lace overskirt and jacket. The jacket removes to reveal a shirred satin strapless bodice. And the gown can later be worn to dinner parties and dances.

The informal bride can wear her pretty wedding ensemble as a traveling costume if she wishes. For instance, a bride's beige dressmaker suit of faille or gabardine has a slim skirt and a waist-nipped jacket glittering with rhinestone buttons. The suit is a perfect traveler and when she removes the jacket the matching off-shoulder blouse gives her an extra teatime or dinner ensemble.

To be a memory-making bride is of course the desire of every bride-to-be. And what could be more effective as a memory-maker than a frothy ankle-length gown of eyelet organdy in a soft pink shade, styled with a tiered bouffant skirt effect, a delicate illusion of an off-shoulder neckline and a matching wisp of a bonnet. And yes, this too is a practical gown for it is exactly what fashion has dictated for shorter-length formal wear, spring-and-summer '51.

Dab of Velvet, Bit Of White Is Fashion

A touch of velvet, a dab of white, this is the signature of spring '51 fashions.

Velvet is everywhere. As contrasting accent on the collar of your suit, as pert trim on your new spring bonnet or as a sliver of elegance that encircles the waistline of your favorite print dress.

The sparkle of white so widely in favor for spring reveals itself as debonair accent for the deep toned navy blues you'll wear through the new season, as perky highlights on your best hat and in sleekly styled gloves that make for fashion all the way to your fingertips.

You Can Help Kill Your Organization

If you want to help kill the organizations you belong to just follow these simple rules:

Don't come to meetings. If you do come, come late. If the weather does not suit you, don't think of coming.

Find fault with the work of the officers and the other members. Never accept an office or a committee appointment, as it is easier to criticize than do the things.

Get sore if you are not appointed on some committee, but if you are, do not attend committee meetings. If asked by the chairman to give your opinion, tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things ought to be done.

Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary; but when others roll up their sleeves and use their ability to help matters along, howl that the association is being run by a clique.

Hold back your dues as long as possible or don't pay at all. When you do receive a bill for your dues, postpone paying until the secretary writes you about it—then get sore because you've been dunned.

Don't tell the association how it can help you, but if it doesn't help you, resign. If you receive service without joining, don't think of joining.

When you attend a meeting, rise to do something, then go home and do the opposite. Agree to everything at the meeting and disagree with it outside.

Get all the assistance the association gives, but don't give it any. Talk cooperation for the other fellow with you; but never cooperate with him.

When everything else fails, cuss the secretary.

Now, Once Upon a Time—

Two fleas decided to marry and settle down. The ceremony performed, they selected a big, inactive dog and took up their abode.

Life was sweet and rosy. Food, shelter and heat were provided from a central control source. Freedom from want and fear became a reality. With a housing unit in every wrinkle, the fleas had little to do other than eat, sleep and multiply.

The dog seldom scratched, he

Eshelman Grain Elevator Fast Nearing Completion

Symbolic of the manner in which the Hilltop is rapidly growing these days is the swift building of the new Eshelman Grain Elevator and Feed Mill on the north side of Sullivant-av near the Fernstedt Division Plant of General Motors. The new industry which has come to the Hilltop area brings with it the facilities to serve all grain and feed dealers in Central Ohio.

The new grain elevator constructed almost overnight by the Eshelman Grain Inc. with offices at 690 S. High-st will, when completed have a storage capacity of 150 to 200 thousand bushels of grain. It is one of the most modern grain and feed manufacturing plants in the midwest today being very flexible in its operation.

John W. Eshelman of Eshelman Grain said this week that the newest of the Hilltop's industrial structures had cost in excess of $450,000 for construction and equipment. He indicated too, that upon final completion of the plant which will handle most of its tonage by the carload and truck, that the main offices of the firm would probably be moved to the Hilltop location.

Paper Drive Results Poor

The paper drive conducted by the Hilltop Business Association produced 11,000 pounds of paper last Sunday according to chairman, Clarence Story. Story blamed the poor results of the drive on previous drives conducted by other groups and on the fact that many persons, fearing the rain, kept their paper indoors, hoping to catch the collection trucks as they drove by.

The proceeds from the three truck loads of paper produced by the drive will be used to purchase Christmas decorations for the Hilltop.

Local Shriners Plan Semi-Annual Pre-Ceremonial Dinner May 3

By Myron T. Seifert

Hundreds of Hilltop "Nobles" and "Nobles-to-be" of local Aladdin Shrinedom will converge at the semi-annual pre-ceremonial dinner to be held Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p. m. in West Gate Temple, officers Leo Phillips, president of the Hilltop Club, and Lou Saunders, secretary, said today.

Two drawing cards on the agenda are a mysterious "warming up" session for the candidates and a deluxe buffet luncheon.

This preliminary meeting is held semi-annually prior to the official initiatory work of the Aladdin Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine, to be held at the Coliseum Saturday, May 5.

Shriners on the Hilltop who make up the local club feted the local candidates for the purpose of "conditioning the neophytes for their strenuous and long trek over the hot sands of the desert" at the Coliseum rites.

May 3 the candidates and the "Elect Nobles" at the mercy of the Hilltop "brutal brothers" will have their turn next fall in initiating a new class of Hilltop Shriners.

The list of committees announced by the Hilltop Shrine officials, includes the following:

Loren Galloway and Jerry Watson, food; Walter Hoelcher, S. C. Spangler and Sam Alford, entertainment; Curtis Wilcox, tickets; John Apel and Carroll Vance, reception; and Merle Haller, decorations.

Dignitaries from Aladdin Temple, will be honored guests.

The local club, which was instituted on the Hilltop nine years ago, has grown by leaps and bounds, commanding the attention of the Aladdin Mystic Shrine Divan who commended the Hilltop Shrine Club for its splendid work in promoting fraternal fellowship and having a vital part in helping to underwrite the Crippled Children's Hospital program.

All bona fide Shriners are cordially invited to attend the Hilltop Shrine Club meeting, Secretary Lou Saunders advised.

Widespread Expansion Of Hilltop Is Forecast

Local Park Improvement Listed In Expansion Plan

In Westgate Park nearly $100,000 will be spent in improvements during 1951 as a part of a quarter million dollar city park improvement program, according to Ray S. Dietz, superintendent of the city division of Parks and Forestry.

Major improvement at the park will be the construction of a new $48,000 shelterhouse to be located immediately south of the newly constructed sunken gardens which were formerly a part of the old lake. In the program is also a plan for installation of additional sewers at an estimated cost of $49,000.

Dietz said the contract for the new sewers had already been let, but that before construction of the new shelterhouse can begin bids will have to be taken.

Other Westgate Park improvements will include complete reconstruction of the lake and its facilities at a cost of $1500. A parking lot will be constructed this year at cost of $2500 and new shrubs and trees planted at the cost of an additional $1000.

At Glenwood Park improvement plans call for the expenditure of $1500 for construction of a water line and toilet facilities. Future plans for this park include construction of a horseshoe and badminton courts, croquet grounds, nature trails and a parking lot.

Work on the new municipal golf course at the intersection of Wilson and Trabue-rds may be completed this year in spite of a material lack of metal irrigation pipe necessary for excellent greens. If the project is completed, credit is due to The Hilltop Record, according to Nick J. Barack, head of the city's recreation department.

According to Barack, a story which appeared in the Record a month ago revealing that construction on the course had been blocked by lack of the essential pipe, brought offers of substitute pipes of plastic and the other of an asbestos base. The pipes are now under consideration and if they meet the necessary requirements, the greens will be completed this summer.

However a basic change in the course's layout has transposed the golf greens from a 27 hole course to a standard 18-hole course, with nine holes devoted to picnic grounds and playground facilities. According to Barack, the city realizes the lack of picnic grounds in this area and city fathers felt that a combined golf course and picnicking area would solve many of the problems.

As an example, Barack said, "A lot of fathers have trouble getting out to that game of golf. Their families want them to spend time with them. With the combined golf-picnic grounds, father can pile the whole family into the car, take them out to the course and let the children play on the playground equipment, let the wife relax in comfortable chairs in the shade while he plays around the course. Then the family can eat together and they've had a family get-together and dad's had his game of golf.

Work on the picnic grounds will begin, said Barack, as soon as the weather permits.

Blue Star Mothers Aid Daisy Day Sale

These units are the two largest of the 10 that make up the chapter and are Hilltop and West Side mothers of boys and girls of World War II and those now in service.

Money received from this annual drive will be used in rehabilitation and welfare work among veterans in our community and the VA Hospital at Chillicothe.

On Sunday, May 6, Hospital Day at Chillicothe VA Hospital open house will be observed and tours will be given through the hospital. Columbus chapter will give 10 ward parties that day at Chillicothe and members will act as hostesses and help to conduct tours. Nearly 8000 visitors are expected at Chillicothe VA Hospital.

2½ Year Old Son Saves His Daddy's Life

Charles Salmans, Jr., two and one-half years of age, possibly saved his daddy's life last Wednesday, after a jacked-up car under which Charles, Sr., was working, fell on him.

Sheriff's deputies reported that the boy ran into his home shouting, "The car fell on daddy." Salman's mother-in-law, Mrs. Jeanette Holton, phoned deputies immediately and Salmans, 30, 1639 Littleav, was rushed to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Deputies reported that Salmans, a clerk at the Columbus Post Office, received serious back and possible head injuries when the auto pinned him under it in a sitting position.

Robert Draper, 104 S. Westmoor-av, chairman of the building Committee of the Columbus Board of Education when called upon to present diplomas to West High School graduates on June 6, will be presenting diplomas to youngsters who have gained their education during his tenure of service with the board of education.

Draper was first elected to the school board in 1939, the year in which 1951's graduates became first graders, in the public schools of Columbus.

Draper, an attorney with offices at 50 W. Broad-st, is a graduate of West High School, class of 1924.

The new St. Aloysius rectory now under construction at 21-32 Clarendon-av, will conaist of 16 rooms, including suites for the pastor and for the housekeeper, and offices.

Designed by L. F. Karlsberger, Columbus architect, the new brick and stone structure will have two stories and harmonize with the church at Midland and Broad-sts.

A composit construction of concrete and wood will be used in the interior with steel casements and marble window sills. The floors are to be covered with rubber tile and some will be carpeted.

Offices, conference rooms, living room, refrectory and a suite for the housekeeper will be included on the first floor with suites of a bed room and study for the pastor and assistant pastor, and three guest rooms on the second floor. The building will be heated by a hot water system with wall-type convectors.

No plans have been made yet for use of the present rectory which is connected to the school at Clarendon-av and Broad-st.

Contracts were awarded to Krause and Pagura, Inc., who are expecting to complete the structure by early fall.

Rev. William Maloney is paster of St. Aloysius Church.

Council Ordinance Halts W. Mound Bus Line Fight

Columbus City Council Monday night called a halt to the W. Mound-st, Binns-blvd turn around argument which has been raging in that area of the Hilltop for the past few months. An ordinance was passed by council creating a "block loop" system for the W. Mound-st bus line and eliminating the controversial turn-around.

Under the new "block loop" system, the W. Mound-st buses will turn south into Binns-blvd to Eakin-rd, east on Eakin-rd to Whiltshire-rd and north on Wiltshire-rd to W. Mound-st and return east on Mound-st.

In the meantime, officials of the Columbus Transit Company have indicated that they will continue to use the turn around method at the Binns-W. Mound intersection until Common Pleas Judge Myron T. Gessaman signs an order granting the injunction sought by Charles S. Blackmore, 639 Binns-blvd.

The injunction asked by Blackmore would prevent the turn-around system currently employed, on the grounds that it is "a continuing nuisance."

Advertiser Lost By Record, But We're Not Sorry . . .

We lost an advertiser . . . and we were glad to lose her! . . . because it showed us the Record is doing the job.

Mrs. Bright, 1385½ W. Broad-st, ran the following classified ad: "Will do ironings in my home. JO. 5711."

Mrs. Bright ran the ad for five issues and then cancelled it completely, "Because," she said, "I've got all the business now that I need."

It pays to advertise in the Record.

Increased Building Seen In Near Future For Area

BULLETIN

According to information received at press time another new housing project is being contemplated for construction on the site of the old Demorest property at Demorest-rd and Sullivant-av. It was indicated that the housing project would be for negro population and would consist of several hundred units.

Expansion of the Hilltop area on a widespread scale was forecast this week as plans were revealed from various sources which indicate that this community is about to witness a building boom that will encompass home and industrial construction.

High point will be reached with the construction of the new Westinghouse Electric Co. plant west of the Hilltop for the purpose of manufacturing jet planes for the navy. Construction on this project is expected to begin in the very near future on the north side of W. Broad-st across from the Fernstedt plant on the 263 acres purchased from the Judge Turner estate and others.

A total of $22,500,000 is expected to be expended in construction of the new plant which, when completed, will employ 6,000 persons.

It was learned from reliable sources during this past week that a program is now under way to provide for water and sewerage of adequate proportions to care for the needs of Westinghouse as well as a new subdivision near the proposed Westinghouse plant.

The new subdivision, according to authoritative sources, will consist of 2200 new homes to be constructed by the John W. Galbraith realty firm. It was disclosed that construction on these new homes will begin on or about May 1, 1952 with 1200 homes to be built as the first stage of the construction program and 1000 other homes to be built later. It was understood the new subdivision will be in the immediate vicinity of the new Westinghouse plant.

Announcement was made this week by Al Tonti of Tonti Bros., Inc., that 25 units of the new Broadlawn Addition will be ready for occupancy next week. These five-room single homes, he pointed out, are to be on a rental basis and when Broadlawn addition is completed more than 100 home units will have been made available to the Hilltop area. Broadlawn Addition is located a fraction of a mile west of the W. Broad-st bus terminus on the south side of W. Broad-st.

Approved this week, too, by the National Production Authority was a project for the Merchants and Farmers Bank Co., bank building at Hilliards at an estimated cost of $23,673.

Train, Truck Tangle Gives Scrambled Eggs

Three Amlin men escaped serious injury in a truck-train accident at the Clime-rd B&O crossing last Wednesday, when their truck, loaded with 50 cases of eggs, was demolished by a passenger train.

The three were identified by sheriff's deputy, Sgt. Fred W. Selby, as Harold F. Cornell, 32, the driver; Charles Osbourne, 46, and his son, Sgt. William G. Osbourne, 20.

Sgt. Osbourne, a member of the Air Force, stationed in Puerto Rico, home on furlough when the accident occurred. He had just been married Monday. He suffered fractures of his right leg and severe cuts and bruises. Charles Osbourne and Cornell were also cut and bruised. All three were treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

The truck and its cargo of eggs were strewn over the railroad's right of way. The eggs were being shipped from Grove City to an Amlin hatchery.

Hilltop Record Celebrates 34th Anniversary Tomorrow

Thirty-four years ago tomorrow, on Apr. 27, 1917, the first issue of the Hilltop Record made its appearance in this community. The first paper came off the press just three weeks after the United States entered World War I.

Now, thirty-four years, two World Wars and a "police action" later, The Hilltop Record is in top condition, considering that its circulation is bigger than ever. It is produced on a new press (the first of its design in the country) and it garnered a first place honor in The Ohio Newspaper Association's annual show this year.

Since the first Hilltop Record appeared, 2231 issues have rolled off the press—and always on time. Thirty-eight of these issues have rolled off the Record's new four-color press.

The first issue of the Record, back in 1917, was published by S. J. Westlake who this week visited the Record offices to congratulate C. C. Hartley the publisher on this latest anniversary. It contained four pages and was four columns wide. The top news event reported on its yellowing sheets was a bequest of the Barnes Class of Glenwood Methodist Church, honoring the church's two city championship basketball teams.

According to the records, the junior squad won 14 out of 15 games that year, while the "Big Ten" team took 23 of the 26 contests they played. In one contest the "Big Ten" topped West High's team, 23 to 21, while in another contest they overwhelmed the West Park Methodist's team, 78 to 7.

Two of the four front page columns were utilized for church announcements, while the fourth was filled with brief items of Hilltop activities and a Seiller's Dry Goods advertisement.

"We begin this week," the first editorial ran, "the publication of The Hilltop Record, and expect to continue issuing the same each week, date 26, publication being Friday.

"We have no grand predictions to make concerning the future of the Record, but we do promise to do our best to make it an interesting newspaper devoted exclusively to the Hilltop . . .

The Record continues to try to fill this promise.

Bill: I could lend you ten dollars, but lending money only breaks friendship.

Jim: Well, we were never very good friends.

Chain Letter Starts Among Local People

Since the "Pyramid Clubs" and "Chain Letter Clubs" have passed into oblivion and the recent crime investigation has made everyone gambling and lottery conscious, a new type of chain letter club has started among the female residents of the western section of Columbus. It's called the "Handkie Club."

The form letter begins with the question, "Will you please join our Handkie Club?" Following the question is a list of three names and addresses and this set of instructions:

"Within three days make five copies of this letter, leaving off the top name and adding your name to the bottom.

"Send the three names above a handkie in an envelope and mail the five copies to any five people.

"This club is different. You start receiving handkies right away, instead of waiting until your name reaches the top. You send three handkies and receive 155. It is fun to see where they will come from."

Authorities see nothing illegal in this chain letter club, so it looks as if the gals are out to clean up.

Unusual Birth Announcement Arrives Here

A copy of "The Family Calculator," a newspaper published irregularly, arrived at The Hilltop Record office this week. It is published by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Maddox, 20 S. Pleasant-av, Centralia, Ill. Mrs. Maddox is the former Marilyn Melick. Both she and her husband were graduated from West High School in 1936.

The small newspaper was an "Extra Stork Edition" carrying the headline "SECOND MADDOX EXEMPTION ARRIVES", "Name Second Girl Susan Lee Maddox," "Mother Is Doing Fine; (Father 'May Recover')."

According to the stories, "Susan Lee was born at 6:20 a. m. Wednesday, Apr. 11 . . . weighing six pounds nine ounces According to the proud parents the child is far too handsome to favor either of them. She has a lusty pair of lungs and holds great promise as a cheerleader on the 1970 University of Illinois squad."

The subscription rates given for the paper are "inside county, one year, one dozen diapers; inside county, six months, nine dozen safety pins; outside county, one year, five boxes of tablets, outside county, six months, one carton of baby powder."

For the final classic piece of parody, the little paper imitates the second class mailing permit carried in all subscription newspaper mastheads: "Entered as most important first class matter at Lutheran Hospital at St. Louis, Mo., on Apr. 11, 1951, under the strict provisions of the Maternity Act established by Adam and Eve."

13 West Seniors Compete For Speaking Honors

From a field of 13 candidates who are competing for roles of West High commencement speaker, one boy and one senior girl will eventually emerge as winners.

At present the 13 seniors are busy writing their own speeches and during the first week in May preliminary try-outs will be held before a committee of judges selected by the seniors from among English teachers on the West High faculty.

Semi-finals and final eliminations will probably be necessary to determine the winners, E. M. Kayler, advisor for the group, said today.

These are the seniors who are candidates for the commencement forensic posts:

Nelson Carson, Ted Biddison, Guido DePaul, Cliff Everett, Charles Leibensperger, Howard Merriman, Warren Northrup, Sharon Clarkin, Gail Hinton, Delpha Linscott, Janet Williams, Billie Proctor and Virginia Vail.

Presents Flag To Camp Chase Legion Post

Mrs. Theodosia Moore and Chet Wagner

Mrs. Theodosia Moore, 81, who resides in the first house east of Sunset Cemetery, presented Chet Wagner, past commander of the Camp Chase American Legion Post 96, with an American flag, which the Legion Post will in turn present to Sunset Cemetery in honor of Mrs. Moore's son-in-law, Samuel J. Balsinger, a veteran of WW I. Mr. Balsinger is buried in the cemetery.

Mrs. Moore, a Virginia by birth, felt that the presentation at this time was most appropriate. She feels that the "American boys in Korea aren't getting a square deal and too many people have forgotten or ignored them." The mother of four and great-grandmother of two expressed herself strongly against Dean Acheson and his policies.

She has received wide recognition for her work as a quilter. Many of her designs are original and some are as old as 150 years. Her fame has brought her orders for special quilts from as far away as Kansas and Oklahoma. She estimates that she has made almost 2,000 quilts in her lifetime, containing about four acres of materials.

However, Mrs. Moore is worried about the quilt she is completing. She had planned to present it to the Legion Post so that they might raffle it off and donate the proceeds to orphans. But gambling enforcement resulting from the recent crime probe has outlawed all raffles, charitable or not, so she has a "double bow knot" quilt, made from a pattern over 100 years old, with no purpose.

Rubbish Dumped On Roads Cost Taxpayers $50,000 Yearly

It's costing the taxpayers of Franklin County $50,000.00 a year for the privilege of dumping everything from empty beer bottles to dead dogs on county roads, Franklin County Engineer Guy Elbin estimated today.

Twice each year, said Elbin, county maintenance crews are taken off regular maintenance work and put to clearing debris of all sorts from county roads for an entire week.

And, throughout the summer, the crews devote about one day a week to such work.

There's literally nothing the public doesn't dump on the roads. Dead dogs, beer and soft drink bottles, old clothes, grass clippings, tree limbs, bricks, waste paper, empty cans, old cardboard boxes—these are some of the more common items the maintenance crews find along county roads.

"People are getting a little more considerate" said Elbin. "Now they are putting their trash in boxes before they throw it out on the road. But maybe that's because it makes it easier to throw.

"It's a terrifically expensive pastime. Just the wages of the patrol crews during the hours they spend each year cleaning up debris is expensive enough, but if you figure the lost work on maintenance it's outlandish.

"It is getting close now to the time when the trash tossing will begin to reach a peak—presumably about the time spring housecleaning gets going good. Franklin county residents could save themselves a lot of money if they would take their trash to a regular dump instead of tossing it on the roads."

Elbin pointed out that there is always an exception to the rule. Not so long ago, county engineering employes found one young man cleaning up some debris along one county road. That was unusual enough to warrant checking.

They found the young man had gotten mad at his employer so he had dumped some trash on the road instead of taking it all the way to a regular dump.

The employer sent him back to clean it up.

"That's about the only time I ever knew of trash being cleared off the highway by anybody except road crews," laughed Elbin.

Mrs. Smith: What kind of car has your husband?

Mrs. Jones: Well, he'd feel tremendously flattered if you called it second hand.

Driver Courses Have Classes, Behind-Wheel Driving

Statistics show that young drivers who receive training are involved in 40% to 60% fewer and less serious accidents than those without it. Today the pressing need for these high school courses is all too apparent.

The annual toll of street and highway deaths in the United States continues to reach about thirty thousand fatalities every year, while the number of injuries hovers around the million mark. Meanwhile, authorities predict a steady increase in the use of motor vehicles from year to year. Today fifty million Americans drive automobiles. That's one out of every three persons.

Drivers of high school and college age should be the safest drivers in the world. Their eyesight is keener and coordination is better than it will ever be again.

Yet, in relation to their number, young drivers are involved in a much greater proportion of accidents than their elders. Youngsters in the 16-20 age group, for example, are involved in FIVE times as many fatal accidents as drivers in the 45-60 category.

As a general rule, the average youngster usually gets behind the wheel for the first time in his sophomore or junior year of high school. It may be in his father's car, somebody's commercial truck, or it may be in an old "jalopy" that he has picked up for a small price.

But wherever he gets his instruction, the teenager is going to get into a driver's seat somewhere—somehow. He is going to learn to drive. It is an accepted factor of common, everyday living.

So why not give him a driver's seat—and course?

Driver education is a great deal more than merely teaching the youngsters to shift gears, start, stop, and park. In addition to the behind-the-wheel training, these courses include at least 20 hours of classroom instruction.

Here proper safety habits and attitudes are hammered home to the pupils by every available means. All schools can provide the classroom work, even though they lack the facilities or staff for behind-the-wheel training.

In the classroom the students learn that traffic accidents do not just happen, but are caused, and are therefore preventable. They learn that traffic accidents usually result from failure of the driver to follow man-made laws, for an automobile in itself is an inanimate machine which has never, of its own selection, collided with another object.

Students are also made to realize that when human beings are entrusted to hurl a ton or two of steel and gasoline along an open highway they are potential killers.

Julien H. Harvey, manager of the Accident Department, Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, tells us that the driver education course in high school is cheaper to run than study room classes. He says that any automobile company in a town will be glad to loan the school a few dual-controlled cars for their education course as well as classroom booklets.

It's an easy subject to begin. So, why not now? Not 1952, or '53—but, now! Or shall we wait a few more years until the course will definitely be required? When that day comes, the killing and maiming on our streets and highways will be appreciably lower—for a new crop of careful, courteous young drivers will be behind the wheel.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Keep an open mind about the excitement over disclosed apparent irregularities in the operation of certain phases of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

* * *

Do not condemn the institution because of the actions of two or three individuals. There has been some serious blunders made in the White House, but nobody wants to burn down the White House because of them.

C. W. Harder

* * *

Undoubtedly, Sen. Fulbright (D. Ark.) has performed a great public service in unearthing certain matters that are deplorable.

* * *

But full investigation to come will prove that not only has RFC operations, from the overall picture, been profitable, but RFC loans have been the salvation of many small businesses that are successful today.

* * *

That is one reason why hue and cry is so loud. Big Business and Big Finance, soundly entrenched, are trying to use defections of a few as excuse for disbanding RFC.

* * *

The silliness of this approach is evident. There has also been reported cases of incompetence in the field in Korea, but nobody has argued that because of this, the United States Army should be disbanded. Replacements of irresponsibles, closer supervision, can do wonders.

* * *

Big Business and Big Finance, with a mobilization program assured whether or not general war starts, are trying to shut off any source of credit which will enable independent business to get share of defense business; get established for competition when normal conditions again arise.

* * *

This is not supposition. Concrete examples happening right today furnish proof.

* * *

Right now Sen. John Sparkman's Small Business Committee holds hearings on the strange happenings in rubber. But look for the committee to investigate shortly the happenings that relate to Western States Refining Company, an independent oil refinery in North Salt Lake, Utah.

* * *

These happenings are more than strange; they are weird.

* * *

After the war a group of substantial men saw an opportunity to provide a needed service, create a business where none existed.

* * *

They pooled their resources and talents and broke barren Utah ground for the construction of an independent oil refinery.

* * *

The plan of Western States Refining is to pipe in crude from adjacent fields in Wyoming and Colorado, refine it, and through pipelines send refined products to Pacific Northwest markets.

* * *

The Pacific Northwest markets have long been almost exclusively controlled by two Oil Bigs, and the subsidiary of one of them.

* * *

Despite many strange handicaps, Western States got into operation, proved its worth.

* * *

So next week this column will relate the weird Washington maneuvers that threaten to close the refinery, even though a large share of its output is going to defense needs.

Poll On Current Questions

Details of the new tax program which were recently outlined to Congress contained one provision which has stirred controversy as much as any other subject in the current session of Congress. Congress was called upon to tax, at regular corporation tax rates, the earnings of cooperatives which are not returned to the members, but which are held for expansion purposes. Tax free retention of these earnings, it is asserted, will restore to co-ops the great and unfair advantage which they held over independent competitors during World War II and which helped to lead to their great expansions.

The question then for the readers of this newspaper this week is: "Should Cooperatives be taxed the same as private business in accordance with House Resolution 240?"

Here are presented the pros and cons on the question:

FOR: Sponsors of this bill say tax advantages enjoyed by co-operatives help co-ops wipe out 200 small businesses a week. They charge that co-operatives are seed beds of socialism and communism in our country. They remind us that the tax advantages were given co-operatives originally to get them started, and say the time of need is past. They say that elimination of these tax advantages will net the government over a billion dollars in revenue over coming years, make it possible to lighten the tax load on competitive private business.

AGAINST: Opponents of this bill say the drive to tax co-ops is not sincere. They point out it is being financed in part by some very big business firms who are daily ruining many small business firms through price discriminations and other unfair devices. They say co-op patronage dividends are taxed the same as all personal income. They say corporations would enjoy the same tax advantages as co-ops if so-called "double taxation" of corporate income were eliminated. They say this bill aims to ruin co-ops, not eliminate "tax advantages."

Now, what is your opinion?

Letters To The Editor

This newspaper invites letters from its readers on subjects of timely interest. All letters, however, must be not more than 400 words in length and all must be signed by the writer. The writer's name will be omitted if requested.

Mr. Editor:

In our humble, blundering, word-seeking way, permit us to say a fond adieu to one of our best loved comrades and friends.

The passing of James F. Hurd has left an empty place in the ranks of the veterans and in our own hearts, a void that can't be filled by any one else, for he was a loyal comrade to all veterans, he was the true interpretation of the word Comrade.

"Jimmie", as he was known to thousands, won many friends with that big top-sided grin and ready wit and not only won them, but held them, throughout his brief life.

He was a living example for all disabled veterans to follow, for he proved to the world that a disability need not make you a burden to your family or to society.

"Jimmie" came out of the first world war minus a part of a leg and arm, with additional injuries that would have tied the average person to a hospital bed or a wheel chair for life.

He overcame all these handicaps and became the commander of his Legion Post, its County Council and his VFW Post and its County Council.

He went on to become the legal adviser to our elected and appointed officials in the state of Ohio, a position that he held at the time of his passing from this earth.

It was our good pleasure to serve with "Jimmie" in the various veterans' organizations and we learned through such association with this man, the true meaning of Comrade, for "Jimmie" never gave up, he never asked you what your race, religion, color, creed, or politics was, when you asked "Jimmie" for aid, all that he asked was that your cause be just and that you be honest with him and with your comrades.

Being a firm believer in life beyond the grave, I look forward to meeting such loyal comrades as "Jimmie" and the late Claude Hasson again, in a better world. Comrade, we salute you; may you rest in peace till the resurrection day.

Sleep THE "RECHARGER"

DURING SLEEP, the higher nerve centers are protected from impressions flowing in through the senses against. Waste matters are removed and nature "recharges energy batteries."

Nervous action as well as physical action expends energy. Sensation, emotion, and all the other processes of the brain use energy. Even brief "naps" give benefits out of all proportion to duration, because you get a sample of the most restful part of sleep which is believed to be the first two hours.

The average person requires seven to eight hours restful sleep each night to "keep energy batteries charged." Neighbors who keep radios going full blast, who keep barking and howling dogs, are doing more than maintaining a nuisance . . . the restful sleep of many people may be affected . . . and consequently their health.

If you find difficulty in sleeping, consult your doctor! It is not safe or wise to resort to sleeping powders; potions or pills unless you have the assurance of your physician.

South Nine Whips Cowboys By 7-4 Count In Friday Fray

With sophomore hurler Bob Thornton pitching four-hit ball, West still couldn't seem to win as they dropped a 7-4 verdict to South Friday on the Cowboy lot.

Thornton, pitching his first game in senior high, did very well but no one seemed to notice because of another case of West errors—mental as well as visible.

West faced the tough hurling of Bob Strawser and was unable to touch the versatile South athlete for a hit until the extra—that of the weak variety.

The Cowboys made only two errors in the game, but, as in previous games, they came at the wrong time. The first came in South's big inning — the third — when they scored three of their seven tallies.

Larry Evans of the Bulldogs started off with the game's first hit, advanced on a sacrifice and a walk, moving to third on a passed ball. After a pop-out for the second out, Dick Wagner hit a hot smash to third-sacker Don Mers. He recovered the ball, and tagged Burton out (coming from second), supposedly ending the inning.

However, Mers dropped the horsehide and two runs were scored. The third of the inning was scored a moment later on Don Wirtz's double.

South came across with four more in the fourth on two walks, a fielder's choice, two hits, and another error. That one again would have retired the side without any scoring.

West finally broke into the scoring column in the last of the seventh inning and, in fact, almost tied up the fray. Shortstop Wagner muffed Eddie Gleibs' roller and then threw it away, permitting Gleibs to advance to second. Wagner then bobbled Dwight Reynolds' roller, and Kenny Garber's one-baser through the box scored Gleibs with the initial run.

Al Shade's rapid work around second plated Reynolds and Russ Friend's dingle to left nailed Garber and pinch-runner Jim Smith. However, Dick Orr skied to second base, and Mo Dobbs sent a long drive to the track in right field which looked like a sure home, but right-fielder "Tub" Nolan pulled it in with his back to the infield for the final out.

The baseballers were to visit East Tuesday and are scheduled at home against their rivals, Linden McKinley, on the Powell-ay diamond tomorrow afternoon.

Camp Chase Post News

By John Martindale

Have you forgotten something? Tonight (Thursday, Apr. 26) the guys and gals of Camp Chase Post and its Auxiliary Unit celebrate the post's 22nd birthday at Club Riviera. We hope to see you there.

At the regular post meeting last Friday we elected the nominating committee. Those chosen are Michael H. Austin, George Ward, Elmer A. Young, Lynn Baker and John Martindale. Upon the members of this committee, along with Commander Marlo Smith (he acts as chairman ex-officio, without vote) there rests a grave responsibility. It is their task to select candidates for the various offices of the post for the coming year, and to report to the post the first meeting in June. Did you say that should be easy? Let's see.

This group does have one point in its favor as they do know a very high percentage of the membership. That is only background for the job ahead. Remember that they are to try to select the best in each instance. The interest of the organization must be foremost in their minds when considering these selections because the future of the post is dependent, to a large extent, upon each officer properly filling his office. After this committee makes a survey of the potentials of the membership they will then encounter the hard part. They must contact the prospective candidates and ask them if they would accept the nomination. There seems to be a fad now for people to decline and the committee may find itself back where it started from.

The future of Camp Chase Post is as much your responsibility as it is the responsibility of the members of this committee and they need your help. Make known to them your suggestions of who you would like to elect as your post officers. If you are one of those the committee contacts as a prospective candidate, give the matter proper consideration. You owe it to yourself and to your family, your friends and to your post to consider it well before you answer.

The high school at Hilliard recently purchased a piece of land consisting of thirteen acres. This ground extends from the road west of the building to the fence east of the school. The house located there has been sold and will soon be removed. Trees have been cleared and tile has been purchased for the ground.

The land, when it is finished, will include a football field, baseball diamonds and a field for ball practice.

Nine Errors Aid Aquinas In Downing Cowboys 9-3

The Aquinas field continued to hold a spell over West's baseballers as the Terriers took advantage of nine West errors to down the Cowboys, 9 to 3, Thursday.

West got off on the right foot, tallying two quickies in the initial canto. Don Mers' walk, a triple to right-center by Friend, and Fladt's single to left gave the Cowboys a 2-0 lead.

Right-hander Bill South, hurling for West, set the Terriers down in order in the first inning, but ran into trouble in the next—although not his own fault. Harris Wiki beat out an infield roller, and Mangan shot a double play ball to shortstop Ron Krems, but second baseman Russ Friend dropped the assist and all hands were safe.

Russ Reckling then shot a "bloop" single to center, and the bases were loaded. However, Mangan was caught in a "hot-box" between second and third, then third baseman Mers, on a second relay, threw the ball to deep right field and three runs scampered across.

West managed to knot it in their half of the third on an error and Mo Dobbs' left-field double. However, Aquinas got two more unearned markers in their half on Krems' error (two outs), Reckling's triple and Fladt's error on a fly ball to right.

Aquinas continued to pile it on in the fifth to the aid of West's sloppy fielding. Three came across in that frame on no hits, and a single in the sixth.

South, allowing only five hits in his five-inning stint while whiffing five and walked only one, was the loser. Jim Smith finished up in the sixth, kicked for an unearned marker.

SPORTSLANTS

By Dave Miller

During one of South's big innings in its game at West last Friday, West baseball mentor, George Williams turned to his assistant, Marvin Schultz, and said in a low voice, "Marv, it's going to be a long season."

It brought a few laughs for the moment and set most of the listeners to thinking in the next few moments.

Although West started out in poor style, it's this writer's view that the City League championship will finish in a two or three way tie. And we also predict West will be up among them. The Cowboys have a team that is capable of dishing out some upsets—and probably will before the season's end.

A few replacements in the right spots will help, and as soon as the players have that needed experience under their belts, West will be back in stride—but let's hope it's not too late.

Starting your season right off with a league game is dangerous. A team should play at least three non-loop games before digging into its initial loop contest to get that needed experience.

However, the bad weather condition hurt any chances of that this year and West, as well as other city schools, had to start right off in loop play.

Kenny Hallam was about the only thing to shout about in West's long stint to enter in the Huntington, W. Va., Relays last Saturday at Huntington, in their 16th annual event.

Hallam cleared 11 feet, 7¾ inches in the pole vault event to tie Marietta's Beryl Stallmaker for first place honors in the event.

West took only nine boys—Hallam, the one-mile relay and the two-mile relay teams. The latter placed fifth as did the sprint medley relay. The mile relay team was eliminated in the morning time trials.

Representing West aside from Hallam were Paul Anderson, John Bolg, Gene Harrison, Dick Briggs, Ronnie Coup, Clifford Everett and Joe Sams. One manager, Ronnie Guyton, went with the team.

West finished 11th in the meet with eight and one-half points.

Something new has been added to the 1951 West football schedule. A "Mothers' Night" will be held Sept. 14 in the season's opener at West as the Cowboys' host to Marion Harding.

Coach Mack Pemberton initiated the idea, hoping to recognize the players' mothers as they have fathers in the past.

The schedule for next fall is: Sept. 14, Marion Harding (Mothers' Night); Sept. 21 at Upper Arlington; Sept. 28, South; Oct. 5, Central (Dad's Night); Oct. 12 at Hamilton Public; Oct. 19, Aquinas (homecoming); Oct. 25 at North; Nov. 5 at McKinley; Nov. 9, East.

Aquinas baseball coach, Father Grady, told his opposing coach, George Williams of West, and umpire, Elmer Reger after the Aquinas-West game that "in 20 years of following baseball I've never seen a player, six inches from second, lose his cap and go back after it."

He was referring to center fielder Jim Reiser of Aquinas, who with a man on third, stole second easily. The ball was thrown from catcher Ron Farley to snare him too late. However, Reiser (a nephew of the major league's Pete) lost his cap and left second to recover it.

Reiser was caught between bases and in the "hot-box" West's fielders failed to spot Russ Reckling coming in from third. He scored, and Reiser was tagged out, but West was still the loser.

• • •

All of West's shortstops this year are seniors. They are Ronnie Krems, Dwight Reynolds, Chuck Leibensperger and Bing Reeves. Coach Williams apparently is making room for Jimmy Vincent, presently in junior high, who should easily have the post when in senior high.

• • •

Jim Remington returned from Detroit this week to assist West's coaches in his student coaching capacity at his alma mater.

Jim, captain of OSU's cage team the past winter, with Marv Schultz, will aid head coach George Williams in this year's baseball campaign.

• • •

Jack Gammon, a West basketballer of 1949-50, was a member of the Kenyon College basketball team the past season.

• • •

A holiday basketball carnival Dec. 27-28, will highlight West's 19-game basketball schedule next winter.

Coach Williams recently announced the schedule, which opens Nov. 30 with their traditional rival at Newark, closing at Linden Feb. 21.

The carnival will be played at Hamilton with Upper Arlington and Lockland Wayne as the other two competing schools.

The coach is seeking away games Dec. 21 and Feb. 8, to complete the schedule.

The three annual athletic awards at West will be presented some time next month in the yearly special spring sports recognition day in a West assembly program.

68 Years Old, Yet Now Climbs 155 Feet to Work on Scaffold

HADACOL Relieved the Cause of Nervousness and Weakness When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Seems like more and more folks are finding out every day that they have to keep themselves in tip-top condition to really stay on the ball as far as doing a good job is concerned. Mr. John L. Napier, Route 1, Mosella, Mississippi, certainly found out that aches and pains, weakness and nervousness were interfering with his work as a bricklayer and carpenter.

But Mr. Napier heard how HADACOL was helping folks with such conditions that may have been due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin.

Here are his own words: "Before taking HADACOL, I was suffering with aches and pains for awhile. Then, came the time when I was weak and nervous. I am a carpenter and bricklayer. I also run a farm. I kept feeling bad and getting worse. Then I heard about HADACOL and immediately began taking it. After taking only one bottle when I retired at 9 P.M. I would fall asleep immediately. After the third bottle I went back to work, carpentering and laying bricks. Now, I climb as high as 155 feet and work all day on a scaffold. I have never felt so well in many years. I am 68 years of age. And, when there is no carpenter or brick work to do, I work on my farm, planting and harvesting my crops. Thanks to HADACOL."

There's a clue that may help you, if you are suffering from a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Why continue to suffer . . . why experiment . . . why let your distress drag you farther and farther down? For it is these very Vitamins and Minerals you may need that HADACOL supplies in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And this marvelous formula contains helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too.

HADACOL builds up the hemoglobin content of the blood (when Iron is needed) to send these elements coursing, surging, throughout your body, to every body organ. Already dissolved, in a special liquid form, the elements are absorbed quickly and easily in your system. Carries a strict money-back guarantee.

Hilltop's Fame Spread By Operetta

The fame of the Hilltop is spreading throughout the country—at least it seems to be, according to a clipping from The Canton Repository, mailed to the Record office by C. A. Swoyer, 1497 S. Fourth-st.

The pictures and story in the clipping were about an operetta given last week at Lehman High School in Canton. The title of the original four-act operetta was "Hilltop, U. S. A."

In apparent credit to our fine high school students, the operetta "depicts the lives of Johnny and Jill Hilltopper from their high school days until they step into the world on their own."

We're glad to see Canton's educational system take up the job of promoting the Hilltop.

Standard Plan For Schools To Be Used

A standard, basic design will be used by the Columbus Board of Education for the city's new elementary schools to speed the construction of classrooms for Westgate-av, West Mound-st, and other city schools.

The plan, designed by school architect, Edward Kromer, calls for a minimum use of defense-priority materials and reduces the possibility of delay caused by new shortages.

As designed, the structure is in a T-shape, with class rooms extending three ways from a central corridor and lobby. The main entrance is balanced on one side by the health room and principal's office and on the other by a library and teachers' room.

Each building will have one multi-purpose room, for assemblies, meetings, audio-visual work and for school lunches. The room will be designed to seat half the pupil capacity of the school building. A state will be located at one end of the room and a kitchen at the other.

The building is so constructed that rooms may be added or subtracted from the plan, according to the needs of the community. The basic design calls for a 12-room unit. The structure does not need the heavy steel beams necessary in a multi-story building.

With warmer weather in sight everyone's interest seems to be focused on baseball and softball.

Tryouts for the Glenwood Recreation Center teams will be held in May. Boys who are interested in making one of the divisions should start their batting practice with the teams in the gym. As soon as weather permits practice will be held outside.

Plans are to have one team in each division in the Knothole Leagues.

Glenwood is hoping to have one of its teams in the Little League baseball setup this year.

Due to the nice weather interest is falling off in indoor sports. However, the Volleyball Leagues are still playing and those who wish may still take part in the game.

This being the season for kite flying, the craft classes are turning to kite building. Something very special is going to take place at Glenwood that will concern the boys with kites. Although we can't announce it yet, boys are advised to get busy on kites and then watch this column for further details.

The playground equipment is on the center's grounds now and will be opened for special occasions and can be ascertained by calling the center at RA. 7416.

The Glenwood Recreation Center in co-operation with the Columbus Recreation Department will sponsor a training course in first-aid, game leadership and arts and crafts. The course is for adults and is scheduled to start on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of the first two weeks in May.

Complete arrangements will be announced later.

A journalism class has been started for the teen-agers in connection with the newspaper club on Tuesday evenings at 7:30. All teen-agers interested are invited to join the club.

The circles of Westgate Methodist Church will meet in May as follows:

Circle 1 will meet Wednesday, May 2, 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ernest McChesney, 79 S. Algonquin-av.

Circle 2 will meet Wednesday, May 3, 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. G. P. McCarty, 241 Powhatan-av.

Circle 3 will meet Thursday, May 3, 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Maarl Weaver, 2613 Whitehead-rd.

Although familiar with all sports activities, he admits that his favorite is baseball.

The meeting will observe Pan-American Day and Good Neighbor week and will be held at the post club rooms at 10 S. Burgess-av. Mrs. Jean Trott is chairman of the program.

never plunged into streams, or in any other manner upset the tranquility of his "citizens." Selfish, material rights were subordinated to the comfort and welfare of the fleas who enjoyed this abundant sheltered life. They multiplied amazingly!

But the Poor Dog Died

There came a time when the old dog grew weary and debilitated. Could be the fleas were too voracious in their appetites. Unable any longer to support his hungry and non-productive citizenry, the old dog wandered into the wilderness and passed away.

Consternation, nay panic, reigned among the fleas. They raced from tip of tail to cold, shining nose, shouting, "The economic system has let us down!"

Many of the panic-stricken horde, disillusioned and without sustenance, and totally incapacitated to seek a new livelihood, died on the spot. Others, deeply embittered, trudged out to face a cold, unsympathetic world, dying as they tried to thumb a ride to the next dog.

And the Moral of This Tale is—

With a reasonable amount of initiative, a will to do a fair day's work, a bit of discipline, plus self-reliance, the fleas would be living today.

And so would the dog.

Doddington Display Attracts Widespread Attention At Home Show

SHOWN ABOVE is the display of the Doddington Lumber Corp. exhibited last week Sunday through Friday at the annual Home Show conducted at the Ohio State Fairgrounds. The display shown above was built and set up by the local West Side Lumber Co. and consisted of paneling and stock items for ready use by the customer. V. D. Petersen, 687 S. Harris-av, is manager of the local firm, which is a Doddington Yard.

Eva Sparks Taylor, well-known poet and feature-writer, sent me this cheerer-upper:

"Good Lord sends me troubles.
And I got to work 'em out
But I look around and see
There's trouble all about.
And when I see my troubles,
I just look up and grin
To think of all the troubles
That I ain't in!"

Ex-Hilltopper Dies of Rare Bone Disease

William "Ernie" Jackson, 46, formerly of 5½ Clarendon-av, died last Wednesday in the Lawrence County Hospital in Ironton. "Ernie", a Hilltopper until he was removed to Ironton, attracted wide attention in local medical and newspaper circles because of a rare bone disease which resulted in 137 bone fractures since he was 17 years old.

He was afflicted with osteogenesis emperfecta, a hereditary condition in the bone structure that prevents it from making use of calcium and other minerals, as normal bones do.

In spite of the fact that he seemed to break a bone every time he bumped himself, "Ernie" was a cheerful, smiling man, with a ready wit and enthusiasm for all activities. At various times he had been an artist's apprentice, a riverboat cook, a black-face minstrel man, a song writer, a diesel engine tender and local radio personality. While he lived here on the Hilltop he was a typewriter repairman and commercial artist.

He described himself as "a medical school's delight." "They know all about me," he declared. "I've been a popular exhibit."

He had been treated at Ohio State's College of Medicine "off and on" since he was 15. He had also been a patient at the Universities of Illinois, Pittsburgh, West Virginia and Cincinnati. He had been treated at the Rockefeller Medical Center and by specialists from the American Medical Association.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

ELIZABETH WAVERLY has just returned from Des Moines. She enjoyed an extensive visit with her married sister since Christmas.

We certainly appreciate the sidewalk JACK YOUNG has in front of his home. He's the attorney on Mound-st; and after we get off the bus and start walking, we're safe from traffic up on his walk.

Off hand we heard that JIM FROMAN is buying a filling station down in the South End. He's giving up his teaching job at the end of the school term.

Facing a hard day ahead of him, REGGIE DANIELS got up Saturday morning, ate a big breakfast, got out his ladder and paint brush and was all ready to paint his basement, when a knock came at the door. It was his neighbor BILL KUHN asking him if he knew he had a flat tire. Reggie spent all morning trying to find the leak. His basement didn't even get started. He wasn't in the mood.

Did you ever go down in EVA DEEM'S basement? When she washes she probably says "Eeny, meeny, miny, mo," because she has all kinds of washing powders and soaps. She's trying to decide which one gets her clothes the cleanest. These advertisements have her all mixed up.

Dealing the cards the other night MIKE LENMON decided to pull a card trick and is so doing, he pulled it on Sam Levering who already knew it, so his trick backfired, and MIKE was taken aback.

MR. AND MRS. RICE have two wee bird houses attached to their garage. The children of the neighborhood are drawn to watching the birds now that spring has come (I hope) to stay.

GENE SCOLDEN is a proud fireman. He's waiting for himself a grin. Which one is growing up his independence?

I certainly gave up mine. Can't ever voice my opinion without wifey interfering. Can't you just hear her. She's at it again.

See you next week, folks!

Wesley Chapel Church Scene Of Hart Stormont Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stormont

Miss Frances Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hart of Hilliard, became the bride of Mr. Robert J. Stormont, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stormont, 121 Pasadena-av, on Mar. 18, in Wesley Chapel Methodist church. Rev. Richard E. Brunner performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white roses, snapdragons, calla lilies and palms, illuminated by lighted tapers in seven-branch candelabra.

Escorted to the altar by her father the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin. Wide flounces of Alencon lace edged an off-the-shoulder marquisette yoke and continued down the front of the dress giving a redingote effect. This same lace trimmed the edge of the victorian train and the long sleeves ending in points over her hands. A single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was worn by the bride, and a small net cap edged with tiny pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white orchid atop a prayer book.

Miss Reva Nichols was maid of honor and wore a gown of lilac taffeta, made with a full skirt and insets of pleated chantilly lace accented the snugly fitted bodice. Matching mitts and headdress were worn and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Mr. Thomas Lamb was best man and ushering the wedding guests were Mr. Phillip Wright and Mr. Paul Armstrong.

Hostesses at the reception held at the church following the ceremony were Miss Jean Johnson, Miss Betty Stormont, Mrs. Wayne Hart, Mrs. Richard Miller and Mrs. Noble Paschall.

For the occasion the bride's mother selected a sprucy blue dress with grey accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of wood-violet with mauve accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The couple is making their home at 2254 Sullivant-av.

SPRING FASHION TRENDS

'April Showers' Pose Question Of 'What To Wear Rainy Days?'

Al Jolson's "April Showers" might bring May flowers, but, unless one is suitably dressed for an occasional drenching, they also bring a doldrum of spirit. Nothing does a gloomy day as much good as a perky raincoat or bright, bobbing umbrella.

Evelyn Swain, manager of the Fay Shop, 2388 W. Broad-st, prefers a "versatile raincoat of a soft pastel shade." These coats just recently put on the market, can be worn as a light topper over a spring suit or summer dress in any type of weather. Belted, or worn loose, a coat boasting of large patch pockets, as these do, cannot be ——— for wet weather convenience.

For a morale booster on a rainy day, Mrs. Swain suggests a checked raincoat with a matching hat. The hats, either jockey style or cloche, are new in themselves and contribute to a snappy looking outfit.

Plaids and more plaids are the favorite rain-gear of Ethel Rhinehart, buyer at Seiller's Dept. Store, 2404 W. Broad-st. She likes water-repellent taffeta or gaberdine coats in the bold plaids which only in the last several years have come to the fashion front.

Topping them all, according to Mrs. Rhinehart, is an innovation in rainwear, an iridescent taffeta raincoat in a changeable plaid. An eye-catcher on any occasion, these coats are certainly ideal for spring.

If you prefer to look a little mysterious on rainy days we suggest an ever-popular black satin or taffeta pyramid coat with a loose hood. To complete the outfit one might wear low shiny black boots and carry a modern long handled black umbrella. Now let the wind blow!

More for service than glamour are the still-being-improved-upon transparent plastic coats and capes which fold into such convenient carrying packages. These crisp coats do go over a fresh summer dress like cellophane over a gift parcel. The metallic plastic coats have all the features of the clear with the attraction of some very different and appealing colors.

For traveling, or a downtown shopping tour when the weather appears unpredictable, a collapsible umbrella can be carried with a minimum of effort. Colors and styles in these relatively new umbrellas are now as varied as those found in regulation styles.

Something to remember when buying a raincape or coat for the younger members of the family is that the new red and yellow slickers, or something equally as bright, are safer because drivers are able to see a dash of color through rain-fogged windshields better than a smear of gray or black. Another safety note for children is to watch hoods or hats which obstruct vision. Remember, they must look to the left and right as well as straight ahead.

Whether "April Showers" come in April, June or January, every cloud has a silver lining, so why not keep a smile to wear for cloudy weather?

Hotel Man Tells About The Smartest Move He Ever Made

It certainly gives you an awful sinking feeling to wake up and discover you're losing interest in your work and in life in general. That's enough to make anyone start worrying, and that's exactly what happened to Tommy Allen, Hotel Peabody, Memphis, Tennessee. But he acted quickly, got himself back on the track in a hurry, when he heard how HADACOL was helping folks who were rundown due to a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin.

The wonderful results prompted him to write us a letter about his experience. Here's what he had to say: "I am a young man twenty-nine years old and have been engaged in hotel work for the past four years. I had no appetite and was losing weight. I was constantly sick at my stomach and nothing I ate agreed with me. After eating, my stomach would become bloated and feel uncomfortable. My condition was so bad that I began to lose interest in my work and life in general. I kept hearing about HADACOL and I decided to try it. Believe me that was the smartest move I ever made. After taking two or three bottles, I began to feel better and now after taking HADACOL for two months I feel fine. No more am I tortured with stomach distresses. Truly I can't begin to tell enough about HADACOL. I intend to keep on taking it for a long time."

Thousands have found real help, real hope for tomorrow, by relieving the cause of their sickness when due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, with today's great HADACOL.

These precious elements are supplied in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And HADACOL provides helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too. They're all in a special, liquid form, already dissolved for quick, easy, absorption in the system.

ADDITIONAL LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Thank you very much for running a story last week on the Ohio State University Development Fund's Franklin County campaign. Stories like this are, of course, a tremendous help to us in arousing interest in the campaign among the friends of the University.

Would you be kind enough to drop a copy of the edition of your paper containing the campaign story in the mail to me so we may have it for our records.

Sincerely yours,
Walker B. Lawmen
Assistant Field Director

Dear Editor:

It has been many months since we have submitted a letter for publication, but the events of the last week have lifted such a load from our mind that we feel that we must share the relief with others.

For months, it seems almost like years, we have felt a hopelessness in world affairs.

Billions of money of the United States have been sent to Europe, to rebuild what we spent billions to destroy.

Politics and rivalries and jealousies seemed to grow with the dollars we poured in, while self-reliance and cooperation seem in reverse.

In the Asiatic theater the situation seemed not only desperate, but hopeless.

Not too long ago, a friend in Korea sent us a letter, telling of his struggle along the reservoir toward evacuation, when eight of his group of 40 were killed, and 16 others wounded.

He stated that said letter would probably be the last one out, as the situation seemed to be another "Custer's Last Stand".

Our forces rallied, and back they are going to the Chinese border, where they must helplessly wait, inactive, until the Communists assemble an army of a million, or more, and are ready to drive back into Korea, to murder our two hundred and fifty thousand boys.

We have a nephew in that group, and many dear friends, and we have wondered why they should be sent in there to die.

We wondered what would be accomplished by their death, or what would be accomplished if they didn't die.

To push the Communists out of Korea to the north, and eventually evacuate Korea ourselves, would be like pushing your finger into the side of a balloon and then withdrawing your finger.

We wondered why our neighbors in the United States were selected as the only ones to die. Why not permit the Chinese to kill each other, and then we make stable the winner, for if we win without the natives no one will be able to hold our winnings.

Then came the great day, when MacArthur was fired!

Now the issue is made up!

Either we win with MacArthur, or we go down to defeat.

The great issue in 1952 will not be "Do not change horses in the middle of a war."

The issue is the election of 1952 will now be "Victory with MacArthur, or his champion, or death with his opponent."

Respectfully submitted,
Francis M. Thompson
Attorney at Law

Gentlemen:

Fisher Ames warned "If we don't help England to defeat Napoleon Bonaparte, we will be his vassals and slaves." He called Thomas Jefferson a reactionary because he said "For us to attempt to reform all Europe and bring them back to principles of morality, and a respect for the equal rights of nations, would show us to be only maniacs of another character. And I am not for linking ourselves by new treaties with the quarrels of Europe, entering that field to preserve their balance. The first object of my heart is my own country."

The first object of every country is its own country, as shown by Great Britain, which used our billions to subsidize her socialism and make jet engines for Russia.

Our loyal citizens are willing to fight and die for "the Flag of the United States of America and the Republic for which it stands, ONE NATION, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." Reinstate MacArthur and spend billions for defense instead of World Socialism.

Our loyal citizens are opposed to "O ye of little faith." "Let's you and him fight" United Nations ONE WORLD plan, which gives to other "business as usual" nations 94% voting power to force us as a colony into foreign wars and bankruptcy, if our President and Secretary of State do not veto, as at present. Impeach them.

Repudiate the United Nations and withdraw recognition of Russia because they are spy nests. The United States Supreme Court ruled "The Constitution was adopted to preserve the government, not to serve as a protecting screen for those who, while claiming its privilege, seek to destroy it." Outlaw socialists and communists, remove them from all ballots and deport or imprison communists. Only our loyal citizens have the right to live in our country and have jobs in our industries, government, schools and colleges. Restore constitutional government and sound money without which a pound economy is impossible.

Printing press money not redeemable in gold is controlled currency with its inseparable high cost government bureaucrat regimented controls, which increase taxes added to costs paid by consumers. It causes strikes because it constantly buys less. Those who are gravely concerned by what their life insurance, bonds, stocks and savings will buy should request their congressmen immediately to support H.R. 324.

Gratefully yours,
J. Keller Kirn, Sr.
Lancaster, Ohio.

Policeman Back In The Pink Again —Says He's The "Kilroy of Old"

HADACOL Relieves Lack of Energy When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

It takes a good man, a man that's really up and at 'em, to help keep an eye on one of the world's largest office buildings. So when Jimmy Kilroy, 7138 Belden Ave, Chicago, Ill., found himself below par . . . in a sluggish rundown condition . . . he turned to today's great HADACOL. He'd heard how this wonderful formula corrected the real cause of such troubles when due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. As a result, he's back in shape again, loaded with energy and enthusiasm.

Here's what Mr. Kilroy has to say: "A few lines to tell you the great things your HADACOL has done for me. As a prize fighter and now as policeman assigned to one of the world's largest office buildings, I have always had to be in the best of shape. A month ago I found I was in a rundown condition, lacking energy, always tired and sluggish. And a young man one day said at one time he was the same. Advised me to buy a bottle of HADACOL, which I did. After two bottles, started feeling like myself and from there on I got new energy. Have been working in the gym 1 hour daily and everyone tells me how great I look and act. It really is a great product and I will always keep taking it. I feel like the Kilroy of old."

There's just no doubting an honest sincere statement like that. Surely there is no need to be a burden to yourself, to your friends, or to your family, if you are suffering from such troubles due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL supplies more than the minimum daily requirements of these elements plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium. It really goes to work to build good red blood, better hemoglobin, (when iron is needed) to make sure that the precious Vitamins and Minerals are sped to every part of the body, to every body organ. HADACOL is quickly absorbed in your system because its important elements are already dissolved in a special liquid form that's easy to take.

Goble Cannon, 1105 Hevert-st, St. Louis, Mo., says in this day and age it doesn't matter how old you are—it is how young you feel. Mr. Cannon says he's seen a lot of these young, high powered fellows just burn themselves out, while folks that know how to live never seemed to get off. Mr. Cannon says that since he has been taking HADACOL he feels as spry as a 16-year-old.

Here is what Mr. Cannon said about Hadacol when he heard how Hadacol was helping people suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron. "My job as crossing watchman for the Wabash Railroad keeps me in one place and I don't have a chance to get much exercise. I seem to get gas on my stomach and then I lose my appetite. Many times I have had nervous spells and been unable to sleep at night. Then one day I heard how other folks were being helped by HADACOL. Now the gas on my stomach has vanished, my appetite is first rate and I get a good night's sleep. And those nervous spells? I very seldom have them any more at all I think HADACOL is mighty fine—just look what it has done for me."

The most important thing about HADACOL is that you get Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in liquid form, which means that they are quickly absorbed and dispatched to the blood stream, ready to go right to work. HADACOL helps build up blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every part of your body.

Remember

HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation — promising blessed relief for your indigestion, stomach distresses (gas, heartburn, sour "risings" after meals), as well as that general rundown condition and vague aches and pains when they are due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin in your system.

HADACOL is so amazingly successful because if your system lacks Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin, it acts directly to relieve this deficiency—the real cause of your trouble. That's the kind of product you should buy—the kind you should start taking immediately.

Fanning Exhibition Now at Hilltop Library

By W. "Doc" Campbell

To see the glorious paintings of Ralph Fanning of OSU Fine Arts faculty, is a revealing revelation. I do not know of any local artist who can paint such entrancing water colors . . . dripping wet, lucious color and impeccable in drawing. They are truly Spanish in subject matter, and how! Mr. Fanning has traveled all over the world. His compositions are definitely impressive and truthful, yet delicious (pardon the word), in effect. They surely must enthrall any onlooker, for their purity and technique.

Three of his 14 or so paintings I shall discuss, for your benefit. The "Rock of Gibraltar," is romantically depicted with gulls and that deep, deep, Mediterranean blue. The famous rock dominates the painting and adds a real "historic" note to the collection.

Now, I come to one of the most interesting paintings. A great arena and bull fight in Spain. To render a huge multitude with dots, so to say, in place of realism is a feat of a Master. To leave out . . . is the essence of Art . . . imagination fills in the details. This "Bull Fight" of Fanning's is remarkable for just that . . . no detail . . . yet it is there. Don't miss seeing it.

Tiled roofs and high walls suggest Mexico or Spain . . . and there are several beautiful examples of this subject. High walls and great cactus vines over them! Then pale orange tiles and deeper orange—violet shadows . . . all, in dripping, pure, transparent water color . . . so exquisite in values, realistic enough for you to enjoy.

Yea! . . . these coming spring days, stroll to your HILLTOP Library-gallery and feast your eyes to the utmost. All through April and to about May 15th.

"LET'S GO".

The meeting will embrace 110 Presbyterian churches, members of Columbus, Marion and Zanesville Presbyteries.

The program, featuring three outstanding leaders in the recent laymen's convention, will, in effect, bring that now-famed convention to the capital city, within traveling distance for Central Ohioans. It will offer many of the Chicago convention's program highlights.

Proffit, Maysville, Tenn., merchant, farmer and sportsman, who is president of the National Council of Presbyterian Men; Attorney Louis Komjathy, Detroit, outstanding layman from the central states; and Paul Moser, executive secretary of the National Council of Presbyterian Men, New York City.

Komjathy

Speaker Proffit is also a business man and leader in civic and financial drives of numerous kinds. A former deacon and Sunday School superintendent, he was recently awarded the Kiwanis International Legion of Honor award for 30 years of continuous service.

The opening session will take place at 3 p. m., May 6, with dinner at 6 p. m. The evening session will close by 9:30. Tickets are available throughout April from ministers of all Presbyterian churches in Columbus.

Mum Society Plans Franklin Park Meeting

By Myron T. Seifert

Members and friends of the Columbus Chrysanthemum Society, comprised largely of Hilltop citizens, will visit the Conservatory at Franklin Park May 1, at 7:30 p. m., where a program and tour of the floral unit at the Conservatory will highlight the trip, President Frank Morgan, 97 N. It Happened Here . . .

By Pat Martindale

There has always been something touching about stories of "A boy and his dog."

This story was told by the mother of a West Junior High School boy.

She said, "My son has always wanted a dog but we have never permitted one. Like everyone we have heard many stories concerning dogs and have passed opinions on the subject. Several weeks ago we felt very sorry for the poor dumb animal of a neighbor who ran her dog off because of the regulations on dogs running loose in neighborhoods. Consequently these facts were still fresh in my son's mind when on his way to school last week he came upon a half-starved looking dog.

"At first he thought it might be rabid but when it approached him quite friendly he decided it was only hungry. Full of sympathy, he took his lunch money to buy a pound of wieners for the animal. The dog indignantly sniffed them and walked away leaving them on the sidewalk where my son had placed them."

"We got a bang out of the whole incident," said the mother, "but my [illegible] was so disgusted he said, 'The wieners were wasted, my lunch money spent. I sure found out it not only takes all kind of people to make a world, but all kind of dogs'."

Liars, Perjurers Will Be Visited By Absolute Ruin

RECENT investigations have unearthed corruption on almost every front. But even more shocking has been the brazen deceit of many suspects called upon to testify under oath.

Liars and perjurers would think twice about falsifying their testimony if the following Biblical words were read to them: "Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him."

Ruin is the ordained fate of the false witness. In our own time we have seen the practice of falsehood develop into a philosophy, pervert a whole nation, plunge the whole world into war, and bring utter ruin upon the guilty nation.

Because Moses commanded that there should be no bearing of false witness against one's neighbor, one can be sure that even in that small closely knit community of ancient Israel there were corrupt creatures willing to lie against their neighbors for their own advantage.

This kind of evil seems to be as old as mankind and, like other forms of sin, it makes us "poor toward God."

It is not enough that we avoid falsehood because of the fear that ruin will visit us. The evil will have been banished only when we choose truth because it is right.

Even where one's safety is concerned, lying cannot be countenanced. Though it is considerably removed from lying to the disadvantage or injury of another, it is still inherently evil.

The Bible deals with perjury in Exodus 20:16; Proverbs 26:28, and Matthew 26:59-75.

NEVER CHANGE

It will take you only about thirty seconds to read these lines. Yet in that short half minute, the map of the world will change.

Somewhere in the world, a long-quiet volcano will erupt with a roar that sends tons of molten lava streaming down the mountainside to alter the face of that mountain and the lives of the villagers at its base. As you read this sentence, a tiny, pink line of coral is emerging in the Pacific to start a new island which, God willing, will never become another Guadalcanal. An earthquake shakes part of Japan; a new skyscraper foundation is begun in an American city; a giant glacier changes its course in Labrador—all as you read this page.

So it's apparent that the only constant thing about this old earth of ours is its inconstancy. Nothing is permanent except the moral truths of the Creator who fashioned this changing world in which we live.

God's truths are rockfast. No matter how the world changes, God's truths will always exist for man in an otherwise impermanent world. From the pulpit or altar of your church, these truths and values become self-evident to all. And perhaps that is why, in these days of stress, more men than ever are turning for assurance to God and his churches for truths that have never changed . . . and never, never will.

For I am the Lord, I change not.—Mal. 3:6.

Spring Song

Say, Ma, you know it's gettin' awful hot?
Jest playin' one-old-cat I sweat a lot!
A frog was croakin' in the pond last night,
The popular buds is gettin' mighty tight.
The pie-plant's up a half a foot, I know,
The purple flags was green a week ago.
There's signs of spring around most everywheres—
I wisht 'at I could change my unawares!
Ma, kin I?
They's itchin' me to beat the very band;
Say, Ma, it's gettin' more than I kin stand!
The seedin's sproutin' in the stubble field
And Pa is wonderin' will the clover yield.
It's spring, you see! why, look 'most anywheres—
I wisht 'at I could change my unawares!
Ma, kin I?
They sticks and scratches me like all getout,
I'm goin' bugs there ain't a bit a doubt!
I seen a crocus peekin' through the ground,
I think a honey bee was stirrin' round.
The sap is risin' in the sugar trees,
I smell a whiff of willows on the breeze.
It's spring, I tell you, Ma, jest everywheres—
I wisht 'at I could change my unawares!
Ma, kin I?

Parents Ask Naval Aid

Military authorities were searching for a 21-year-old Mix-av sailor who failed to arrive in Columbus after leaving his ship at Portsmouth, Va., Apr. 9, to marry a Columbus girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Buren Jackson, 324 Mix-av, parents of Audie Jackson, storekeeper on the Aircraft Carrier USS Leyte, which recently returned from action in the Korean area, asked naval authorities to aid them. The Red Cross, investigating for the parents, was advised by naval officers that Jackson left the aircraft carrier at 8 p. m., Apr. 9, beginning a 27 day leave.

The sailor was to have married a Columbus girl here last Monday, according to his parents. Both they and the girl talked to Jackson by telephone the week-end of Mar. 21.

Jackson is described as weighing about 180 pounds, five feet 10 inches in height, with dark hair and brown eyes.

Vocal Trio Rates High At West

Top, popular vocal group at West High School is a trio of girls whose harmony is short of heavenly.

Billed on practically all school assemblies and community affairs, where music has a part, the three singers invariably "bring down the house."

Over a year ago, Ann Cockfield, Donna Theisen, and Onda McPherson made their debut, since which time they have been in constant demand.

Beside their mutual interests in music, the three have other things in common. All are sixteen years of age, and members of the Glenwood Methodist choir and the West High School choir, Y-teens organization, and sing regularly on the Junior Achievement Tele-Teen TV show over WBNS Channel 10.

Among Ann's many musical hobbies is strumming a ukelele, especially made for her mother when she was a little girl. Ann sings also and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cockfield, 489 S. Harris-av.

Soprano songster, Onda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. McPherson, 602 S. Eureka-av, besides musical diversions, is interested in horsemanship.

Donna, who sings second soprano, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Theisen, 233 N. Ogden-av, and likes swimming and dancing. She hopes to become a registered nurse.

All three, now juniors, plan to continue their combined vocal efforts, upon graduation from West High School.

Desserts that Delight

By JANE ASHLEY

Good desserts like good times are never forgotten, and here are three extra special ones that will long be remembered. You'll want to serve them often.

Children and grownups alike love desserts, and when they're made with Karo they love them even more. It's Karo . . . America's favorite syrup . . . that gives these desserts such wonderful flavor and richness.

Bread Pudding

1 cup bread cubes
2 eggs, well-beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup Karo Syrup, Red or Blue Label
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
2 cups milk
¼ cup raisins
½ teaspoon nutmeg

Use at least day-old bread; cut in ½-inch cubes. Place in 1-quart baking dish or 6 individual custard cups. Combine eggs, salt, Karo Syrup and melted butter; stir in milk and raisins. Pour over bread cubes. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Set baking dish or custard cups in pan of warm water. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 1 hour or until silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Makes 6 servings. Serve with Chocolate Sauce.

Chocolate Sauce

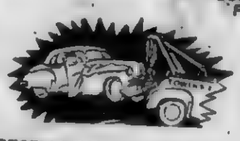
⅓ cup water
1 cup Karo Syrup, Red or Blue Label
⅓ cup cocoa
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine water, Karo Syrup, cocoa and salt in small saucepan. Mix thoroughly. Bring to a boil over low heat, stirring constantly. Boil 1 minute. Remove from heat. Add butter and vanilla. Cool. Makes about 1¼ cups.

Baked Fruit Compote

1 cup Karo Syrup, Red Label
½ cup orange sections
½ cup uncooked cranberries
3 fresh pears, quartered, peeled and cored
6 whole cloves
1 3-inch stick cinnamon

Place all ingredients in casserole. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 1 hour or until pears are tender. Chill thoroughly before serving. Makes 4 to 6 servings.



Dumplings in Cherry Sauce

1 cup Karo Syrup, Blue Label
1 cup cherry juice
2 cups cherries, drained
½ lemon, thinly sliced
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup milk
1 egg, slightly beaten

Place Karo Syrup, cherry juice, cherries, lemon slices and butter in saucepan. Bring to a boil. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and nutmeg. Add milk and egg. Drop by small spoonfuls into boiling syrup. Cover tightly and cook over medium heat 20 minutes. Do not remove cover while dumplings are cooking. Makes 6 servings, 2 dumplings each.

Research Has Important Role In Treatment of Mental Disease

By Pat Martindale

Research plays an important part in the treatment of mental disease.

The Columbus State School is a potential research center where cause and treatment of mental illness are studied and special care, training and rehabilitation are provided, through educational, recreational and occupational therapy.

Upon entering the school, students are first admitted to the receiving hospital where friendly reception is extended. Complete physical and mental conditions are each student and diagnoses of physical an dmental conditions are studied by physicians and psychologists. After a period of observation the student's mental status is determined and the best type of education and training for a useful and happy life of each individual is prescribed.

So that students may live in a home-like atmosphere, each is assigned to a cottage with other students of the same mental standards.

Each cottage has a large living room with cheerfully draped windows, a dining room, furnished with dinnette size tables, a dormitory with a single bed for each student and a dressing room where everyone has his or her own clothes press and a drawer for personal belongings. Many of the cottages have a large sun porch.

The school makes it a point to hire only matrons with kind and understanding dispositions.

Students who can be taught attend school half a day and in many cases work the other half.

Through occupational therapy students very often become self reliant after a period of training.

Talents are very often discovered for the first time in their life through therapeutic methods. Even in the spastic's cottage unbelievable progress is being made with students who were completely helpless before entering the school.

Useful and beautiful hand work, novelties and furnishings are made by the students and placed in the sales room within the administration building for sale to the public thus providing spending money for the students and helping to build the educational and recreational therapy fund.

Through recreational therapy much enjoyment and good times have been found for students with musical ability. The school has its own choir which often sings for outside organizations and churches. The instrumental section is also well organized and its concerts are enjoyed by the students and visiting public.

Many students have found art a good pastime while others find tatting and crocheting enjoyable as well as profitable.

The school has its own greenhouse and fresh cut and potted flowers are provided for sick rooms, cottages and offices. Students interested in growing take great pains in raising fine flowers and plants.

Younger students enjoy gymnastic recreation. The basketball and baseball teams are often permitted to play in competitive games away from the school.

A boys' club and a girls' club have been formed and operate the same as any other school club. A small monthly newspaper club is now being organized with great anticipation on the part of the students.

The Columbus State School is a city within itself where every resident has the same common goal, that of finding a life of happiness and contentment, usefulness and rehabilitation.

Suspected Lady Burglar Nabbed Here

A relaxing bath indirectly brought about the arrest of a 27-year-old woman, now held in connection with more than 25 burglaries and 15 forgeries.

It began a week ago Monday when Mrs. J. B. Larimore of 264 S. Eureka-av was taking a bath. As the usual bath story goes, the doorbell began to ring. Finally Mrs. Larimore threw on a robe and went to the door. No one was there.

Her dog was barking at the back door of the house, so she went into the kitchen and found a woman trying to unlock the door. Mrs. Larimore questioned her and the woman said that she was looking for a Mrs. Baker's residence. Her story sounded plausible since Mrs. Larimore had lived on the Hilltop less than a year and wasn't familiar with the entire neighborhood. The woman left.

Mr. Larimore entered the house a few moments later and his wife told him the story and asked if he had seen the woman. He had not.

The Larimores then quickly checked the neighborhood and found that the woman had cut through their backyard and was going to the doors of homes on the opposite side of the street.

Larimore phoned police, who trailed the woman for a short period of time. Cruiserman George Skipper and Harold Ashbaugh placed the woman under arrest and she was taken to police headquarters where she was identified as Mrs. Mary Ann Long, formerly of Newark. Detectives said she has implicated herself in at least 25 housebreakings on the Hilltop.

Final Evidence of Spring Arrives

DUBS . . . Knuckle down and don't hunch inside that jim! The final kiss of Spring settled down on us when the marbles players began to haunt the local playgrounds and school yards. The warm sun signaled the return of skinned knuckles and pockets bulging with marbles won on the field of battle.

Making tests of a home-made brew which a cautious Scout had submitted for analysis, the chemist said: "I'm sorry, but this stuff is dreadful. If you drank this I guarantee you would be blind for life. You had better let me destroy it."

"No need to do that," said the Scot, stretching out a hand for the bottle. "My old friend McTavish has been blind for years I might as well give it to him for a birthday present."

A Young Man's Idea Continues To Grow

Back in 1844 a young man by name of George Williams had an idea patterned after an idea of another Young Man who saw worth in every person and elevated all men into a brotherhood and fellowship under the fatherhood of God.

Out of this idea came the establishment of the Young Men's Christian Association which today has been established through out the world and right here in our own Hilltop community is active among young people.

While the local organization does not have extensive physical facilities so commonly thought of when mention is made of the YMCA, it is quite active here. The idea is housed is people of good will with an interest in youth.

The objects of the YMCA are "spiritual, intellectual, social and physical education and growth of its members and constituency, consistent with the spirit and teachings of Jesus Christ and, in cooperation with the home, the church, the school and other institutions, to render such service in the community as will tend to better social, economic, moral and spiritual conditions for society."

Because young people make up the greater part of the member and participating constituency, some sort of subsidy is necessary if these services are to be maintained.

Therefore when a volunteer solicitor calls at your door this next Sunday afternoon, give him or her your membership and help to carry on this worthwhile program of maintaining a well supervised program for the young people of the Hilltop.

If you have vision and foresight you can see that by making your contribution for more than just a mere membership fee you will be helping to build a fine new YMCA building on the large lots at the southwest corner of Harris and Broad-sts.

Help make the Y membership enrollment a big success!

West High Student Wins National Honors

MASTER OF CONGENIALITY Dale Carnegie shakes hands with Junior Achiever Jerry Witherspoon after a meeting of local speakers' corps. Mr. Carnegie praised work of Junior Achievement Speakers' Corps of which Witherspoon is a member.

VERSATILITY IS THE KEY-NOTE of Jerry Witherspoon's success. Here he is pictured at the microphone as he addressed a huge gathering recently at Ohio State University. Dr. W. E. Warner of Ohio State described the youthful West High student as "the best speaker I have heard in a long time."

FRANK S. WILLIAMS, president of Junior Achievement of Columbus, Inc., and district manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, extends his congratulations to Jerry Witherspoon on the winning of highest possible national awards offered by Junior Achievement.

Jerry Witherspoon Gets Coveted Colgate Award

Announcement was made today by National Headquarters of Junior Achievement Inc. through Lee Edwards, executive director of Junior Achievement in Columbus of the award of the Colgate University Scholarship to Jerry Witherspoon, West High School junior. Witherspoon is the son of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Witherspoon of 2988 Wicklow-rd.

The Colgate University Scholarship is one of the most sought after prizes, inasmuch as it provides a scholarship of $600 for each of the four years in college plus all expenses. For a number of years this prize has not been awarded due to the fact that the requirements stipulate that the recipient of the award be almost perfect in all departments.

Young Witherspoon, according to Edwards, as a result of his being chosen as the winner in all de- Colgate Scholarship, will address the Annual Stockholders Meeting of Junior Achievement in New York City on June 12. This meeting is attended by such industrial leaders as Henry Ford, S. Bayard Colgate of Colgate-Palmolive Peet Company, Charles R. Hook, of Armco Steel Corp., and other financial tycoons.

Jerry Witherspoon in addition to the winning of the coveted Colgate Scholarship, also was the winner of Jack Lacey Sales Clinic Scholarship which was conducted at Central High School on Apr. 9.

This scholarship is sponsored by the Columbus Sales Executive Club.

By virtue of his many activities in Junior Achievement, Witherspoon as president of Jaradio Products, sales manager of J & A Chemical Co., star of JA Radio Production Co., "Junior Classics", and member of the Junior Achievement Speakers' Corps is also eligible, and quite likely to win, Achievement of the Year Award in Columbus. Another honor which he would have won, according to Lee Edwards, was the Dale Carnegie Scholarship hade he not been leaving the city to attend college this fall.

One of the unique facets of young Witherspoon is the fact that as a junior in West High School he has amassed sufficient credits to graduate this coming June. As of the beginning of this summer he will be through with high school, but he has made request of high school officials that he not be graduated from West High School until next year when his own class will graduate. At commencement ceremonies in 1952 Jerry Witherspoon will receive his diploma with his classmates of the present day although at that time he will in all probability already have had one year of college.

Jerry has one main and compelling ambition, and that is to follow in the footsteps of his father as a minister of the gospel. Despite the many scholastic and athletic achievements which he has made, he is determined to enter the ministry.

On May 7 this winner of highest honors of Junior Achievement awards in the nation is scheduled to address the Linden Kiwanis Club and tell of his interest in Junior Achievement.

Lee Edwards, in announcing the winning of the Colgate University Scholarship by young Witherspoon, also said that he is being seriously considered as the winner of the Columbus Sales Executive Club award of a trip to New York City for his 25 word essay on "Why I Am Sold on Selling."

Despite his interest in achievement and his stated, 'young Jerry has set a goal for himself in selling a commodity that has no price tag, he plans to follow in his father's footsteps and enter the ministry following his graduation from college.

John Nippert Resigns Presidency Of Hilltop Business Association

Resignation of John Nippert, 632 S. Roys-av, as president of the Hilltop Business Association, was accepted by the executive committee of that organization Tuesday afternoon. Nippert's resignation from full activity as president of the HBA was brought about by ill health and advice of his physician.

John Nippert

Alva C. Nafziger, 222 N. Harris-av, of Hilltop Furniture Co. and first vice-president of the local civic organization, has agreed to perform the duties relinquished by Nippert until the June meeting of the executive committee at which time definite decision will be made as to whom will be named new leader of the organization.

The Hilltop Business Association will hold its May meeting at the General Motors plant, it was learned today. A swiss-steak dinner is to be the bill-of-fare with a tour of the huge plant to follow. The meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, May 8, at 6:45 p. m.

It was pointed out that members who plan to attend this meeting should park their cars in he lot located at the southwest corner of the plant where they will be directed by plant patrolmen.

On the agenda of the HBA also is the annual spring dance of the association which has been scheduled for May 22 at the Beechwold Restaurant. Tickets to this affair will be available at the HBA offices, 3123 W. Broad-st, or from members of the social committee.

The beam dinner committee under the chairmanship of Robert Kneisley has announced that the date for the annual affair has been set for July 10-11. In announcing the date of the event the chairman also pointed out that beans will be served only on Wednesday night of the annual Hilltop affair.

Glenwood Church Endorses YMCA Enrollment

Glenwood Methodist Church added its endorsement to the Hilltop YMCA enrollment campaign Tuesday night when the official board voted a contribution of $50.

In addition, numerous members of the Glenwood church will volunteer their services in the house to house canvass on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Joseph Shellhaas, pastor of the church, pointed out that the YMCA is definitely a Christian movement and should have the wholehearted endorsement of church people. He was very much pleased that the matter was brought to the attention of the official board so that their church might become an official part of the program.

The matter was presented to the board by Mose M. Williams, a member of the Glenwood board and also a member of the Hilltop Y board.

Judge Cecil J. Randall, for many years a member of the board of Boys Work Branch of YMCA, also a member of the Glenwood board, issued this statement this week.

"It is roundup time for the annual renewal of memberships and enlistment of new members in the Hilltop YMCA.

Quietly but efficiently, for several years, a group of public spirited men and women of our community have been at work organizing and promoting this newest unit in the Columbus metropolitan YMCA.

"Every citizen, and especially every parent of the Hilltop, should give his enthusiastic support to this great agency dedicated to the building of the physical, moral and spiritual welfare of our boys and girls."

Sold The Bed, Sold The Rest, 'Cause Record Ads Are The Verified Best

Rex Jones, 171 S. Burgess-av, decided to sell a baby bed through a want ad, because placing a want ad is so simple. He just lifted the phone, dialed RA. 1125 and his ad was completed in a few minutes with the aid of our friendly want ad takers.

His little ad went into thousands of homes. The ad was seen by most of the families, for people are used to shopping through the Record's classified columns.

Jones sold the bed and other articles he had advertised in a short time. He said that he "was very well pleased" with the results he received for he had 70 calls or more.

Let us please you by selling something for you in this easy want ad way. Just phone RA. 1125 or RA. 1126 before Tuesday noon and someone will be happy to help you place an ad that will work for you.

Veteran P. O. Clerk Retires; Will Just "Chore Around"

Vernor Stout

When a man has worked steadily at a job for 31 years and retires, the first thing his friends and acquaintances ask him is, "Well, now that you've retired, what are you going to do?"

Vernor Stout's answer since Tuesday has been, "Oh, I'll just chore around the place. I'll find plenty to do."

Vernor, who lives at 201 Wilson-rd, retired after 31 years, one month and four months as a postal clerk. Twenty-one of those years were spent at the Hilltop Branch. He was one of the original employees of the branch when it opened its doors in 1930.

Recalling the first days of the branch, Stout said that almost everyone who came into the post office had to ask, "Wonder why they didn't just move the branch clear out into the country?" At that time houses were fairly few and far between, west of Hague-av, according to Stout.

"So most of the people who used the branch office felt that it was located too far out," he said. But time proved the postal authorities right in their decision on its location, for the branch now lies in the approximate center of the Hilltop.

Stout is a long-time Hilltopper, he came here in 1902 with his parents, and here he intends to remain. He is married and has three daughters and two sons.

A veteran of 11 month overseas duty in World War I, Stout is a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Scottish Rite, chapter and council.

If Stout's friends push him further than his first answer, he tells them that he has "two hives of bees and some fruit trees, apple and peach. They'll take some work."

Hilltop Shriners Pre-Ceremonial Get-Together Set For Tonight

By Myron T. Seifert

The semi-annual Pre-Ceremonial Get-Together of Hilltop Shriners and Shrine candidates, scheduled for tonight, Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p. m. in the West Gate Masonic Temple, gives promise for the local 'Red-Fez" men a fraternal meeting of unusual interest and enthusiasm.

Traditionally, the Hilltop "Nobles" entertain the candidates twice a year previous to the ceremonial rites of Aladdin Temple. This year the Aladdin ceremony will be held at the Ohio State Coliseum for nineteen candidates.

Clean, whole-hearted fun and fellowship abound when Shriners meet; however, a fine noble purpose also motivates their work, such as endowing Shrine hospitals and contributing to the relief of crippled children.

This spirit will be much in evidence tonight when Hilltop Shriners meet. A buffet lunch will close the meeting of the local club.

Hilltop "Nobles", guests and candidates for initiation at the West Gate Temple tonight will be Melvin O. Anderson, Donald A. Borror, Alvin E. Brookey, Alvinza A. Bunner, William P. Bunner, Peter Chakeres, John W. Cleveland, Clifford E. Garwick, William R. Griffith, Fred W. Hancock, Robert W. Morgan, Edgar G. Planck, Elliott H. Reynolds, Leverne H. Ruhl, Harley W. Summers, Warren G. Van Dorn, Thomas Webster, Jr., William W. Wentzel and William J. White.

According to information, Lt. Schlegel was downed by small-arms fire as he returned from a reconnaissance mission. He had completed 35 missions.

He graduated from West Point Military Academy in 1947 and was a member of the Sabre Dancers, an acrobatic precision flying team at March Air Force Base that performed on the West Coast.

Lt. Schlegel attended West High School and graduated from Southwest High School at Kansas City.

Naylor was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital and released.

Police charged the driver of the other auto, Eugene Darst, 25, 1298 Koebel-rd, with driving without an assured clear distance ahead.

New Central Communications System To Assist Franklin Township "Smoke Eaters" Fight Fire

Franklin-twp Fire Chief James Moffitt sits at his desk in the Franklin Heights fire station within easy access to the newly installed central fire-radio communications system. Fire Chief Moffitt with his 90 man volunteer department expect soon to be able to cope with any situation.

Keeping pace with the rapid expansion of businesses and homes in the Western section of Columbus is quite a job for the Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Fighters, but their chief, James C. Moffitt, feels confident that his group will be able to handle it.

Chief Moffitt and his 90 "dollar-per-year" volunteers must furnish fire protection for all of Franklin Township, which extends in a horseshoe-like shape around this part of the city. Their territory extends from the junction of Dublin and Olentangy River-rds, west beyond San Margarita, south to Jackson Township which begins below Alkire-rd, and east to the Scioto River, beyond Harmon-av.

At the present time, only the Franklin Heights station men are ready for action, since they suc-

Annual YMCA Membership Round-Up Plans For This Sunday Are Disclosed

Expect 200 Volunteer Workers To Participate In Enrollment

More than 200 volunteer workers, representative of service and civic clubs on the Hilltop as well as many interested citizens will gather at 1:30 p. m. Sunday in the Hillcrest Baptist Church Sanctuary to receive final instructions for the annual YMCA Membership Enrollment Round-Up.

After receiving final instructions from Round-Up Chairman Ben Knepper, the volunteer workers will spread out through the entire Hilltop area in a door-to-door canvass for the annual membership enrollments to the Hilltop Branch of the YMCA.

Two teams have been organized for the all-out effort to boost local YMCA membership. The "Blue Team" will be under direction of Elmer Hegenberger as colonel, assisted by majors, Ed. O. Johnson, Herbert G. Deems, Sam Alford and Harold D. Cramer.

Members of the "Red Team" will be guided in their efforts by Colonel C. H. "Doc" Campbell and his majors, Mose Williams, Ray McVey, Jr., Robert Cramer and Robert Weaver.

Territory of the Hilltop area has been evenly divided between the two teams for the round-up. Each major has been assigned a given area for his volunteers to cover on Sunday.

"Blue Team" territory is divided in the following manner.

Ed. O. Johnson, Valleyview area.

Herbert G. Deems, east side of N. Hague-av, east to Bureau of Juvenile Research and Columbus State Hospital and north of W. Broad-st to the railroad.

Sam Alford, east side of S. Hague-av and east to include both sides of S. Eureka-av, south side of W. Broad-st, and south to include the north side of Sullivant-av.

Harold D. Cramer, from the west city limits east to and including both sides of S. Eureka-av, south side of Sullivant-av, and south to the city limits.

Territorial lineup for the "Red Team" follows this pattern.

Mose Williams, NYC Railroad south to W. Broad-st. From the railroad east to and including the west side of N. Hague-av.

Ray McVey, Jr., west city limits (including both sides of Derrer rd) east to and including the west side of S. Hague-av, south side of W Broad-st, south and including the north side of Sullivant-av.

Robert Cramer, east of S. Eureka-av to Columbus State School grounds. South side of W. Broad-st, and south to and including the north side of Sullivant-av.

Robert Weaver, east of S. Eureka-av to and including both sides of Ryan-av. South side of Sullivant-av to the city limits.

The enrollment round-up will be conducted between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m. Sunday afternoon with all volunteer workers reporting back to the Hilltop YMCA office at 2502 W. Broad-st.

With churches and the many service clubs of the Hilltop area cooperating in the round-up a goal of 2000 members for the local branch of the YMCA has been set.

Round-up leaders pointed out that Youth Memberships are but $1; Adult Memberships, $2, and Sustaining Memberships, $5. Any amount subscribed during the round-up for more than $5 will be credited to the local "Y" Building Fund.

Chairman Ben Knepper urged that all volunteers meet at the Hillcrest Church no later than 1:30 p. m. in order that the round-up be completed in the least time possible. He also suggested that anyone desiring a membership, who will not be at home Sunday afternoon, call the local YMCA office at JO. 4641 so that a "Y" representative will contact them later.

Russell Smith, 20, 420 W. Sixth-av, a passenger in the car, suffered a skull fracture, a broken jaw and internal injuries. Hospital authorities report his condition as "not good."

W. Harold Reed A Veteran Hilltopper; Twenty-Five Years In Same Location

Harold Reed

Twenty-five years in the same location and the same job qualifies W. Harold Reed as a real veteran Hilltopper.

After breaking into the barbering trade the hard way (no barber school for him), Reed moved to the Hilltop from eastern Ohio and opened his shop at 2350 W. Broad-st. He apparently liked the people and the location, for there he has remained.

No hobbyist, Reed claims that the only thing he has time for is "continuing to work." He does, however, have a small garden plot at his home at 267 Demorest-av, in which he raises "flowers and some tomatoes." He's a tomato lover who raises nothing but the early tomato.

Reed is married and is the father of one son. He is also a grandfather, twice over.

He is a member of the Methodist Church, the Barber's Union and the Camp Chase American Legion Post 98.

Eight Sets of Twins Puzzle West High School Teachers

"What's My Name?" might be the game of 16 students (eight sets of twins) at West High School playing a game with their teachers.

The phenomenal list of couplets includes: Cherry and Jack Cannon, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cannon: Betty and Bonnie Trickle, daughters of Mrs. Marie Trickle; Don and Ron Ireland, sons of Mrs. Betty Ireland; Gloria and Gladys Pridemore, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pridemore; Reggie and Ralph Arnold, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold; Jean and Jan Sullivan, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hummel; Bill and Wilma Vawters, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Vawters; Jean and Joy Wright, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wright.

The "identicals" include Don and Ron Ireland, Gloria and Gladys Pridemore, Reggie and Ralph Arnold, and Jean and Joy Wright. By identical it is meant those who are very similar in resemblance.

Youngest are Gloria and Gladys Pridemore who are 14; oldest, Wilma and Bill who are 18.

Hilltop YMCA Receives Flag From Camp Chase Legion Post On Eve Of Membership Enrollment

A symbol of their whole-hearted backing and endorsement of the 1951 Hilltop YMCA membership enrollment which is being conducted this Sunday, May 6, Camp Chase Post 98 of the American Legion this week presented an American flag to the local "Y" branch.

Presentation was made by Past Commander Dewey Stout as representative of the Camp Chase Post and acceptance for the Hilltop YMCA was made by Herbert G. Deems as a member of the "Y" board of directors.

"To foster and perpetuate a 100 percent Americanism is an important duty of the American Legion," said Past Commander Stout. "We believe that the Hilltop Branch of the YMCA is a strong pillar in the community dedicated to that same principle. This flag is a symbol of freedom and America, both of which are zealously guarded by the American Legion and the YMCA."

Chairman of the program is Eugene D. Williams, 60 S. Oakley-av, with Mrs. Dorothy Williams, 385 S. Highland-av, as vice-chairman. Other committee members are Lillian Mann, 244 S. Wheatland-av, Mrs. Joyce Patterson, 325 S. Wayne-av, and Lawrence Glen, 368 S. Highland-av.

Literature will be delivered between now and next Thursday throughout the project area by the Pythagoreans, boys' youth group. Block workers will follow with door-to-door personal visits.

All X-rays are confidential and will be mailed to the homes of participants.

No undressing is necessary, and X-rays take but a few seconds, the Columbus Tuberculosis Society emphasized.

Although the percentage found to have TB is usually very small, the society said, X-rays will show up other abnormal chest conditions, including heart trouble, and are an important community health measure.

Girl Scout News

The new West Side Day Camp site is thrilling Girl Scout leaders who have visited it in the past week. Five carloads of local Girl Scout and Brownie leaders went to inspect the site 11 miles southeast of the city and returned with enthusiastic comments about the 54 acres of woods, the rolling hills and ravines and the stream where fishing will be available under careful supervision. Registrations are pouring in at such a rate they may have to hold a third week, starting June 29, just for Brownies. Brownies will attend June 14 through 21, excepting Saturday and Sunday; Girl Scouts will attend June 22 through 29, excluding the week-end. There will be a nursery for leaders' children from 2 to 7 years old.

Day Camp leaders' training begins May 15, from 9:30 to 2:30 p. m., at a place yet to be announced. A nosebag lunch should be brought. The remaining meetings are on May 22 and 29.

Chicago Avenue School has a new Brownie troop, Troop 369. Twenty-two girls were invested by Mrs. Warren Weeks on Apr. 18. The leader is Mrs. Lillian Hale; the assistants are Mrs. Marie Leppert and Mrs. Virginia Richmond. The troop committee members are Mrs. Garnet Busby, Mrs. Mildred Pavey, Mrs. Hazel Walls, Mrs. Athene Woodford, Mrs. Hazel Bauer. This is the first Scout troop to be formed at Chicago.

Anyone desiring information on the new Day Camp site or on training for day camp leaders may call Mrs. Raymond Haughn, RA. 4388, site director.

More Government Waste

For more than 40 years now, Congress has been using small amounts of the taxpayers money to have special calendars printed for the exclusive use of Congressmen and Senators.

The cost of this special little privilege is now nearly $6000 a year. That uses up all the income taxes paid in a year by 27 family men (wife and two children) earning $4000 a year.

Indiana's penny-conscious congresswoman, Cecil Harden, thinks that is a luxury Congress can well afford to forego at this time when so many lawmakers are making big speeches about what they're going to whack out of the budget.

The lawmakers, she feels, can get along very well with the free calendars they get by the dozen each year from business firms—most of which end up in the waste basket.

"When Congress starts cutting Government expenditures, it should look to its own housekeeping," said Congresswoman Harden, citing the special calendars as an example.

The calendars are printed by the Government Printing Office annually—10,600 calendars for the 435 members of the House and 5600 calendars for the 96 senators.

"Most Congressmen, acting on the theory that as long as the calendars are printed they may as well be used, distribute their allotment of 10 to 20 calendars among friends or acquaintances in order that some use may be made of them," she said.

"Six thousand dollars admittedly would not make much of a dent in government expenditures. But, if Congress is sincere in trimming unnecessary expenditures, it might be well to cut out the "official" Congressional calendars and a lot of other similar items which add to the burden borne by Mr. and Mrs. American taxpayer."

Three's a Crowd

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By E. WILSON HARDER

Last week this column related part of the weird story about Western States Refinery, an independent oil refinery in North Salt Lake, Utah.

* * *

This refinery was located near Colorado and Wyoming fields to ship refined products via pipeline to the Pacific Northwest, but before it was completed two years ago it required vigorous measures by both the Senate and House Small Business Committees to secure steel for the plant.

C. W. Harder

* * *

In nearby Geneva, Utah, US Steel has the steel plant built by the government during the war. This plant has to date supplied 265,000 tons of steel for the Arabian oil development.

* * *

By a strange coincidence the company developing Arabian field controls with a subsidiary and another oil major, the big Northwest market which is supplied by tanker.

* * *

But despite this and other handicaps, the plant finally got into operation. Because of limited finances a cracking plant to produce high octane blending stock for making ethyl was not built. Arrangements were made to secure this stock from other sources.

* * *

When Korea started Western Refining was notified supply of high octane stock would be cancelled. In meantime, Washington decided plant is vital defense need, encouraged management to erect own cracking plant.

Plans were made. Late in February the Reconstruction Finance released a story to all newspapers that Western Refinery would invest $300,000 and RFC would loan $720,000. Of this loan $300,000 would be a regular RFC loan, the balance a loan under the defense plants construction program.

* * *

A week later the National Security Resources Board granted a certificate of necessity. A priority for steel from the National Production Authority followed. The company signed firm contracts for the construction work.

* * *

The ink was barely dry on the contracts when the weird part happened.

* * *

A letter was received from a Mr. Bruce K. Brown, deputy for the Petroleum Administrator for Defense, Dept. of Interior, stating the $420,000 portion of the loan was turned down because "the urgency from the national defense standpoint does not appear to be sufficiently great to justify such action."

* * *

This action after public announcement of the loan was made puts the company in so tight a spot it may have to close down.

* * *

No one knows how Mr. Bruce Brown arrived at his decision after all other defense agencies gave the go ahead signal to the project.

* * *

In fact, Washington is not quite clear just who Mr. Brown is. Some think he is a dollar a year man on loan from a major oil company. Others say he is not, but his superior is.

* * *

But the investigation that will ensue will surely establish identities.

What Is Your Opinion?

Poll On Current Questions

History is repeating in Washington. Bureaucrats from both big business and socialist quarters in government apparently don't want to learn from experience. They insist on repeating the World War II mobilization errors that all but killed off small and independent business.

Just as in 1940 and 1941, independents are flooding Congress with the complaint that they are being cut off from materials for civilian production, are finding it impossible to secure defense orders. It is charged that controlled and organized effort is now being made to do the bidding of big business, leaving the small and independent business man by the wayside.

The Senate Small Business Committee has proposed a definite plan for assisting small business independents. Among the measures it is now pushing are: (1) mandatory allocations of critical materials; (2) government guaranteed short-term "tide-over" loans to worthy small firms now on the verge of closing, but who will be useful later in the defense program; (3) splitting up of large defense prime contracts among large numbers of smaller firms; and (4) assurance that NPA will secure critical materials for small business defense contractors.

The question then, for the readers of this newspaper this week is: Are you for or against mandatory government allocations as a means of securing a fair share of critical materials for small and independent businesses? (At present, critical materials are being allocated on a "voluntary basis", without strict government controls.)

Here are presented the pro's and con's on the question:

PRO: Our allocations program has broken down. Small and independent businessmen are going bankrupt because they can't secure materials needed for civilian and defense production. This is because the "voluntary" allocations program is being run by and for big business. Those in charge of the program don't consider the importance of independents to our nation. This isn't new. The same "voluntary" allocations program was tried before the last war. It failed miserably. Corrections were not made until the government stepped in with strict mandatory allocations.

CON: The present allocations system has produced the defense materials needed by our nation. Thus it has achieved its objective. If some small and independent firms have been injured, they must remember this is a time of emergency and some must expect sacrifice of business as usual. The trouble is that small businessmen think themselves specially privileged, desire consideration far beyond that shown all others. It is a mistake to ask the government to come into the picture further, for that only promotes the socialism we are fighting abroad.

Letters To The Editor

This newspaper invites letters from its readers on subjects of timely interest. All letters, however, must be not more than 400 words in length and all must be signed by the writer. The writer's name will be omitted if requested.

"I Will Fade Away"
(Gen. MacArthur)

This letter is addressed to those who declare the above statement was spoken for sentimental reasons only:

No place under the shining sun would one rather live today than in the United States of America. It is worth fighting for, living for and worth doing, the things that are really great.

We pay tribute to Gen. Douglas MacArthur for we too believe in Democracy, Freedom and Peace.

The address of the General reverberates the ending of Abraham Lincoln's second inaugural address, when he said:

"With malice toward none, charity for all, and with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in."

When the great hero of Bataan, General Douglas MacArthur, gave the climax of his speech, saying, "I now close my military career and just fade away," again I trace the words of a great man who spoke the following words more than 2000 years ago in the Book of all Books, "And we all do fade as a leaf" (Isaiah 64:6).

Not only shall the general fade but all shall do likewise.

It is believed the fragrance of a crushed faded rose is far sweeter than any other.

In behalf of our beloved General MacArthur may we repeat the words of Plutarch:

"The measure of man's life is the well spending of it, and not the length."

May this be our motto: It matters not the length of life, but how well we live it for God and Eternity with conscience free.

(Miss) Marion Embleton

The statement that money is the root of all evil is frequently heard. In I Tim. 6:10 is found all of the quotation. "Quote, "The love of money is the root of all evil."

Love of money leads to covetousness, covetousness to selfishness, selfishness to greed, and greed to embezzlement, fraud and corruption.

To gain some desired position, politicians have used public funds to buy their way into office.

To attain and maintain social standing, socialites have lived beyond their income and has led to embezzlement.

To gain something without working for it, gangsters, gamblers and racketeers have resorted to lawbreaking.

In our complex way of life people having common interests have formed themselves into groups for mutual benefit.

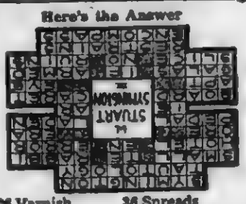
This practice had led to the formation of labor unions, business men's associations, farmers co-operatives, corporations, etc.

Out of this group formation has developed a spirit of group selfishness. In short a spirit of, "I'll get mine while getting is good, no matter how it affects the other fellow."

Each group has a sizable block of votes. To gain their support politicians play favoritism. Through favoritisms politicians seek to prolong their tenure in office and people grasp the opportunity to enhance personal selfish financial gain. To accept favoritisms is as bad as to give them.

It is not only surprising, but astounding, to note how far some people will go for financial and personal gain. In the final analysis, it is a form of gambling under the guise of respectability. If it is not immoral, at least it is unmoral and tends to lower the standard of living.

When the love of money becomes the God of the people, the nation in which they live is doomed.



"Thou shalt have no other God before me." J. A. Downey.

Jim Smith Hurls Five-Hitter To Stop St. Charles 5 to 4

By Dave Miller

West's Jim Smith hurled a neat five-hitter at St. Charles last Wednesday, enough to defeat the Carolians, 5 to 4, on the West lot.

However, "Bing" Reeves took the spotlight from Smith as his two-run single in the fifth produced the game's winning tallies.

St. Charles got off to a quick start, gathering all four of their tallies in the initial two frames. They collected an unearned one in the first.

Smith walked the initial two men and hit the next one to load the sacks with none away. However, he fanned Bob Burke, and forced a runner at home on a grounder back to the mound.

Then Bob Knipfer was caught in a "hot-box" by Smith off second, but Sherran scored for the East Broad Streeters before the relay could be made on the inning-ending out.

In the second, two singles (one a two-run bingle by Jerry Spiers), an error, wild pitch, and two walks brought home three for St. Charles to allow them a 4-0 bulge.

However, West started to go in the second with two runs on three walks, two errors, and singles by Ed Gleibs and Al Shade.

The cincher came in the fifth. Mo Dobbs was off with a walk and Gleibs was hit by a pitched ball. Shade grounded out for the second out, and John Chesher walked to load the bases.

A passed ball scored Dobbs, and a walk to Smith again filled the bags. However, Reeves came through with a line single through the box to plate the winning two tallies.

The season is nearing the end now. There are approximately two more weeks of league play as of Apr. 27.

Herb Awe connected for a 247 game. Homer Ranney with 595 paced Schroeck's Sinclair to 975-2784. Johnny Murnane had a 240 as Fred Wolf tallied 607.

Floyd McCoy shot 237-561 as Schmelzer Bar took team honors with 909-2553. Bill Kirby hit for 224-582 for Ross Hansel. Francis & Stinson had a 932 game but relinquished team totals to Yoder's with 2604. Chuck Ditrick had 219-567 in the Commercial. Lockhart Grill had 927-2555.

Mary Cooley had a 220-521 as Martin's Market had 790-2186. Marian Ferguson with 180-525 paced West Side Motors to 813-2313. Lorene Kelso had 193-500 to pace Corner Cafe to 800-2352.

Upper right—First-sacker Mo Dobbs takes a hefty cut at one of Bob Gardell's slow balls in the North game won by West, 5-4. The catcher is Jack Timmons of North.

SPORT SLANTS

By Dave Miller

Quite a few followers of West's baseball squad were disappointed last Friday afternoon, not only because the Cowboys suffered a heart-breaking 1-0 loss to their arch rivals, Linden McKinley, but because the Cowboys didn't employ much strategy.

First of all, in a game with an outcome such as this, that word "if" is mighty big. Coach George Williams was criticized on some major points following the game—mostly by the old-timers who sat in on the game.

On one occasion, this group points out, West loaded the bases in the fourth inning and nobody down. Coach Williams with his No. 5 hitter (Ted Fladt) up there, permitted him to hit away, and he forced the run at the plate.

The sixth hitter, Bob Thornton, bounced into an inning ending double play which cut short the Cowboy rally.

Now, if those fans in the West stands found something to criticize a coach about in that turn of events, let's have it. What coach in his right mind would squeeze with his No. 8 and 6 hitters up there? Any ball out of the infield would've scored a run, but that's seemingly the breaks of the game.

Remember that Linden's lone score came on a beautiful strategy note. Larry Porter singled, and the No. 8 hitter, Paul Burns sacrificed him, but a wild pitch and passed ball in consecutive order quickly scored him.

• • •

The baseballers were scheduled to be mighty busy fellows the initial part of this week. Monday, they played at Arlington against Worthington in their district opener; Tuesday, hosted to Central in the City League; Wednesday, if winners Monday, at Grandview against Arlington.

Friday, if winners in their initial two tournament frays, they play at OSU.

West's tracksters took quite a beating last Tuesday, dropping a 101-17 match to a power-packed Marion Harding squad.

The Presidents, with 13 or 14 seniors dominating the squad, swept all firsts with the exceptions of the broad jump, won by West's Ken Hallam at 19 feet; and a tie in the pole vault event, with Hallam going at 10 ft. 4 in. Ken had to stop after injury to his leg in a rather faulty sand pit.

• • •

The golf squad again tied at 8-up this time with Grandview Apr. 23, at Brookside Golf Course.

Guido DePaul with 89 and Jerry Arlowe, "Kid" Bryant with 117 each had four points for West as Bob Shivers' 85 and Jim McCarty's 126 rounded out the field.

• • •

Tim Carney, an OSU student in physical education, is currently coaching the junior high track team, who, according to Senior High Coach Rufe Glass has one of the finest teams, defending last year's title. The City Junior High meet will again be held at Magly Field this season.

• • •

West Junior's baseball squad were scheduled to play Starling Tuesday at State Hospital Field in their second loop contest of the year.

The defending junior high champs lost their opener Apr. 24 against Mound, 5 to 3, at West. West hurler, Jim Kimball, had one bad inning—the third—when he walked six batters in facing 11 men in the frame in which Mound got all of their tallies.

Aside from this inning, Kimball set the Mound batsmen down in 1-2-3 order. West got only three hits (same number as mound) doubles by Jim Vincent and Jim Kimball and a one-bagger by Larry Nafzger. These hits surrounded by a two-base error by Mound in the third scored West's tallies.

• • •

The 1951 annual at West is scheduled to soon be released, and, in our book, it's the best ever. Of course, this is said every year, but the book this year is really a beauty.

It will have twice as many pictures as in previous annuals, and its sports section is really something to be proud of. All sports, football, track, basketball, baseball, golf, swimming, etc. will have, as in previous years, a summary and formal picture of the year's teams.

However, this year, in addition, will be a large assortment of action shots—one in each game in the major sports.

Thanks should go to faculty advisor Thelma R. Knerr, and editor-in-chief, Alice Wilson, in addition to photographers, J. Curtis Allen and Gene Roberts.

• • •

Incidentally, Gene Roberts is a guy that gets around quite frequently at West. All the school paper photographs can be credited to him.

• • •

Mark Stephans, without a doubt the best amateur coach in this vicinity, is making plans again this year for the coming of the Saturday and Sunday Afternoon Amateur Leagues this year. In addition, Mark again hopes to coach the Green Cabs baseball squad as well as knothole nines.

Several outstanding ball players have come up under Mark's direction into pro-baseball at present, like Phil Young, John Hayes, and Bob Parker, to mention only a few.

He's a swell coach as well as fellow, and we wish him the best of luck.

• • •

Real oddity: Umpire Jerry Fox, who umpired the West-McKinley game last Friday, brought three fairly new baseballs with him, and as West Coach George Williams approached before the game, Fox tossed the balls over to Williams, and said: "Take 'em, they're yours."

It so happened that Fox umpired the West-McKinley game last spring at West—the last game of the year—after the tilt was called in the fifth because of rain. Williams had forgotten the baseballs—but Fox hadn't.

There's an honest umpire in the world.

What a ball game West and East had Apr. 24 at East. Through deadline differences we were unable to inform you on the game, but here's the story in a nutshell.

West got three runs in the first frame on three walks, a passed ball, and an error. Seventeen men went to bat against three different Tiger hurlers in the second frame as the Cowboys sent 11 of those men across.

They scored on two doubles (Dobbs and Gleibs), a single (Thornton), and nine walks sandwiched around two wild pitches and another error. West, seemingly having the game in the bag, with Ted Fladt hurling no-hit ball in the initial two frames, hit a snag in the third.

East came through with seven in the third, and two more off reliefer, Bill South, in the next inning. The game quieted down after that, each team getting three runs in the seventh.

Pitching Duel Features West Linden Fray

By Dave Miller

Linden McKinley's age-old jinx over West continued to dominate last Friday as the Panthers barely edged the stubborn Broncs, 1-to 0, on the West diamond.

The Panthers, who have lost to the Cowboys only twice in the past four years, defeated West on an unearned tally in the fifth inning, but not without a few scares by West.

West's "Hooker" Fladt and Linden's "Schoonie" Troutman hooked up in a sterling pitcher's battle for three and one-half innings until West loaded the sacks with no one out in the fourth.

Dwight Reynolds led off with an infield blow, and advanced to second on a throwing error. Russ Friend, attempting to sacrifice, was safe at first on Bob Dover's error.

Troutman walked Mo Dobbs, West's slugger, intentionally. Ted Fladt then hit to second baseman Dover, who threw home, forcing Reynolds, and Bob Thornton bounced back to Troutman, who turned it into an inning ending twin-killing (Troutman to Catcher Harold Hines to first baseman Paul Burns).

McKinley's lone score came in the top of the fifth. Centerfielder Larry Porter led off with a line single to left, and was sacrificed to second, advancing to third on a wild pitch. Here, Fladt fanned Bob Reid for the second out, and had two strikes and no balls on Dover, when a waste pitch got away from the catcher and Porter scored, sliding under the tag.

Aside from Reynolds' infield hit in the fourth, West collected only two more bingles. Mo Dobbs got a clean one to left-center in the second, but was thrown out (Vannett-Dover) trying to go for a double. Fladt followed with a single to right, and that was all.

The two pitchers put on an exhibition. Fladt looked the most impressive, striking out 10 and walking only one. However, Troutman, the winner, fanned eight and passed one, hitting one in the seventh (Al Shade). Each team left six men on the base paths.

Goble Cannon, 1105 Hebert St., St. Louis, Mo., says in this day and age it doesn't matter how old you are—it is how young you feel. Mr. Cannon says he's seen a lot of these young, high powered fellows just burn themselves out, while folks that know how to live never seemed to get old. Mr. Cannon says that since he has been taking HADACOL he feels as spry as a 16-year-old.

Here is what Mr. Cannon said about Hadacol when he heard how Hadacol was helping people suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron. "My job as crossing watchman for the Wabash Railroad keeps me in one place and I don't have a chance to get much exercise. I seem to get gas on my stomach and then I lose my appetite. Many times I have had nervous spells and been unable to sleep at night. Then one day I heard how other folks were being helped by HADACOL. Now the gas on my stomach has vanished, my appetite is first rate and I get a good night's sleep. And those nervous spells? I very seldom have them any more at all. I think HADACOL is mighty fine—just look what it has done for me."

The most important thing about HADACOL is that you get Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in liquid form, which means that they are quickly absorbed and dispatched to the blood stream, ready to go right to work. HADACOL helps build up blood (when iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every part of your body.

Remember

HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation — promising blessed relief for your indigestion, stomach distresses (gas, heartburn, sour "risings" after meals), as well as that general rundown condition and vague aches and pains when they are due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin in your system.

HADACOL is so amazingly successful because if your system lacks Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin it acts directly to relieve this deficiency—the real cause of your trouble. That's the kind of product you should buy—the kind you should start taking immediately.

Only One Genuine HADACOL

Don't go through life suffering those vague aches and pains if caused by such deficiencies when relief may be as close at hand as the nearest drugstore for sufferers from these deficiencies. Buy HADACOL today. Trial size bottle only $1.25. Large family or economy size $3.50. Refuse substitutes. There's only one true and genuine HADACOL.

How to Make Sliced Ham Go Farther

BY EDNA MILES

HERE'S a wonderfully delicious way of making sliced smoked ham go farther. Sliced pineapple, raisins and parsley all do their part in this new recipe.

Ham With Dressing

Two slices smoked ham, ½ inch thick (2 pounds), 9 slices pineapple, 30 whole cloves, parsley.

Dressing: 4 cups soft bread crumbs, ½ cup raisins, ¼ cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ cup melted butter

Mix bread crumbs, raisins, sugar and mustard together; pour butter evenly over mixture. Place one slice of ham in a three-quart heat-resistant glass utility dish. Spread dressing lightly over the slice. Top with second slice of ham. Stick cloves in the fat around edge. Cut one pineapple slice into wedges to make flower petals for the top of the ham. Place two pineapple slices, one on top of the other, in each corner of the dish. Bake for one hour in moderate oven, 325 degrees F. Garnish with parsley and serve.

The following recipes will add something new to your menus without running up the cost:

Spanish Potatoes

Saute 1 tablespoon minced onion, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, and 2 tablespoons of chopped pimiento in 4 tablespoons of oil or cooking fat until the mixture is light brown. Now add 1 cups of cold boiled, diced potatoes, and ½ cup of cold cooked ham, chopped. For seasoning, add ¼ teaspoon of paprika along with 1 teaspoon of salt. Cook the mixture until it is heated through.

Hash Pickle Puff Pie

(4 servings)

One-pound can corned-beef hash, 2 eggs, ½ teaspoon salt, freshly ground pepper, 2 teaspoons grated onion, 2 tablespoons chopped fresh cucumber pickles.

Empty corned-beef hash into bowl; mash thoroughly. Separate egg yolks from whites; beat yolks until light. Add yolks to hash mixture and season with salt, pepper, onion and pickles. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into hash mixture. Put mixture into 8-inch piepan and bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 30 minutes, or until brown. Cut into wedges. Serve with tomato sauce.

Tomato Sauce: In a small saucepan, combine an 8-ounce can tomato sauce, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and ⅛ teaspoon celery salt. Heat and serve in a small bowl.

Murder Probe Stalemated

The probe of the brutal murder of Mrs. Ruth Alter, 360 N. Sylvan-av, is progressing slowly. "We don't have a thing definite," Sheriff Ralph J. Paul declared.

In the past eight days since the murdered woman's husband, Russell V. Alter, railroad fireman and special deputy, and his mother and father found the Hilltop woman several suspects have been held and grilled.

A team of city detectives and sheriff's deputies have been assigned to the investigation. The probers, directed by Sheriff Paul and Chief of Detectives Clem R. Owens, are covering downtown shops in an attempt to determine the type of garment worn by the killer.

Sheriff's deputies James Potts and Robert Neds are assigned to full-time investigation of the slaying and the police homicide squad was detailed to the murder.

Madeline Baker, detective, has replaced Ned in a canvass of stores to find the type of clothing worn by the murderer. Clues for the investigations are two buttons found near Mrs. Alter's body, which are believed to have come from a woman's coat, earlier my owned by Mrs. Alter.

Several tips have been furnished by local residents, "all of which are being investigated by the sheriff's office," Paul declared.

Students Of All Ages Get Care At The Columbus State School

By "Pat" Martindale

During the past weeks this series has described activities in educational, occupational and recreational therapy at the Columbus State School. It has told of students who can be taught to some degree.

The school also cares for children who cannot be qualified as students inasmuch as they do not have enough mentality to grasp knowledge. These children, regardless of age remain infants. Although their bodies grow, they are not capable of attending to any of their needs. Many of them never leave their beds.

The efficient care given children in the baby cottage is indeed remarkable. It would be impossible for any individual home to supply such care. Nurses in charge are on constant vigil day and night. Each of these helpless little humans is bathed, dressed, and fed regularly. Each of their personal needs are taken care of without delay. In spite of the fact that they will never be cured to any extent, medical attention is regularly administered. Regardless of the terrific care nurses have on their hands they manage to keep the beds and rooms immaculately clean.

These little souls who do not know good from bad, clean from dirty or right from wrong, seem to have a feeling of contentment. Although they cannot express themselves, their gratitude and love for their nurses seems to show in their eyes.

In the little girls cottage where, regardless of age the students remain little girls mentally, the motherly nurses do an excellent job of caring for their wards. In this cottage students can be taught to take care of their personal needs, simple games and tasks. Like all little children they have pleasant dispositions and are easily pacified. They are content to play with dolls and at other childish games.

The little boys cottage is much the same except they like boyish toys and games. Both the boys' and girls' cottages are kept in the same atmosphere as that of any private home. The students are not confined to one room but are permitted to go into any room at their leisure.

Many of these students are capable of attending school several hours a day. They are taught by a therapeutic system and by forming habits. Their mental grade being that of a seven-year-old at the highest, they will never be capable of learning a trade or trusted to be without constant guidance. Students of this character need sympathy and understanding attention but not over-indulgence. They must be disciplined much like other children.

The Columbus State School has truly found that the mentally handicapped are more like other people than not, that they need a good program of social guidance and most of all need to be remembered not as a problem but as "the least of these."

Displays Coin Collection

Pat Martindale points to the smallest coin in his collection, minted in Great Britain in 1853. He is displaying his collection in celebration of National Coin Week.

Collecting money isn't an unusual vocation these days, but as an avocaton it is unusual, especially when the extensive coin collection is held by a high school boy.

One of the outstanding numismatists in Columbus is Patrick Martindale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Martindale, 88 Clarendon-av. Pat, a student at Aquinas High School, became interested in collecting coins when his uncle, Howard C. Ingles, offered his collection to the youngster, if Pat could collect as many rare coins as he had in his collection.

Pat set to work a little over a year ago, matched his collection with his uncle's and consequently his collection was doubled.

One of his oldest coins is a Spanish piece about the size of an American half-dollar. It was minted in 1787, the same year in which the Constitution of the United States was framed and adopted at the Constitutional Convention, and also the year of the passage of the Ordinance of 1787, creating the Northwest Territory, part of which was the present state of Ohio.

The smallest coin in his group is an 1813 English coin and only slightly larger is an American half-dime minted in 1853. The largest coin that Pat owns is a New Brunswick piece about the size of a silver dollar. Its exchange value is one-half cent.

The oldest U. S. coin that Pat exhibits is a dime that was struck off 101 years ago.

In the collection are coins from England, Canada, the Belgian Congo, the Philippines, Italy, Belgium, Cuba, Russia, Japan, Puerto Rico, Mexico, New Zealand, India, Spain, Rumania, Hong Kong, France, China and Arabia.

Among the outstanding foreign coins that are in Pat's collection are a square 1917 German coin and a square 1918 Indian coin.

About the most worthless foreign coin, in face value, is a French franc. The franc is worth less than 20 cents on the open market.

One coin, whose origin Pat has not been able to "track down", bears a portrait of a soldier on one side and the Lord's Prayer on the other. It is about the size of a dime.

Pat has exhibited his collection at the Ohio State Fair and last year he was interviewed over the air during National Coin Week.

Starling's school library has bought about 80 new books this semester.

There is a group of books on teen-age problems. "Teen Age Blues" by Frankel, and "How to be Happy Though Young" by Lawton.

Some other interesting books are: "Sparrow Hawk" by Meredel Seieur. "The First Transcontinental Railroad" by Adele Nathan; "No Road Too Long," by Hawthorne. "Jinks of Jayson Valley" by F. E. Redhnitzer, "Smeller Mayin" by Robert Lawson, "Skid" by Florence Hayes, and "Partners, United Nations and Youth" by Eleanor Roosevelt.

The library also purchased new magazine covers. These were obtained with the money saved from the fines on overdue books.

EVERETT DEFEATS STARLING
By Roger Hersh

Bernard "Whiz" Deem and Don Fluor led Starling's hittings with five hits each. Starling committed six errors.

West Seniors Present Class Play "One Foot In Heaven"

"One Foot in Heaven," a play based on an outstanding motion picture, will be presented May 4, at 8 o'clock in the West High auditorium by the seniors.

Admission to the play will be 40 cents for general admission and 60 cents for reserved seats.

The Reverend Seeks Improvement

The play opens when Reverend Spence and his family walk into a rundown dilapidated parsonage. In this town he finds the church building starting to disintegrate, the congregation split into warring factions, and a rivalry among the choir.

The children, Hartsell and Eileen, are introduced to a football player and his sister, which sets the scene for a romance. These uproarious complications make even more difficulties for the Reverend.

His struggle to build a new church, organize a new choir, and crush intolerance leads to a pitched battle between him and the town folks. The surprising conclusion will ring down the curtain on an inspiring, yet laugh-packed, evening of entertainment.

The Stars Present

Mrs. Evelyn Hall, dramatics teacher, is assigning many other students to the different committees that are important in making the play a success.

Something Different

Mrs. Hall commented, "'One Foot in Heaven' is that something different for which people are always looking when selecting plays for production."

Bob Johnson will play the Hammond organ during the play.

Communications

cessfully passed their fire fighting exams in a special course offered at Ohio State University, taught by Fire Chief Walter Lauder.

But the San Margarita volunteers are completing training and will join the group in another week. Briggsdale's fire fighters are only three weeks away from their examinations and so the township's "smoke-eaters" will be up to full strength in little over a month.

Two of the companies, San Margarita and Franklin, already have completed their fire stations, while bids will be opened for the construction of Briggsdale's station on May 10.

One of the first moves made to furnish better coordination between the companies was the installation of a modern communications board in the Franklin Heights (Central) Station. On the board are three trunk lines feeding into the central phone system and a direct line to the San Margarita Station.

With the direct line, Chief Moffitt can switch on the fire siren for the San Margarita company, if their station should be unmanned. All fire calls clear through the central communications board. (A direct line to the Briggsdalle Station will be installed after its completion.)

Beneath the board, a short wave receiver will be placed, through which the central station's men will be able to monitor all fire radio communications.

With the new equipment being furnished the firemen and the skill with which his men handle their work, Chief Moffitt, who acted as chief of the Dublin Fire Department for 12½ years, feels that the volunteers will soon "be ready for anything."

He pointed out that the potential of the county fire fighters association compares more than favorably with the city's equipment. The city has 26 pumpers, the county 38; the city boasts eight aerial trucks and the county has one; the city employs 480 men and the county has over 500 volunteers to protect their community's property.

One Killed In Highland-av Accidents

Accidents at Highland-av intersections this past week-end claimed the life of one and caused injuries to a family of four.

Willard E. Stewart, 76, 380 Clarendon-av, was fatally injured Saturday night when he was struck by an auto driven by Theodore G. Todd, 320 Chestershire-rd, while crossing Sullivant-av at Highland-av.

Police said that Stewart was hit as he stepped from between two parked cars at the intersection. Todd was not held.

Services for Stewart were held Tuesday night in the Williams and McNabb Funeral Home. Burial was made in Flushing, O.

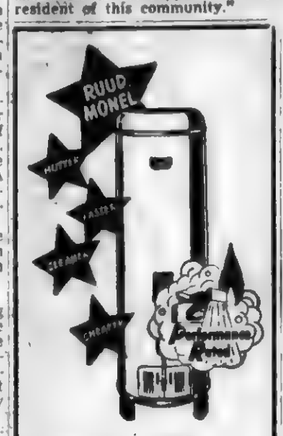
Survivors include his wife, Mae; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Jackson, Cleveland, and Mrs. Juanita Mason of the Clarendon-av address; three grandchildren and two sisters.

Only a few blocks distant a family of four was injured in an auto accident at Mound-st and Highland-av.

Lawrence Doddridge, 28, 2275 Whitehead-rd, his wife, Clara, 25, and their four-year-old twins, Pamela and Patrick, were cut and bruised when their car collided with an auto driven by Anton Jessberger, 49, 861 S. Wayne-av. Both the Doddridges and Jessberger suffered head injuries and were treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Suit Filed To Halt Rabies Vaccinations

A group of dog kennel owners filed a suit in Common Pleas Court Monday, seeking to halt the compulsory vaccination of dogs kept in kennels.



Seven kennel owners filed a taxpayers' suit attacking the legality of the county-wide dog immunization order, passed Feb. 27 by the County Board of Health. The order was passed to affect direct curbing action on the wide spreading epidemic of rabies in the county and western section of the city. The immunization order required anti-rabies shots for all dogs three months old or older.

The kennel owners declared in their suit that the regulation should not apply to dogs kept in kennels because they are in constant confinement and are under control. Further, they assert, that many of them are only kept in the county for a short period of time and that vaccination has never been proven as an effective control of rabies.

Hearing date on requested injunction has been set for May 17, to be heard before Judge Dana F. Reynolds.

The deadline for the vaccination of city dogs has been extended to Thursday, May 10.

Ralph Jacobs says, "I believe the Hilltop Y program is a good one and deserves the support of every resident of this community."

The Government Is My Shepherd

The Government is my shepherd.
I need not work.
It allows me to lie down on good jobs;
It leadeth me beside still factories.
It destroyeth my initiative;
It leadeth me in the paths of a parasite for politics sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of laziness and deficit spending, I will fear no evil, for the Government is with me.
Its doles and its vote getters they comfort me.
It prepareth an economic Utopia for me by appropriating the earnings of my grandchildren.
It filleth my head with false security; my inefficiency runneth over.
Surely the Government shall care for me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in a fool's paradise forever.

Hilltop Mother Committed After Maiming Attempt

A 25-year-old Hilltop mother of three was committed to the Columbus State Hospital Tuesday, after she tried to burn her three and one-half month old son to death in a trash can on Monday near a Hilltop church.

The N. Eureka-av woman threw her infant son into a trash can and then ignited some papers around him. Then she cut off the thumb of another son, aged six. She told police that she did the acts "to combat evil."

Fire Department emergency squadmen took the baby to Children's Hospital where his condition is reported as "not serious." Attendants report that the infant received second degree burns on his left foot and leg, and first degree burns on his face and arms.

The six-year-old was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for his amputated thumb.

"Here's to success for the Hilltop Y membership drive on Sunday," says Curtis Roberts.

68 Years Old, Yet Now Climbs 155 Feet to Work on Scaffold

HADACOL Relieves the Cause of Nervousness and Weakness When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Seems like more and more folks are finding out every day that they have to keep themselves in tip-top condition to really stay on the ball as far as doing a good job is concerned. Mr. John L. Napier, Route 1, Moselle, Mississippi, certainly found out that aches and pains, weakness and nervousness were interfering with his work as a bricklayer and carpenter.

But Mr. Napier heard how HADACOL was helping folks with such conditions that may have been due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin.

Here are his own words: "Before taking HADACOL, I was suffering with aches and pains for awhile. Then, came the time when I was weak and nervous. I am a carpenter and bricklayer. I also run a farm. I kept feeling bad and getting worse. Then I heard about HADACOL and immediately began taking it. After taking only one bottle, when I retired at 9 P.M. I would fall asleep immediately. After the third bottle I went back to work, carpentering and laying bricks. Now, I climb as high as 155 feet and work all day on a scaffold. I have never felt so well in many years. I am 68 years of age. And, when there is no carpenter or brick work to do, I work on my farm, planting and harvesting my crops. Thanks to HADACOL."

There's a clue that may help you, if you are suffering from a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Why continue to suffer . . . why experiment . . . why let your distress drag you farther and farther down? For it is these very Vitamins and Minerals you may need that HADACOL supplies in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And this marvelous formula contains helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too.

HADACOL builds up the hemoglobin content of the blood (when Iron is needed) to send these elements coursing, surging, throughout your body, to every body organ. Already dissolved, in a special liquid form, the elements are absorbed quickly and easily in your system. Carries a strict money-back guarantee.

West Broad St. School News

SPELLING
By Beverly Bowshier and Dick Glass

The West Broad Street School spelling contest was held on Apr. 13, 1951. There were 18 contestants from two sixth grade classes. Miss Stuart, the school principal, gave 50 words. The result was five contestants tied for first.

Following that, these two were given another test of 20 words. The winner of that was school champion. She was Beverly Bowshier. The runner-up was Dick Glass.

The next test was given at Central High School on Saturday, Apr. 21, 1951.

OUR DENTAL UNIT
By Gary Teque

On Thursday, Apr. 19, room 201 of West Broad had a visitor from Heyl Avenue School. His name was Mr. Kelch. Mr. Kelch came to our room to see our dental unit. The children of room 201 have worked very hard in preparing the dental unit. They did a great deal of research work about our teeth.

A study of the structure, the uses and the proper care of the teeth was made. Everyone took part in the unit. Our interlocutor was Betty Carson. We ended our program with a dental song. We composed the lyrics.

OUR TRIP TO THE ART GALLERY

On Apr. 16, the children of rooms 206 and 201 went on a trip to the Art Gallery.

The tour was very interesting. The first room we visited was called "The George Bellow's Room." George Bellow was one of Ohio's most famous contemporary artists. His paintings were beautiful, especially the one portrait of his mother.

SECOND ROOM
By Steve Parks

At the second room we visited we saw paintings from the Renaissance Period. This was the period when people began to think for themselves. Their main interest was religion. Therefore most of the paintings were of characters from the Bible. One example was "The Sistine Madonna" by Raphael.

TREASURE CHESTS
By Becky Lowe

I was impressed most by the marriage chests. They were covered with beautiful carvings. The wealthy girls kept their treasures in them. They were similar to the modern girl's hope chest of today.

SCULPTURING
By Jimmy Apel

The third part of our visit was a study of Egyptian and Grecian sculpturing. There was a statue of a hawk which is 3000 years old.

The Egyptians were noted for making their figures out of a material with an iron base which is is long lasting. The Grecians loved beauty. Their statues were mostly of strong people.

FLOWERS
By Judy Hawthorne

The last part of our tour was to see beautiful and unusual flower arrangements. Then we saw oil paintings of flowers.

We were sorry when our time was up and our tour had to end.

Hotel Man Tells About The Smartest Move He Ever Made

It certainly gives you an awful sinking feeling to wake up and discover you're losing interest in your work and in life in general. That's enough to make anyone start worrying, and that's exactly what happened to Tommy Allen, Hotel Peabody, Memphis, Tennessee. But he acted quickly, got himself back on the track in a hurry, when he heard how HADACOL was helping folks who were rundown due to a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin.

The wonderful results prompted him to write us a letter about his experience. Here's what he had to say: "I am a young man twenty-nine years old and have been engaged in hotel work for the past four years. I had no appetite and was losing weight. I was constantly sick at my stomach and nothing I ate agreed with me. After eating, my stomach would become bloated and feel uncomfortable. My condition was so bad that I began to lose interest in my work and life in general. I kept hearing about HADACOL and I decided to try it. Believe me that was the smartest move I ever made. After taking two or three bottles, I began to feel better and now after taking HADACOL for two months I feel fine. No more am I tortured with stomach distresses. Truly I can't begin to tell enough about HADACOL. I intend to keep on taking it for a long time."

Thousands have found real help, real hope for tomorrow, by relieving the cause of their sickness when due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, with today's great HADACOL.

These precious elements are supplied in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And HADACOL provides helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too. They're all in a special, liquid form, already dissolved for quick, easy, absorption in the system.

Policeman Back In The Pink Again —Says He's The "Kilroy of Old"

HADACOL Relieves Lack of Energy When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

It takes a good man, a man that's really up and at 'em, to help keep an eye on one of the world's largest office buildings. So when Jimmy Kilroy, 1153 Belden Ave., Chicago, Ill., found himself below par . . . in a sluggish rundown condition . . . he turned to today's great HADACOL. He'd heard how this wonderful formula corrected the real cause of such troubles when due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. As a result, he's back in shape again, loaded with energy and enthusiasm.

Here's what Mr. Kilroy has to say. "A few lines to tell you the great things your HADACOL has done for me. As a prize fighter and now as policeman assigned to one of the world's largest office buildings, I have always had to be in the best of shape. A month ago I found I was in a rundown condition, lacking energy, always tired and sluggish. And a young man one day said at one time he was this same. Advised me to buy a bottle of HADACOL, which I did. After two bottles, started feeling like myself and from there on I got new energy. Have been working in the gym 1 hour daily and everyone tells me how great I look and act. It really is a great product and I will always keep taking it. I feel like the Kilroy of old."

There's just no doubting an honest, sincere statement like that. Surely there is no need to be a burden to yourself, to your friends, or to your family, if you are suffering from such troubles due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL supplies more than the minimum daily requirements of these elements plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium. It really goes to work to build good red blood, better hemoglobin, (when Iron is needed) to make sure that the precious Vitamins and Minerals are sped to every part of the body, to every body organ. HADACOL is quickly absorbed in your system because its important elements are already dissolved in a special liquid form that's easy to take.

Music To Feature Kiwanis Meeting

Music will feature the Hilltop Kiwanis meeting this Thursday. The music committee has charge of the meeting and will present an all musical program. W. Haydn Jones, chairman, will be in charge of the program, which will include vocal and instrumental selections.

Marilyn Ring will present a group of soprano solos which will include an arrangement of "Without a Song." Bob Johnson of West High School will also entertain the Kiwanians with a group of piano selections.

One of the features of the program will be the appearance of the famed girls' trio from West High School. Ann Cockfield, Donna Theisen and Onda McPherson. This group has made quite a name for itself since its debut more than a year ago, singing regularly on the Junior Achievement Tele-Teen TV show over WBNS-TV.

In addition to the talent mentioned above, there will be surprise numbers and group singing by the club.

In Passing

by ESTHER WEAKLEY

There is no refuge from the heart's demand;
Its loud, insistent clamors never cease.
There is no moment's truce, no time of peace;
Not hour when quiet takes complete command.
Yet, it forever holds the tempting dream
Of an Elysian vale, beyond the hill;
But it betrays, for it is never still,
Nor free from wild and turbulent extreme.
There is no sanctuary, no retreat
Where we may go, except the heart must go,
Its splendors we must share, and share its woe;
Its victories are ours, and its defeat.
But though the world is ours—and it is wide—
There is no smallest place where we can hide.

Miss Irene Parthemer, the beloved Columbus shutin mentioned last week, sent this poem which she wrote herself:

MY FRIEND

The hours, the days, are not so long;
The world seems brighter, too,
Because God was kind enough to give
A friend to me, like you.

Telling anyone in central Ohio that Ben Hayes is a columnist on The Columbus Citizen is about like telling a Columbusite that there's a Broad-and-High. What everyone might not know is that he was with the Associated Press in New York in 1941 and with Ohio State Journal before going to The Citizen, ten years ago. Mark Twain or somebody said the first time he saw a giraffe, "I don't believe it—there ain't no such animal." Once I thought there ain't no such animal as a columnist who comes straight out and admits his stuff is corny, but that was before I talked with Ben Hayes. Some of the reasons why his "Around Columbus" is so popular is that he is kind and never smart-alecky; he writes about simple, familiar things and doesn't use words that have to be looked up. He laughs with his readers and not at them. He has an earthy and often subtle sense of humor. People need to laugh and they love to do their laughing with Ben, and sometimes do their remembering with him. He says the cornier he is, the more mail he receives. He spends a lot of time on research so he can write accurately about "a number of things." I hope nobody missed his recent columns on toothache cures and toothpicks. They were amazing and enlightening. He thinks people should relax and wants his column to be an escape—a sort of rockingchair corner. It is. His readers never could complain of no variety, for "Around Columbus" is a happy combination of letter-from-home, paper-on-current-events,read-before-the-Literary Society, gentle-sermon-heard-long-ago-in-a-little-white-church; earthy jokes; un-earthy observations by one Joe Spook; contests, and good words about good people. As everyone knows, Ben is Mayor of Laramie (Ohio). He and Mrs. Hayes, who is also a writer and a good one, have two children—Chris and David, and if I may misquote Mother Goose, they all live together in the famous little gray house in Laramie.

Lin Yutang once proposed a League of Laughter to replace the League of Nations. He said that humor is the highest kind of intelligence. Somebody else said that when liberty is dead, laughter dies too. That must be why there are no Arthur Godfreys, Bob Hopes or Uncle Milties in Russia. Some of the people in Lin Lutang's country are not very funny either.

When we leave the main highway to follow a dirt road to find out where it goes, we usually find ourselves in somebody's barnyard with somebody's dog barking furiously at us. Then, as every wife knows, the driver of the family bus takes advantage of something new to gripe about—and gripes. You know the opening line: "You and your fancy ideas!"

• • •

Just wondering—if anyone ever climbs that path that goes straight up to the sky on the hill in New Boston . . . if all the little roads heading for the river from Route 52 between Ironton and Portsmouth ever reach it . . . who lives in those fascinating old houses in Haverhill.

Saturday the ART PERKINS got in their car and started off to get their groceries and they only had 15 minutes left before closing time, and "bang" a loud report came from the rear tire. It ended that the PERKINS' borrowed some fruit and eggs for Sunday, and ROSE, his wife, was taken out for the evening meal. She'll want to do that more often, won't she?

DO YOU HAVE AN UNUSED FLAG?
If you have why not present it to a cemetery that has a section dedicated to the burial of soldiers and their families?
This would be a fitting memorial to a departed soldier.
Flags do not last long when flown every day.
Sunset Cemetery has two veteran sections. One for the burial of veterans of any war and the other for Spanish War veterans. Their families may be buried with them on these sections.

Long years of service to the church were remembered Sunday, Apr. 29, at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church with "Jane's Day" being observed by members of the congregation. Occasion for the observance was the resignation as church secretary, by Mrs. Henry Jones, 60 Powhatan-av, superintendent of the Junior Sunday School Department.

Jane, as she is more familiarly known to members of the Hoge congregation, decided that a rest was in order after 24 years of work with the church, and that it was also time for some one else to fill the niche she had occupied for nearly a quarter century.

Sunday services at Hoge Memorial were devoted to observance of "Jane's Day" honoring this gracious lady who had rendered such yeoman service to her church. Presented a gift from the church by Dr. M. K. Weber, Mrs. Jones recalled that she had served with Rev. H. C. Hutchison, now deceased, and with the current pastor, Rev. A. J. Wold.

In relinquishing her post, Mrs. Jones said, "Although I may not be known as church secretary any longer I and my husband will both continue to do everything we can to promote and aid our church."

Enlistment Day Planned At Burgess EUB

Sunday, May 6, will be Enlistment Day and Sign-Up time for members at the Burgess Avenue EUB Church. The pastor, Rev. I. H. Lane, and Paul Wichterman, head steward, will work in conjunction with the giving out of information concerning the year's proposed budget. Pledge cards will be at the congregation's disposal. Dale Baughman will assist in the distribution of the envelopes to various families desiring them.

Sunday evening at 6:30 Bill Hughes will be the leader at the Youth Fellowship hour. A stewardship emphasis will also be stressed in that meeting.

Election of church officials will take place in the Monday night church council meeting. For the past six Wednesday nights a Bible study class has been conducted during the prayer meeting hour.

Friday night the church will be represented at the one-night Christian Education convention at the Avondale EUB Church.

Bible Comment:

Spring Is a Revelation of God's Majesty

ONCE a year a miracle happens called spring.

It bursts upon earth like a hymn and all of creation seems to stand and move its lips. But, like all miracles, spring is not easily explained.

The earth's awakening is at once mysterious and symbolic. Conquering death in a glorious struggle, spring brings the resurrection to mind.

At the same time, it recalls the book of Genesis. "And the earth brought forth grass, and herb . . ."

It is the earth singing a song so new it inspires wonderment in everyone of us, yet a song that overwhelmed the senses of the ancients centuries ago in Canaan, Palestine and the other Biblical countries.

All that is spring, from the smallest bud to a sky-sized sunset, declares the glorious mystery of God and his divine creations.

Wild flowers transform stony crags into muted masses of color and the blossoming dogwood's petals of white mirror the innocence of the Christ child born in Bethlehem.

Filled with wonderment at the beauty with which earth sheds her winter chrysalis, man might well find the secret of spring explained in the opening words of Psalm 97, "The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice."

And man might offer up a prayer that the lightnings of spring serve to enlighten a war-torn world and restore to it the fragile blooms that grace the crown of peace.

What's Wrong with this picture?

Suppose you heard this orchestra broadcasting over your radio. Would you stay "tuned in" very long?

The chances are you wouldn't—because something's mighty wrong with this picture. Look at it again.

This orchestra only contains violins!

Ninety violinists—no matter how good they are—don't make an orchestra. This group needs other instruments: horns, woodwinds, drums—to make it a worthwhile combination. With them, this might be one of the finest orchestras on the air.

Now, let's look at a church that has only one type of person in its membership. What kind of a church would it be? You have the answer without it being given here.

Your church is a good church because there is a variety of membership from all walks and stations of life. This diversified membership gives your church a broad outlook, a tolerance, and a practical viewpoint that makes it one of the most valuable institutions in the community. You are important to your church just as your church is important to you: by taking part in the life of your church, you can increase its effectiveness in making the word of God come true in our time.

How amiable are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!—Ps. 84:1.

Enthusiasm for Y Is Growing Here

A new high in the enthusiasm for the Hilltop YMCA was evident last Sunday and since that time in reports that have come in from various volunteer workers who gave their time to the cause during the membership enrollment.

People of the community were generous in their response. The Y is deeply grateful for their fine support. Each year finds the number who support the program growing. Each year it is less of a selling job. More and more people are becoming acquainted with the fine work of the organization.

True enough, there was a shortage of workers available to cover the entire community last Sunday and numerous families were not contacted because they were not home on such a fine sunny spring day.

It is hoped that those who were not contacted and who have been members in previous years or those who still want to support this worthy project will do so by calling the Hilltop YMCA office, JO. 4641 and a worker will call at your convenience to pick up your membership or contribution to the building fund.

A fine community like the Hilltop deserves a fine YMCA facility. This dream will be realized if we will but keep our sights high.

To all who participated in the enrollment drive Sunday goes a hearty word of thanks. Such a spirit will make the dream come true.

Don Jackson will take up duties in County Treasurer Newton Thatcher's office on Monday . . . Thanks to Rev. Lane of Burgess UB for changing the time of his stewards meeting Sunday so his people could assist in the Y drive . . . Mrs. Mary Walton Is Named 'Mother of Year' By Kiwanis

Mrs. Mary Walton

Mrs. Mary Walton, 39 Eldon-av, mother of two, was honored today at the regular Hilltop Kiwanis Club meeting as the Hilltop's "Mother of the Year."

Mrs. Walton, wife of C. W. Walton, was cited as a community leader here for her outstanding work with young people, church and choral groups and in musical education.

The third mother to be so honored by Kiwanians, Mrs. Walton, the former Mary Riddle, was born on the Hilltop. She lived in the house on W. Broad-st, now occupied by Judge Cecil Randall, opposite the Columbus State Hospital. Her early memories of the Hilltop are of a rural community. Her home on Eldon-av now stands on what used to be part of an extensive pasture.

In 1907, she became the organist at the Glenwood Methodist Church. She remained in that capacity for twenty years, until she accepted the directorship of music at the church. She retired last summer from that position.

For the past 42 years she has instructed Hilltop children in piano artistry. She describes one of her greatest pleasures as "teaching the second generation, students who are children of men and women I taught as children."

On Aug. 28, 1915, Mrs. Walton was married. She has two children a boy and a girl. Her son, Charles, a veteran of 28 months in the Navy during World War II, recently received his PhD from Columbia University and is now acting as an instructor there in music education. Elizabeth, her daughter, is an instructor in the department of Fine Arts at Ohio State University.

Mrs. Walton describes her only hobby as musical direction, because I enjoy it so much that I certainly can't call it work."

Besides her 24 year tenure as musical director at the Glenwood Church, she is the former director of the West High School Mothersingers and the director of music for the Women's Welsh Club of Columbus and the Columbus and Franklin County Council of Church Women. She is a member of the Women's Music Club and the Central Ohio Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

The Kiwanis committee picking Mrs. Walton for "Mother of the Year" honors functioned under Chairman Wendell Glass and included Robert Cramer, Dr. C. O. Miller, Maj. Art Wert and Howard Lloyd.

Central Captures Hilltop Relays For Fifth Year

Central High School's flashy trackmen Tuesday night at West High School's Magly Field walked off with the Hilltop Relays title for the fifth consecutive year. The Pirate thinclads scored 109 points.

East was runner-up in the event with a 69; North 47 2/3; West 46; South 43 1/3 and Linden 4 points.

Stellar performance of Pirate Captain Bill Hairston in grabbing 18 points for individual scoring honors as well as setting two relay records in the broad and high jump accounted for Central's marked superiority.

Traffic Violators Draw Stiff Fines

A fine of $200 and costs plus a 30-day jail sentence was assessed Alfred Jones, 20, 3577 First-av, Urbancrest in the court of Franklin-twp Justice of the Peace William S. Brown, Saturday.

Jones was arrested by State Highway Patrolman S. J. Hobar, last Friday and found to be illegally operating a motor vehicle after his license had been revoked for a period of three years. Highway Patrolman Hobar said Jones license had been revoked in December 1949 when he was found guilty of driving a car while intoxicated.

The accused was committed to Franklin County jail on Saturday afternoon.

In another traffic case before Justice Brown, John Charrick, 21, of Plain City was fined $25 and costs of $13.05 on a charge of reckless operation of a motor vehicle on McKinley-av, near Harper-rd. Arrest of Charrick was made by Sheriff's Deputy Sgt. Stormont.

Lions Club Will Sponsor Sight Saving Week

The Hilltop Lions Club and the North Side Lions Club will jointly sponsor "Sight Saving Week" in Columbus and Franklin County May 14 through May 21. This will be the 13th such week sponsored by the Columbus Lions to raise funds to prevent loss of vision and aid those already blind.

The clubs will mail sight saving seals throughout the county. All funds raised through contributions will be used for work with the blind and for sight saving.

Mayor Rhodes has signed an official proclamation naming the eight-day period as Sight Saving Week for the city. George W. Schaal, president of the Hilltop Lions, will act as sight saving chairman for this area.

New 12-Lane Bowling Alleys Are Being Built

Although a building permit has not as yet been issued by the Columbus Building Commission, work was under way this week clearing and leveling grounds at 3440 W. Broad-st for the construction of a new 12-lane bowling alley for the Hilltop.

Owner and contractor for the new Hilltop bowling center is William E. Wright, 1722 Melrose-av, owner of Imperial Engravers at 2176 Cleveland-av. Architect for the new Hilltop structure is J. Upton Gribbin of 346 Glenmont-av.

Council Plans New $50,000 Park Locally

Legislation is currently being drafted by Columbus City Council for an appropriation of $50,000 to construct a new city park in the Hilltop area at Wilson-rd and Trabue-rd, according to information released today.

Work on the proposed park is expected to begin with the near future and be completed sometime in 1952.

City Hall attaches said today, that the new park when finally completed would be one of the most beautiful in Central Ohio, with complete facilities available for family and organizational picnics and outings. Area of the new park will cover an estimated 75-acre tract.

The newly proposed park is to be one of the over all improvement projects planned by Columbus Council under the guidance of Council President Henry Koontz.

Defense Plant Starts Housing Survey Locally

North American Aviation Corp. evidenced an interest in the Hilltop from the standpoint of housing facilities, as they assigned a special investigator to begin a housing survey of this and other Franklin County communities this week.

W. H. Schock of the North American firm which has been assigned the job of conducting the survey, said that "North American is contemplating an expansion in the number of employees. Before this expansion can take place, however, we must scout the housing situation and determine whether or not enough housing units are available to take care of the increased number of persons we will be able to count upon."

Schock pointed out that adequate housing in this section of Columbus would definitely prove an aid to the proposed expansion plan of his firm and asked that anyone of this community who is in position to have first hand knowledge of housing in this vicinity contact him at once at the North American plant, east of Columbus.

Despite intensive investigation by The Hilltop Record concerning the contemplated erection of a negro housing project in the vicinity of Demorest-rd and Sullivant-av, nothing more has been learned concerning the proposed addition.

An earlier report in The Hilltop Record stated that the site in question was the Demorest property, southeast corner of Demorest-rd and Sullivant-av, but investigation reveals that the property under consideration for the development is located at the southwest corner of that intersection.

Limited Parking Ordinance Becomes Effective May 16

Columbus City Council President Henry Koontz, said today that the new limited parking ordinance passed by council on April 16 limiting certain Hilltop thoroughfares to one hour parking will become effective as of Wednesday, May 16.

At some time during this next seven days workmen will begin erecting the one hour parking signs throughout the affected areas of the Hilltop and thereafter the flagrant violators of the parking ban will first be warned and then fined if they repeat violation of the ordinance.

The new measure was adopted by Columbus City Council at the behest of the Better Business Committee of the Hilltop Business Association, who pointed out that much of the congested traffic on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av is caused by all day parking in these thoroughfares. The ordinance was proposed in lieu of a plan that had suggested installation of parking meters.

Areas affected by the new city ordinance are:

Limited parking on both sides of W. Broad-st from Highland-av to Reye-av and from Westmoor to Sylvan-ave to not over one hour between 7 a. m. and 6 p. m., excepting Sundays and holidays.

Limited parking on the north side of Sullivant-av from Central to Guilford-ave, from Eureka to Burgess-ave, and from Harris to Powell-ave from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m., for not more than one hour excepting on Sundays and holidays.

A lenient enforcement of the new ruling is forseen by backers of the plan, pointing out that flagrant violators of the parking edict will be those hard hit.

Issue Advice On Molesters

The Police Department today asked the help of the public in apprehending men who attempt to molest children.

Lt. Harvey Alston, head of the Juvenile Bureau, points out that such attacks generally become more frequent with the arrival of warm weather.

He gave this advice:

"Instruct children to rebuff any attempts at friendship by strangers, and to never get into an automobile with strangers.

"Have children carry a pencil and paper to copy the license numbers of any cars which approach them.

"Report any suspicious cars and molesting attempts to police immediately."

Police issued the advice after the arrest of a 52-year-old East Side man as a suspect in molesting school children.

No Developments Reported In Alter Murder Inquiry

No new developments are reported in the Ruth Alter murder inquiry which is now going into its third week, according to Franklin County Sheriff Ralph Paul.

Paul said today, "There's nothing new at present. We lean toward the theory that something in Ruth Alter's past life will furnish us the clue which we need to break this case. At the same time we are not discounting the possibility that her murder may have been committed by a total stranger."

City Moves To Halt McKinley Dump Smoke

SHOWN ABOVE is a view of the McKinley-av dumps as they burned early Tuesday of this week, lifting a pall of putrid smoke that blanketed portions of the Hilltop and West Side. Action of city council would bring a halt to such scenes as this pictured above.

Occasionally the areas of Columbus located near the McKinley-av dumps just disappear under a cloud of smoke. But the cloud of smoke isn't part of a magic act; if it were, people wouldn't object so loudly.

As it is, the people of the Hilltop, West Side, Grandview and Arlington have lodged so many complaints on smoke from the continually burning dumps that the city of Columbus has gone to the state legislators for action. City fathers want authority to act.

Senate Bill No. 27, introduced by Sen. William H. Deddehs (R-Cincinnati), would give smoke control officials the same authority in dealing with dumps that they now have in enforcing smoke controls in industrial areas outside the city.

Harry C. Ballman, city smoke regulation engineer, cites the McKinley-av dumps the worst near the city. He said:

"When the wind blows from the west, smoke follows the Scioto right into downtown. If the wind is from the south, smoke is blown into Grandview Heights and Upper Arlington. A north wind sweeps the smoke over the Hilltop and West Side." Since we rarely experience an east wind, from the viewpoint of smoke, it's always an ill wind.

Sherick's Revue Proceeds To Go To YMCA Building Fund

Jack Sherick has again come to the aid of the Hilltop YMCA's building fund; he will donate the entire proceeds from his Hilltop Revue, scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday, June 8, in the auditorium of West High School, to the fund. Sherick donated the proceeds of last year's revue to the YMCA.

This year's show will feature over 25 outstanding dancers from West High School, as well as dancers from other schools. These include: Sheila Albery, West Broad Street Elementary; Linda Prior, John Burroughs Elementary, and Diane Doyle, Mary Magdalene.

Sherick, a Hilltopper himself, graduated from West High School in 1930. Since his graduation, he has been a dance instructor. His school is located at 2592½ W. Broad-st.

The two-hour show will feature the outstanding type of dancers upon which Sherick has built his reputation. Coaching for the production will be handled by Sherick and his staff, which includes Georgia Gay, Vicky Paige, Nancy Bailey and Mary Ann Gillivan. Mrs. Bornheim will be in charge of costuming.

Jack Sherick

Tickets for the revue are 90 cents for adults and 35 cents for children.

YMCA Membership Enrollment Campaign Termed A Success

About 115 volunteer workers were successful in collecting $2167.44 in the third annual Hilltop YMCA membership campaign on Sunday afternoon.

Very fine weather greeted the workers but was perhaps responsible for about 40% of the people not being contacted. A shortage of workers also resulted in numerous streets of the Hilltop not being canvassed as was originally planned.

Jack Downing, executive secretary of the Hilltop YMCA, also stated that persons who have been members previously and desire to renew their membership or those who intended to subscribe to membership or make a building fund contribution and were not contacted, should call the Hilltop "Y" office, JO. 4641, and a representative will pick up the membership or contribution.

Numerous larger contributions to the building fund will be forthcoming within the next few days, a survey shows. Among these will be the annual gift of $500 to the building fund made by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

A conference is a gathering of important people who singly can do nothing, but together can decide that nothing can be done.

He had heard that one is permitted a certain latitude with windows, and went in for the whole 180 degrees.

In the afternoon Mrs. Stover took the girls through the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. office. She explained the manner in which long distance calls were made and how much training was needed to be an operator.

Campbells Gain Vote of Thanks

Many patrons of the Hilltop Library and community leaders offered a vote of thanks this week to Mr. and Mrs. William D. Campbell, 3000 W. Broad-st, for their work and effort that has made it possible for residents of the Hilltop to enjoy the paintings of Columbus' outstanding artists in their own community.

The excellent exhibits of local artists on display at the library at 2955 W. Broad-st, during the past year, have been brought here by Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. Campbell, a retired art teacher from West High School, has acted as publicity agent and art critic. His wife, herself an artist of note, spent many hours making contacts and writing notes.

The two have succeeded in exhibiting the paintings of the following artists in the last few months:

John Boase, Mrs. Wendy Minnich, Mrs. Harriet Dunn Campbell, Emerson S. Burkhart, Frank Tibbits, Carolyn Bradley, Marian Gatrell, Robert Gatrell; Robert O. Chadeayne, and Ralph Fanning.

Their service to the community has brought more beauty to a spot where beauty already exists.

State School Handcraft Exhibit Is Praised By Many Visitors

By Pat Martindale

In the administration building of the Columbus State School, students proudly display exhibits that were shown at the Industrial Arts Exhibit at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel several weeks ago. Among the fifteen articles on exhibition, a wall shelf and the caning were awarded blue ribbons while weaving received a violet ribbon.

One of the outstanding exhibits on display at the Lazarus Needlework Fair was a 70 by 90 inch tatted table cloth a project in industrial work, which is a part of occupational therapy at the school. Over one hundred balls of number 30 thread were used to make the 2300 rose medallions contained in the cloth, and 30 months of work for one student.

The industrial arts, weaving and caning received many favorable comments from teachers who were in attendance.

In the manual-training classes wall shelves, bird houses, stools and wooden plaques were made for the exhibit. At present the boys are making kites of every size and description.

Students who have a talent in decorating, have the privilege of working in the paint shop as much as they wish. Some are very good in sign painting and have been able to carry on a small business of their own.

Recently the girls completed sets of matched embroidered towels and dish cloths. At present they are working on recipe books by clipping recipes and menus from magazines and pasting them in a scrap book. Many of these books are beautifully and neatly compiled. The enthusiasm in the home-economics class is high because it provides students something to educationally occupy their time and something to build their future around.

In many cases it is apparent that students have a God-given talent to makeup for their mental handicap.

The school has one of the finest of choral groups. On many special occasions they have sung their cantata arrangements for churches and other organizations. Students showing musical inclinations are schooled in either vocal or instrumental fields.

Their music not only enlightens their own souls but has enlightened the souls of many who have heard them.

Patrolman Retired

"Honor Thy Mother"

Three important days fall in May, "May Day," "Mother's Day" and "Memorial Day."

Of all of American proclaimed holidays it is our belief that "Mother's Day" is the most important of these; and rightfully so, because Mother deserves much more recognition than is given her the one day out of every 365.

Someone once said, "Mother is the sweetest word this side of heaven," and there is more truth in that statement than we sometimes realize.

When a baby learns to speak his first word it most always is "Ma-Ma," and whenever he gets hurt he invariably seeks Mother's comfort.

All of us, from babyhood to maturity, turn to Mothers for consolation, counsel and help. We know that we can depend on her for anything and everything that is good and worthwhile.

Mothers are more concerned about our welfare, suffer more over our disappointments, are happier for our successes and are credited the least for their sacrifices for us, than anyone else.

Some say that the modern parent is different. But actually they're not. After all modern youth wouldn't want old-fashioned or out-dated parents. Mothers are just a little more streamlined than they were yesteryear.

If you are fortunate enough to be one of those who will wear a pink carnation on Mother's Day remember that it's the little things that count as far as Mother is concerned.

Being kind to your parents does pay dividends. Those dividends come when you change your carnation to a white one honoring a Mother gone rather than still living. It is then you will have happy memories as well as peace of mind for having been an obedient son or daughter. It is then that you will count your Mother among the blessings God has given you.

Look Behind You, Boys

It Happened Here

Is isn't unusual to hear, "This is a woman's world," or "If women are going to do a man's job then let them be treated as men."

Time was, that when a woman became a widow, divorcee or remained unmarried she had to depend on relatives or charity for her livelihood. Now, women as well as men, have an equal chance to follow any chosen vocation.

It goes without saying that America is much better off under these circumstances, however, chivalry has seemingly become a thing of the past.

Several days ago an act of chivalry was committed on one of our local buses that put every one aboard to shame.

Traveling east this particular morning, the bus stopped at Lechner-av and W. Broad-st, and picked up a blind man. The conductor ushered him into the bus but every seat was occupied so he was left holding to one of the metal poles. Not one person appeared to notice the man so finally a middle-aged lady gave her seat to him and stood until she reached her destination. It wasn't until she started to alight from the bus that it was noticed that she was crippled.

The "person" who related this incident said, "It was a case of the crippled leading the blind and men forgetting that they were supposed to be the stronger sex. Truly, I felt like a louse the rest of the morning and I'm quite sure that many a man as well as the women on that bus felt the same."

What Is Your Opinion?

Poll On Current Questions

One of the questions being bandied about the Washington scene these days concerns abandonment of the 40-hour week as a possible solution of the nation's monetary ills and other allied ailments such as curtailed production in civilian and defense factories. Some proponents of the idea argue that elimination of the 40-hour week would materially aid the price and stabilization outlook by lowering production costs and thereby lower current high commodity prices.

Labor itself is opposed to the measure on the grounds that to eliminate the current practice, unfair advantage would be given to certain interests and thereby open the door to further depredations on the rights and privileges which labor has achieved in the past 20 years.

The question then fo the readee of this newspaper this week is: "Should the 40 hour work week be eliminated?"

Here are presented some of the pros and cons on the question:

PRO: Our labor supply is tight. The choice is between cutting civilian production and cutting defense production. Eliminating the 40-hour work-week would permit greated production. Example: an 0.4 hour increase equals adding 150,000 men to the labor force. This would increase civilian and defense supplies. By the same token it would ease spending pressures. This would cut rearmament costs, let up on the need for tax increases, and lessen the pressures on prices paid by consumers for the necessities of life.

CON: This is a twisted issue. No law prevents men from working more than 40 hours. Neither are many men unwilling to work over this. However, some selfish interests are unwilling to employ workers over 40 hours because of the extra pay involved. They are using the war crisis to destroy the needed protections labor has secured. As an example of their twisted logic: the supply of some critical materials (like steel), which hobbles production, couldn't be increased by men working 100 hours, because of business refusal to expand.

What is your opinion?

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I think The Hilltop Record is the finest weekly paper published in this state. I always read it completely. Evidently some of my friends think and do the same as I, as they too notice my name in it with an incorrect address. I was given as 490 S. Yale-av. My correct address is 168 N. Burgess-av. This is not to be destructive criticism. I realize people are not infallible. It was a very great honor to receive the advanced Masonic degrees and a privilege to be mentioned in your popular paper.

Yours sincerely,
Troy Harris

Metabolism

Interchanges of energy within the body are called METABOLISM. That energy necessary to our mere existence is called BASAL metabolism—that is, breathing, beating of the heart and other natural processes constantly going on within our bodies.

All our movements burn up energy, and in order not to "consume ourselves" and the chemical constituents of our body, we must renew ourselves with food, drink and air. Our bodies contain the seventeen chemicals listed on the illustration, hence our need for variety in diet.

Science enables the doctor to determine your individual basal metabolism and how much fuel is required for efficiency and health.

Type of work and play has something to do with this — height, weight, age, many other things enter into it.

Let your doctor help you and your family avoid the results of unbalanced nutrition, insufficient nutrition or overnutrition.

Central Nine Wallops West With Homers To Win By 11-7

By Dave Miller

Maybe the baseball individuals representing West and Central H their first round finale last Thursday at Central forgot to check the record before their game, but if they had, they probably couldn't have come closer to equalling last year's meeting.

Last season, home runs flew out of the park like nothing as West trounced the Pirates 11-7. Mo Dobbs of West and Dick Dent of Central each smacked two homers and "Hop" Cassady of the Pirates connected for one in that slugfest.

However, there's just one difference this year—quite a difference. Central was the winner, 11-7, after a few more balls went sailing out of the lot on the downtown dia-[illegible].

Dent smacked one with the bases jammed in the third for Central, but Dobbs retaliated with a four-baser with two on in the top of the seventh. Cassady made his bid, slapping one farther than Dent or Dobbs, but the wind took it foul over the left field pavilion.

Vernon Feen hurled all the way, having just two troublesome innings—the first and the last—but his troublesome teammates made short work of West's hurlers to take the contest in stride.

West looked the better of the two at the start. Dick Orr led off with an infield bingle and advanced on Ron McElwee's sacrifice. Two consecutive doubles to center by Russ Friend and Mo Dobbs brought two quickies in.

In the fourth, Bob Thornton, Cowboy hurler, loaded the bags with none down, and his first pitch to Dent was smacked high over the left field fence to put Central into a 4-2 lead.

They added a singleton in the fifth and a half-dozen more in the sixth to knock out Thornton for Jim Smith, who finally put out the fire. Hits by Roger Reynolds, Hop Cassady, Ray Blake and Ralph Bollinger were the highlights of the latter frame uprising.

West made a vain effort to tie matters in the top of the seventh but it was too much. Pinch-hitters Don Mers and Ted Fladt smacked a single and double, respectively. Orr fanned, but Russ Friend was safe on Cassady's bobble, scoring Mers. Dobbs then smacked his three-run homer over the right field fence to make it 11-6.

The other run came home on a couple more Pirate miscues, one a two-base throwing error. However, Feen bore down to fan one batter and force Al Shade to ground to third to finish matters.

Up. Arlington Eliminates West From District Diamond Tourney

West's diamond crew was eliminated in the second round of play in the Central District Class A baseball tournament staged last Wednesday at Grandview, losing to Upper Arlington, 7-0.

The day previous, the Cowboy [illegible] edged Worthington, 2-1, in order to advance to the second round.

The Cowboy bats weren't going very heavy at Grandview in the Golden Bear tussle. West's hurler, Ted Fladt, was a little wobbly in Control, and after the Bears snared a 7-0 margin in the fourth frame, the clouds started to darken and West's only hope seemed to be rain.

However, Mr. Weatherman, a cousin to Arlington, held off the buckets until the top of the seventh with West at bat where Umpire George Hardy decided to call [illegible].

West got their only run—which didn't count, however, because the inning wasn't finished—on a walk and three Arlington boots—which also didn't go in the books.

Gene Groves was the batting star for the Bears with two doubles and a one-baser in as many trips to the plate, driving in four Arlington tallies. Pitcher Tom Neal, in addition to hurling shutout ball, added a triple to the Bear cause.

Arlington wasted very little time in making quick work of West. Leadoff batter, John Kirwin, walked, [illegible] stole the net two bases, scoring on a balk, and from there onward, it was all Arlington.

The Worthington fray was a little different, although West's bats still were a bit silent when the men were on the bases.

They had one big frame—the fourth — when they scored their lone two tallies on singles by Ed Gleibs and Mo Dobbs, a walk, and a duo of Worthington errors.

This was sufficient for hurler Jim Smith, who pitched four-hit ball against the North Siders. He fanned 10 and walked only two of the Worthington hitters, whose lone tally was of the unearned variety in the fifth on a walk, fielder's choice and a Cowboy throwing error.

The same two clubs made an attempt the day previous, going three innings in the rain to a 2-2 tie, finally called at the end of the third frame because of field conditions. Eddie Gleibs' long triple to right center accounted for both the Cowboy runs in that one, in which Ted Fladt hurled two-hit ball.

Hotel Man Tells About The Smartest Move He Ever Made

It certainly gives you an awful sinking feeling to wake up and discover you're losing interest in your work and in life in general. That's enough to make anyone start worrying, and that's exactly what happened to Tommy Allen, Hotel Peabody, Memphis, Tennessee. But he acted quickly, got himself back on the track in a hurry, when he heard how HADACOL was helping folks who were rundown due to a deficiency of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin.

The wonderful results prompted him to write us a letter about his experience. Here's what he had to say: "I am a young man twenty-nine years old and have been engaged in hotel work for the past four years. I had no appetite and was losing weight. I was constantly sick at my stomach and nothing I ate agreed with me. After eating, my stomach would become bloated and feel uncomfortable. My condition was so bad that I began to lose interest in my work and life in general. I kept hearing about HADACOL and I decided to try it. Believe me that was the smartest move I ever made. After taking two or three bottles, I began to feel better and now after taking HADACOL for two months I feel fine. No more am I tortured with stomach distresses. Truly I can't begin to tell enough about HADACOL. I intend to keep on taking it for a long time."

Thousands have found real help, real hope for tomorrow, by relieving the cause of their sickness when due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron, with today's great HADACOL.

These precious elements are supplied in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And HADACOL provides helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too. They're all in a special, liquid form, already dissolved for quick, easy, absorption in the system.

Tricky appetizers add to the list of the uses of that versatile meat, dried beef. For example, make cornucopias. Spread thin strips of dried beef with chive cottage cheese or onion-flavored cream cheese. Roll into cornucopias and spear with gay food picks.

Hilltop Chest X-Ray Program To Start Thursday

Lillian Mann, chairman of clerks for the Hilltop chest X-ray program, to take place today (Thursday) and tomorrow, shows fellow committee members how all X-ray participants will register before being chest examined. Left to right are Mrs. Joyce Patterson, chairman of block workers; Mrs. Marie McGinnis, block worker; Mrs. Dorothy Williams, vice-chairman of the two-day program; and Eugene D. Williams, program chairman. All X-rays are free, provided by the Columbus Tuberculosis Society, through 1950 Christmas seal funds.

Mrs. Joyce Patterson, left, chairman of block-workers for the Hilltop free chest X-ray program, calls on a Hilltop housewife to explain the two-day project. Center is Lillian Mann. Block-workers like Mrs. Patterson have attempted to canvass all homes between Sullivant-av and W. Broad-st and Whitethorne-av and Warren-av during the past week to urge participation in the Columbus Tuberculosis Society program.

"Tuberculosis can sneak into anyone's home," said Eugene D. Williams, 69 S. Oakley-av, this morning, in urging full participation in the Christmas Seal X-ray program to start at Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church at 1:30 p. m. (Thursday).

Provided free by the Columbus Tuberculosis Society, X-rays will be given until 4:30 p. m. Thursday and again tomorrow (Friday) from 1:30 to 4:30 and 6:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Although no one wishing an X-ray will be turned away, the program is being promoted within the area bounded by Sullivant-av and W. Broad-st, Whitethorne-av and Warren-av. Everyone living or working in this 7500-population area is urged to take advantage of the free service.

An intensive promotional program has been conducted throughout the area during this past week, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joyce Patterson, in charge of door-to-door block-workers. Literature has been distributed by the Pythagorans, boys' youth group.

"Reassurance that your chest is okay can come so easily," Chairman Williams said. "You don't even undress. The machine shoots through outer clothing and underwear in seconds. Usually the report will say, 'Don't worry.' Occasionally it will say, 'See your doctor.' And when it does, this doesn't necessarily mean TB. X-rays spot other things—lung cancer, tumors, heart enlargements, even cracked ribs."

The program is sponsored by six Hilltop organizations.

Assisting Mr. Williams are Mrs. Dorothy Williams, 385 S. Highland-av, vice-chairman; Lillian Mann, 244 S. Wheatland-av; Mrs. Joyce Patterson, 225 S. Wayne-av, and Lawrence Ginn, 368 S. Highland-av.

Frankfurter spells variety. Among the host of dishes calling for franks are these:: sliced franks with spaghetti, surrounded with more plump franks; a casserole of franks and green beans seasoned with a bit of grated cheese and Worcestershire.

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Remembering Mother's Day Seems Like A Good Idea

All too often we are inclined to file away our thoughtfulness of Mother until once a year when the special day with her name on it reminds us to give her a special thought or look. That is why, if for no other reason, Mother's Day seems like a good idea.

For example, the Jewelry Industry Council points out how likely we are to accept Mother's personal possessions such as the familiar wrist watch or aging brooch as typical of her and as something she wouldn't give up for the world.

Deciding that these familiar articles are certainly a part of Mother is no mistake, but, it does not mean that she is completely satisfied with them or wouldn't enjoy new and more modern things. With this in mind we "shopped the Hilltop" so we could help you select a Mother's Day gift for the lady or ladies of your family.

One of the new style watch bands will be a welcome gift for Mother and we suggest you see those at Fritch Jewelers. They have an excellent selection to choose from and you will want to buy the woman-of-the-day some of that fine rhinestone jewelry while visiting Fritch's.

Another way to dress up jewelry which is or may some day be, an heirloom, is to take it into Meads Jewelers and have it engraved with the fitting sentiments. Meads also carry an attractive line of the latest compacts, cigarette cases and lighters. And for a special gift for her they will show you some very pretty patterns in silver plate.

At the Harmony Gift Shop you will find the emphasis this year on violets for mother. A wide variety of greeting cards and wrapping paper will feature the violet designs. They will also sell potted violets and they have several dainty cup and saucer sets which feature hand painted violets.

If you insist upon treating Mother in the everyday practical way you can still give her a lift by giving a pair of modern Tubum slippers or an attractive hosiery bag from Plastic Showroom.

For the young-in-spirit mother, Bercaw's Gift Shop has an innovation on the trinket market, a jeweled, pocket-size silent butler. No bigger than a silver dollar, it is a clever purse ornament. Besides numerous handmade articles available at Bercaw's, they carry a selection of that fine and ever popular American Milk Glass.

Manon's Gift Shop carries a wide assortment of pieces in spun aluminum, the light weight aluminum ware which is ideally cool looking for the summer season. While at Manon's you will want to see the colorful ruby glass party sets and the lovely imported hankies which always make appropriate gifts.

A gift which probably wouldn't be duplicated is one of the stunning perfume atomizers which you can see at the Hilltop Jewelers. The base of these eye-catching atomizers is clear glass into which is set flowers of various pastel shades.

The gift of gifts is also in the window at Hilltop Jewelers so at least take mother by to look! This is an anniversary clock of gleaming brass set under glass, that needs be wound only once a year —on the anniversary. The clock has a soft cream colored face decorated with small blue forget-me-nots. A really beautiful accessory for any home.

Candy and flowers, the old stand-bys are always available on the Hilltop so go out right NOW and remember Mother.

Policeman Back In The Pink Again —Says He's The "Kilroy of Old"

HADACOL Relieves Lack of Energy When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron

It takes a good man, a man that's really up and at 'em, to help keep an eye on one of the world's largest office buildings. So when Jimmy Kilroy, 1153 Belden Ave., Chicago, Ill., found himself below par . . . in a sluggish rundown condition . . . he turned to today's great HADACOL. He'd heard how this wonderful formula corrected the real cause of such troubles when due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron. As a result, he's back in shape again, loaded with energy and enthusiasm.

Here's what Mr. Kilroy has to say. "A few lines to tell you the great things your HADACOL has done for me. As a prize fighter and now as policeman assigned to one of the world's largest office buildings, I have always had to be in the best of shape. A month ago I found I was in a rundown condition, lacking energy, always tired and sluggish. And a young man one day said at one time he was the same. Advised me to buy a bottle of HADACOL, which I did. After two bottles, started feeling like myself and from there on I got new energy. Have been working in the gym 1 hour daily and everyone tells me how great I look and act. It really is a great product and I will always keep taking it. I feel like the Kilroy of old."

There's just no doubting an honest, sincere statement like that. Surely there is no need to be a burden to yourself, to your friends, or to your family, if you are suffering from such troubles due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL supplies more than the minimum daily requirements of these elements plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium. It really goes to work to build good red blood, better hemoglobin, (when Iron is needed) to make sure that the precious Vitamins and Minerals are sped to every part of the body, to every body organ. HADACOL is quickly absorbed in your system because its important elements are already dissolved in a special liquid form that's easy to take.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

Amusing herself this past week MISS HAZEL AMES had lots of fun forgetting her housecleaning for a few hours each day and spaded and prepared her flower garden for summer.

NANZEL CLARK gets to see a free show at the Westmont since her name was found within the Record ads.

Did you all see the ivory sedan Joe Robine has? That new Chevvy looks keen driving down the street.

MRS. ED MURPHY received a letter from her son in Korea who writes he misses his horse. Remember the fellow whom we'd see riding out W. Mound on his saddle? The kids all called him "Roy Rogers" because he used to wear a cowboy suit and his name also is ROY.

Spotting a blue jay in his back yard, MILTON MAYE took several shots at it—I mean with his camera, of course. MILT has a scrap book of pictures of animals and most of them are birds.

GINGER ALLEN is ED AND MARIE'S 15-year-old daughter. She used her allowance last week and made a purchase which she immediately hid from her parents. Her mother found it a few hours later. It was "Tinthair Brunette" shade. "GINGER'S hair must stay red," says MARIE—until she is out of school in three more years.

She's got it in writing. OPAL RYAN has. Her husband promised her a permanent and a dinner out on Mother's Day if she did her spring cleaning room by room. AL claims she usually has the whole house torn apart for a whole month. OPAL laughs now as she admits is really is easier to start and finish one room at a time.

"Saved by the bell" was HARRY CLINCHEY. On his day off his wife went to bridge club in the afternoon. HARRY promised to turn off the pressure cooker at a certain time. He decided to take a nap so he set the alarm clock. HARRY was aroused by the bell just as the meat started to have a burnt smell.

HOME EC. FIELD TRIP

By Anna Barr

On Apr. 30 the Hilliards High School third year Home Ec. class went on a field trip. They visited the Ohio State Nursery School in Campbell Hall. They observed small children, from the ages of two to four years, and how they are taught.

They saw the kitchen equipment arrangement and the chemistry laboratories, where the different materials are tested.

They also enjoyed a look at Mirror Lake.

Hilliards School

ON THE AIR!

By Phyllis Ball

Doc Lemon was honored by having as his guests five Hilliards High students: Ralph Woda, Catherine Massie, Lora Lu Lisle, Phyllis Ball and Marcia Stamper. This group enjoyed watching how a radio program is produced.

The object of the trip was to make the announcement of the school paper class movie, but it proved to be more entertaining. He kept the group in suspense as he threw and dropped records. He finally told that they were made of plastic.

GROVE CITY, 7 — HILLIARDS, 4

By Herb Weisenberger

After tallying four runs in the first inning, Hilliards lost a thrilling baseball game to Grove City on Thursday, Apr. 26. Hogan and Swormstedt pitched for Hilliards, allowing only seven hits. Hilliards' seven errors made it impossible to win.

Hellenthal from Grove City pitched a no-hitter after the first inning. Grove City got seven hits and had only five errors. Grove City scored three runs in the third, two in the fifth and two in the sixth.

The best part of the fiction in many novels is the notice that the characters are all purely imaginary.

Goble Cannon, 1105 Hebert St., St. Louis, Mo., says in this day and age it doesn't matter how old you are—it is how young you feel. Mr. Cannon says he's seen a lot of these young, high powered fellows just burn themselves out, while folks that know how to live never seemed to get old. Mr. Cannon says that since he has been taking HADACOL he feels as spry as a 16-year-old.

Here is what Mr. Cannon said about Hadacol when he heard how Hadacol was helping people suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron. "My job as crossing watchman for the Wabash Railroad keeps me in one place and I don't have a chance to get much exercise. I seem to get gas on my stomach and then I lose my appetite. Many times I have had nervous spells and been unable to sleep at night. Then one day I heard how other folks were being helped by HADACOL. Now the gas on my stomach has vanished, my appetite is first rate and I get a good night's sleep. And those nervous spells? I very seldom have them any more at all. I think HADACOL is mighty fine—just look what it has done for me."

The most important thing about HADACOL is that you get Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in liquid form, which means that they are quickly absorbed and dispatched to the blood stream, ready to go right to work. HADACOL helps build up blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every part of your body.

Remember

HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation — promising blessed relief for your indigestion, stomach distresses (gas, heartburn, sour "risings" after meals), as well as that general rundown condition and vague aches and pains when they are due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin in your system.

HADACOL is so amazingly successful because if your system lacks Vitamine B1, B2, Iron and Niacin it acts directly to relieve this deficiency—the real cause of your trouble. That's the kind of product you should buy—the kind you should start taking immediately.

Only One Genuine HADACOL

Don't go through life suffering those vague aches and pains if caused by such deficiencies when relief may be as close at hand as the nearest drugstore for sufferers from these deficiencies. Buy HADACOL today. Trial size bottle only $1.25. Large family or economy size, $3.50. Refuse substitutes. There's only one true and genuine HADACOL.

I know whose prayers would make me whole,
Mother o' Mine."

No love like mother-love has shone;
No other worship abides and endures,
Faithful, unselfish and patient, like yours."

DEDICATION
Deep down within my heart
I have built a sanctuary.
However my life may change,
It remains the same.
It is a pure and hallowed place.
I cherish it carefully
For it is dedicated to my mother.

Thousands of songs, poems and editorials have been written about "that old, gray-haired mother of mine," but I'd like to pay tribute to young, modern mothers. Many of them are scarcely more than babies themselves, but are rearing their children intelligently, scientifically and despite denouncers of "the younger generation"—lovingly and prayerfully. As the poets say, mother-love does not change. The modern mother loves her youngsters as deeply as did the "old-fashioned" mother, but she quite sensibly does not allow the children to monopolize all her time and energy. Interests outside the home are as essential to the well-being and happiness of all concerned, as Keeping Junior scrubbed behind the ears. Old-fashioned mothers are wonderful and deserve every word of praise they have received, but today's mothers deserve praise, too. Not long ago I heard a minister say some very uncomplimentary words about a young mother of two small children. He had called upon her and found her smoking a cigarette! at the time he admitted that her home was neat; the children clean and well-mannered. So modern mothers smoke cigarettes! One of the finest mothers I ever knew smoked a corn-cob pipe. One of her sons was a highly-respected Ohio judge. I'm through — happy Mother's Day, mothers old and young! And as a mother said last Mother's Day, while washing dishes after the big meal she had cooked for all her children who had spent the day with her, "While we're scouring pans, we will remember they love us."

On the night of April 24 I spent two enjoyable hours at Central High School, watching the Variety Show given for the benefit of Courage, Inc. Ruth McDonald, 2505 Steele-av, producer of the show, is to be congratulated for it was a big success. There were twenty acts, all by professionals who donated their time. The whole affair was hilariously MC'd by Sally Flowers and Budd Sweeney (WLW-C and WHKC, as if you didn't know). During the show, Governor Lausche's proclamation, naming Apr. 24 "Courage, Inc. Day" was read by Sally. By popular demand the show will be an annual affair. Several local funeral directors donated ambulance service. Shutins from all parts of the city were taken by them to the performance, who otherwise could not have attended. If you would like to help this worthy group of physically-handicapped persons, you may send donations to Mrs. McDonald, above address, or to Courage, Inc., P. O. Box 1492, Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. McDonald is treasurer of the organization.

Here is a daily prayer, sent in by an anonymous reader who says her grandmother gave it to her when she was a little girl, and she is 83 now: "O Lord, help me to keep silent unless I know what I am talking about."

• • •

Mrs. Trafford Ream, 208 Whitethorne-av, who has been a Camp Fire Girl Leader for some time, called to ask for names of a few Hilltop shutins. The girls of her group, the Nahtoppi Group, Woodgatherer's Rank, wanted to give potted plants to eight shutins. Mrs. Ream is justly proud of these girls; I am sure they get a lot of inspiration from her, though she modestly protested this. The girls have given toys to the State School and have done many wonderful things for the West Side Nursery and other institutions. For information as to how you may help these girls help others, please call Mrs. Ream—RA. 12714.

Following is a poem written and submitted by William Dallas Campbell, 3000 W. Broad-st. He made the notation "No changes," so here it is, as is:

O God, Thy Miracle of Spring!
O, joyous miracle of spring . . .
On the wing . . .
Your yearly, lovely fling!
I watch budding trees, from depths of deep, dark root
To tiny leaflets, silent, yet mute;
God's love afire;
Awakening desire
Sweetness over all, depicting fresh life to bring
Delectable thoughts that ring
Eternally, everlastingly! O, God, Thy Miracle of Spring!

Church of Christ Youth Fellowship Entertains Sunday

The Christian Youth Fellowship of the Hilltop Church of Christ (Disciples) will entertain the young people of Friendship House at the evening meeting this Sunday.

Worship for the evening will be under the direction of Elaine Marzluf and Alice Wilson. A treasure hunt will be the recreation, under the direction of Robert Dixon, Mary Amos and Alice Wilson.

This meeting is a return invitation since the Christian Youth Fellowship attended a meeting of the Friendship youth early this spring.

Bible Comment:

World Conquest Was Sought by Key Bible Figure

ONE of the most massive figures in the Bible wanted to conquer the world. He was neither a Communist dictator nor a barbarian tyrant.

Paul was an imperialistic Christian. To him the gospel was not a limited affair designed for the salvation of a chosen few, a sort of spiritual aristocracy. His aspirations to conquer the whole world for Christ were rooted in his conviction that any man could be saved by the gospel.

In the book of Ephesians he wrote of his desire "to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ."

If Paul had any vestige of earthly pride, it was in his Roman citizenship. Yet his vision was such that he foresaw the possibility of spreading Christianity to all the far corners of the earth and was not content with his missionary [illegible] at Rome.

The best and greatest Christians have shared the missionary purpose of Paul. They have not excused feeble efforts on the ground of the "need at home," for they have realized, as Paul did, that the spread of the gospel is the measure of its power.

It is one of the great tragedies of our times that there have not been enough Pauls to effectively combat the spread of communism abroad.

Until the Christian way of life wins over the whole world, it is likely that there will always be wars of world conquest waged.

WARREN AVENUE CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE
650 SOUTH WARREN AVENUE
Harris B. Anthony, Minister
10:45 A. M.—Morning Service.
7:30 P. M.—Evangelistic Service.

Far out past the great wing of the superliner, there is a dull, red glow in the sky. A passenger on her first trans-Atlantic trip leans forward in her seat to peer out at the sight.

She questions the stewardess, who comes forward to her seat, and says, "It might be . . ."

The stewardess checks her watch, looks out the window again. Then she straightens up and speaks again to the passenger. "Yes, we're on time, that light in the sky—that's London!"

Today, in a mere matter of hours, whole continents are joined together by air. "One world" is more than a phrase—it is fast becoming a fact. One world calls for one way. Upon that, all statesmen agree. Yet no one can agree on that way, and if agreement is not reached, there will be slight chance for one world.

If war comes again, there may be no world, as we know it, left at all.

In ten simple Commandments, the Bible offers the way to a permanent peace. It is the worldwide adoption of these Commandments for which your church works today. As a good member of your church, you can do your part to make certain that one world goes one way toward a just and lasting peace.

If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; I will give peace in the land.
—Lev. 26:3-6

A Neighborly Visit To Our Good Neighbors

It was a pleasure to be among the 125 or more members of the Hilltop Business Association who visited the Ternstedt General Motors plant last week.

Columbus, and the Hilltop in particular, can well be proud to have this fine industry which now employs some 4300 people and last year had a payroll in excess of 15 million dollars.

It was indeed a "friendly welcome" the Hilltop folks had when they paid a neighborly visit to their good neighbors to the west last week.

While down in Tulsa, Okla., last week, Curt Roberts and Bill Coon were sitting at a soda fountain attired in large western hats when a man asked, "How long do you have to be in these parts to wear a hat like that?" and the boys replied "No particular time . . . we're from Columbus, O.," whereupon they found the man who inquired was from Toledo, O.!

More Housing On Hilltop

Announcement was made today of the erection of 140 new homes in the Hilltop area. The newest of these developments slated for the community is located at Hague-av and El Paso-dr.

Patterson Home Service, handling the new development said this week that water mains are now being laid and work of construction started for the 140 new dwellings which will be of one floor, and one and one-half story type, with two and three bedrooms.

Immunization Deadline Is Set For June 1

Dog owners in the county areas were warned this week by county health officers that Friday, June 1, is the last day on which to have their dogs protected from rabies by immunization.

Dogs not immunized by that date will be picked up by the Humane Society officers and arrests of owners will follow, it was asserted.

Since the beginning of the immunization program the incidence of rabies has been on the wane, according to health officials. A few cases are still turning up, however, to accentuate the fact that the danger is still present.

West Journalism Students To Edit Record May 24

Ten West High School journalism students have been selected by members of the faculty to revive the annual custom of members of that class editing and publishing The Hilltop Record at the close of the school year.

The group selected to edit The Hilltop Record edition of May 24 are all members of 12A class with one exception. They are Delpha Linscott, Patty Pryor, Patty Sands, Sandi Timmons; Wilma Vawters, Judy Ward, Alice Wilson, Ray Fenner (12B), Carl Hartley and Dave Miller.

Survey of Township's Dwellings Will Aid Franklin Firemen in Fighting Local Fires

In one of the final steps before the Franklin Township Fire Department takes over full responsibility for the area, Fire Chief Moffitt and his crew of 20 volunteer firemen began a township-wide survey of all homes last week.

The survey, taken at every home in the area, includes a full sketch of the home and its occupants. Questions give a statistical view of fire hazards in the individual dwellings and give the fire crew possible hints on how to combat and prevent the spreading of a fire there.

Queries in the survey include: Name of road, name of occupant, location, telephone number, number of occupants in the dwelling (including adults, children and babies), type of furniture, type of heating equipment; type of fuel

High School Coaches Elect Mack Pemberton Vice-Pres.

Mack Pemberton, head football coach of West High School, Friday night at the annual banquet of the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association, was elected to the vice-presidency of that organization. Dick Barrett of Youngstown East was elected to the top post of the football mentors.

Mack Pemberton

Nearly 600 coaches attended the dinner, held at the Neil House, and the annual Ohio State Clinic at Ohio State University to hear Penn's George Munger discuss the single wing formation and Ohio State's Woody Hayes evaluate the "T" formation. Junie Ferrell of Barberton and Chuck Tlackera of Hamilton were the speakers on Saturday morning.

High spot of the annual conclave of football mentors was the intra-squad game between picked Ohio State elevens in the stadium on Saturday afternoon, when Ohio high school coaches saw Hayes reveal a power-packed squad running from the explosive "T".

Glen Ellison of Middletown, retiring president of the coaches' association, was also a speaker at the Friday banquet along with Mayor James Rhodes, Dick Larkins and Harlan Hatcher.

Aside from the fact that he was pleased to be named to the vice-presidency of the association, Pemberton said that the highlight of the evening was an address by Rev. William "Bill" Alexander of the First Christian Church of Oklahoma City. Alexander, according to Pemberton, kept the entire audience spellbound with his address.

Two Injured As Auto Strikes Tree

Two men were injured as their auto struck a tree at Glenview-blvd and Wheatland-av when they failed to make a turn.

William P. O'Reilly, 20, 1237 Wilson-av, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for head and knee injuries and William C. Voorhis, 20, 162 Wisconsin-av, received face and head lacerations.

West Beaten By St. Charles In One-Hitter

West High's baseball team dropped a game Tuesday, to St. Charles, 2-0, in spite of a one-hit game pitched by Jim Smith.

Smith was hurling a hitless game in the fifth inning when he fanned Roy Gutmann and his catcher dropped the ball. A quick run and a slide found Gutmann on base. St. Charles' Bob Planck was walked, Bob Knipfer got a hit, four bases were stolen and St. Charles won the game on their one hit.

Hilltop Man Is Named To OPS Food Post

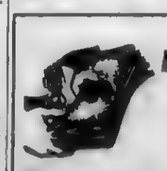
Appointment of George F. Gorsuch as business analyst in the food division of the Office of Price Stabilization was announced this week by Clyde C. McBee, district price executive.

Gorsuch has been manager of the Kirby Elevator Grain and Food, Inc., for 11 years. Previous to managing this concern the new official was employed by the Chief Dairy Products Co. for three years.

He is a member of the Elks Club, the Wyandot Sportsman Club and the Lions. Gorsuch lives with his wife and two children at 28 S. Burgess-av.

Elementary Public Schools Plan For Fall Enrollments

Teachers and officials of the Public Elementary Schools in the Hilltop area this week sounded a call for aid in planning their fall classes and enrollments as they asked for parent cooperation.



The schools point up their need to know the number of children who will be eligible for kindergarten and first grade at the beginning of the fall semester.

To enter kindergarten a child must be five years of age before Dec. 31, 1951. To enter the first grade a child must be six years of age on or before Dec. 31.

School officials point out that it is much better for the children if they do not have to be changed from teacher to teacher, in order to make up classes they did not anticipate.

Parents who have a child who will be five or six on or before Dec. 31, 1951, are urged by school heads to either write or call one of the four elementary schools in this area as soon as possible in order that plans for this fall can be properly made.

The four schools to which the information may be addressed are John Burroughs Elementary School, 2585 Sullivant-av, RA. 4500, West Broad Street Elementary, W. Broad-st at Hague-av, RA. 6671; West Mound Street Elementary, RA. 3949, and Highland Avenue Elementary, 34 S. Highland-av, RA. 1884.

Hilltop Flyer Missing After Jet Crash

First Lt. Lee G. Schlegel, 25, West High School graduate, whose family lives at Springfield, is missing after his jet fighter crashed in North Korea, the Defense Department reports.

The officer was a former member of "Sabre Dancers," a jet-fighter acrobatic team which flew North American Sabre planes. He lived in Columbus until eight years ago.

Lt. Schlegel was flying a reconnaissance mission over enemy lines at low altitude. His plane was seen to crash in flames after it was struck by a burst of small arms fire. The air force said that there was no reason to believe he had survived the crash.

He is the nephew of Mrs. P. A. Knight, 36 S. Huron-av, and the son of Col. and Mrs. L. G. Schlegel, Springfield. His wife is society editor of the Riverside, Calif., Press-Enterprise.

Mr. Robinson, who lived on Olentangy River-rd near Powell, was active in many sports events including hunting and fishing. He was a four-letter man at South Main School and a boxing champion at Ohio State University his alma mater. Following college he spent several years in the automobile business before learning appliance salesmanship with the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. He started his own business in 1932.

Survivors include his wife, Louise; two daughters, Lynda Lou and Roxanne; two sisters, Mrs. Russell W. Martin and Mrs. Ruth R. Peters; two brothers, John Q. Robinson, Hilliards, and G. Dudley Robinson, Rocky River, O.

Alter Probe Near Break

BULLETIN

Lt. Lee Bauman, acting chief of the detective bureau, said at noon Wednesday that several West Side women were to be questioned in the Ruth Alter slaying.

Bauman was optimistic Wednesday, saying, "We are making progress in this case now and I feel sure that we are going to be able to solve it. How soon the break will come I don't know but I'm certain that this will not be an unsolved case."

Despite a flurry of activity by Columbus detectives, sheriff's deputies and other investigators, plus the fact that a daily newspaper and county commissioners posted rewards, Sheriff Ralph Paul today denied any immediate break in the now more than three-week-old murder of Ruth Alter.

Sheriff Paul reiterated his statements of last week in saying that he was still of the opinion that somewhere in the background of Ruth Alter's life would be found the answer to the baffling murder mystery.

Galbreath Reveals Purchase For New Housing Development

A contract for 1180 acres in the "Turner Tract" was signed by John W. Galbreath & Co. and a title to 218 acres of the land recorded Monday.

The sale of the extensive "Turner Tract" and the projected construction of a Westinghouse plant on 263 acres of the land was reported in the Apr. 26 issue of The Hilltop Record.

According to the recent announcement from the Galbreath office, 2500 homes will be erected on the site within five years, as well as extensive multi-dwelling units.

The spokesman said that work on the housing development would not begin until water mains and sewers are extended to the area. The city has been investigating the possibility of laying such facilities.

The purchased land, adjoining the Ternstedt plant site which occupies part of the original "Turner Tract", runs west from near Georgesville-rd to New Rome and north and south of W. Broad-st.

Basing the price of the transaction on tax stamps attached to the deed, the total indicated was above $3 million. The property was acquired from Mrs. Nan A. Turner, widow of the late Judge Edward C. Turner, former Ohio Supreme Court justice, and their son, Carl R. Turner.

Two railroads—the Pennsylvania and the New York Central systems—adjoin the property, which will be opened for industrial projects and commercial buildings.

Reports state that Seward Mott, chairman of the subdivision committee of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, will be asked to handle the tract's subdivision.

A 263-acre section of the tract is under consideration by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. for the construction of an $8,000,000—6,000 employee aircraft plant. The plant construction reportedly will begin in the near future, after the area is furnished with necessary facilities.

The Galbreath spokesman said that the Westinghouse negotiations are currently at a standstill.

Hilltop Lions Club Prepares For Paper Sale This Monday

Chairman John D. Dickson, 24 N. Powell-av (left) and co-chairman Francis C. Higgins, 232 S. Harris-av, are busy men these days preparing for the Hilltop Lions Club annual Sight-Saving newspaper sale which is scheduled to be held Monday, May 21. Hilltop Lions will cover the entire Hilltop area from the State Hospital west to the city limits and from Eakin-rd north to the NYC railroad between the hours of 6:30 and 9 p. m. During Monday afternoon they will canvass all Hilltop business areas in their drive to aid sight conservation.

Local YMCA Plans Clean-Up Thursday Night On Enrollments

Tonight in the final phase of the Hilltop YMCA membership enrollment round-up volunteer workers will contact those persons who were not at home during the main enrollment campaign held Sunday, May 6. The YMCA workers will meet tonight at the "Y" office, 2502 W. Broad-st, at 6:45 p. m. to receive their membership kits and final instructions from Round-Up Chairman Ben Knepper.

The round-up stands presently at 10 percent below its stated goal. The volunteer workers representing interested citizens, service and civic clubs on the Hilltop, hope to surpass the needed 10 percent to push the membership over the goal set this year at $2200.

Two factors combined to stymie the best efforts of volunteers this year, excellent summer weather and a shortage of workers. An estimated 40 percent of Hilltop residents were not contacted in the original door-to-door canvass.

Workers are particularly interested in reaching those who wish to renew previous memberships, and those who intended to subscribe to membership or contribute to the building fund. Anyone not contacted in this "clean-up" canvass is requested to call the Hilltop YMCA office, Je. 4641 or drop in in person and look over the "Y".

Membership cards for those who joined May 6 will be mailed shortly.

Two From Area Place High In Scholarship

Two high school pupils from this area, one from West High and the other from Grove City were named among the 242 Ohio students taking top honors among 13,996 who participated in the final District-State Scholarship Test. The tests were given on 18 college and university campuses May 5 and the results were announced today by Dr. Clyde Hissong, state director of education.

In the chemistry test James Howard Richardson of Grove City, ranked seventh in a field of 537 participants. His score was 128 out of a possible 150.

Carole Elaine Cristee of Columbus West High took second place honors in the French II test with a score of 145 out of a possible 150. A total of 165 students participated in the test.

The tests were given in 21 subjects taught in grades 9, 10, 11 and 12 and more than 800 high schools were represented. All participants were selected to represent their school on the basis of the results of the Preliminary District-State Scholarship tests administered to 89,506 high school boys and girls in more than 900 high schools.

Both local students will receive state certificates of recognition for having scored in the highest ten per cent of the subject in which they were tested.

This group stuffed 4000 envelopes and did a fine job. They are Rodney McCloud, Dee Holman, Joan Sessor, Dave Milks, Frank Keffer, Kate Keffer, Lucille Johnson, Betty Johnson, Ronnie Ogden, Stan Fethreroff, Jerry Hummell, Bob Young, Albert Bennett, Billy Karn, David McDaniel, Dick McClain, Alan Strickler, Colley Long and Kenny Saunders.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

Misery loves company. Poor MRS. LEE LAWSON was all set to do a week's washing, when her automatic washer snapped off and refused to start last Monday, so she had to wait a couple of days more before two new parts of machinery were replaced.

Then her neighbor ALICE CORDER, across the street, had the misfortune of her clothesline breaking the same day. They were talking it over, and neither knew a "chuck-chuck."—it might be a which catastrophe was the worst.

If you hear a "cheep-cheep" or "chimp-chimp," HAL ROBERTS got a little monkey from his cousin in South America. It was sent by express. We wonder how long his wife, HELEN, will let him keep it. She insists she's going to forget to feed him his meals—and on purpose!

Got a card from ARDITH and BILL PRINDLE in California. BILL is in the air corps and ready for his missions "across". They drove out, and we expect ARDITH to drive back one of these days.

"Just a hop, skip and a jump to the bus line", says JIM GARRITY who has to walk three blocks to the car line. The walk is a cinch compared to the trudging he did before he moved here from his farm near Galloway.

No kidding—he went and done it! Yep—"POP" WALDRON bought a bike all for his own exercise. He says it's cheaper than a car and better for his health. You're right, there, POP!

BERNARD FLOYD has his boat going up and down the river these days. He gives his friends and neighbors lots of fun when they go up there for a check on him.

Ain't it awful that we can't all drop our work and go on hikes as our sons did last week? BILL HITCHCOCK, their chaperone, was a sport to journey them all the way out to West Jefferson. They stayed all night—but the next day, not one walked back. They thumbed—and I can't say I blame them.

I wish I could thumb my way out of some of this Spring Cleaning wifey has me started on. I'm keeping it at a medium speed—cause if I go too fast, she says I'm not doing a good job; and if I go slow, she complains I'm a slow poke. Can't win.

And people still get married!

Hilltopper Directed Motion Pictures in World War II

J. Curtis Allen

The transition from motion picture photography to portrait photography is a difficult one, but it was made by J. Curtis Allen, Hilltop photographer.

Allen, whose studios occupy the entire second floor at 2375½ W. Broad-st, worked with the Warner Brothers motion picture studios in Hollywood, Calif., for seven years prior to his entry into the air force.

While he served with the air force, Curt was in charge of confidential equipment (bomb sights, electronics and photographic equipment) for an 11-state area in the Air Technical Service Command. He held the rank of Lt. Colonel.

His motion picture experience was utilized by the air force when he served as technical director and occasionally an actor in 37 training films produced in Hollywood. He aided in the production of such films as "Target For Today," "Hollandia," and "30 Seconds' Over Tokyo."

After he received his discharge from the AAF in 1945, Allen set up a studio in Zanesville, but soon moved to the Hilltop.

Married, the father of an eight-year-old daughter, Elma Jean, a student at West Broad Street Elementary School, Allen resides at 221 N. Ogden-av.

He is a member of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, the Society of Motion Picture Directors and Producers, and the American Technical Society.

Fire Survey

used, where stored and amount; location of master switch; location of gas shut-off; type of water supply and location.

Each home will then be listed in a statistical card file within easy access to the man in charge of the department's communications system. Whenever a fire call comes through the switchboard, he can check at a moment's notice the necessary details on the dwelling, it can be located immediately and all precautions for its occupants and the building itself can be taken without unnecessary searching for master switches, etc.

Commenting on the new system, Chief Moffitt said, "The card file will make it possible for us to be prepared for conditions we will meet when we go to a fire. It will cut time wasted in preliminary action to fighting the fire, considerably."

The survey began in the area protected by the San Margarita Fire Department. Upon the completion of that area, the survey will shift to the central station's locale and then to Briggsdale.

After the card file is compiled, a card bearing the central switchboard's fire number will be given to each resident.

Mrs. A. E. Wagner Observes 91st Birthday

Mrs. A. E. Wagner

Mrs. A. E. Wagner, 2292 W. Broad-st, celebrated her ninety-first birthday last Monday.

Mrs. Wagner, confined to her bed for the past eight years, has been a Hilltopper since she was driven from her West Side home by the 1913 flood. At that time she came to live with her son, George Wagner, at the Broad-st address.

The diminutive, white-haired little lady, celebrated her birthday as she has so many, in bed, doing exquisite crocheting and needlework. The fine knots and intricate designs seem to flow from her fingers.

Her work is more than just a hobby, for she sells the delicate things she creates. Buyers come and talk and visit with the mother of two sons and three daughters. Her products bring her needed visitors, for she hasn't been out of room for eight years.

This year's birthday brought her 88 prized cards from all parts of the state. Some names on the cards she didn't recognize. "Probably children of friends or people I knew at church," she said.

She makes babies' booties, mittens, jackets; pot-holders, sachets, doilies, and other flaswork with hook and needle.

Mrs. Wagner's other son is Chester "Chet" Wagner of 627 Williahire-rd. Her daughters are Mrs. A. C. Skipper, 143 N. Terrace-av; Elizabeth Wagner, 1704½ Highland-av, and Mrs. Mary Brown, 2293 W. Broad-st.

IN MEMORIAM

SHROYER—In loving memory of our beloved husband and father, Wylie S. Shroyer, who passed away one year ago today, May 17, 1950.
Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile.
They little know the heartache,
That the smile hides all the while.
Days of sadness still go before us,
Secret tears do often flow.
But memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he died one year ago.
Sadly missed by wife and family,
Mrs. Katie I. Shroyer

The United Hospital Fund

The United Hospitals Building Fund has reached the two-thirds mark in its $6,750,000 campaign and the final third is expected to be raised in a broad public campaign to be conducted during the next six weeks.

The sum of $4,305,000 is now in hand or pledged for construction in the seven non-profit hospitals of the federated program. The remaining $2,445,000 is scheduled to be brought into the Fund by the last week in June when the activities will be completed of the corporations, memorial gifts, doctors, selective public campaign and employee solicitation committees.

The population of a large region outside of the city depends almost completely on Columbus hospitals in times of illness and injury. The residents of these communities have an important stake in the success of the building fund, and will be given every opportunity to participate.

The new University Hospital will help relieve some of the difficulties. But, the programs of the new University Hospital and the United Hospitals Building Fund are both part of a community-wide master plan. Widespread modernization and enlargement of the voluntary nonprofit hospitals in the city is essential to correct conditions that threaten the health protection of the area.

The hospital system has been enlarged only three percent in a period when the population has more than doubled. The public has never been asked to contribute to a hospital building project in Columbus and the United Hospitals Building Fund is a once-in-a-lifetime program.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

There's a question as to how long a man can spend billions of other people's money without becoming dizzy. Around Washington it is wondered if William C. Foster, head of ECA which gives billions away under name of Marshall Plan has not reached that point.

C. W. Harder

Foster announces Western European industrial production is 40% more than 1938, export trade up 50%, farm crops up 10% more than 1938. In other words, Europe on statistics, never had it so good. Yet more billions to give away are wanted.

Few days later, Foster announced that European cartels, or monopolies, are big stumbling block in average man being prosperous.

Assailing European trusts that curtail production, fix prices, Foster told a St. Louis audience, "Too many Europeans follow the practice of small production with high unit profits. Instead, management must become imbued with the idea of high production, lowering the costs of production, passing the benefits of lower costs to buyer and worker."

So after giving away billions of American taxes, in free goods, including a half billion in tobacco alone, Foster finds answer that Gen. Douglas MacArthur found without giving away a cent.

Japan has made great recovery stride, despite atom bombings, despite no Marshall Plan gifts. But one of the first things MacArthur administration did was break up four big trusts that had controlled Japan.

That is probably one reason why MacArthur fell into disfavor in Washington where efforts are being made to extend monopolies in America.

England and France probably had other reasons for pressuring MacArthur dismissal, too. They wanted to keep goose laying golden eggs their way.

In this connection Foster either took bureaucratic license with facts or doesn't know what is going on when on first of month he announced Marshall Plan gifts to Britain were suspended as of January 1, 1951.
